VOL. II. RALEIGH, N. C., MONDAY, MAY 27, 1867. NO. 246.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

A SHARP REBUKE TO SENATOR WILSON.

At Montgomery, Ala., Senator Wilson invited a reply, and got the following from Gen. Clanton, who spoke from the same stand and to the same audience:

"The gentleman from Massachusetts says you ought to identify yourselves with the radical party at the North, because they have waded through a bloody war of four years to set you free, to give you the right to sit upon the juries, ride on railroads, testify as witnesses in courts, and much else. I deny every assertion he has made on these points, and challenge him to the proof. He who says that this war was commenced by the North to set you free and confer on you the rights you now enjoy, falsifies the history of the country; not intentionally, I hope. The government, during the late war, again and again declared most solemnly that this war was not commenced or being waged for conquest, or with a view of interfering with our property in slaves in the States. Mr. Lincoln urged us to return to the Union, pledging the government to receive us most cordially and give slavery its protection in the States. We were threatened with emancipation if we did not come back. In one hand the Government offered us "Union and Slavery"—and in the other was "Rebellion and Emancipation."—Having gone to war on principle, the South chose the latter. No man knows this better than the honorable Senator. Nor will he or Gen. Swayne, who is on the stand, deny the assertion that I am now going to make, that we could have gone back in the Union and held you as our slaves to-day.—You are not indebted to the North or the South for your freedom, but to God. Instead of abusing us, you ought to remember that this rebellion which you are taught to despise, by your enemies and ours, who only come amongst you for your votes, was an instrument in the hands of God for your deliverance, so far as mortal eye can divine the purposes of the Creator.

The Southern people do not envy you your freedom. They would not restore you to bondage if they could. They have your well being at heart. I did not fire a gun for slavery. More than half the Southern army never owned a slave. Hardee, Cleburne, and many others, signed a petition long before the war closed, for your freedom, and to afford you an opportunity to volunteer and assist your white friends of the South in achieving Southern independence.

President Davis recommended this course, and I, in the theatre, in this city, endorsed his policy in the presence of a very large assembly, and stated that I would take pleasure in commanding colored troops.—You acted your part during that unfortunate struggle, for which you deserve, and have, the gratitude of every Southern man and woman in our midst.

The gentleman says the Mexican war was brought on and advocated by Mr. Calhoun, for the purpose of increasing the area of slavery. No man ought to know better than the honored representative of Massachusetts that the statement is untrue. Mr. Calhoun, and also Mr. Clay, the great Southern giants alive at the time, opposed the war. Mr. Calhoun was to the last the bitterest opponent of the war—predicting as he did the disastrous results upon the peace of the country. Instead of that war being waged for slavery, it was very evident, as the result proved, that any territory adjoining us which could be acquired, would be free territory. That war gave to the North, California, Utah and New Mexico. Though only a boy, I followed the old flag through that war, with many thousand good and true men from my section, who only regarded the National honor of our common country. Again as to how you became free:—The North aided to free you with bayonet and by military proclamations only as they believed it would injure us and raise up a hostile element in our midst, and seemingly making your welfare a secondary consideration. To render this act of theirs valid and constitutional, it was necessary that we should act. We called together our conventions and without hesitation made you constitutionally free forever. We also gave you the right to testify in cases where you are interested, and I advocated, in this State House, your right to testify in all cases.

His party is in power, and he is here abiding to keep them so. He is here to form a political alliance with you and what few whites can be induced to join him. They want office, they want spoils, and they want to retain power. It is quite pleasant and profitable to them. It is not because they love you better than other people. I warn you against him, and all like him, at home or from abroad.

What claim have the men in our own midst to your confidence, who profess to be radicals and advise you to join that party? I see several of them before me now on the stand. Mr. E. H. Metcalf is one, who, within a few days past, has written a letter saying, amongst other things, that the Southern men opposed to the organization to which he belongs have been legislating since the war to over-tax the poor and deprive the negro of his wages. He ought to have known that these statements were untrue.—He has lived here many years. His brave sons were in the army, and I never heard of his paying any negroes their wages until they were made free. I have been informed, and believe, that Mr. Metcalf, who is a good man and citizen, did not write the letter referred to.

A second is Judge Felder, my old friend; what is his record? He, before this war, as Senator from Montgomery county, if I am not mistaken, voted for a law to enslave every free negro in this State who did not leave by a certain time, and to prevent any more being made free. Under this law, Jack Abercombie, his mother and sister, went into slavery. I tried to save them from the operation of the law, but failed.

He now claims to be your champion here, and invites you to join his party.

The honorable Senator in his last speech says I spoke of many small things which occurred here which he never before heard of. They may be picayune to him way up in Massachusetts but deeply concern us here. He may consider the course of our local Republican leaders here, the gentlemen referred to, as unimportant, and it may be and doubtless is true that he never heard of them or their political record before. But I hope, Senator, you will be patient, and wait on those gentlemen. They are young Republicans; like young birds just beginning to feather, they have the will, and will fly after a while, and you will hear them.—For—

"When young converts first begin to sing
Their happy soul is on the wing."

There is still another class that for your own sake and humanity's sake, I wish most especially to warn you against. I mean those mean wretches, who, without employment or character at home, come into our midst and endeavor stealthily and often at the hour of midnight to poison your minds and embitter your hearts against the white race—your neighbors. Any man, white or black, who does this to procure office or through any other motive, is a fiend in human shape, and deserves the execration of mankind. If this is persisted in, what will be the result? "A conflict of races, of course." From which God deliver us. See the riot which occurred in New Orleans—white men got it up, and when the danger became imminent many of them fled, only a few of their number killed, but some fifty or sixty unsuspecting freedmen were reported killed.

A man mean enough to living about and encourage such a state of affairs as a conflict of races in our streets, when the hour of danger arrives, could not be overtaken by the fastest car in our city.

It occurs to me just at this moment that there is another portion of the honorable Senator's last, or second speech, to which I will briefly allude. He says I have mentioned some things he never before heard.—In that he has none of the advantage of me, for he has spoken of many things that he did that I have not heard of before. He boasts of what the Northern army did, but I did not know that he was with them. It is only very recently that he invaded the South. He reminds me of the bold frontiersman, who, when the bear entered the cabin door, quite unexpectedly, ran up into the loft. The good wife having no means of escape, used the pitchfork very freely, killing the bear; the husband in the loft crying out all the while, at the top of his voice, "Lay on, Nancy! Lay on, Nancy!" When assured that the bear was quite dead, he descended from his safe retreat, walked up to the side of his wife, and with the, air of a game cock, exclaimed: "Nancy, ain't we brave." The gentlemen can afford to boast now of what we did.

FAYETTEVILLE STREET,

RALEIGH, N. C.

Grateful for the flattering patronage with which we have heretofore been so kindly favored, we respectfully solicit an increased share of the patronage of the citizens of Raleigh and the surrounding country. Without specially quoting, we deem it sufficient to say, that our stock mostly embraces such articles as are usually found in Family Groceries. Most of our goods have been recently bought in New York and Baltimore, for cash, and we hope to be able to sell them on satisfactory terms. In addition to our stock of Groceries, &c., we have a fine lot of

HATS AND READY MADE CLOTHING

and a splendid lot of Confectioneries, consisting of

PLAIN AND FANCY CANDIES, RAISINS, ORANGES, FIGS, NUTS AND BRANDY PEACHES, &c., all of which will be sold on reasonable terms.

We have also a fine lot of genuine Durham Smoking Tobacco, which we can implicitly recommend to "those who smoke." Please call and see us.

We will pay particular attention to all consignments of Produce and Merchandise entrusted to our care and will endeavor to sell at the best market prices. Consignments are respectfully solicited. By a prompt and close attention to business and fair dealing with all, we hope to merit and receive a share of public patronage.

FIRST CLASS PROPERTY

FOR RENT.

THAT LARGE, COMMODIOUS, AND WELL known Hotel,

"THE METROPOLITAN"

situated in the center of the business portion of Greensboro, N. C., is offered for rent or lease.

Its advantages are many; the conference and improvements are in first condition, and of modern construction. Greensboro is a point, at which a well conducted Hotel cannot fail to pay. An active business every day, being at the terminus of the Richmond, Danville and Piedmont Rail Road, about the middle of the N. C. Central Rail Road, in the very centre of the Mining District of N. C., at a point always remarkable for its healthy situation here.

The proprietors would prefer renting to some party, who have had experience in conducting a first-class hotel, and to such the terms would be most liberal; at any rate they desire an active and energetic man. The Metropolitan Property being the only Hotel in the central part of town, makes it most desirable, and a competent manager would enjoy a monopoly.

"THE CHURCH OF THE STRANGERS,"

NEW YORK,

REV. DR. DEEMS, PASTOR.

STRANGERS visiting New York are respectfully informed that a congregation, composed of Christians of different Protestant denominations, has been organized under the pastoral charge of the Rev. CHARLES F. DEEMS, D. D., of North Carolina. Visiting clergymen of the several churches are invited to officiate. No sectarianism, no partisan politics, will be allowed to interfere with the worship.

The services are held morning and night in the Large Chapel of the University, immediately West of the New York Hotel.

The Pastor's residence and post office address is 221 West 34th. Street. Strangers in the city, who are sick or in distress, may freely call upon Dr. Deems for pastoral service.

When any member of any church comes to New York to engage in business, let him call promptly on the Pastor of the Church of the Strangers. Especially let this be done in the case of young men who will have a cordial welcome.

Newspapers through the country, friendly to the enterprise, will please copy this advertisement and allow it to stand.

ASTROLOGY.

THE WORLD ASTONISHED

AT THE WONDERFUL REVELATIONS MADE BY THE GREAT ASTROLOGIST,

Madame H. A. PERRIGO.

She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catastrophes, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the malific stars that overcome or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she discloses the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likeness enclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. References of the highest order furnished those desiring them. Write plainly the day of the month and year in which you were born, enclosing a small lock of hair.

Jan 5—tf Raleigh, N. C.

FOR SALE.

Two tracts of land, lying in the County of Johnston, N. C., near Smithfield, adapted to the growing of COTTON, CORN, and small grain. These farms are situated upon the waters of the Neuse, and are also convenient to the R. C. Rail Road.

One of these farms, the late residence of T. M. Whitly, dec'd, with the very best improvements upon it, contains between eight and nine hundred acres.

The other tract, containing about five hundred and sixty-five acres, has a good dwelling house upon it, with all necessary outbuildings.

For further information, please apply to Mr. JAMES H. ARELL, at Smithfield, or to the undersigned.
