LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

Anxiety for the Swatara's Arrival—The Radicals Petting Grant.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.

Everybody now seems to be on the qui vive for the arrival of the steamer Swatara with Surratt on board, the last of this month having been regarded as about the time when that vessel would make her appearance. The Navy Department has received no information since her departure from Lisbon. The first news would probably come via Fortress Monroe, as the steamer would be most likely to call there en route to Washington. The Radicals are counting upon exciting revelations when the prisoner does arrive.

The extremists are again coquetting with Gen. Grant. What their game is, it is difficult to mention; but many are of the impression that they are anxious to get in his good graces, and so have his assistance in any undertaking they may commence next session. They are already claiming that he is with Congress in its policy; but there are many daily indications to give the denial to all this. Butler, however, does not chime in this eulogy of Grant. TYROS.

Bill Simpson's Legal Experience.

Many years ago the Legislature of Tennessee passed an act to organize the county of McNairy, alias Snake. At that time, the county embraced in the limits of Snake, was occupied by a sturdy set of backwoodsmen, totally unacquainted with courts, jails, &c. The county assembled at the appointed site for the purpose of cutting logs, making boards, etc., to build a courthouse and jail. The only theme of daily conversation, when the men were assembled, was the court, etc. None of them had ever seen a court in session, as yet developed. Each one would give what his idea of a court was, etc.

None, however, were entirely satisfactory, until Bill Simpson was called upon to give his ideas. He said he knew all about a court—that he had had a lawsuit in North Carolina. One of his neighbors hogs kept coming when he fed his hogs, until it got fat. One morning he got so d——d mad that he shot the hog. He thought it would not do to throw it away, so he cleaned and salted it. Shortly after, his neighbor and a man came to his house, examined the smokehouse, and took him to town and put him in a little office. About three months after that, this man came and took him up to a large room. A large man sat upon a high bench—a man was sitting at a desk—about a dozen fine dressed men sat in a place that was paled around. The man put me in a pen just behind them.

He then called in twelve men; they took seats in a box in front of the fine dressed men. The man that was writing gave the twelve men a book and said something about Bill Simpson and State. Then one of the fine men read something about Bill Simpson and the hog, and he and another of the fine dressed men had the biggest quarrel you ever heard. I thought they would fight every minute but they didn't. It was Bill Simpson and the hog, and the hog and Bill Simpson, and sometimes Mr. Simpson, but d——d seldom. After they had quit quarreling, the big man talked awhile to the twelve men, and they went out and staid a short time, and came back and said something to the man at the desk. The man on the bench said something to the man that put me in office, and he took me out and tied me to a persimmon tree and commenced fighting me with a cowhide, and it made me so d——d mad that I shook all the persimmons off the tree.—Winchester Home Journal.

THE RADICALS PLEASED BECAUSE THE SOUTH REJECTED THE AMENDMENT.—An effort will soon be made to take up Mr. Sumner's resolution declaring the twenty-six States which are represented in Congress, including Tennessee, to be the only ones competent to pass upon constitutional amendments. The Radicals now express considerable gratification at the unfavorable action of the Southern Legislatures on the Constitutional amendment proposed by Congress last summer. They say that it is not strong enough, and after the passage of Mr. Sumner's or some similar resolution excluding the Southern States from the right of participating in the adoption of amendments to the Constitution, it is the intention of the majority here to submit an amendment of a much more stringent nature.—Sun.

A NEW PROGRAMME.—A Washington correspondent of the New York Commercial writes to that paper:

There are indications that, before long, Congress will assume a more conservative attitude on the treatment of the States recently in rebellion, and that President Johnson will lead him at the protection of loyal men, so that they, and not rebels, will control public affairs. The details of this new programme, which will be acceptable to Congress, and which the President can carry out without any sacrifice of dignity or of principle, are for the present kept private; but it is well known that the arrangement exists in embryo.

Mr. Davis's Capture.

Secretary Stanton transmitted to the Senate to-night a copy of the report of Major-General Wilson of the capture of Jefferson Davis. It includes the reports of the subordinate officers sent out to prevent the escape of Mr. Davis across the Mississippi river, including that of Lieutenant Colonel Pritchard, of the Fourth Michigan cavalry, who made the capture. Not one word is said in these official reports of Mr. Davis having been taken in any costume but his own. Had it been otherwise it would certainly have been stated. This is a miserable slander promulgated at the time, now refuted in the quarter where it might have been denied from the first, but was not.

1867. "THE WORLD" 1867.

THE ATTENTION OF THE PUBLIC IS INVITED to the claims of "THE WORLD" as one of the leading public journals of the country. It is the chief organ of the Democratic Party of the United States, and the foremost advocate of the immediate restoration of the Union. Its highest merit consists in its character as An enterprising and Trustworthy Newspaper.

The next year bids fair to be a more critical one in the history of our free institutions, than even any of the eventful ones that have preceded it. The first requisite for an intelligent judgment of public affairs is a full and authentic account of facts as they transpire. These THE WORLD always aims to give with conscientious accuracy, and with equal fullness and fidelity, whether they make for or against its own views of public policy. Prompt activity in spreading before its readers every kind of news in which any part of the public takes an interest, is the first duty of a newspaper, and the facilities of THE WORLD for discharging this obligation are unsurpassed by those of any journal in the United States. Whatever else it may fail to do, certainly it will not fail to furnish the news, nor to supply it with such promptitude, spirit, freshness, abundance, variety, accuracy, and candor, that no class of readers can miss anything of interest which they wish to find. THE WORLD will publish documents and arguments prepared by political foes just as freely as those prepared by political friends, making its own comments on them, of course, but never suppressing or garbling them because they are calculated to damage its own party. Adverse arguments which it cannot refute, it is content to leave to make their full impression. THE WORLD adopts this rule, because it believes no other is honest; because it conceives that its first duty to its readers is to keep them thoroughly informed on every passing subject of importance.

A PROPOSITION.

IN WHICH YOU ARE INTERESTED.

I PROPOSE for the protection of the citizens of Raleigh and surrounding country, against the imposition of those so-called Cost Stores, to furnish each and every person, the New York Cost of any goods they may want to buy; by this means they can tell whether they are buying goods at Cost or paying a profit on them.

Call before going to any of those Cost Stores so-called, and let me give you a memorandum of Cost prices.

Most of my large stock I will sell at cost but I have goods that I will not sell in that way, and neither will those merchants who make such a flourish about selling at Cost.

No merchant in this place has purchased his Goods any cheaper than I bought mine. Any assertion to the contrary is false; and I will guarantee to sell Goods as low as any Cost House. All I ask is an opportunity to prove the truthfulness of this assertion.

AN INVALUABLE DISCOVERY,
BY WHICH
Water can be Turned into Money.

Truly has it been said, "That the riches of this world, lie buried in the bowels of the earth." The precious metals that are daily taken from thence, readily procure all the luxuries and comforts,—save, the great boon to the sick, Health—without which, life is a burden, and the millions of the Rothschilds' would fail to secure.

To females suffering from Leucorrhea, (or Whites, as it is commonly called,) I, as a Physician of many years experience, would say, that you need not longer endure a miserable life of pains, aches and general debility, or weakness, the consequence of this deplorable disease.

All Physicians, of modern teaching, will admit the great difficulties in arresting this destroyer of health, for various reasons unnecessary to mention. Patients suffering therefrom will as readily agree, that medicines, however carefully prepared and used fail, in most instances, to afford relief; and in many, from long continuance, produce debility, thereby increasing the malady they were expected to relieve.

Deeming it a great privilege to be a public benefactor, and add to the comforts of the afflicted, by placing before them means of relief, I here give the history of a few cases of great interest that have fallen under my professional care.

Mrs. ——, a lady of the highest standing in the city of Charlotte, N. C., had been an incessant sufferer from Leucorrhœa for three years. Her cheeks were blanched, her skin always cold and almost transparent—in fact she seemed not to have a red corpuscle in her body. So weak was she, that it was with great difficulty she could ascend a flight of stairs, without feeling faint and exhausted. Palpitation of the heart, head-ache, and a dizziness in the head, besides excruciating pains in the back, together with a bearing-down sensation in the region of the womb, were constant and alarming. Notwithstanding they were but symptoms of extreme debility, induced or kept up by the never ceasing drain from her system. In this condition, every means at my command was used for her relief. Remedy after remedy was tried. Every means recommended by our modern authors proved worthless in her case. Hearing of the case of a servant, whom I had formerly treated, (belonging to Mr. Cross,) having been very much benefitted by this mineral water, I resolved, (without further inquiry,) as the last resort, to recommend it for its use. Anxious to be restored once more to health, she readily acceded to my proposition, and visited this well daily. Soon improvement was visible, and in the short space of three months her health was entirely restored. A living monument to the great curative virtues of this water.

The next case of great interest is that of the servant woman already spoken of. Seven years previous to the discovery of this well, Mr. Cross engaged my services in the care of this woman. I made most careful examination and searched out all of the particulars of her history. She had suffered for 18 years with Leucorrhœa, and being sorely afflicted therefrom, it was universally known in our community, that she was the martyr of the town. I found her with all of the distressing symptoms attending this malady, and could only afford her temporary relief. Time passed on, and still her afflictions did not abate. She abandoned all hope of recovery, and resolved to take no medicines, but to resign herself to the fate which seemed to await her. Her master just then having discovered this well, advised that she should drink freely of the water, as it might be of some benefit to her. Like a drowning man catching at straw, she tried it, and improvement was soon perceptible. Perseverance was crowned with success, and this day she is a strong and healthy woman, and can be seen at the residence of her former master, and will take great pleasure in relating, in detail, to any visitors, the history of her case.

Many other cases known to us, of equal interest, have been cured, and others are being daily benefitted.

It is to be regretted that the pecuniary embarrassments incident to the late war preclude the idea of Mr. Cross' fitting up this valuable property, as a resort for invalids. Under these circumstances, the owner (Mr. George Cross, of Charlotte, N. C.) is willing to dispose of his property at the very reasonable price of $10,000 in U. S. currency, and will communicate with any one either by letter or personally.

The plantation of 100 acres of fine and productive land is situated within one and a half miles of the city of Charlotte, N. C., immediately on the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad. A fine residence, with modern improvements and conveniences, together with all necessary buildings attached, have just been completed, and to capitalists seeking investments no finer inducements could be offered.

BY ELLIOTT & SHIELDS.

THE PUBLISHERS, determined to exert all their energies, look with confidence to the new year for such an increase of patronage as will enable them to enlarge the usefulness of THE FARMER, and make it a still more desirable medium for advertisers.

SUBSCRIPTION.—The terms of subscription have been made so low and reasonable as to place it within the reach of all who may desire it; and in view of the great interests to be served by an extensive circulation, we confidently expect the hearty co-operation of many in those sections of the country not now supplied with a good Agricultural Journal.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:—For a single copy one year, $2.00

CLUB RATES:—Five copies one year for $10.00; ten copies one year for $18.00; fifteen copies one year for $27.00; twenty copies one year for $36.00; twenty-five copies one year for $60.00; and larger clubs in the same proportion.

To secure the advantages of these liberal terms, the clubs must be complete at the time of subscription, and the money accompany the order.

It is not required that all the subscribers to a club shall receive THE FARMER at one office. If necessary it will be mailed under the club arrangement to as many different offices as there are subscribers to the club.
