VOL. III. RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1867. NO. 63.

DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, Proprietor.

EXTRACTS FROM THE SPEECH OF HORATIO SEYMOUR,

EX-GOVERNOR OF NEW YORK,

IN THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION AT ALBANY, OCTOBER 3, 1867.

Gentlemen of the Convention:

We are startled by the cry of the leaders of the party holding political power, that our country is in great peril. After wading through the bloodshed of civil war, that peace which we hailed with joy, and which they told us was to give strength and prosperity to our land, brings new danger to the Republic. We cannot, if we would, escape from confronting the problems of the day. Neither safety, honor, nor patriotism will suffer us to stand dumb or inactive in the dark hour of danger. We have put down rebellion; we are now struggling with revolution. The first was sectional; the last is universal. The first sought to divide our country; the last threatens to destroy it.

CRIME AT WASHINGTON.

At the national capital we see that the party which placed in power the present Chief Magistrate now charges him with treason, and many of its leaders have instilled into the public mind the horrible suspicion that he was in league with the murderers who struck down the life which stood between him and the Executive chair. The world is aghast while it hears so foul an accusation uttered in the halls of the Legislature without rebuke. In the House of Representatives members make against each other charges of judicial murder, robbery, theft, and corruption. A military member alleges his legal associate plotted the death and carried to the gallows an innocent woman for partisan purposes. The accuser is charged in return with the fact of going to the war a poor man and coming back a poor general and a rich man; laden, not with the spoils of victory, but plunder, stolen from those placed under his protection. The Congressman who stands up as the accuser of the President is confronted by his own letter, showing his utter rottenness. We are saved from the hateful task of laying bare the frauds and crimes of those who are administering our Government.—God's law for punishing the guilty makes them become mutual accusers. In the hate and rage which ever springs up among criminals, all are anxious to turn upon and convict their fellow.

IF REVOLUTION BEGINS!

While the Senate has done less to shock the world and bring our Government into contempt, it has been the forum where principles have been asserted and a policy pursued revolutionary in tendency and farreaching in their influences to keep alive disorder and political convulsions. In its blindness it is striking suicidal blows against its own existence. Its members have become the ruling power in our Government—vested with equal rights of law-making with the popular branch. They can also decide upon all treaties, which, within their scope, rise above the statutes. They control the appointing power; for the vast patronage of Government can only be exercised with their consent. They can, as a judicial body, depose the President or Vice President, elected by the people, and put one of their own members into the Executive chair. They hold their places by terms longer than those of any other elective branch of Government, yet they do not in the nature of their organization represent the people in form or fact. They are chosen by Legislatures, not by the people. States having, by the census of 1860, less than one quarter of the population of our country, appoint a majority of its members.—Nine States, whose citizens are more than one-half of this people, are represented by only one-fourth of its members. Thus made up, and wielding a power over-topping that of all other branches, they should pause a full ponder well before opening the flood-gates of revolution. Yet, if these members sought to have the Senate rubbed out of the constitutional scheme, they could not do acts more hateful to the people, or give reasons more powerful for its overthrow than their own teaching with regard to the rights of impartial suffrage, and by their action in the face of their teachings. Colorado, which may be overrun by hostile Indians before the year passes, which cannot, by force of its numbers, uphold the rudiment of a State, to-day balances in the scale the four millions of people of New York. It was admitted merely to gain two votes in a struggle with the Executive. But a bolder act is in view, unless this dangerous game to get power over the majority by a rotten borough system is stopped. Twenty Senators are to be admitted from ten States lately in rebellion, not as representatives of the white people, for they are disfranchised; not of the blacks, for it is indiscreet to claim that a race who are declared by Congress to be unable to take care of themselves, and are placed under the guardianship of the Freedmen's Bureau and military chiefs, would, as a body, know of the existence of such representatives; but they are to be admitted because they hold the views of the majority of the Senators, and because they are sent to Washington by their agents. These Senators mean to be their own constituents, to become a close corporation, and to have more representatives of their own election than the majority of the people of the country living in nine States. About sixty Republican Senators will, beyond their own votes, have in the twenty members sent by the Freedmen's Bureau, more representatives than the sixteen millions of American people living in New York, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Tennessee, Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin, Ohio and Missouri. Not content with holding in subjection the people of the South, they mean to extend, in the name of the negro, their domination over the North and South alike. It would seem that this madness was enough to make their destruction safe. But here, after acts like these, they solemnly declare they are in favor of what they call manhood suffrage. Be it so, but with it must go manhood representation. Manhood suffrage must not be used to destroy the right of the majority of the people of this country. If it is the natural right of a negro in Florida to have a vote, it is not his right to have it count forty-fold more in the Senate of the United States than that of a man in New York. If it is the natural right of a man in New York to have a vote, it is also his natural right to have it count as much in the controlling branch of the Government as that of a man in Rhode Island. If this revolution is begun, it must go on to its logical, just end. It must not roll on the necks of the majority of the American people and stop there; but numbers must be represented, not rotten boroughs or sham States. We implore Senators not to begin revolution. Be content with your vast powers. Your organization is at war with impartial suffrage and impartial representation. If you continue your usurpation the country may not be content with driving you back within constitutional limits. It may go farther, and acting upon doctrines you assert, it may crush you out and make another Senate based in truth upon manhood suffrage. The country needs peace, but if you will have revolution, it cannot stop at any chalk line you may mark out. The nine States with a majority of the people, with Iowa, Minnesota, and Michigan, all of which are now virtually disfranchised in your body—for they are controlled by the representatives of a quarter of our population—if our Government is to be reshaped, will have their full rights. They are not suffering merely from theoretical wrongs. The destruction of the carrying trade of New York and the overtaxation of the Northwest show how unequal distribution of power makes unequal burthens. During the war of the rebellion we felt the exertion of the Senatorial power upon the weak head of the Enrolling Bureau in fixing the quotas of States. While their purposes were to save their own constituents from the sacrifices of war, by so doing they threw upon other States the cost of life and blood. In New York this grew into abuses so flagrant that even partisan passions could not be blind to the outrages. But the Northwestern States suffered the most severely from this injustice. I have the official proof, that while the average quota in the Congressional districts of Massachusetts and New Hampshire were 2,167.

In Illinois they were	4,004
In Indiana they were	3,348
In Wisconsin they were	3,172
In Michigan they were	3,047

We ask the people of New England if it is not time for them to stop the stupid malice of their Senators; to put a stop to the teaching that New England Senatorial power is in violation of natural rights?—We suffer in New York by the present constitutional law; but we seek peace. We wish to uphold the constitutional powers of all the States. We remember the glorious part they bore in the revolutionary contest. If time has changed their comparative population, we do not wish to strip them of any political power. We implore them not to teach doctrines which must in their ends be destructive to them, and hurtful to the peace of the country.

OUR ALARMING SOCIAL CONDITION.

What is the social condition of the country? I shall speak only of the situation of the North. It is not possible to fasten the Republican party to any stand-point as to the condition of the Southern people. They are in or out of the Union as partisan purposes demand. They must carry constitutional amendments, but they are punished if they vote. They must do their political duties, but they are held to be criminal if they take part in public affairs. The Southern people have to deal with political problems more bewildering than the theological dogmas which are set forth in the verse:

"You can and you can't,
You will and you won't;
You'll be damned if you do,
And you'll be damned if you don't."

The social state of our country is alarming. The public is startled with unusual violence and murder throughout our land. Men, and women, too, kill those who have done them no wrong; life and property have become unsafe. Our people learned to do these things from those who should have taught reverence for the laws. The seeds which were sown when men were imprisoned, mobbed, or murdered, because they honestly differed from the party in power, are now springing up in abundant harvest of crime, which plagues and curses those who were actors in violence, or consenting witnesses to outrage upon their neighbors. If, when an unworthy Secretary of State boasted to the representatives of kingly power that American liberty was a sham, and that he could do what Britain's monarch dare not—imprison without warrant, and punish without trial—weak and wicked vanity had been fittingly whipped by justice, the floodgates of violence would not have been opened. But he was upheld, and a horde of robbers and brutal men, drunk with unusual power, were organized as spies and detectives, and let loose upon the public.

The spirit of cowardly and criminal violence that was sent out from the Department of State, in time stalked back into the chamber of the Secretary in the foul form of the assassin. Murder, robbery, and arson afflict the people who did not care what wrongs were done to their neighbors. If we would avert God's judgment, let us all now try to bring back reverence for the laws which our fathers left us as a heritage, and which we have wasted.

TO THE MUSICAL WORLD.

THE undersigned begs leave to inform his patrons, and the musical public in general, that he has established

A GENERAL MUSICAL AGENCY

AT HILLSBORO', N. C.,

The purpose of which is to assist those who wish to purchase Pianos or any other Musical Instruments, in procuring THE BEST AND CHEAPEST.

All Pianos sold by him are WARRANTED FOR FIVE YEARS.

To those who wish their Pianos tuned or repaired, experienced and reliable workmen will be sent.

Sheet Music will be sold at New York store prices. Orders for such must be accompanied by the money.

Parents and guardians will do well to consult him before purchasing Pianos or Melodeons, as his aim is to introduce the VERY BEST INSTRUMENTS in our country, and they will run no risk of being disappointed.

Having been engaged in the Music business, in this State and Virginia, for the last fifteen years, he flatters himself with the belief that he has been and always will be able to give entire satisfaction.

Respectfully,

CHARLES O. PAPE,
