The Details of the New Reconstruction Scheme.

The following "special" from Forney's paper the Philadelphia Inquirer, explains the origin of the new reconstruction scheme,

In reference to the demand of the people of the North, and in which Southern representa-tive men who have been heard upon the subject acquiesce, the President thinks that the negro population of the South have such safeguards thrown about them as to secure them the pos-manent enjoyment of their freedom, and that the negro, armed with the ballot, can as isell protect himself as any other citizen.

Some of the Northern States, Massachusetts and New York for example, have given the ballot to the negro. In one of them is an educational, in the other a property qualification, and it is asked why may not South Carolina. and it is asked why may not South Carolina, for instance, be placed upon the same footing with Massachusetts as to those who shall here after be admitted to the elective franchise, and why may not the loyal representatives of the former be admitted to Congress upon the same former be admitted to Congress upon the same footing as the representatives of the latter? Marking out this plan in a practical form, let the people of the State of South Caralina so amend their constitution and laws to extend the elective franchise so far as Massachusetta has

As an incentive to this reform, the President intimates his readines to issue a preclamation of amnesty to all the people of South Carolina, who may have approved the movement. This reform being accomplished, the people of that reform being accomplished, the people of that State electing loyal representatives to Gongress, blacks voting with whites, as indicated above, it would then rest with Coogress to determine whether these representatives should be admitted. I have good reasons for saying this plan for adjusting the existing difficulties in the way of reconstruction is now receiving the serious consideration of the Administration, and has been discussed in the Cabinet with a view to its adoption. It differs from Mr. Greeley's amnesty suffrage scheme in that it provides for separate State action and proposes a qualified suffrage; and it leaves impracticable and unrepented rebels still subject to the penaltics for pented rebels still subject to the penalties for treason—amnesty and suffrage each being qual-ified. It leaves States to the exercise of their constitutional prorogative of prescribing the qualification of voters and extending the elective franchise to the negro; to the Executive the dispensation of pardon and amnesty, and to the Legislative the admission of local representatives to the respective Houses in Congress, each branch of the Government thus moving in the appropriate subgre-

REVIVAL OR A STRAMBOAT. HOR. T. I. Chi. REVIVAL ON A STRAMMOAN.—Hon. T. Le Chal-hore narrates the following incident: On Sem-day last he was on board of the steamer R. H. Lee, coming to New Orleans, and the Rev. C. K. Marshall, of Mississippi, one of the most elo-quent divines in the country, was also a passen-ger on the same boat. Heing on intimate terms with the reverend gentleman, Col. C. requested him to deliver a sermon to his fellow passengers and the crew. and the crew.

Obtaining an assent to his proposition, there were soon collected in the cabin not only a large number of passengers, but all the attac the steamer—both white and black—who could be spared from their regular duties. Mr. Marshall took his stand under the chandelies in the ladies cabin, and selected the subjoined text: "Righteousness exalteth a nation." The ioliowed an eloquent discourse upon personal, religious and national topics, such as is seldom listened to, and its effect upon the many personal present was heightened by the strange surroundings. We are assured by several of our prominent citizens who happened to be among the andience, that never was their feelings so worked upon by the words of an orator, and that at one time there was accreely a dry eye to be seen. a white and blacktime there was scarcely a dry eye to be seen.

At the conclusion of the sermon, the assem At the conclusion of the sermon, the assem-blage, as if by spontaneous accord, burst forth in that grand old doxology: "Praise ye the Lord," which was sung with great effect. Nev-er before has such a scene been witnessed on a steamboat and the memory of that Sabbatis evening service, out on the broad bosom of the Mississippi, will long live in the minds of those who participated therein.

Broom Conn.—As there is constantly an increasing demand for broom corn, it has become one of the staple articles of produce in this country, and a most profitable crep to raise in certain sections, by those who understand it; for in this, as in anything else, you must understand what is to be done, and how to do it. Soil that will grow Indian corn, will also produce good broom corn. Never prepare soil for the culture of broom corn. Never prepare soil for the culture of broom corn. Never prepare soil for the culture of broom corn, that produces poor Indian corn, if you do not wish to map the same results in return. The soil should not be plowed long before planting, and it may be prepared in the same manner as for Indian corn, while care is taken to have the ground thoroughly harrowed. In selecting the seed great care should be exercised in purchasing the very best that can be procured, as it is a crop that deteriorates rapidly, and the seed should be changed often.

Bome advocate changing the seed as often as FIFTEEN UNEMPROVED TOWN LOTS. BROOM CORN .- As there is constantly an in-changed often.

Some advocate changing the seed as often as every other year, in order to accure a good crop of fine brush. To be certain that the seed is perfectly good, it is always best to test some of it by sprouting before planting; many a failure of securing a good crop has arisen in consequence of neglecting to test the seed; too much caution, therefore, cannot be exercised in this respect. From the 10th of May to the 10th of June is the usual time for planting; but generally it is best to put in seed about the 20th of May. In planting by hand, mark off the field May. Io planting by hand, mark off the field in rows three feet apart, and drop eight or tea sceds in a hill, the hills being about eighteen inches apart, and cover with a hoe about an iach deep with fine moist earth. Where large fields are plasted, a seed planter can be used to great advantage. Rural American.

nuite a demonstration of apprehentice, and, as he thought, with great success. What was his astoniahment, after having received the congratulations of several friends at the close of the day's proceedings, to be greated by Mr. Benton, who, taking him aside, said:

"Certainly, sit," was the reply. "I shall feel "Well, sir," said Mr. Benton, "your speech was exceedingly brilliant; it sparkled with wit; it was funny; they laughed heartily at it; but never do such a thing here again if you wish to advance as a statesman and politician."

"What" and the astonished debutant, "never make a speech?"

"No, sir, not that; but don't make people laugh," replied Benton.

"Not make people laugh, Mr. Benton! Why it requires some genius to make a witty speech."

"True, sir; but the public has a poor appreciation of genius. You must gain a reputation for wisdom, not wit. You can gain a reputation of genius in Company by not appeaking a sin-for wisdom in Congress by not speaking a single word during the session."

"A reputation for wisdom?" "Certainly. Sit still and look wise. Man kind is prone to reverence the solemn ass !"

THE FUBLISHERS, determined to exact all their energies, look with nondeano to the new year for such an increase of patronage as will onable them to enlarge the mechanism of Take Farmes, and make it a still more desirable necdium for advertisors.

Scheckeritors.—The forms of subscription have been made so low and reasonable as to place it within the reach of all who may desire it; and in view of the great intersects to be served by an extensive circulation, we confidently expect the hearty, co-operations of many in those sections of the country not now emphised with a great Agricultural Journal.

These or fundamentation:—For a single copy see Having isen appointed agent for the above Company, I respectfully call the attention of the elisement of this section of North Carolina, to the fact that this is a Southern Company with an authorized Capital of $500.060. It's business is ably conducted, by infinential, reliable and wealthy citizens of Tennessie. It has the finest references, and has always been exceedingly prompt in its intyments, as can be shown by its records, being establised by wealthy gentlemien. It takes both Life and Era risks as terms as low as any Eastern Company.

This Company is just being introduced into its sister State and I hope it will be well patronized.

Let us support and encourage each other and tasp all our money at home.
