The Daily Sentinel.

VOL. III. RALEIGH, N. C., TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1867. NO. 83.

DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

AN OFFENSIVE GUARDIANSHIP.

A self constituted committee to establish a guardianship over alleged Presidential candidates had no immunity with the masterspirits that have hitherto controlled American politics. That impudence or insolence has only a counterpart in shameless sycophancy. It is, therefore, due to the character of the soldier occupying the exalted position of "General" of the armies of the United States, to spurn from his doors those who obtrude themselves upon his hospitalities and without his express authority are quoted by the ever infamous Chronicle as sponsors for General Grant, "who are now in Washington, and in close and daily intercourse with him." Of these alleged danglers and obtruders is the frantic Washburne, who does not now for the first time show the ass's ears above the lion's skin.—There is also one General Logan, whose traitor utterances before the war caused his arrest by the Federal general in command, and, for aught we know, by General Grant's order himself. We have latterly seen it stated, without contradiction, that Logan has been denounced by his nearest kindred as a rebel sympathizer at that period.

If General Grant is now so unfortunate as to have such men as we have named as his agent or organs—a thing that we do not credit—what of mischief might not be apprehended in public affairs were he in preeminent civil station, and surrounded by yet more of the like, and having for his newspaper organ an open inciter to mob violence in Philadelphia, to revolution by force in Maryland, and to a renewal of the horrors of civil strife, by counselling a march hence southward of three armies, one to kill, the other to burn, and a third to ravish beauty and possess property.

Here is a pretty trio of persons to assume before the country that they represent Gen. Grant, or speak his sentiments, being, Paul Pry like, "in close and daily intercourse with him." Men of true nobility of character never thus obtrude themselves upon persons in exalted positions. True self-respect, not less than a proper thought for what relates to the privacies of fireside, family, and home, ever deters a true gentleman from exercising that sort of "freedom which invariably breeds contempt" by those who are made the subject of annoyance, as well as by the observing world without.

If the people shall desire the services of Gen. Grant for the Presidency, they will demand to know his views on leading and exigent public questions in his own words, and over his own true and proper signature. He is much on the record, to his honor and credit, as a Conservative. Of this we do not include his endorsement of the corrupt Stanton. The same high form of testimony (record evidence) will be necessary to the public if he is to be mixed up with the grand political issues that are now agitating the nation.—National Intelligencer.

SENATOR WADE ON THE SITUATION.

"Mack," of the Cincinnati Commercial, has had a long talk with Senator Wade, and gives the substance of it in that paper. Mr. Wade claimed that "it was the nigger which whipped us! We went in on principle, and got whipped. We should have carried the State by a good majority if it hadn't been for the suffrage issue. Still, I am not sorry we made the issue. If it was to do over again I'd be for putting it again, and I'll be for keeping it up until we do win; for, by the eternal God, they can't beat us all the time on a question like that. I had no idea that there were so many Republicans in Ohio who were willing to see negro suffrage in the South, but wouldn't let the few niggers of Ohio vote. That's what got me. They all seemed to be in favor of it as a measure of reconstruction, just as much as I was. I didn't dream that they'd be mean enough to vote against it here.'

He declared that he would not back down on that issue an inch, although the weak-kneed would urge it. All reforms are unpopular at the start, but they win. "It will become harder every year for the Copperheads to beat us on that issue, and they won't beat us very often either, if we only make a bold front."

He refused to commit himself in regard to impeachment, but thought that it ought to have been settled long ago. "If Andy Johnson is guilty, put him out; if not, acquit him." The want of pluck on this question disgusted the people, but Congress dilly-dallied with the question because of the appointments which Congressmen were seeking for their friends. In regard to suffrage, he claimed that Congress had the power to enact a suffrage bill, but he did not know but that it was in violation of the right of each State to regulate suffrage, and he was opposed to consolidation. He could not make anything out of Grant on politics; whenever politics was broached, the General "talked horses." But he insisted that if Grant got his vote or influence "we must have his word backed by some official act showing him to be in sympathy with us."—More availability would not answer. The Western Reserve would give no majority to a candidate without a platform, but fifty thousand to a pronounced Republican. He denied that he was opposed to Chase, and thought he could be elected.

He pronounced Mr. Stevens' confiscation bill as "—d foolery." Such a bill may have been useful during the war, but was now "sheer folly and nonsense." If the negroes of the South wanted land, let them work for it.

THE CIVIL RIGHTS BILL.—Some months ago, in Maine, a State Judge pronounced the marriage of a white with a negro null and void, and sentenced the parties to fine and imprisonment, notwithstanding the Civil Rights Bill was pleaded in defence.—The court held that Congress had no right to regulate the local affairs of Maine, and paid no regard to the bill. Last week, in the Court of General Sessions at Dover, Delaware, negro testimony was admitted in a certain case, but Chief Justice Gilpin took occasion to say that this was merely in accordance with the custom of the court, and "that the Civil Rights Bill of Congress, so far as it is assumed to regulate and control the admission or rejection of testimony in the State, was inoperative and void." In this opinion Associate Justice Wootten concurred.

These are but instances of the ordinary respect which is shown that infamous bill by the Judiciary of all the "loyal" States; and yet its acceptance by the South is one of the tests of "loyalty" invented by Radicalism. But why should we fret about bills? A bill more or less constitutional or otherwise, is a small matter while we are under "orders" enforced by bayonets.

SAYINGS OF AN OLD POLITICIAN.

Thurlow Weed, of the Commercial Advertiser, is responsible for the following:

THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.—"I was well, took an overdose of Tribune, and here I am!"

The same veteran politician thus speaks of the Conservative victory in New York:

"New York 'goes strong' for two principal and several incidental reasons. The two principal reasons are—first, insisting on negro supremacy in Southern States; and second, the social crusade against Germans. As these are sufficient to account for our 'going wrong,' it is unnecessary to state the minor reasons."

Also this—

"DO REVOLUTIONS GO BACKWARD?"—Had the question of negro suffrage been submitted to the electors of New York, New Jersey, Ohio and Kansas in 1865 and 1866, those States would have responded affirmatively. Ohio, New Jersey and Kansas have now answered in the negative, not on account of their objections to granting suffrage to their own colored people, but to emphasize their abhorrence of the attempt to make this a mixed Government of black and white. When Sumner warned Senators that they must be prepared to welcome negro colleagues, the key note was sounded."

I AM NOW RECEIVING MY FALL AND WINTER Stock of

Staple and Fancy Dry Goods,

And I can say, with safety, that I have one among the largest and most complete stocks that has ever been brought to this City, either before or since the war, embracing almost any and everything suitable for Ladies' and Gentlemen's wear.

CALICOES, 10, 12½, 15, and 18 cents per yard.
FRENCH MERINOS, 75 cts. to $1.25 per yard.
DELAINES, POPLINS, and a great variety of other Dress Goods, embracing all the new novelties of the season, and will be sold cheap enough to insure sales.
BROWN DOMESTICS, 12½, 15 and 20 cts. per yard.
BLEACHED DOMESTICS, 12½, 15, 20 and 25 cts. per yard, and all other goods in proportion.
Also, the largest and most varied stock of

CLOTHS,
CASSIMERES,
SATINETS,
TWEEDS, AND KENTUCKY JEANS

I ever offered to the trade in this City, both as to price and quality.

Also a very fine assortment of White and Colored FLANNELS,

LADIES' CLOAKS,
BREAKFAST SHAWLS,
SQUARE AND LONG SHAWLS,

which will be sold at prices to suit my customers.

Ladies', Misses' and Children's TRIMMED AND UNTRIMMED HATS,—new styles, from 50 cents to $4.00 each.

Boots and Shoes, Boots and Shoes.

The largest and best stock I ever brought to the City, consisting, in part, of J. Miles & Sons' make and others of equally high standing.

Ladies' Pegged Balmorals from $1 to $2.
Ladies Sewed Balmorals, from $1.50 to $3.50.
CREECH'S is the place to come to buy your Boots and Shoes.

Hats, Hats, Hats,

From 75 cts. to $4.00. Don't stop until you come to CREECH'S to buy your Hats. In fact, I think I can meet the expectations of all my customers and the public generally, both as to price and quality of ALL Goods.

Now a few words to my customers and friends: You see a great many different styles of advertisements. Some say they are in "luck again;" some say they have "hit the nail on the head;" some "selling out at cost;" some to "make room for a new stock;" some one thing and some another. But allow me to say, whether I am in luck, or whether I hit the nail on the head, or whether I missed the nail entirely, or failed to advertise "selling out at cost," I have sold out my old stock, (while they are still hammering away over their old stock,) and have been North and bought a new stock. My goods are now in Store, and opened for inspection.

COME AND LOOK AT THEM.

I told my customers, six months ago, that I would sell goods as cheap as Yankee, Jew or Gentile, and I think I have made my word good.

I told the people to come to Creech's to buy their goods, that I would serve them right. Hundreds have come, and they are still coming from this and adjoining Counties. And I here take the privilege to say, I think they have shown their good judgment.

Don't forget to come to

RAILROADS.

IMPORTANT TO CAROLINA SHIPPERS.

THE NEW

Baltimore and Carolina Grand Trunk

FREIGHT LINE,

VIA PETERSBURG, VA.,

Comprising the following great Freight Routes:

THE POWHATAN

Steamboat Company's Freight Line of Steamers,

PETERSBURG AND WELDON,

RALEIGH AND GASTON,

NORTH CAROLINA,

WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA,

WILMINGTON AND WELDON,

ATLANTIC AND NORTH CAROLINA,

WILMINGTON AND MANCHESTER,

CHARLOTTE AND SOUTH CAROLINA R. R.,

And their connections.

Time Quick and Rates Low.

THIS NEW TRUNK LINE FORMS A GREAT FREIGHT ROUTE between Baltimore and Weldon, Warrenton, Raleigh, Hillsboro', Lexington, Salisbury, Morganton, Charlotte, Lincolnton, Goldsboro', Newbern, Beaufort, Wilmington, Chesterville, Winnsboro', Columbia, Sumterville, Manchester, and all intermediate points on and near these great Railways and their connections.

The Powhatan Steamers connect at Petersburg with Petersburg Railway for all points in the Carolinas. Cars are run alongside of Steamers' Wharf and goods transferred with careful handling. Cars are run through without breaking bulk between Petersburg and Raleigh, Charlotte, Goldsboro', Wilmington, &c., &c. This Inland Line possesses many advantages over a Sea Route. Marine risk is small and insurance is comparatively nothing. The Wharf of the Powhatan Steamers being situated in the very centre of the great shipping district of Baltimore, renders it convenient to shippers, and drayage is very small.

Great attention paid to consignments of Cotton, Corn, Wheat, Rosin, &c. &c. All produce forwarded at the lowest possible rates.

☞ To insure transportation over this Inland Fast Line, mark all goods, whether Northward or Southward bound, "VIA PETERSBURG."

☞ Freight landed in Baltimore day following delivery to the Steamers.

Through Receipts are given and fixed rate per 100 pounds guaranteed both ways.

☞ Rates in every case same as via Bay Line and Portsmouth to and from Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.

N. B.—With regard to laid named points, freight is forwarded to and from Petersburg by Philadelphia and N. Y. Steamers.

AMERICAN BITTERS.

The Great Southern Tonic,

AND THE MOST PALATABLE STOMACHIC EVER USED,

FOR THE CURE OF DYSPEPSIA, DISORDERed Digestion, Flatulency, Sluggish Circulation of the Blood, Bilious Complaints arising from a morbid condition of the Stomach and Bowels. An Elegant Tonic in debilitated states of the Digestive Organs, or of the system generally. For the loss of appetite it is the most wholesome and effectual Tonic in the world. It strengthens nature and enables the system to triumph over disease. In wakefulness attended with tremors and general nervous derangement, it is peculiarly adapted, giving strength and rest to the nerves. To delicate Ladies and Children it is invaluable—and in fact, whenever a pleasant and agreeable Tonic is wanted this should be used.

Dr. Johnston B. Jones, one of the most scientific and well known Physicians in the Southern States, testifies to its great value, besides many others who have been greatly benefited by the use of these Bitters.
