If the military bill should be sustained by public opinion in the North, the South will be less a subject of pity than the nation of lamentation. For, mournful as is the spectacle of a free, high-spirited, and vanquished people, subjected to the rule of the bayonet, it is not to be compared in terrible tragedy with that of a nation whose memories, to their fundamental principles, and their life long training, as to be willing to curse any portion of their countrymen with the horrors of military domination. When men love freedom so little as to be willing to enforce tyranny on their fellows; when their recollection of the glorious deeds of their ancestors fighting against a stamp act and a tea-tax is so feeble that they are ready to rear the sword of power above the scales of justice; when their habitual devotion to self government is so slight that they consent to become the instruments of wrestling from their own countrymen the right to elect their own rulers and frame their own governments,—they have begun the inevitable march that will convert them from the instruments of tyranny into the slaves of a despot.—He who will consent to enslave a freeman is fast preparing to become himself a slave.—National Intelligencer.

The New York Herald says:

This new bill of reconstruction continues the State establishments set up by Mr. Johnson as provisional governments subject to the will of Congress, and leaves it to the people of each State concerned, whether they shall proceed at once to reorganize on the terms laid down, or wait a little longer under the supervision of martial law. We presume that the present Southern Governors and their legislatures, under this discretionary power, will prefer to hold on yet awhile until they can take their soundings and make their arrangements concerning the negro vote; so that we may hear of no Southern movement under this bill for the election of a reorganizing State Convention until after the crops of the coming summer shall have been secured. Meantime, from the re-establishment of martial law and the submission of the Southern people to their "manifest destiny," we may expect Northern enterprise and capital to be invited to the development of Southern resources in the way of cotton, corn, rice, sugar and tobacco, and on such terms as will give a great impulse to Southern industry, and profitable harvests to all concerned.

A Loyal Voter.—A darkey was informed the other day, that it was very likely he would have to aid in reconstructing the State, by voting for members of a Convention, &c. Cato said he hadn't any larning, and he didn't exactly understand about this matter—"ef dey wanted him to do any fightin, he want gwine to do it—and he didn't know nuffin, no how, bout dis struction de folks talk about." But, he was asked, if he knew how many months there were in the year. "Oh yes; dare is—dare is, just 'bout fourteen!" Well Cato, can you call them? "Oh yes, massa. Dares Jasember, and dares—dares—well I can't just think uv 'em, but I know dares one d—m windy month."

We shall vote to send this nigger to the next Congress.—Goldsboro' News.

OBJECTION 1.
I'M TOO POOR; I CAN'T AFFORD IT.
ANSWER.
If you are too poor to save less than half a dollar per week, at from 30 to 35 years of age, or proportionately at other ages, and find it so difficult to do so—should you be taken away by death, how bitterly poverty will strike home to your widow and children, or those dependent on you! Is it not worth a struggle to avoid this, and give them at least $1,000 by paying so small a sum? It costs just $2,00 per month to insure $1,000 at the age of 32 years.
OBJECTION 2.
I've talked to several of my friends, and they all advise me to have nothing to do with it.
ANSWER.
Will your friends undertake to provide for those you leave behind, in case you do not live long enough to save money? Ask them, and be guided by their answer.
OBJECTION 3.
I can't make up my mind; call again.
ANSWER.
Your other objections have been answered. I appeal to your own common sense to answer this for yourself, added by
THREE PRACTICAL REFLECTIONS.
First.—Nothing is so uncertain as Life.
Second.—No provision is perfect that is contingent upon the duration of your Life, which is not immediate.
Third.—The only immediate provision is that provided by Life Insurance.

The Fall Session of this Institution closed 23rd. day of December. The spring session opened the 1st. Wednesday in January, and will continue 20 weeks.
The success of this school has been without a parallel. A new building has just been completed, by which a large additional number can be accommodated. We are determined to make our pupils as comfortable as they can be made anywhere, and to afford them all the advantage for a thorough and extensive education, that can be found at any First class Female College, North or South.
The location is a most delightful one. The Mineral Water is too well known to the whole country to need a referer. Even invalid young ladies may secure a thorough education, and at the same time the restoration of their health. Reference is made to every intelligent Physician in the State, as well as to the hundreds who have found relief here.
The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. In the single item of dress parents can save 25 per cent. of the entire expense incurred by sending to boarding Schools located in cities or villages. This Institution is certainly one of the cheapest and most easy of access in the Southern States. Besides, it offers the most superior advantages in every respect.

A PROPOSITION,
IN WHICH YOU ARE INTERESTED.
I PROPOSE for the protection of the citizens of Raleigh and surrounding country, against the imposition of those so-called Cost Stores, to furnish each and every person, the New York Cost of any goods they may want to buy, by this means they can tell whether they are buying goods at Cost or paying a profit on them.
Call before going to any of those Cost Stores so-called, and let me give you a memorandum of Cost prices.
Most of my large stock I will sell at cost but I have goods that I will not sell in that way, and neither will those merchants who make such a flourish about selling at Cost.
No merchant in this place has purchased his Goods any cheaper than I bought mine. Any assertion to the CONTRARY is an Out House. All I ask is an opportunity to prove the truthfulness of this assertion.

Orphans of Confederate Soldiers.
REFERENCES:
"Columbia, Oct. 19, 1866.
MISS M. A. BUIE, SO FAVORABLY KNOWN during the war as the "Soldier's Friend," is engaged in the attempt to found a School for the orphan children of Southern Soldiers. She proposes that contributions for this purpose should be placed in the hands of some gentlemen of this State, to be appointed by the Governor, and that the School shall be located in some desirable portion of the South. I commend this laudable undertaking to all charitable persons, and I wish that the amplest success may reward the patriotic efforts of Miss Buie.
WADE HAMPTON."
"I concur with Gen. Hampton in commending the benevolent enterprise of Miss Buie to the favor and patronage of the generous, liberal and philanthropic. Her life thus far has been devoted to acts of kindness and charity, and she merits success in her undertaking.
