VOL. III. RALEIGH, N. C., MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1867. NO. 28.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, Proprietor.

"REPUBLICAN" PLATFORM.

ADOPTED AT THE CONVENTION OF MARCH 27TH., 1867.

Resolved, That in view of our present political condition, our relations to the National Government and people of all sections of the country, we do this day, with proud satisfaction, unfurl the brilliant and glorious banner of THE REPUBLICAN PARTY, and earnestly appeal to every true and patriotic man in the State to rally to its support.

The splendid and patriotic record made by this great political organization, in standing by the general Government with an inflexible resolution, in carrying forward profound measures of statesmanship to a successful issue, and the powerful aid given by it in finally overthrowing and prostrating the most gigantic rebellion of ancient or modern times, should command the respect and challenge the admiration of every candid man.

Resolved, That the American Congress is eminently entitled to the profound thanks of the whole country for its persevering, persistent and heroic devotion to the great principles of human rights as enunciated in the Declaration of Independence; that in the name of the patriotic people of this State we feel warranted in cordially assenting to and accepting the reconstruction plan recently and finally adopted by that body, and to the end that peace and order may be permanently secured and every industrial pursuit resumed and encouraged, we pledge ourselves to use every fair and legitimate means to influence public sentiment to the nearest possible approach to unanimity on this subject.

Resolved, That we rejoice that the dogma long propagated, of the right of peaceable secession under the Constitution, has been forever overthrown by the majestic uprising of the American people, in crushing out the late rebellion by force of arms; and that the doctrine of the supremacy of the general Government has been established, and that the paramount allegiance of the citizen has been acknowledged as due to the United States.

Resolved, That we sincerely exult in the fact that as a nation we are now absolutely a nation of freemen, and that the sun in all its course over our wide spread country no longer shines upon the brow of a slave.—Without reservation, we heartily endorse the great measures of civil rights and impartial enfranchisement, without any property qualification, conferred without distinction of color, and that we are ready to unite in the early practical attainment of these inestimable privileges. Although the mortal remains of Abraham Lincoln now rest silently beneath the soil of his adopted State, yet his voice still rings like a clarion through the land, earnestly summoning every American citizen to the support of the great party of liberty and emancipation.

Resolved, That as the most potent and efficient means by which the South can speedily regain her lost prosperity, we earnestly advocate the spreading of knowledge and education among all men, and that to the attainment of this great end, we demand, and shall persistently and firmly insist upon, the absolute right of free discussion and free speech on all subjects of public interest.

Resolved, That we join in an earnest wish for the maintenance untarnished and undimmed of the public credit and plighted faith of the nation.

Resolved, That in the maintenance of the position taken and the principles this day avowed, we earnestly invite the influence and co operation of men of all political persuasions, who regard and cordially support the recent action of Congress as a solution of our present political difficulties; that we deprecate partizan violence and desire peace and good will toward all men, and if in an open and fearless effort, which we propose to make on every suitable occasion, to persuade and convince the people that our highest duty and truest interest is to be subserved by maintaining the principles of the Republican party, an earnest interest should be awakened, it will be from no other cause than a rigid adherence to what we regard as a sacred right and a solemn public duty.

The following Resolution forms the only addition made to this Platform by the late Convention:

Resolved, That the Republican party of North Carolina on the subject of confiscation and all other matters pertaining to reconstruction, will faithfully adhere to and abide by the reconstruction plan and measures of Congress.

INAUGURAL OF GOV. HELM, OF KENTUCKY—ADDRESS OF GOV. BRAMLETTE.

Previous to the delivery of the inaugural of Gov. Helm, at Elizabethtown, Tuesday, Governor Bramlette in his valedictory referred to the financial and political condition of the State, and said:

"When I came into office the debt of Kentucky created before the war was $5,815,294 03. We borrowed and expended during the war, in support of our government, $4,853,592,50. This, added to the debt existing before the war, and unpaid when I came into office, makes $10,468,826,-62. Of this we have paid off all except $4,846,199,46. This amount includes all our present indebtedness created for internal improvements and school purposes and the debt created for war purposes. The school fund is made a permanent debt under our constitution, the interest only payable. Deduct it—$1,032,267,36—from the debt which is to be paid, and it leaves our present debt $3,013,902. To meet this we have in the treasury at this time $1,407,-947,91, and in bank and other stocks constituting the sinking fund, $2,105,294,50. We also have a large unpaid balance due from the federal government for war expenditures, which is now being pressed for settlement." He spoke in terms of congratulation of the improved financial and general condition of the State, but proceeded to draw a dark picture of the future to result from the radical scheme of reconstruction.

Governor Helm, in his inaugural, referred to the Federal relations, and said:

"It is my proudest wish, most ardent hope and earnest prayer that all the States may be restored to their equal rights under the Constitution, and that the Union may be as lasting as time itself. Now, my countrymen, is the proper time to calm the troubled waters, to heal all wounds and dissensions, to restore concord and fraternity, and nobly to redeem the pledges which we, voluntarily and frankly made at the commencement of our late and unhappy civil war.

"The authority of the Federal government is everywhere fully restored, and it is full time that the faith of the nation, so solemnly plighted, should be redeemed. Let us forget the bitterness of the past; let us forgive its errors, remembering that 'to err is human, to forgive, divine,' and that when we no longer keep the heel of military despotism upon the people of ten sisters, we may cry out against the oppression of England against Ireland, of Russia against Poland, of Austria against Hungary; but the world will think that we may well be silent until then."

Referring to the exclusion of the delegation he says: "The people of Kentucky have just cause to complain of the action of Congress in excluding from their seats the representatives from the State, who were duly elected in accordance with all the forms and requirements of law, and who had all the qualifications prescribed by the Federal Constitution."

He touched the negro question thus:—"The negroes everywhere throughout the United States have been emancipated—whether wisely or unwisely, it is needless now to say. It is an accomplished fact—a fixed, inexorable fact—and as such we should receive it. It becomes us also to see that the negroes are protected to the fullest extent in both their persons and their property. We should treat them humanely and kindly, and do all we can to better their condition, make them useful citizens of the State, and in my first message to the Legislature I will make some recommendations upon this subject. They must understand, however, that white men will rule Kentucky; we are not yet sunk so low as to consent to be governed by negroes."

THE NORTH AMERICA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

New Features and Advantages Which are Known as Belonging to no Other Company in the United States.

THE MANAGEMENT OF THIS COMPANY IS upon the Mutual Benefit System—the accumulated profits going to the assured.

This company makes a special deposit with the Insurance Department of the State, for which Registered policies are issued if desired, countersigned by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of the State of New York, certifying that such policies are secured by pledges of public stocks.

No other Company gives the assured a guarantee of the character or anything equivalent.

Thirty days of grace are allowed on all renewed premiums, and the policy remains valid and in full force during that time.

No restrictions as to travel or residence abroad at any season of the year, outside the tropics, which gives a nearly world-wide and unconditional policy.

No higher rate of premium charged for stationary Engineers, Conductors, Baggage Masters, Mail Agents, nor in consequence of change of employment after the policy is issued.

Notes are not required by this Company, but a loan may be obtained on the policy for one third of the annual premium, which is cancelled by the profits applied as dividends.

Joint policies, including man and wife, are issued by this Company, and the amount insured is payable to the survivor on the death of either.

Our dividend, January 1st, 1866, was 45 per cent.

Dividends are declared annually, and paid on settlement of 4th. Annual Premium, on all our plans upon the full amount of premiums received.

Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly.

All policies issued by this Company are non-forfeiting, after two, in some instances, and three annual payments in others.

The per centage of premium receipts in 1865, over 1864, was 251 per cent; which is nearly double that of any other New York company.

Policies incontestable from any cause except on account of fraud.
