THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

Translated for the Sentinel, from the "Cronista," (the Spanish paper in New York.)

PARIS, 28th. June, 1867.

EDITOR OF THE CRONISTA.—The Sultan is to arrive here to-morrow morning, in which case it is believed that he will assist at the distribution of the premiums of the universal exposition, which will take place next Monday, the 1st. of July, in the Palace of Industry or the Elysian Fields. Sixteen thousand tickets have been distributed for the occasion, which promises to be one of the most solemn of its kind which has taken place for many years. The Emperor will read a long discourse, which, very naturally, will be looked for with much impatience by everybody, especially by capitalists, who are already giving to it a tone more or less pacific; but, in view of the occasion, it appears little probable that Napoleon, the French Chief, will mingle politics in a document consecrated to the arts and industry. However, I know not with what foundation, it is said that the discourse of Napoleon the Third will embrace all,—it being understood that there will be paragraphs consecrated to the late political events of Europe and even of America. The truth will soon be known, and we shall then see what foundation such reports had.

The visit of the Emperor and Empress of Austria to this city is already considered certain, and many are the rumors which circulate bearing upon the importance of this visit, whose signification some people endeavor to enhance, as I believe, in a very exaggerated manner. In visiting Napoleon the Third and his august companion, Francis Joseph does nothing more nor less than have done the King of the Belgians, the Emperor of Russia, the Queen of Portugal, the Prince of Wales and the King of Prussia; what, in 48 hours, the Sultan will do, and what propose to do, shortly, the King of Sweden, the Queen of Spain, the Kings of Holland and Portugal, Queen Victoria, Victor Emanuel, and even His Holiness, the Pope, and the Emperor of China. I do not understand, consequently, why people attribute to this visit greater importance, or a political signification different from that of the other monarchs whom I have enumerated. In order to explain this, which may be called a real political phenomenon, people add that the French Court professes to give to the reception of the Austrian Sovereigns a character less formal, and much more familiar and expansive, than that which it gave to the reception of the Sovereigns of the North; giving to understand by this that the Cabinet of the Tuileries desires to show, in an ostensible manner, the sympathies which unite it with the Cabinet of Vienna, and, in particular, with the Emperor Joseph. These rumors run parallell with others no less significant, namely, that the stay of William the First in Paris has not been so favorable to the cause of peace as all (myself included) supposed it would be; but that, on the contrary, the frequent interviews which Prince Gortschacoff and Count Bismarck have held in this city have strengthened the bonds of friendship and mutual sympathy which existed already between both governments whose aims and interests go hand in hand. If this should be so, - it the only advantage which the policy of Napoleon has obtained from the visit of the sovereigns of Prussia and Russia, is the honor which he has had of seeing the Capital of Europe (this name must be adjudged to Paris) converted into a species of general rendezvous of all the crowned heads, I tell you, the diplomatic triumph of Napoleon the Third is not worthy of his great fame in this kind of manœuvres. But, I repeat, these at present are but rumors, and I hope, for the glory of the modern Cæsar, that the result of the royal visits will be highly beneficial to the sacred cause of peace.

In my letter of the 21st. of May, I spoke to you, at length, of the able policy which Count Beust had inaugurated in Austria.—The recent acts of that intelligent diplomatist only confirm all that I said to you then in regard to his beneficial influence upon the events of the Austrian Empire. The Hungarians have just celebrated with enthusiasm their reconciliation with the Emperor Francis Joseph, and the Austrian subjects are the first to do honor to that reconciliation. The first have obtained liberty with autonomy, and the second have entered again in the full exercise of their Constitutional rights. This was the first work which M. Beust had to accomplish, and if he has not yet been able to obtain the sympathies of the nationalised Slavians, he has succeeded at least in uniting the two great trunks of the monarchy. The Germans were not contented that the fundamental law of the 26th. of Feb. 1861, should be re-established, which guarantied their constitutional liberties; they claimed also another concession without which it was difficult to see that the efficacy of the constitutional regimen was assured—I allude to ministerial responsibility. M. Beust promised a short time ago in Parliament, upon the occasion of the discussion of the message, that in a short time he would present a bill whereby the ministers would not only be responsible before the Emperor and the Reichsrath for all the infractions of the penal law, but also for every violation of the constitution of the State. The prime Minister of Francis Joseph has fulfilled his promise, and already the text of the bill is known. The national representation will find itself henceforth invested with an authority which it never had before, and the Reichsrath may, whenever it is deemed necessary, accuse the Ministers, who have neglected their duties or transcended their powers. The Constitutionnel, an imperialist periodical, and which receives its inspirations, as it is said, from the cabinet of the Tuileries, is pleased in making known that the recent constitutional projects of M. Beust have been well received by the Polish population, and that the Czas, or Polish organ, gives its eulogy approbation to the policy of this Minister, which promises the best results for the consolidation of the constitutional regimen in the empire. The same paper, the Czas, extols, as it deserves to be, the decree of amnesty, which the emperor has issued, extending to all the provinces this side of the Leita. It is a step more, says the writer of the article, in the direction of reconciliation.

The discussion of the budgets for this empire has been postponed, in consequence of the unlooked for project of law which the government has presented to the Legislative body, asking a supplementary credit of 158,000,000, in order to meet the expenditures which the late political events have necessitated in the offices of War and Marine. I am ignorant if allusion is had to the events of Mexico or to the Luxembourg question; but whatever may have been the motive which has occasioned to the department of War an extraordinary out-lay of 120,000,000, and to that of the Marine of 30,000,000, the truth is, that this project has given rise to much discussion and commentary, not so much in regard to the sum, but to the epoch in which it has been presented.

A Russian periodical, the Gazette of Moscow, has published a bit of news, which I am unable to say is true or not, but from the mere fact of having appeared in print demands notice. According to that paper, General Ignatieff, Russian Embassador at Constantinople, and Ali Bey, are in negotiations for the acquisition of Jerusalem and Jaffa, for which Russia is disposed to give 20,000,000 of francs. What do you think of it? That which may not run, may fly, and it is seen that Count Bismark is making proselytes.

RECONSTRUCTION,—SUPPLEMENTAL BILL NO. 2.

PASSED AT THE JULY SESSION.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That it is hereby declared to have been the true intent and meaning of the act of the second day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, entitled an act for the more efficient government of the rebel States, and of the act supplementary thereto, passed on the 24th. day of March, in the year 1867, that the governments then existing in the rebel States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana, Florida, Texas and Arkansas were illegal and void, and thereafter the same governments, if continued, were to be continued subject in all respects to the military commanders of the respective Districts and to the authority of Congress.

SECTION 2. And be it further enacted, That the commander of any district named in said act shall have power, subject to the approval of the General of the armies of the United States, to have effect till disapproved, whenever in the opinion of such commander the proper administration of said act shall require it, to suspend or remove from office, or from the performance of official duties and the exercise of official powers, any officer or person holding or exercising, or professing to hold or exercise, any civil or military office or duty in such district, under any power, election, appointment, or authority derived from or granted by, or claimed under any so-called State or the government thereof, or any municipal or other division thereof, and upon such suspension or removal such commander, subject to the approval of the General aforesaid, shall have the power to provide from time to time for the performance of the said duties of such officer or person so suspended or removed, by the detail of some competent officer or soldier of the army or by the appointment of other persons to perform the same, and to fill vacancies occasioned by death, resignation or otherwise.

SECTION 3. And be it further enacted, That the General of the armies of the United States shall be invested with all the powers of suspension, removal, appointment and detail granted in the preceding section to district commanders.

SECTION 4. And be it further enacted, That the acts of the officers of the army already done in removing in said districts persons exercising the functions of civil officers and appointing others in their stead are hereby confirmed; provided that any person heretofore or hereafter appointed by any district commander to exercise the functions of any civil office may be removed, either by the military officer in command of the district or by the General of the army; and it shall be the duty of commanders to remove from office, as aforesaid, all persons who are disloyal to the government of the United States, or who use their official influence in any manner to hinder, delay, prevent or obstruct the due and proper administration of this act, and the acts to which this is supplementary.

SECTION 5. And be it further enacted, That the boards of registration provided for in the act entitled "an act supplementary to an act entitled 'an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States,'" passed March 2, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven, shall have power, and it shall be their duty, before allowing the registration of any person, to ascertain upon such facts or information as they can obtain, whether such person is entitled to be registered under said act, and the oath required by said act shall not be conclusive on such question, and no person shall be registered unless such board shall decide that he is entitled thereto; and such board shall also have power to examine under oath (to be administered by any member of such board) any one touching the qualification of any person claiming registration. But in every case of a refusal by the board to register an applicant, made in every case hereinafter provided, the board shall make a note or memorandum, which shall be returned with the registration list to the commanding Generals of the Districts, setting forth the ground of such refusal, or such striking from the list: Provided, that no person shall be disqualified, as a member of any board of registration, by reason of race or color.

SECTION 6. And be it further enacted, That the true intent and meaning of the oath prescribed in said supplementary act is (among other things) that no person who has been a member of the Legislature of any State or who has held any executive or judicial office in any State, whether he has taken an oath to support the Constitution of the United States or not, and whether he was holding such office at the commencement of the rebellion or had held it before, and who has afterward engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof, is entitled to be registered or to vote; and the words "executive or judicial office in any State" in said oath mentioned shall be construed to include all civil offices created by law for the administration of the general law of the State, or for the administration of justice.

SECTION 7. And be it further enacted, That the time for completing the original registration provided for in said act may, in the discretion of the commander of any district, be extended to the 1st. day of October, 1867; and the boards of registration shall have power, and it shall be their duty, commencing fourteen days prior to any election under said act, and upon reasonable public notice of the time and place thereof, to revise for a period of three days the registration lists; and upon being satisfied that any person not entitled thereto has been registered, to strike the name of such person from the list. And such board shall also, during the same period, add to such registry the names of all persons who at that time possess the qualifications required by said act who have not been already registered, and no person shall at any time be entitled to be registered or to vote by reason of any executive pardon or amnesty for any act or thing which, without such pardon or amnesty, would disqualify him from registration or voting.

SECTION 8. And be it further enacted, That section 4 of the said last-named act shall be construed to authorize the commanding general named therein, whenever he shall deem it needful, to remove any member of a board of registration, and to appoint another person in his stead, and to fill any vacancy in such board.

SECTION 9. That all members of said Boards of Registration and all persons hereafter elected or appointed to office in said military districts, under any so-called State or municipal authority or by detail or appointment of the District Commanders, shall be required to take and subscribe to the oath of office prescribed by law for officers of the United States.

SECTION 10. That no District Commander or member of the Board of registration or any of the officers or appointees acting under them shall be bound in his action by any opinion of any civil officer of the United States.

SECTION 11. That all the provisions of this act, and the acts to which this is supplementary, shall be construed liberally, to the end that all the intents thereof may be fully and perfectly carried out.

To TOBACCONISTS.

It is a well established fact, that TOBACCO well flavored commands a better price and more ready sale than it does when not flavored or but badly so. Such being the case, would it not be to the interest of Manufacturers to use liberally pure flavoring materials, such as

Oil Aniseed,	Tonka Beans,
" Bergamot,	Gum Styrax,
" Cinnamon,	Mace,
" Citronella,	Nutmegs,
" Cloves,	Angelica Root,
" Geranium,	Orris "
" Lemon,	Snake "
" Mirbane,	Valerian "
" Nutmegs,	Aniseed "
" Sassafras,	Cardamon Seed,
" Wintergreen,	Coriander "
Allspice,	Fennel,
Cinnamon Bark,	Gum Arabic,
Cloves,	Olive Oil, &c.

We have constantly on hand a large stock of the above articles; also, Branding Brushes and Inks of all kinds, which we sell every day, cheap.

MEDICINES, &c.

SAUNDERS'

CATHARTIC AND ALTERATIVE PILLS.

RECOMMENDED BY THE BEST PHYSIcians. Purely Vegetable, No Calomel in them. Never Gripe; being Coated with Gum Tolu are perfectly tasteless.

For regulating the Bowels, and for the cure of Bilious Fever, Bilious Headache, Constipation or Costiveness, Jaundice, Indigestion, Piles, Dyspepsia, Liver Diseases, Dizziness, loss of Appetite, Sick Headache, and all diseases where a reliable Cathartic medicine is required.

Dr. W. P. Kalleth, who has no superior as a Physician in North Carolina, has examined the formula by which these pills are made and highly recommends them.

Col. W. J. Martin, the distinguished Patriot and Professor of Chemistry in the University of North Carolina, has analyzed them, and certifies that they contain no Mercury or any other mineral constituent whatever.

THE

AMERICAN BITTERS.

The Great Southern Tonic,

AND THE MOST PALATABLE STOMACHIC EVER USED.

FOR THE CURE OF DYSPEPSIA, DISORDERed Digestion, Flatulency, Sluggish Circulation of the Blood, Bilious Complaints arising from a morbid condition of the Stomach and Bowels. An Elegant Tonic in debilitated states of the Digestive Organs, or of the system generally. For the loss of appetite it is the most wholesome and effectual Tonic in the world. It restores those long and tedious cases of Dyspepsia, which never yield to other remedies, and is a sovereign remedy over disease. In watering districts, troubled with tremors and general nervous derangement, it is peculiarly adapted, giving strength and tone to the nerves. To delicate Ladies and Children it is invaluable, and in fact, Wherever a powerful and agreeable Tonic is wanted, this should be used.

Dr. Johnston, H. Jones, one of the most eminent and well known Physicians in the Southern states, testifies to the great value, besides many others who have been greatly benefited by the use of these Bitters.
