DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

[From the New York World of 8th.]

Further Revelations—The Crowds at Mr. Brady's Rooms—U. S. Senators Among the Visitors—Thurlow Weed and the Late Lamented President's "Fine Linen Shirts."

The publication of Mrs. Lincoln's correspondence with her agent in this city in regard to the sale of her wardrobe, has created a great flutter in circles fashionable as well as political. Yesterday the rooms of Mr. Brady, 609 Broadway, were filled nearly all day by ladies and gentlemen, who came to look at the goods displayed for sale. During the day three United States Senators, whose names by request we withhold, called to see Mr. Brady.

The sales yesterday did not exceed $150, notwithstanding the large number of ladies that called. Many no doubt were prompted by curiosity, and after examining the goods to their satisfaction retired without purchasing. Among those who called were the wives and daughters of several prominent merchants.

As previously announced, if the greater part of the inventory is not disposed of within a few days, they will be put up at auction, and sold for what they will bring.

Among the dresses is the one which Mrs. Lincoln wore on the night of the assassination; also that in which she appeared on the occasion of President Lincoln's second inauguration.

WHAT THURLOW WEED HAS TO SAY—FURTHER REVELATIONS—MR. LINCOLN'S SHIRTS.

[From the Commercial Advertiser, Oct. 4.]

We have never approached a question with half the sorrow that this one awakens. To vindicate, shield, and protect "Heaven's best gift to man" is a grateful duty, while to even reprove, and much more to assail a woman, is painful, and, if without a perfect justification, unmanly.

If the American Congress or the American people have failed to meet the pecuniary expectations of Mr. Lincoln's widow, it is because that personage failed, during his life and since his death, to inspire either with respect or confidence. They should not, therefore, be subjected to the reproach, or rest under the imputation of ingratitude. Had Mrs. Lincoln, while in power, borne herself becomingly, the suggestion of a Lincoln fund, by voluntary contributions, would have been promptly responded to.—The national heart was warm. It gushed out in liberal endowments for Grant and Farragut. It would as cheerfully have met the appeal in favor of Mrs. Lincoln, if it had not intuitively closed and chilled.

In her conversations Mrs. Lincoln is represented as bitterly denouncing Secretary Seward, for which, of course, there is no warrant or excuse, for he wrongs no man, and much less is he capable of injustice, wrong, or even unkindness, to woman.

But we happen to know—the late Caleb B. Smith, then Secretary of the Interior, being our informant—a fact which incensed Mrs. Lincoln against Mr. Seward. The President gave the Prince Napoleon a dinner, for which Mrs. Lincoln sent to the Secretary of the Interior for payment of a bill of some $900. This demand, though wholly illegal, coming from the President's wife, embarrassed the Secretary, who called upon the Secretary of State for advice, when he learned that Mr. Seward had also dined the Prince, having the same number of guests, and giving them a duplicate of the dinner at the White House. In fact Mr. Seward ordered both dinners from the same restaurant, and by his own bill knew the costs of each. For what Mr. Seward paid $300, Mrs. Lincoln demanded $900. But whether three or nine hundred, the claim was alike illegal, and could not be paid. For this, however, Mrs. Lincoln quarreled with Secretaries Smith and Seward. This amount, however, was subsequently covered up in a gardener's account, but occasioned scandal, which respect for Mr. Lincoln measurably suppressed.

Though Mr. Lincoln left an estate which enabled his family to live quite as comfortably as they had ever lived, Congress and the people would have promptly and cheerfully provided munificently for them, if Mrs. Lincoln herself, with every advantage that high position gave her, had made friends or inspired respect. And this last exhibition proves how instinctively right the popular estimate of her character was.

The fact for which Mrs. Lincoln seeks large publicity, namely, that she received presents valued at $24,000, as a pregnant and suggestive one—suggestive, at least, of offices and contracts, unless the more charitable construction is reached through the assumption that they were expressions of regard and friendship. But it is not known that the wife of any president, however estimable, was so loaded with shawls, laces, furs, diamonds, rings, &c.

Mrs. Lincoln's propensity to sell things was manifested early, and before any necessity was foreseen. If our information is reliable, eleven of Mr. Lincoln's new linen shirts were sold almost before the remains, which were shrouded in the twelfth, had started for that "bourne from whence no traveller returns."

Individually, we are obliged to Mrs. Lincoln for an expression of her ill will. It is pleasant to remember that we were always out of favor in that quarter. And it is equally pleasant to remember that we possessed the friendship and confidence of Mr. Lincoln to the last hour of his life, without paying court, as others did, to Mrs. Lincoln, and in spite of her constant efforts to disturb our relations.

REMARKS OF OTHER JOURNALS.

The New York Express says:

Mr. Lincoln, as President, did not himself spend, in the White House expenses, over $5,000 of his $25,000 per annum. Congress provided him with fuel, and with light, great bills in the White House, with his clerks, messengers, etc., nay, almost for all his bills except mere household expenses. He had a large garden worked by Congress, with all the luxuries of summer houses, green houses, &c., &c. He entertained but very little, and then without great expense. And it is very certain, nay, demonstrated in Congress, that when Mrs. Lincoln left the White House, so little was left in it that Congress, forthwith, made large appropriations to make the house even habitable.

There were before the Committee of Appropriations in Congress extraordinary developments, all of which were, by general consent suppressed, by the consent of the Democrats there, as well as by Thad. Stevens, the head of the Committee, and suppressed for the honor of the country.

The Citizen, a weekly journal of New York, takes this view of the whole subject:

"The letters are all but a confession that the political favors and places obtained and given away by Mrs. Lincoln's influence with her husband were regarded by that lady in the light of personal perquisites, to be disposed of either for presents or flattery, as the whim might seize her. She can now only go one step farther. Let her take up each present, state from whom received, and, further, label it with a memorandum of the probable profits in place, or on some shoddy contract, or permit to buy cotton, which the presenter must have netted. In this manner we think it might be found that the actual value returned by Mrs. Lincoln's influence to a gentleman who presented her with a carriage and a pair of horses—certainly not costing over two thousand dollars, all told—must have been in the vicinity of at least Four Hundred Thousand Dollars; and very likely a similar exhibit might show that every shawl, and dress, and article of jewelry in her collection, must have been paid for (finally by the country,) at the same extravagant rate."

LIFE

INSURANCE COMPANY.

New Features and Advantages Which are Known as Belonging to no Other Company in the United States.

THE MANAGEMENT OF THIS COMPANY IS upon the Mutual Benefit System—the accumulated profits going to the assured.

This company makes a special deposit with the Insurance Department of the State, for which Registered policies are issued if desired, countersigned by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of the State of New York, certifying that such policies are secured by pledge of public stocks.

No other Company gives the assured a guarantee of this character or anything equivalent.

Thirty days of grace are allowed in all renewed premiums, and the policy remains valid and in full force during that time.

No restrictions as to travel or residence abroad at any season of the year, outside the tropics, which gives a nearly world-wide and unconditional policy.

No higher rate of premium charged for stationary Engineers, Conductors, Baggage Masters, Mail Agents, nor in consequence of change of employment after the policy is issued.

Notes are not required by this Company, but a loan may be obtained on the policy for one-third of the annual premium, which is cancelled by the profits applied as dividends.

Joint policies, including man and wife, are issued by this Company, and the amount insured is payable to the survivor on the death of either.

Our dividend, January 1st, 1866, was 45 per cent.

Dividends are declared annually, and paid on settlement of 4th. Annual Premium, on all our plans upon the full amount of premiums received.

Premiums may be paid annually, semi-annually or quarterly.

All policies issued by this Company are non-forfeiting, after two, in some instances, and three annual payments in others.

The per centage of premium receipts in 1865, over 1864, was 25½ per cent; which is nearly double that of any other New York company.

Policies incontestable from any cause except on account of fraud.

For insurance in this Company apply to

F. L. CAMERON,

Agent for State of North Carolina, Wilmington.

NELSON GALLOWAY,

July 4-289. Agent for Raleigh.

"ÆTNA"

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

ASSETS $7,000,000.

THIS COMPANY ISSUES TEN YEAR NON-FORFEITING ENDOWMENT POLICIES, contracting to pay the amount insured at death or the specified time.

An endowment policy presents the double attraction of providing for one's family or other dependents in case he should be cut off before a specified age, or of securing to himself independence, in case he attains the age. Thus insuring for ten years, a sum for one-half of the cost will be taken by paying six per cent interest.

This plan gives, in addition to all the advantages of life insurance, a safe and convenient INVESTMENT for one's savings, till they have accumulated to a definite amount; which he receives in one sum at the specified time.

THIS NEW TRUNK LINE FORMS A GREAT FREIGHT ROUTE between Baltimore and Weldon, Warrenton, Raleigh, Hillsboro', Lexington, Salisbury, Morganton, Charlotte, Lincolnton, Goldsboro', Newbern, Beaufort, Wilmington, Chesterville, Winnsboro', Columbia, Summerville, Manchester, and all intermediate points on and near these great Railways and their connections.

The Powhatan Steamers connect at Petersburg with Petersburg Railway for all points in the Carolinas. Cars are run alongside of Steamers' Wharf and goods transferred with careful handling. Cars are run through without breaking bulk between Petersburg and Raleigh Charlotte, Goldsboro', Wilmington, &c., &c. This Inland Line possesses many advantages over a SEA ROUTE. Marine risk is small and insurance is comparatively nothing. The Wharf of the Powhatan Steamers being situated in the very centre of the great shipping district of Baltimore, renders it convenient to shippers, and drayage is very small.

Great attention paid to consignments of Cotton, Corn, Wheat, Flour, &c., &c. All produce for wardage at the lowest possible rates.

☞ No local Transportation over this Inland Fast Line, such as goods, whether Northward or Southward bound, via Petersburg.

☞ Freight landed in Baltimore one day following delivery to the Steamers.

SAUNDERS'

CATHARTIC AND ALTERATIVE PILLS.

RECOMMENDED BY THE BEST PHYSIcians. Purely Vegetable. No Calomel in them. Never Gripe; being Coated with Gum Tolu are perfectly tasteless.

For regulating the Bowels, and for the cure of Bilious Fever, Bilious Headache, Constipation or Costiveness, Jaundice, Indigestion, Colic, Dyspepsia, Liver Diseases, Dizziness, loss of Appetite, Sick Headache, and all diseases where a reliable Cathartic medicine is required.

Dr. W. P. Mallett, who has no superior as a Physician in North Carolina, has examined the formula by which these pills are made and highly recommends them.

Col. W. J. Martin, the distinguished Patriot and Professor of Chemistry in the University of North Carolina, has analyzed them, and certifies that they contain no Mercury or any other mineral combined whatever.

THE AMERICAN BITTERS.

The Great Southern Tonic,

AND THE MOST PALATABLE STOMACHIC EVER USED.

FOR DYSPEPSIA, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, Bilious Disorders, Flatulency, Sluggish Circulation of the Blood, Bilious Complaints, Fevers, &c.

An Elegant Tonic in debilitated states of the Digestive Organs, or of the system generally. For the loss of appetite it is the most valuable and effectual Tonic in the world. It strengthens nature and enables the system to triumph over disease. In rebellious attacks of fevers and general nervous derangements, it is peculiarly adapted, giving strength and tone to the nerves. To delicate Ladies and Children it is invaluable, and to those of sedentary habits and especially Students it is equal to the best of Tonics.

Dr. Johnson, in speaking of the many remedies and well known Physicians in the country, testifies to its great value, and says he has used it in his own practice with the most satisfactory results.
