THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

From the Tarboro' Southerner.
THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN NORTH CAROLINA.

The Convention of the Episcopal Church in the Diocese of North Carolina has resolved to hold its next annual meeting in Tarboro, on the first Wednesday in May, 1868. At that Convention an Assistant Bishop—to be elected for this Diocese.—These facts recall some interesting reminiscences of "the older time" in connection with the Church in this State, which may not be uninteresting to your readers. The Convention which elected the first Bishop of North Carolina was held in this place on the 28th day of May, 1794. The Church in this State organized itself into a Diocese in 1792, and sent deputies to the General Convention held in New York in September of that year.

Previous to the General Convention of 1793, an effort was made to obtain the Episcopal succession for this Diocese, and a Convention was held for that purpose in Tarboro, to elect a suitable person for the office of Bishop, as will appear by the following copy of a document recorded in the history of the Church.

"We the subscribers, having met in Convention, at Tarborough, North Carolina, on the 29th day of May, 1794, for the purpose of considering the declining situation of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this State, and having chosen the Rev. Charles Pettigrew as a person fit to be our Bishop, and worthy to be recommended for consecration to that holy office—but being sensible that the greatest distance at which the laity as well as the clergy of the State live from each other, deprives us of sufficient personal acquaintance with one another to subscribe a testimonial in the words prescribed by the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church, have thought it necessary and proper to make some deviation therefrom, which we presume to hope will be no obstacle to our laudable pursuit. We therefore do hereby recommend to be consecrated to the office of Bishop the said Rev. Charles Pettigrew, whom for his morality, religious principles, piety of life, from his general reputation in a clerical character, from the personal knowledge we have of him, and from his sufficiency in good learning and soundness in the truth, we are induced to believe worthy of being consecrated to that important office. We hereby promise and engage to receive him as such when canonically consecrated and invested therewith; and to tender that canonical obedience which we believe to be necessary to the due and proper discharge of so important a truth in the Church of Christ, and to address the Right Reverend the Bishop in the several United States, praying their united assistance in consecrating this our said brother, and canonically investing him with the episcopal office and powers.

In testimony whereof, we hereunto subscribe our names, the day and year above written.

Clergy.—N. Blount, J. S. Wilson, J. Guyley, S. Halling, R. J. Miller, J. Laty.—J. Leigh, M. D. J. Guin, M. D., R. White, Lawyer, B. Woods, Lawyer, W. Clements, L. Desseaux, W. Grimes, R. Godly."

The Rev. Charles Pettigrew, thus elected to the office of a Bishop, set off to attend the General Convention of 1795, which was to be held in the city of Philadelphia, in the month of September, with a view to his consecration, but was prevented from prosecuting his journey by the prevalence of an epidemic fever in Norfolk, which had suspended the accommodations for traveling. Before another opportunity for his consecration occurred the Bishop elect died. After the long interval of 74 years, "the Church of our forfathers" proposes again to assemble her representatives, clerical and lay, in this place, and to elect on the spot where she elected her first Bishop, an assistant to her present venerated Diocesan, to carry on that work of the Lord, which is growing too great for me to do.

We anticipate for that meeting of Convention such a gathering of the Church and such a social and spiritual blessing for our community, by the interchange of hospitality and religious acts and influences, as will make it long to be remembered in the history of our flourishing town.

The election yesterday for city and ward officers passed off without an open outbreak during the day, although there was much excited feeling from morning till night. Many of our citizens were not without fears that violent conduct would be witnessed during the day, but, happily, their fears were not well founded, as the sequel proved; and the first experiment of negro suffrage in the city of Washington was not attended with overt acts of violence. The law-abiding character of our old citizens was fully demonstrated in the manner in which they submitted to the most glaring wrongs. Hustled from the polls, as many of them were, by negroes fresh from the corn fields of Virginia, and by pensioners upon the bounty of the Freedmen's Bureau, they successfully quelled any angry passions, and never so much as contemplated a resort to violence.—National Intelligencer, &c.

Rev. Dr. Dahney, author of the Life of General Stonewall Jackson, is preparing a new work in defense of his native State, Virginia, and of the South. He has devoted much time and research to this treatise, and has collected much moral and instructive information for the vindication of the southern people. The Radical questions in the South are subjected to a thorough and searching inquiry. It is highly promised by several statesmen who have seen the proofsheets. It will be published within a few weeks by Messrs. E. H. Hale & Son, 16 Maryland Street, New York.

THE KENTUCKY ELECTORS.—Prominent Kentucky politicians of the Radical school have concluded with a number of the members of the Judiciary Committee, regarding the validity of the last election in that State. They agreed to collect full evidence in various districts showing the impropriety with which certain votes, all leading facts connected with the election, and also a record of the opposition candidates during the year. This is to be brought to the notice of the Committee on Elections at the next session of Congress. It is understood that human efforts will be taken to prevent such evidence.

It appears from this that Congress is to receive Radical representatives from Kentucky, of course, will not be represented at all, but as "Liberty."
