MARK THE DIFFERENCE!

Judge Fowle, Mr. Blake, and the other Conservative cindidates for the Convention in Wake, come out candidly and tell the colored people that they tavor qualified suffrage for their race, on the basis of intelligence or property. They have no diaguises or concealments. They are willing that they should have the rame privileges that are accorded to colored men in New York or Indians. They favor drawing such a line of distinction between the virtuous and intelligent, on the one hand, and the ignorant and vicious, on the other, as will not pull the former down to the level of the latter up.
