THE SENTINEL.

WM E. I E..I., PROPRIETOR.

HOLLYWOOD MEMORIAL BAZAAR.

The Bazaar opened at Richmond with great eclat, on Tuesday. The Richmond papers contain glowing accounts of the grand display. We make the following extract from the Examiner:

On the second floor are the tables of the different States. First comes that of Maryland, under charge of Mrs. Thomas H. Ellis and Miss Lizzie Nicholas, assisted by Mrs. William N. Bell, Miss Carrie Barney, Miss Ellen Anderson, Miss Lucy Nimmo, Miss Louisa Randolph, the Misses Triplett, Miss Tucker, Miss Street, Miss Mary Nicholas and Miss Carrie Bently. The table is handsomely decorated and the flag and coat of arms of the State are conspicuously displayed. The table is well supplied with useful and fancy articles, many of them exceedingly pretty.

The ladies of the Maryland table acknowledge the receipt of a large box of exquisite flowers from Mrs. J. Howard McHenry, of Baltimore. A box of the same kind is promised daily by the same generous lady.

They have two autograph letters of General Washington, and a book of autograph letters of Confederate Generals. They have also a sulky plough which was given by Beckham & Co., of this city.

Next to the Maryland table, is that representing the State of North Carolina.—This table is presided over by Mrs. Thomas H. Wynne and Mrs. Higginbotham.—They will be assisted by Mrs. J. W. Shackleford, Mrs. Thomas Howe, Mrs. H. A. Jenkins and Miss Ballou. The table is very handsomely ornamented. Over the centre of it is the coat of arms of the State very handsomely painted by Captain Cox, of this city. The table rests on three barrels marked "Tar," "Pitch," "Turpentine." A very handsome section of a cemetery, with a miniature monument, consisting of a base and broken shaft of marble, was received yesterday. The articles displayed on this table are beautiful and useful, and, no doubt, many purchasers will be found for them.

South Carolina comes next. The table is decorated with palmetto leaves and the coat of arms of the State, a palmetto tree on a green ground, with the motto, "Dum spiro, spero"—very appropriate at this time—in the centre of the decorations. This table is in charge of Mrs. Dr. Gaillard, Mrs. Dr. Welford and Mrs. Coalter Cabell, assisted by Miss Nannie Norton, Miss Minnie Wellford, Miss Augusta Carleton and Miss Fannie Burdell. Their's is a very handsome table, and they have too many beautiful articles to be enumerated. The palmetto decorations are pretty and characteristic.

The Georgia table, which comes next, is one of the most handsomely arranged in the room. The coat of arms of the State is represented in the decorations. They consist of three pillars, on which are the words, "Moderation," "Justice," "Wisdom," surmounted by an arch of evergreens, the pillars and the arch forming the coat of arms. Mrs. Dr. Haxall and Miss Ritchie, assisted by Miss Mason and Miss Heart, have charge of this table.

The Florida table, in charge of Misses Keach, Spence and Quarles, is next in order. These young ladies have made their table a very beautiful one, and display a number of fancy and useful articles. Mr. Henry Starke has contributed a plow of his own manufacture to the Florida table.

Alabama is next on the list, and the table is under the charge of Mrs. E. F. Semmes and Miss Sallie Tompkins, assisted by Miss Bettie Meredith, the Misses Watson, Miss Davenport, Miss Sherrard and Mrs. Mary Page. These ladies have a very handsome table, and offer many very attractive articles.

The Mississippi table is ornamented with the coat of arms of the State, and contains a tempting array of beautiful articles. It is under the charge of Mrs. James Thomas, Mrs. John Temple and Mrs. John P. Ballard, assisted by the Misses Thomas, Miss Wortham and Miss Fisher.

The Louisiana and Texas tables come next, and are each decorated with the coats of arms of the State. The former is presided over by Mrs. James Lyons, Mrs. N. C. Bruce, Mrs. Barksdale, and Mrs. McDowell, assisted by Miss Rebecca Myers, Miss Ella Seddon, Miss Anna Pollett, and Miss Clark.

The latter by Mrs. N. C. Barton and Miss Pizzini, assisted by Miss Maury, Miss Graves and Miss Thompson.

The Tennessee table is under the charge of Mrs. George Gwathmey and Mrs. Hartwell.

The Missouri and Arkansas table, at the lower end of the room, is handsomely decorated with the flags of the two States.—That of the State of Missouri has a very interesting history. The table is a very handsome one, and is in charge of Mrs. A. D. Townes and Miss Norvell Caskie, assisted by Miss Fanny Hallyburton, the Misses Giles and the Misses Palmer.

The arrangements and decoration of the Kentucky tables had not been completed yesterday. It is under the charge of Mrs. J. A. Blair and Mrs. S. W. Hill, assisted by Mrs. Hayes, Mrs. C. D. Hill and the Misses Mayo.

The German table, under the management of Mrs. Capt. Lybrock, was unfinished yesterday, but when completed will be a very pretty one.

The children of the South have one of the very prettiest tables in the room, and filled with any quantity of things to suit the fancy of the little folks. It is under the charge of Mrs. Dr. Barney, Mrs. W. H. Haxall and Mrs. S. W. Walker, assisted by the Misses Stuart and Miss Barney.

Bryan Tyson, the man whom the Post Office Department uses to enable it to dodge the test oath law in the South, has lately received another lot of contracts. He has now obtained fifty-four. He takes all the oaths himself, and then lets the contracts out to all "rebels" who will take them at five per cent. off the contract price. Mr. Tyson draws out the money and turns over ninety five per cent. to his Southern creditors. It is reported that Postmaster General Randall holds that the Supreme Court decision will justify his action.—Chicago Republican.

The Richmond Examiner says a gentleman reports to us that at Louisa Court-House, last week, Hominctt told the blacks that if the whites didn't not pay them wages large enough they knew where their property was, and should go and help themselves.

OFFICE SEABOARD & ROANOKE R. R. CO.,
PORTSMOUTH, VA., March 23d, 1867.

IT has been understood by the officers in charge of transportation via the Seaboard Inland Freight Route, that letters addressed to the Railroad Agent at Portsmouth, on the subject of freights, are unanswered, and that in consequence, causes of delay are not explained, and claims for losses and damage unsettled, and as the Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad Company, who are the forwarding agents for the line, are satisfied that these causes of complaint are not due to their Agents, but to the inaccuracy of the mails, in order to test this subject, the Manager of the Seaboard Road requests that whenever persons have written to the undersigned Agent of the Seaboard Road, and after waiting a reasonable time for a reply, have not received it, that they will address him a letter enclosing a duplicate of the letter they had previously addressed to the agent. If this is complied with, and the Manager of the Seaboard Road receives the letter, he gives assurance that it shall be promptly investigated and replied to.

Madame H. A. FERRIGO.

She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catastrophes, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the maleific stars that overcome or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person.
