THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

POLITICAL SENTIMENT IN GEOR GIA.

The telegraph's few days since stated that the recent letters of Messra, Johnson, Hill and Perry "have shaken the faith of many heretotore in favor of organization under the military bill," and that "it is said that the anti-convention idea is becoming more popular with the people of Georgia."

We reprint the following extracts from a speech of Bon. B. H. Hill, at Atlanta, a few days since, as having, to some extent, the ideas which have effected the change re-bind all your comrades to mutual concealment of the fact that you were members and come out. You are pardonable for the past; but if you continue you will be covarially with shame, and your very children will disown you. [Applause.] Come, join the Patriot's League. Our only pledge is to support the Constitution—love its friends and hate its enemies, and proclaim our love and hatred at noonday and from the house-tops. Save yourselves now, or be forever lost to desent society and your own patternect. All the brave and true men. All the brave and true men, self-respect. even at the North, respect me this day more than they do you. The Radicals will use, but even they will despise, the Southern man but even they will despise, the Southern man who becomes their sycophant.

My colored friends, will you receive a word of admonition? Of all the people, you will most need the protection of the law. You will most suffer by anarchy and usurpation. Do you believe that the man who is faithless to the Constitution of the who is faithless to the Constitution of the country will be faithful to you? If a man will take an oath to support the Constitution and then violate it, can you rely upon his keeping any promise to you? No; I tell you such people are friends to nothing but their own interest. They are betrayers of the Constitution to keep themselves in office; they doore to use you to help them get office, (applanse,) and they will betray you whenever they find it to their interest to do so.

They tell you they are your friends. It is They tell you they are your very worst enemies.

They tell you they set you free. It is false.

These vile creatures, who come among you and put themselves on a level with you, never went with the army except to steal spoons, jewelry and gold watches. (Great applause.) They are too low to be brave. They are dirty spawn, cast out from decent detail granted in the society, who come down here and seek to district commanders.

what you do not understand? Improve yourselves. Learn to read and write; be industrious; lay up your means; acquire homes; live in peace with your neighbors; and drive off, as you would a surpent, the miserable, dirty adventurers who come among you, and who, being too low to be received into white society, seek to formant among you hatred for the decemt portion of the white race. You can always know a gentleman, whether from the North or South, and all such respect and esteemfor such will not deceive your. Do not desire to vote until you are qualified to vote, and then look for the right to be given, not in a manner that violates the Constitution, but in accordance with it, and through your own State Governments. I feel more deeply for you than I do for the white race. White people ought to know better than to disregard the laws and expect any good; But you do not know the laws; you do not understand deceivers.

I am willing, auxious to welcome among understand deceivers.

I am willing, auxious to welcome among us good and true men from the North, who un good and true men from the North, who come to help build up our country, and add to its prosperity. I wish they would come on and come in multitudes. They will find us friends. But when I see the low dingy creatures—hatched from the venomous eggs of treasure soming here as mere advenwhites, and talking hippanty about men of the land, because they know it is the only possible chance for knaves and fools like themselves to get place. I can but feel astrance that such mounters are to be considered as belonging to the human species. I warm you, my colored friends, if you would be respectable in solicity, or presperous in your purse, or decent in your own localings, to avoid all such people. They will hug you and call you friend, and talk about your friends, but they will pail you down to degradation, to surrow, to powerty and to about they will pail you down to degradation, to surrow, to powerty and to about they will pail you down to degradation, to surrow, to powerty and to about your friends, but they will pail you down to degradation, to surrow, to powerty and to about your friends, but they will pail you down to degradation, to surrow, to powerty and to about your friends, but they will pail you down to degradation, to surrow, to powerty and to about your friends but they will pail you characters it you associate with them. They are creatures born of political accidency and trensonable of the said last-named act.

spiracy, and are the enumies of all good shall be sountmed to authorize the comme governments and of all decent people.—

[Applance.]

And now, my friends of all races, of all colors, of all nations, of all acces, of all ages let us resolve to stand by our Constitution, and surrender it to no enemy. This is our country. Let us resolve that we will never be driven from it nor estracised in it.

society, who come down here and seek to use you to further their own base purposes. They promise you lands, and teach you to hate the Southern people, whom you have known always, and who never deceived you. Are you foolish enough to believe that you can get another man's land for nothing, and that the white people will give up their land without resistance?

If you get up strife between your race. land without resistance?

If you get up strife between your race and the white race, do you not know you must perish? You are now ten to one the weaker race. You will grow weaker every day. You can have no safety but in the Constitution, and no peace except by cultivating relations of kinduess with those who are fixed here, who used your services, and who are willing to protect you.

Constitution, and no peace except by cultivating relations of kindness with those who are fixed here, who used your services, and who are willing to protect you.

The same experiment which is now being attempted with you by those Northern knaves who seek your votes was attempted by similar people in France for the negroes in Hayti. They passed laws to give the negroes political equality—abeliah all distinctions of color—and what is the result to the tinctions of color—and what is the result to the same as first a war of classes; then a war between the blacks and mulattoes on the other. Then there was a war between the blacks and mulattoes on the olacks and mulattoes, and neither white, black nor mulatto have ever seen peace or prosperity in Hayti since.

These men intend your extermination.—Some of them are writing books in favor of your extermination, and I have myself heard some of them are writing books in favor of your extermination, and I have myself heard some of them are writing books in favor of your extermination, and I have myself heard some of them are writing books in favor of your extermination, and I have myself heard some of them are writing books in favor of your extermination, and I have myself heard found the Indians here. They declared the sarth was the Lord's and belonged to his saints, and that they were his saints. Then they killed and drove off the poor Indian and took his lands. If you do not make and keep friends of the Routhern people your fate is that of the Indians! Woe to your race? You well know your race is not prepared to vote.
