A Grand Old Poem.

Who shall judge a man from manners? Who shall know him by his dress? Paupers may be fit for prisons—Princes fit for something less.

There are springs of crystal nectar Ever welling out of stone; There are purple buds, and golden hidden, crushed, and overgrown.

Man, upright above his fellows, Oft forgets his fellow men; Masters, rulers, lords, remember That your meekest minds are men.

There are foam-embroidered oceans, There are little weed-land isles; There are feeble high-ship sailing, There are osars on the hills.

Truth and justice are eternal—Rocks with inscriptions and lights; Truth and justice shall never prosper While there is a sunny right.

FAITHFUL DEALING.—Weesley, once doing with a respectable local preacher, on perceiving him about to prepare a little brandy and water, with an air of cunning cried:

Col. SIMON G. HAYS, Domestic Department. THOS. C. HINEN, M. D., Resident Physician. The Fall Session of this Institution closed 23rd day of December. The Spring Session opened the 1st of January, and will continue 20 weeks.

The success of this school has been without a parallel. A new building has just been completed, which a large additional number can be accommodated. We are determined to make our people as comfortable as they can be made anywhere, and to afford them all the advantages for a thorough and extensive education, that can be found at any First class Female College, South or North.

The location is a most delightful one. The Mineral Water is too well known in the whole country to need a remark. Even invalid young ladies may secure a thorough education, and at the same time the restoration of their health. Reference is made to every intelligent Exposition: in the States, as well as to the legends who have found relief here. The simple dress and extra clothing is required. In the simple dress of three paragon cuts more 25 per cent. of the value is recovered by sending to Gooding School located in this or other places. This Institution is certainly one of the cheapest and most easy of access in the Southern States. Besides, it offers the most superior advantages in every respect. For particulars address: REV. C. B. A PROPOSITION. IN WHICH YOU ARE INTERESTED. I PROPOSE for the protection of the citizens of Raleigh and surrounding country, against the imposition of those so-called Cost Stores, to furnish each and every person, the New York Cost of any goods they may want to buy, by this means they can tell whether they are buying goods at Cost, or paying a profit on them.

Call before going to any of those Cost Stores, as called, and let me give you a memorandum of Cost prices. Most of my large stock I will sell at cost but I have goods that I will not sell in that way, and neither will those merchants who make such a flourish about selling at Cost.

No merchant in this place has purchased his Goods any cheaper than I bought mine. Any assertion to the contrary is false; and I will guarantee to sell Goods as low as any Cost Store. All I ask is an opportunity to prove the truthfulness of this assertion. GEO. T. COOKE. Jan 25-14-1f
