LETTER FROM MACON COUNTY.

FRANKLIN, N. C., May 6, 1867.

MR. EDITOR:—At your request, and that of other friends, I propose to write a few brief articles for your paper, the first of which will be devoted to the Geology and Mineralogy of the transmontane Counties of North Carolina. It is due to myself to state that I served under the late Dr. Emmons as Assistant Geologist in this part of the State survey. My report was placed in the hands of Dr. Emmons, which he informed me was, with his own manuscripts, placed in the hands of the Governor for publication. During the excitement incident to the breaking out of the war the whole of the manuscripts were lost. And as there now is much interest felt about the resources of this section, I have concluded to make some general statements, reserving to myself all discussion of the economical value of particular mining districts as the parties interested may require.

The Blue Ridge from the head waters of the French Broad to the head of Nantalee is composed principally of Granite of a rather Gneissoid structure. On the Northern slopes it is regular Gneiss with Mica and Talcose slates; but about equidistant from the summit of the Blue Ridge to the summit of the Smoky mountains commences the Taiconic series of Emmons. The Smoky mountain chain is made up of arenacious clay slates, with interfoliations of argillacious shades, and a sort of Porphyritic Gneiss. The Gneiss of the Northern slopes of the Blue Ridge contains excellent beds of yellow copper ores, which commences in Towns County, Georgia, and passes through Macon, Jackson, Haywood and Buncombe in North Carolina. Of the economical value of this metalliferous belt I have not a doubt. I have investigated it thoroughly, and risk nothing in the statement. This belt is marked by a serpentine range which I have traversed for the distance of an hundred and sixty or seventy miles. At some points on this range there are beds of valuable chrome ore. There are also on this central Gneiss belt outcrops of an excellent quality of Magnetic Iron, which with railroad facilities could be made valuable.

This same central belt furnishes fine specimens of Kyanite, Quartz Crystals, Tremolite, Rutile, black Tournolin, Hornblend, Blend, beautiful white Feldspar, Picrolite, Actinolite, Asbestus, Talc, both black and greenish. Excellent cabinet specimens of these minerals may be had.

There are also small cubes of argentiferous Galena found in Gneiss. I also found fine specimens of massive Ilmenite, on Little Ivy. The copper ores of this belt are different from the ores of Duck Town, and are found in a different class of rocks. Here they occur as Copper Pyrites with Green Malachite. The ores of Duck Town are a black copper smut, partially oxidized, in the first beds. Under this lies cupriferous Arsenical Pyrites and at greater depth an excellent copper Pyrites. In this belt the ores are free from all Arsenical combinations, and are most admirably located for economical mining, being found in high mountain slopes and ridges; so that the mines may be drained by adit levels and the ores stope'd and brought to the dressing yards. It is worthy of remark, also, that these mountains abound in the best material for fuel for smelting works. I hazard nothing in saying that with Railroad facilities for transporting the metal, these mines will produce an immense amount of copper at as cheap cost as any other mining district can do. Nothing, indeed, is wanting but capital and Railroads to make this one of the most successful mining districts in the States.

In addition to what I have said of the economical value of these metallic ores—Copper, Magnetic Iron and Chromium,—I may say that a more delightful climate cannot be found from Canada to the Gulf of Mexico. There is a balmy freshness in this mountain air which is unsurpassed; and the pure waters of our mountain springs furnish the most delightful beverage that a beneficent Creator has ever given to mankind.—Indeed, a people who cannot be contented, and thrifty and honest, in this climate and by the use of this pure, sparkling beverage of nature, must be born with very decided moral obliquities. Yours truly,

C. D. SMITH.

BAD EFFECTS OF SECRET SOCIETIES AMONG FREEDMEN.

At the time of the organization of the first Union League in Charleston, the freedmen were exceedingly enthusiastic on the subject of education. Not only were the day schools crowded with children, but at night also white-headed octogenarians sat side by side with young men and women in primary classes. The desire of the freedmen of all ages was to learn to read and write, in order to enable them to become voters—an object which was kept constantly before them with the most excellent effect. In an evil hour it was proposed to organize a Loyal League, and a charter was obtained from Philadelphia. The men flocked to its meetings by hundreds. One after another council was formed, and the schools were soon deserted. An unprincipled Northern man, a common scavenger, became, partly by the gross ignorance of the negroes, and partly by his own unscrupulous perversions of parliamentary law, the secret dictator of the League. Forms and ceremonies were endlessly multiplied, until at last every evening was wasted in ridiculous parodies of parliamentary and Masonic forms. The worst passions of the freedmen were appealed to, and their truest friends denounced. In order, as it soon proved, that by controlling the colored sentiment, the leaders might command the influence and secure the trade of the white politicians of the State. And yet this ruling spirit of the leagues was a man so entirely uneducated, that he could not have been elected to the lowest office of a New England town.

The body of General A. Monton was recently disinterred at Mansfield, to be buried with his ancestors. The Natchitoches Times says: Upon opening the grave, the body, after its three years of burial, was found in an extraordinary state of preservation—even the clothing—the dear old uniform of gray, remaining intact. He lay there as he had fallen on that day of death and glory.

New York has adopted the new rule of testimony, which enables husband and wife, or either of them, to be a witness for or against the other, or on behalf of any party, in certain cases.

AT THE WONDERFUL REVELATIONS MADE BY THE GREAT ASTROLOGIST,

Madame H. A. PERRIGO.

She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catastrophes, evasions in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the malefic stars that overcome or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likeness enclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. References of the highest order furnished those desiring them. Write plainly the day of the month and year in which you were born, enclosing a small lock of hair.
