TENNESSEE.

The state of things in Tennessee is terrible. There the device for salutary reconstruction, so favored in certain quarters, has been tried. The government of the State has been confided to the hand of the so-called "loyal"—and instead of peace and good order, the State groans with bloodshed and anarchy. Brownlow has put arms in the hands of some of his worst desperadoes, and let them take life by authority, and at pleasure. We take the following from the Nashville Banner of the 3d. instant.—Richmond Enquirer.

MURDER BY AUTHORITY.

The Press and Times, (Brownlow Radical,) has endorsed the murder of a peaceable citizen of Franklin county by an outlaw of the name of Rickman who holds a commission from Governor Brownlow to levy war and terror upon the people. Nor does it stop here. It advises a continuance of the bloody work and the atrocious system by which it is to be made general and indiscriminate. We reprint its own words. Let those who read decide upon the character of the following comment upon the shameless confession of the murderer:

"The report of Captain Rickman puts the affair in a wholly different light from that in which it has been paraded in the Banner. The Banner of yesterday publishes the proceedings of a public meeting during the killing of Brown, and also a very inflammatory speech from A. S. Colyar, who threatened rebellion and armed resistance against the State authorities unless prompt redress was given. Such language and threats are absurd and mischievous in the extreme.—Gov. Brownlow knows his duty, and will fearlessly perform it. The time for any county in the State to harbor men whose hands are red with the blood of loyal men has past, and inflammatory resolutions and seditious threats will not cause the resolute officers who are at the head of the State government to swerve a hair's breadth from the line of duty."

If, in place of the foregoing, the Press and Times had written—"WE IN THE NAME OF THE COMMANDER-IN CHIEF INSTRUCT YOU TO SHOOT DOWN WHOMSOEVER YOU DESIRE TO SHOOT," its language could not be more impressive or its influence more direct.

The persons composing "the command" of Rickman are ignorant. Like Rickman himself, they are reckless and vicious.—Made up of the refuse material of the war—of deserters and desperadoes from both of the late contending armies—they are incapable of forming a discriminate judgment. They got into the habit of killing men and seeing men killed, during the war, and with them it is war-time still. If it is not, they may very naturally inquire why they are enlisted, armed and equipped; why they are ordered on "detached service;" why they have a "commander-in-chief, et ceters." With them, as in actual war, every adversary is an enemy and every enemy is to be made way with by powder and ball. They are for Brownlow, and all who are against Brownlow are enemies. If further excuse is needed, it is easy to apply the terms "disloyal" and "bushwhacker" to every active Conservative in the State, for such is the teaching of the Press and Times, and to shoot him down on sight. When they have done the shooting, they know they will be applauded by the only paper they are permitted to read, and may even hope for "promotion" from the only master recognized by them; and if the people, who are made the victims of this system of authorized assassination, meet in a peaceful manner, as the people of Winchester met, and if such temperate speeches as that of Mr. Colyar are made, the measure of self-defence and the appeal for protection are to be denounced by the organ and oracle of the offenders as "seditious" and "inflammatory." To this complexion have a great commonwealth and a peaceful body of citizens come at last, in the middle of the nineteenth century and the heart of the American Republic.

We have made a full and responsible statement. We have given the proceedings of a County mass-meeting with the names of fifty well-known citizens appended to its call for protection. We have shown that Brown was murdered; that Simmons was shot at; that Byron only saved his life by begging like a dog, and that an entire community has been driven to the last recourse of peaceful men, that of earnest and pressing entreaty for protection. This protection is denied them by the State Government. There is no law in Tennessee but the passion and caprice of Governor Brownlow and his followers. The people have borne and forborne until they stand on the brink of destruction. In the example before us they have met in a lawful manner, have set forth their grievances, and have asked the Federal Government to send them Federal troops. They have shown that one of their number has been killed, that two have narrowly escaped the same fate, and that all are threatened. They have stated that men are flying to the woods and that crops have been abandoned. They have been counseled under the exasperating circumstances with wondrous temperance by a leading citizen, and have declared, not until every appeal has proved unavailing, will they resort to the primal law of nature, that of self preservation. And they have been denounced as "rebels" by the organ of the ruling power, which cries on the assassins at the same time that it defends and approves the crimes already committed.

We add our entreaty to that of these suffering people. We call upon the Federal Government to send them Federal troops to protect them. And we ask of General Grant, as General-in-Chief of the National arms, to come, here and supprede the self constituted "Commander-in-Chief" of a lawless army of ruffians, mustering in every part of the State to burn, to kill, to pillage, infamy, to help, and that to force the people to be the slaves and to do the will of one man, and he a lunatic bent upon the dissolution of society.

Judge W. D. Kelley was serenaded at his home in Philadelphia last night by his political friends. In responding to the compliment Judge Kelley took occasion to refer to his late experience at Mobile, and said the riots were not chargeable as much to the citizens, or the disloyal authorities of that place, as they were to Andrew Johnson, who appointed to a post of profit there a recreant Northerner, who provoked the disturbance by inflammatory statements in the public journals days before his arrival. The riots, he said, were premeditated, and were not brought on by any words of his own.—Washington Correspondence, N. Y. Herald, 9th.

MADE BY THE GREAT ASTROLOGIST,

Madame H. A. PERRIGO.

She reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catastrophes, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, &c., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unfolds the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament, the majestic stars that overcome, or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the great Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likeness enclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. Performance of the highest order furnished those desiring them. Write plainly the day of the month and year in which you were born, enclosing a small lock of hair.

THE

AMERICAN BITTERS.

The Great Southern Tonic,

AND THE MOST PALATABLE STOMACHIC EVER USED,

FOR THE CURE OF DYSPEPSIA, DISORDERED Digestion, Flatulency, Sluggish Circulation of the Blood, Bilious Complaints arising from a morbid condition of the stomach and bowels. An Elegant Tonic in debilitated states of the Digestive Organs, or of the system generally. Put up in quart bottles, at one dollar per bottle, and effectual Tonic in the world. It strengthens nature and enables the system to triumph over disease, in watery constitutions, where nature is prostrated, this should be used. It is peculiarly adapted, giving strength and tone to the nerves. To persons exposed to the malaria of swamps and rivers, it is a preventive and a sure cure. It is a pleasant beverage, and a most agreeable Tonic to washing, this should be used.

Dr. Johnston R. Jones, one of the most scientific and well known Physicians in the southern States, testifies to its great value, besides many others who have been greatly benefited by the use of these Bitters.
