DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

THE RADICAL DESPOTISM IN THE SOUTH.

Mr. Hinton Rowan Helper, author of that once much-talked-of volume, "The Impending Crisis of the South," has, through the columns of the National Intelligencer, addressed from Asheville, North Carolina, a long and earnest appeal to "The Good People of the Old Free States." When the "Impending Crisis" appeared, it was accepted by thousands upon thousands of people in the North almost as a new Evangel. Mr. Helper's words were quoted as conclusive authority, and his character was said to be such as to entitle his suggestions to considerate and serious attention. We republish, therefore, for the benefit of his former admirers, some of his views upon the present condition of public affairs and the situation of the South. We hope the influence of Helper is undiminished in New England, and that he may be listened to as eagerly now as he was a few years ago.—He says:

"Almost every day, for several months past—ever since I last returned to the State—have I seen whole families, and sometimes two or three together, leaving North Carolina, some going in the direction of Illinois, some traveling towards Indiana, and others of the more able and venture some sort, bound for Brazil and elsewhere, far beyond the utmost limits of their own native soil. While thus, under the oppressive and tyrannical operations of Radical military despotisms, our own native white people are robbed of their natural freedom and forced to flee to foreign lands, European emigrants and emigrants from the North are restrained almost entirely from coming to the South. And thus swiftly and infamously are the narrow-minded and revengeful Radicals converting all the States of the South into one vast Hayti, or Jamaica, or Mexico—driving from the country the white people, who are, whether here or elsewhere, the only worthy and saving elements of population, and surrendering it completely to the pollution, devastation and ruin of stupid and beast-like hordes of black barbarians.

"Of the extreme poverty and distress of many of the poor whites who are now emigrating from the State, and of a still larger number who, rather than submit to the further danger and disgrace of Radical negro and negro Radical domination, are anxious to leave, but are destitute even of the scanty means necessary to take them away, I have scarcely the heart to speak. To enter adequately into details or particulars upon this subject in a mere newspaper article is quite out of the question, and so I will only remark here, in a general way, but with all the emphasis of earnestness and truth, that I do not believe any people in any part of America were ever subjected to such unjust and oppressive straits, as the poorer classes of white people of North Carolina, and of the South generally, are now having to struggle against; and all this mainly in consequence of the blundering and unconstitutional enactments, the unstatesmanlike and infamous legislation of that oligarchy of sectional demagogues known as the rump Congress.

"Scarcely anywhere can one travel in the South, at the present time, without meeting, on every hand, especially among the poor whites—and there are few now who are not poor—numerous cases of actual want, sickness, suffering and despair; and were it not that I fear to tax too severely your patience, I should feel it my duty to give a somewhat full and minute account of several of them. As it is, however, I will only advert to two or three cases in addition to the one already mentioned. In Marion, the county seat of McDowell county, in this State, adjoining the county in which I am now writing, and where I now reside, it was ascertained a short while since that unless the pressing necessities of the large number of the poor white people could soon be relieved, there was a great danger that many of them, during the ensuing winter, would suffer intensely, if not die outright, of cold and hunger. In their behalf an appeal was made to a few wealthy gentlemen of Baltimore, who nobly responded in the form of a liberal contribution of money. There were and are in that county, as, indeed, in every other county, district and parish throughout the South, a great many poor widows and orphans, whose husbands and fathers were conscripted and killed during the late war, and who now, without lands, without houses—except here and there a dilapidated log cabin—and without employment, are in a manner naked, resourceless, and starved. In view of the wretchedly ill-fed condition of these poor widows and orphans, it was thought best to spend the money, which, as already explained, had been contributed in Baltimore, for cotton thread, such as is used for the weaving of plain cloth, and to distribute a bunch of that, so far as it would go, to each fatherless family. Mr. Alfred Ewing, a kind-hearted and very estimable citizen of that county, a lawyer by profession, was appointed to make the distribution. Soon as it became known that Mr. E. had received this thread, to be given away at his discretion to the persons indicated, his office was literally besieged, until very soon there was not a single bunch left, and then it was truly touching to witness the profound disappointment and grief, amounting almost to despair, of the numerous care-worn and indigent mothers who were still unprovided for, some of whom had come twelve or fifteen miles over the rough mountain roads, on foot, barefooted, and with scarcely clothes enough upon themselves to cover in the usual way, their persons. The sight, I say, the sight of these very poor widowed mothers having to return home empty handed, but heavy hearted, as I myself saw many of them returning to society, cold, comfortless log cabins in a manner destitute not only of furniture and bedding, but of almost every other thing, except a troop of half-started, half-clad, and hungry children, was a spectacle too sorrowful to behold with any ordinary composure.

"Because of its gross excesses, its shortcomings, and its corruptions, the first and most important thing necessary to be done, in order to remedy existing evils, is to utterly break down and destroy the whole Radical party—a party which, in its monstrous affiliation with negroes, is bringing utter abjectness and ruin upon at least ten States of the Union, and disgusting and crippling all the others. Here, in the Southern States, the Radical influence, which is just as black and bad as it can be, coupled, not in name, but in reality, with the old slave-holding influence, keeps the negro unnaturally and dissentiously interlarded between the two great white elements of the South, thus preventing here, among the eight millions of people who alone are good for anything, that unity of sentiment and purpose, and that harmony of plan and action, without which it is impossible for us ever to attain anything like permanent peace, prosperity or greatness. Indeed, under the actual military despotisms which an unrepublican and malignant Radical Congress have foisted upon us, and under the atrocious Radical threats of unlimited confiscation and perpetual disfranchisement, leading us to fear that a still more oppressive and galling yoke is held in reserve for us, there is already an almost total suspension of all public and private works; men have no heart to do anything, their hopes and energies have been crushed; their dwellings, their outhouses, and their fences are, in most cases, in a state of dilapidation; their institutions of learning, their churches, and their public buildings of all kinds—such as were not actually burned to ashes during the war, having been greatly misused and abused—are going to decay, and in many places, where at least ordinary instructors and schools are still to be found, the children, if not of necessity required to remain at home and work, are too frequently so destitute of clothing that their parents are ashamed to let them go beyond the narrow limits of their own mournfully-foreboding and gloomy observation. Many of the public roads and bridges, and not a few of the fords and ferryboats, have been so long out of repair that they have become absolutely dangerous; and unless, in the good Providence of God, the desolating and destructive rule of radicalism can soon be checked and averted, those who travel here extensively, whether by steam power or horse-power, will do so at the imminent peril of their lives.

"Especially among the negroes here crime and lawlessness of every sort is now far more rife than ever before, while, in many cases, under the vicious protection afforded them by the Radical negro bureau, before whose Dogberry agents the presence and the testimony of no good white men as ever lived are but too often treated with contempt, they (the delinquent negroes) are never punished at all; or, if punished, punished in the mildest possible manner. I have known instances where white men, coming to a knowledge of crimes committed by negroes—those very whites themselves being the victims—would endure the wrongs, and pass the whole matter by in silence, and without action, rather than submit themselves to the insult, expense and loss of time which they well knew they would be but too likely to incur by making complaint, whether at the negro bureau or at any one of those other bureaus of military despotism which have been so unnecessarily and so wickedly inflicted upon us by the Radical Congress. Everywhere throughout the South the increasing demoralization of the negroes is now, indeed, sadly seen and sadly felt. Nor would it be an easy matter to make up a full and complete indictment against them of all other high crimes and misdemeanors. In every district or community of a considerable size, on the right hand and on the left, they are almost constantly committing brutal murder and highway robbery; breaking into dwellings and warehouses; depredating on orchards, fields of grain and granaries; appropriating to their own use other people's cattle, pigs and poultry; stealing everything that they can lay their hands upon; outraging pure and innocent white girls, and not unfrequently, in a spirit of the most savage wantonness and revenge, setting on fire and utterly destroying the houses and other property of their white neighbors.—Terrorism reigns supreme among the white females of every family, and sleep is banished.

"Not far from here, I was, a few weeks ago, in a small town, where there were just eight stores, every one of which had, at different times, been broken into and robbed. Either at the actual time respectively of each robbery, or afterward, it was fully ascertained and proven that six of the stores had been forcibly and feloniously entered by negroes, and the other two by persons unknown. All of them had been entered since the establishment of the Radical negro bureau. Prior to that time no store in that town had ever been entered by burglars. These facts, well considered, must lead to the most solemn and profound conviction, in the breast of every right-thinking man, that the negroes, strongly fortified in the morbid and misplaced sympathy of the Radicals, are feeling themselves at comparative liberty to commit, with impunity, every species of outrage and crime.

"Broken-hearted over the disastrous realities of the present, and dimly peering into the dark and uncertain future, all the white people here, of whatever condition in life, are dejected and sorrowful to an extent that I never before witnessed. Sometimes it has seemed to me that I could discern something holy, something sacred, in the deep and troubled sadness of those about me; as if, indeed, God, in His great mercy, had come to dwell in their hearts, and to protect them from further outrage. I would that this were so. Among men whose hearts are not entirely callous to every consideration of justice and humanity, there should always prevail a sentiment keenly alive to the suggestion, that there should be both a measure and a limitation of punishment. Yet, strange to say, more strange to say of white men, and still more strange to say of white men in this nineteenth century, the Radicals, as represented in the Radical Congress, seem to be actuated by no such sentiment as this."

Of the Radical party he says:

"In the vain effort to exculpate themselves, they vauntingly proclaim to the world that their measures of military reconstruction were enacted in great part if not principally, for the protection and for the benefit of Union men in the South. I tell them that the true Union men of the South (the white Union men, and except these there were none, and are none worthy of the name) detest, with a detestation unutterable, the entire batch of their disgraceful and ruinous military measures of reconstruction. With few exceptions, the white Union men of the South feel that they have been most foully and shamefully betrayed and dishonored, and we reject, with immeasurable scorn and indignation, the imputation that we have any sympathies or purposes in common with base-minded and degenerate partisans, who, like the Radicals, are abandoned to every high principle of honor and right-feeling. We were, and are still, Republicans, not black Republicans, but white Republicans. Radicals we never were, nor can we be. It is, then, the Republican party, in the persons of factions and fanatical multitudes of Radical demagogues, that has left us, and not we who have left the Republican party."

* * * * * * *

"We insist upon it that the enfranchisement of the negroes, and the disfranchisement of the whites, whereby the supremacy of the negroes has already been established, or is about to be established in almost every Southern State, is a consummate outrage, an unmitigated despotism, an unparralleled infamy and an atrocious crime. We insist upon it, that our Federal Government and State Governments are, as they ought to be, republican in form, and that the military authorities ought, at all times, except in cases of actual war, in the future as in the past, to be held subordinate to the civil authorities. We further insist upon it, that the whole drift of Radical legislation, for the last eighteen months and more, has been and still is unstatesmanlike, unrepublican, vindictive and despotic—perilous to all the principles of enlightened self-government, and alarmingly degrading and inimical to the white civilization and progress of the entire New World.

* * * * * * *

"Further, and finally, we insist upon it, that the good results which the loyal and intelligent masses of the country had a right to expect would soon follow the abolition of slavery and the suppression of the rebellion, shall neither be defeated nor indefinitely delayed; and we protest that the disingenuousness and treachery of the Radicals, since the war, seriously threaten to neutralize all the wise and patriotic labors which the Republicans so heroically and so gloriously performed, both before and during the war. We ask for the immediate repeal of all military laws which are antagonistic to the spirit and form of Republican government, and, especially, for the speedy repeal of all such political and mercenary monstrosities as the negro bureau bill. We also ask that the expenses of the army and navy may be reduced at least one-half, and that the burdens of taxation, which now weigh so heavily upon white people, may at once be lightened.

"With an eye and a purpose to these ends, we ask that every Radical Senator and Representative in Congress, and every other Radical officer in the land, whether national, State, county or municipal, who is, or has been, an aider and abetter of that usurpatory and tyrannical oligarchy, euphemized as the American Congress, shall, one and all, at the very next elections in which their names may be brought before the people, be wholly and summarily withdrawn from official life, and that new and better men—men possessed with good common sense, men controlled by sentiments of justice for white people, no less than by sentiments of justice for black people—men sufficiently free from sectional bias, men of enlarged and statesmanlike views—shall be elected in their stead. Let this be done, and all will be well. Let it be made manifest, and let it be proclaimed abroad, throughout the entire length and breadth of the land, that what the short-sighted and fanatical Radicals are sluring at as a mere possible good to four millions of blacks, is a positive disservice and evil to eight millions of whites. We want, and we will have, no re-establishment of slavery. It is safe to say that there are not to-day, in the whole State of North Carolina, two hundred men of good standing or influence, who would, if they could, have slavery established. Indeed, I doubt whether there are five thousand white men in all the South who would now or at any future time be so unwise, so rash and so reckless as to undo the acts of emancipation, even if they had the power. The only persons here who, in any considerable number, would be willing to incur the odium and the infamy of voting for a return to the system of slavery are negroes themselves, whose instincts tell them that if really put upon their own resources in communities of white men, and in no manner propped up or sustained at the expense and degradation of a greater or less number of whites, whether by servitude, under an oligarchy of slaveholders on the one hand, or by negro bureaus, under an oligarchy of Radicals, on the other, they will gradually fall behind in the career of life, fail to multiply the inferior race to which they belong, die out, and become fossilized. While, therefore, we are firm in the wish and purpose not to have any more slavery in the South, we are equally firm in the desire and determination to get rid of the negroes if we can—not by taking from them one drop of blood—not by hurting a single fibre of hair (or wool) upon their heads, but by colonization, in or out of Mexico; and in this effort, which will be in perfect harmony with that wisdom and patriotism which, through the mighty energies and enterprises of white men, have brought imperishable greatness and glory to the North, we most earnestly and trustingly solicit your fraternal co-operation."

RAILROADS.

IMPORTANT TO CAROLINA SHIPPERS.

THE NEW

Baltimore and Carolina Grand Trunk

FREIGHT LINE,

VIA PETERSBURG, Va.,

Comprising the following great Freight Routes:

THE POWHATAN

Steamboat Company's Freight Line of Steamers,

PETERSBURG AND WELDON,

RALEIGH AND GASTON,

NORTH CAROLINA,

WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA,

WILMINGTON AND WELDON,

ATLANTIC AND NORTH CAROLINA,

WILMINGTON AND MANCHESTER,

CHARLOTTE AND SOUTH CAROLINA R. R.,

And their connections.

Time Quick and Rates Low.

THIS NEW TRUNK LINE FORMS A GREAT FREIGHT ROUTE between Baltimore and Weldon, Warrenton, Raleigh, Hillsboro', Lexington, Salisbury, Morganton, Charlotte, Lincolnton, Goldsboro', Newbern, Beaufort, Wilmington, Chesterville, Kinsboro', Columbia, Summerville, Manchester, and all intermediate points on and near these great Railways and their connections.

The Powhatan Steamers connect at Petersburg with Petersburg Railway for all points in the Carolinas. Cars are run alongside of Steamers' Wharf and goods transferred with careful handling. Cars are run through without breaking bulk between Petersburg and Raleigh, Charlotte, Goldsboro', Wilmington, &c. &c. This Inland Line possesses many advantages over a Sea Route. Marine risk is small and insurance is comparatively nothing. The Wharf of the Powhatan Steamers, being situated in the very centre of the great shipping district of Baltimore, renders it convenient to shippers, and drayage is very small.

Great attention paid to consignments of Cotton, Corn, Wheat, Rosin, &c. &c. All produce forwarded at the lowest possible rates.

☞ To insure transportation over this Inland Fast Line, mark all goods, whether Northward or Southward bound, "Via Petersburg."

☞ Freight landed in Baltimore day following delivery to the Steamers.

Through Receipts are given and fixed rate per 100 pounds guaranteed both ways.

☞ Rates in every case same as via Bay Line and Portsmouth to and from Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.

N. B.—With regard to last named points, freight is forwarded to and from Petersburg by Philadelphia and N. Y. Steamers.

SAUNDERS'

CATHARTIC AND ALTERATIVE PILLS.

RECOMMENDED BY THE BEST PHYSICIANS. Purely Vegetable. No Calomel in them. Never Gripe; being Coated with Gum Tolu are perfectly tasteless.

For regulating the Bowels, and for the cure of Bilious Fever, Bilious Headache, Constipation or Costiveness, Jaundice, Rheumatism, Piles, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dysentery, Loss of Appetite, Sick Headache, and all diseases where a reliable Cathartic medicine is required.

Dr. W. P. Balliet, who has been practicing as a Physician in North Carolina for several years, says of the formula by which these pills are prepared: "Col. W. J. Martin, the well-known old Patriot and Professor of Chemistry in the University of North Carolina, has given it his sanction, and testifies that they contain no known compound of mineral constituent whatever."
