GOVERNOR VANCE. This distinguished gentleman left Norloik day before yester-day, and we are gratified to know that be carried with him a warm and kindly re-membrance of his reception among us. On behalf of the community we are at thorized to say that his visit was not only agreeable but of substantial service. Old and young, rich and poor, high and low, were equally charmed with his address, and he has infused a new life into our entire Community.

There is but one opinion among us regard to his effort on Monday night. To solid souse, in genuine humor, in pain ted antithesis, in lofty declamation, and time eloquence, it was a master piece of oratory.

But beyond this, it was a most gratifying sight to see North Carolina and Virginia standing up shoulder to shoulder, as it were, in this first dress parade of the organized atrength of the white men of Norfolk. The old North State could not have had a bler representative, nor could the mother of States have given him a more affectionate and cordial welcome than he received in this "Ancient Borough."

We congratulate North Carolina on the possession of such an orator, and contess to a feeling of enty that he was not born on this side of the "dividing line." But, we console ourselves with the reflection that-that "line" is geographical, and not moral, or political or social. Finally, as was cloquently remarked at the end of the address by an appreciative Virginian, Tunent Curies son Governor Vance!!-Norfalk

Valuable Lands and Mills for Sale. PURSUANT TO A DECREE OF THE COURT of Equity for Johnston County, at Fall Term, 1867, I shall, on Saturday, the 18th day of January next, on the premises, proceed to sell, at public sale, that valuable property, near Boon Hill, in said County, known as

THE KEOCO MILLS. consisting of afteen hundred and ninety-five acre of Land, lying near the North Carolina Railread and within one and a half miles of Boon Hill De

The said lands are the first quality of Cotton lands. About 300 seres are cleared, and have been in cultivation. The rost is to primitive forest, and is well timbered, although a considerable quantity of Pine Timber has been cut off.

The improvements consist of an excellent Saw Mill, with a forty-two inch circular Saw, run by a Jouvals Turbine Wheel, which, for beauty of work and quickness of cutting, is unsurpassed.—There is also a train road from the Mill to the Railroad, where there is a turnout. Also a Grist Mill, which will grind 60 bushels of compact day. Also a Store and Office, a Rinchmith Shop, and furtheness for operatives, and A LARGE AND CONVENIENT DWELL beautifully situated on a full, containing eight promes and Stables, with two Gradens, one of which contains one of his largest and finest Scup. persong Arbors in the State.

The water on the place is assolbent, and it is one of the healthcest locations in the low country.
