THE SENTINEL.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 12, 1867.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—For rent, the ensuing year, the store now occupied by Phil. Thiem, and two rooms on the second floor, with a kitchen in rear. Apply to R. H. Battle, Esq.

The attention of the public is directed to the advertisement of A. H. McNair, Esq., of Tarboro', offering a valuable Dwelling House and lot in that town for sale; also a good office, as interest in a well established Drug Store, &c.

Bradley & Christophers, at Simpson's old and well-known stand, announce a superb lot of Confectionery, Christmas notions, Groceries, &c., &c. They are also prepared to furnish the most splendid varieties of cakes for weddings, parties, &c. Give these young gentlemen a call, and, in the language of "Cæsar," they will "serve you right."—Their assortment is large and well selected.

Everard Hall, Esq., offers for sale the valuable house and lot on Hillsboro' Street, at which he formerly resided. Also the plantation on which he at present lives, 12 miles South of Raleigh. Both highly valuable. See advertisement.

Improved and Perfected Common Sense Family Sewing Machines, only $20; W. H. Crow, at the office of the Ætna Life Insurance Co., over Tucker's Iron-front Store, is the sole Agent for North Carolina. This instrument is one of the necessities of the age.

CHANGES OF THE MILITARY.—Gen. Canby has just issued an order, making important changes in the military posts of this State. The order, we presume, is made in conformity with the purpose of Gen. Grant to reduce the expenses of the War Department and to "muster out" all who are not needed. Such an arrangement will meet the universal approval of the public.

The order divides the State into four posts, instead of eleven, thus:

Post of Wilmington, Col. R. P. Frank, Commanding, will embrace the counties of New Hanover, Brunswick, Bladen and Columbus.

Post of Raleigh, Col. J. V. Bomford, Commanding, embraces 32 Counties, viz: Warren, Franklin, Wake, Johnston, Harnett, Cumberland, Robeson, Richmond, Moore, Chatham, Orange, Granville, Caswell, Alamance, Person, Rockingham, Guilford, Randolph, Montgomery, Anson, Union, Stanly, Cabarrus, Mecklenburg, Iredell, Rowan, Davie, Davidson, Davie, Stokes, Forsythe and Yadkin. The continuance of Col. Bomford in this command will be great ly ing to all parties.

Post of Goldsboro', Col. and Brevet Major General N. A. Miles, Commanding, embracing 28 Counties, viz: Halifax, Northampton, Nash, Wilson, Wayne, Sampson, Duplin, Lenoir, Onslow, Jones, Carteret, Craven, Pitt, Beaufort, Hyde, Martin, Bertie, Hertford, Washington, Tyrrell, Chowan, Perquimans, Gates, Pasquotank, Camden, Currituck, Greene and Edgecombe. Gen. Miles, we hope, will be able to arrest and put a stop to the murderous acts transpiring in Jones and other Counties which require military interference.

Post of Morganton, Col. W. B. Royall, Commanding, embracing the counties of Cherokee, Clay, Macon, Jackson, Haywood, Transylvania, Buncombe, Madison, Yancey, Mitchell, McDowell, Rutherford, Polk, Cleaveland, Burke, Watauga, Caldwell, Catawba, Lincoln, Gaston, Alexander, Wilkes, Ashe, Henderson and Alleghany.

Col. Miles will assume the charge of Fort Macon.

THESPIANS.—The young gentlemen comprising the Thespian Association have new and popular plays in course of preparation, and will bring out something striking and attractive for the public during the Christmas Holidays. Their request to present a play last winter met the popular approval, for something further, better it could not well be.

ATTEMPT AT ROBBERY.—A bold attempt was made by a negro to enter and rob the Sentinel and Harrow establishment of C. W. B. Hutchings, Esq., under the Masonic Hall, on Tuesday night, but as he was about effecting an entrance, he was discovered by another negro, being upon the premises of T. Mellon, Esq., who alarmed him and thereby foiled his purpose. The thief replied by warning the man not to approach him. Upon continuing to do so, however, the rascal discharged two shots from a pistol at him, and then made his escape by running. Fortunately, neither of the shots took effect.

PREACHING.—We were pleased to receive a visit, on yesterday, from Rev. Dr. Deems, who pays the city a flying visit. The Dr. is laboring with great earnestness at the Church of the Strangers, in New York.

GIVE CREDIT.—Some of our contemporaries are not as prompt as they should be in giving due credit to other journals for matter selected from them. We sometimes omit this, but in every case it is merely an oversight or forgetfulness. Among several of our contemporaries, we have special complaint against our neighbor, the Register, for frequent omissions to give due credit to the Sentinel. In every case it may have been entirely an oversight.

THE MUNICIPAL FIASCO.—We learn that neither Mr. Lougee nor Mr. Heuelbach will allow their names to be used in connection with the ticket named for municipal officers, by the negro meeting, in this City, on Monday evening. This is as we expected. We felt sure that both of these gentlemen would scorn the whole proceeding.

We regard the entire affair as an outrage and an insult to the community. If the movement is persisted in, it will become necessary to ventilate the claims of some of the white aspirants, for the information of the military authorities.

WAKE SUPERIOR COURT.—The Special Term of this Court commenced on yesterday, his Honor, Judge Barnes, presiding.

GOV. WORTH is at present in Washington. He had an interview with the President on Monday.

From the New York World.

END OF THE IMPEACHMENT FIASCO.

If the Republican party had only made itself the jest and scorn of mankind, that is an evil which could be cheerfully borne.—But unfortunately that party is in possession of the Government, and the reputation of the country suffers by its absurd and degrading antics. What will foreign nations think of the dignity of a government which has been managed for the last eleven months on the hypothesis that its Chief Executive was an uncondemned, merely because he was an untried criminal, and is at last driven to confess that there is no evidence to warrant such treatment!

The abandonment of this preposterous proceeding is extorted from Republican fears. Adverse elections have frightened the party from a course it was bent on pursuing. While the elections were pending, the impeachment tocsin was vigorously sounded by their most noted stump orators. Speaker Colfax, whose official position should have taught him decency, courted popularity in the West by menaces that the heels of the President should dangle in the air. Senator Conkling, who presided over the Republican nominating Convention in this State, spread himself, in his opening speech, on the same subject, but with more logic and decorum. We select these two for particular mention, because they are ardent popularity hunters, and it is the instinct of popularity hunters to study the humor of the multitude and say what the multitude applaud. Their utterances prove that before the Republican party was so beaten in the elections, and when it had no apprehension of its doom, impeachment was one of their favorite measures. "How art thou fallen from Heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning!" The breath of the people has passed over the Republican party, and this project lies still and cold as Sennacherib's army. To the disgrace of meditated injustice the party has added that of cowardice.

"Curses, like chickens, come home to roost." The Republican party, in failing to impeach the President, has impeached itself. All its proceedings for the last eleven months have gone on the assumption that the President was guilty; and his triumphant acquittal convicts Congress of wanton violations of his rights.

GEN. HANCOCK PROCLAIMS.—The effect of Gen. Hancock's presence as commander of the Fifth Military District is already felt on every hand. It is diffused as a pervading influence. It permeates official precincts, penetrates the avenues of business, and spreads an unusual glow of hope and cheerfulness in social and domestic circles. Our people realize, in short, a sense of reassurance which has been utterly foreign to their experience since the beginning of the triad of Southern woes comprised in the various phases of "reconstruction." Before Gen. Hancock arrived and began to develop his policy, the horizon wore a leaden hue. It was supremely dreadful even to the eyes of hope. To-day was born with trouble sight came, and did not bring us even the poor solace of happy dreamless sleep; and to-morrow, with its anticipation of new perplexities and perplexities, was a menace which no courage could despise, and an incubus which—no energy could throw off.—But one man's advent upon the scene has produced a wondrous change. Men breathe more freely. An insupportable sense of uncertainty and insecurity does not fill their days with anxious thoughts and rob their nights of calm repose. Energy and enterprise begin to stir and break the chains of despair and apathy. The coming day shines as a beneficent promise, and the thought of it no longer vexes and oppresses.

Yet, in working this remarkable change, Gen. Hancock has done no more than to act, in his extraordinary position, as becomes an honest, straightforward, sensible gentleman and soldier, imbued with the sentiments of a genuine patriotism, and guided by the views of a comprehensive statesmanship.—N. O. Crescent.

THE MYSTERIOUS AFFAIR AT THE RESIDENCE OF MR. J. S. MOSS.—The mysterious gentleman has made no demonstrations for the past few days at the residence of Mr. Moss. He doubtless needs rest, and is perhaps sick.—Scottsville Register.

The kid glove dealers in Boston are said to have sold $16,000 worth of "kids" to the audiences of Mr. Dickens, who has finished his readings in that city, and is now in New York.

Forgery has been struck as dumb as an oyster by the failure of the impeachment project. In the Chronicle he says not one word on the subject, but devotes his time to "writing up" Gen. Grant as a Republican nominee for President.

The leading Radicals in Congress are jubilations of the Virginia Convention, and consider it necessary to look after it. Wilson, Farnsworth and Henderson are daily expected in Richmond.

ELECTIONS—DEMOCRATIC SUCCESS.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Dec. 11, M.

The Labor Reform and People's candidates for Mayor, Treasurer, Comptroller, and City Attorney are elected over the regular Republican nominees by an average majority of 3,000 votes. This is unprecedented and the result causes great excitement.

MANCHESTER, N. H., Dec. 11, M.

James W. Weston, Democrat, is chosen Mayor over Clark, the present Republican incumbent, by 300 majority.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11, P. M.

Senate.—A petition from an immense number of naturalized citizens, complaining of grievances and asking that their rights be defined by law, was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations.

Mr. Anthony introduced a bill, declaring null the confiscation and forfeiture acts passed by the "rebel" Legislatures. Referred.

Mr. Sherman introduced a bill, providing that all balances from captured or abandoned property be put into the Treasury and not drawn thence without authority of law. Mr. Sherman stated that the amount reached several millions.

A discussion ensued, during which McCulloch was charged with illegally disposing of several hundred thousands.

The bill was postponed.

Mr. Sumner presented a resolution from Gen. Brisbin, and 30,000 Kentucky negroes, containing allegations, which Mr. Davis pronounced foul and mendacious libels. The memorial was referred.

House.—Several members made personal explanations on their votes in favor of impeachment, in which the President was roundly abused.

The Judiciary Committee reported back the bill in relation to the government of the "rebel" States, and it was referred to the Reconstruction Committee.

The committee on Military Affairs reported adversely to paying the army weekly.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11, P. M.

The Southern Railroad Committee's testimony is voluminous. Among other things, it shows that the $6's were freely used by the Confederates, without protest or objection on the part of the Presidents.

A letter from Gen. Grant to the Chairman states that the total appraised value sold was $1,456,000. Total payments to November 1st $3,459,000.

The earthquake at St. Thomas Tortola and St. Croix, began on the 18th of November, and continued until the 20th. The destruction of lives and property was universal.

The Steamer De Soto was washed ashore into the harbor, bottom upwards. Her officers and crew were saved.

The Steamer Monongahela was thrown into the town of Middleton, St. Croix, and broken to pieces.

VIRGINIA CONSERVATIVE CONVENTION.

RICHMOND, Dec. 11, P. M.

The Conservative Convention assembled in the Theatre, this morning. Eight hundred delegates were present, representing all parts of the State. Hon. A. H. H. Stuart of Augusta County, was elected President.

In his speech he said, that "this was not a convention of a party, but of Virginians. At the close of the war, they were assured that, upon the repeal of the ordinance of secession, the repudiation of the Confederate debt, and the emancipation of the slaves, we would be restored to the Union. Instead of these promises being fulfilled, a policy has been inaugurated to place the Southern States under the control of an inferior race. We meet to appeal to the North not to permit the infliction of this disgrace upon us. Our rights may be wrested from us, but we will never agree to the rule of an alien and inferior race. We prefer the rule of the bayonet."

Among the Vice-Presidents are Hon. R. M. T. Hunter, Hon. Thos. G. Bocock, Ex-Gov. Letcher and others.

FROM ALABAMA.

MONTGOMERY, Dec. 11, P. M.

Gov. Patton has perfected financial arrangements in New York for paying the interest on the foreign debt, due January 1st, 1868, and also secured an extension of time for the payment of the temporary loan heretofore negotiated in New York.

Messrs. Henry C. Semple, Joseph H. Speed, and eleven other conservative Republican members of the Reconstruction Convention, who protested against the Constitution, ably vindicate their position. They assume that the action of the Convention is in opposition to the sentiment of the Northern people, as expressed in the recent elections, and that the Constitution adopted violates the conditions of the formation of the Republican party in Alabama, by transcending the requirements of the Reconstruction Acts, and adding features of proscription and disfranchisement not authorized by those measures.

They believe the Northern people will not permit the power of their government to be directed to the abasement and degradation of the white people of the South; that they will not sentence the white race of the South to be the servants of their former slaves, even as a punishment for rebellion. They argue that the civil liberty of the Northern people will be endangered by the continued exercise of prerogative rule maintained by force over an impoverished and ruined people. The South admits the thoroughness of the conquest, but trusts to the magnanimity of the conqueror, and appeals now to the tribunal of the last resort,—the people.

The political power of the blacks is created, under the proposed system of suffrage, by political adventurers having no interest in common with the Southern people as a weapon of offence to be wielded for the accomplishment of their selfish schemes of personal aggrandizement; and that the race will readily surrender itself to the arts and intrigues of designing persons who flatter their vanity, and encourage them in a jealousy of the white people of the State.

The colored delegates in the Convention moved as subserviently at the beck of their Radical managers, as ever slaves did at the command of their masters.

The amendment to the bill of rights, introduced by Ritter, that common carriers should make no distinction between citizens of the State, was designed to secure the colored people seats at hotels and tables with the whites on steamboats, at hotels and on the cars, and aroused much opposition that, threatening to produce serious discord in the Convention, it was withdrawn; but the colored delegates, the professing members are informed, compel the Radical majority to pronounce that the Legislature should and would carry it into effect.

The signers of the address also further excite criticisms at the doings of the Convention, declare that, entertaining the views they do, they owe it as a duty to the people to warn them against lending themselves to the ratification of the Constitution.

REVENUE FRAUD CASE.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 11, P. M.

In a criminal action against Buckman & Co., for utilizing a fraudulent brand to manufactured Tobacco, the Jury failed to agree.

In the same case, yesterday, in the U. S. District Court, brought as a civil suit, the Jury returned a verdict forfeiting the stock of machinery, tools, implements, &c. This is the first civil suit of the kind in the country.

Caspine Boecher, Wilmington,	5,000

A very serious question to a Husband and Father to ask himself, is, Should I be taken away to-morrow, would my family be provided for as I wish them to be? The Ætna Company is one of the solid institutions of this country, and by taking a Policy here you provide a certainty.

That which has made this Company such a favorite and so popular, is the low rate and prompt payment of all demands.

LIFE INSURANCE.

From the Insurance Monitor and Wall Street Review, New York.

A Well-deserved Success—The Equitable Life Insurance Company.

The approaching demolition of seven buildings, consisting of that almost immemorial landmark "Old Guerin's," the less ancient "Huntington's," and the present office-building of the American Exchange Company, on the southeast corner of Broadway and Cedar street, together with five adjoining buildings on the latter street, is scarcely visible to that modern monument-giant, the Equitable Life. These seven buildings are all to be replaced by one, six stories in height, including basement, and having a frontage of 50 feet 9 inches on Broadway, and one hundred and thirty-seven feet four inches on Cedar street. A number of the first architects in the country are engaged in preparing plans for the structure, so as to make it in style, accommodation, and convenience, superior to any other building of the kind yet erected.

The building will, however, not only be made to accommodate the Company, but so arranged that the rental of such part as is not occupied by them will return an interest on the investment.

The magnitude and surpassing growth of the Equitable Life not only justify the said movement, but render it both expedient and necessary. Although this Company has been only eight years in business, its policies issued during its eighth year covered an increase amounting to over thirty-five millions of dollars. The total sum assured by it up to the present date approaches 100,000,000; its accumulations have risen to $5,000,000; its annual income to three millions, and will in the ensuing year doubtless exceed by five millions of dollars.

For this rapid increase and splendid success there are abundant and most satisfactory reasons. They are found in the numerous solid advantages the Company affords. In the first place it is purely mutual, and that all its profits go to the insured on the first of February, every year, at which time a large dividend has been regularly paid, amounting last year to six hundred thousand dollars. By means of applying dividends so as to accommodate them to the circumstances of the policy holders, it unequalled for the variety of the advantages it offers.

The Equitable has been enabled to deal thus liberally with its insured in consequence of the prosperity of its business and the excellence of its management. The percentage of its "total out go," compared with its cash premium receipts, was less in 1866 than that of any other Company. Its policies average larger, its interest less than of any rival institution. It insures on a single life any sum from $250 to $250,000, and has one of the most desirable non-forfeiting policies. All its policies are, however, compensative now, and it is the only one carrying but few unpaid losses, the percentage of losses, to amount at risk, which is much less than that of older Companies, establishes this fact. The injunction is, indeed, full of vitality and progressive strength, and is regarded as the most successful and taking one yet presented to the age—the largest Life Insurance Company in the world.

NEW MOVEMENT IN LIFE INSURANCE.

We learn that some of the cash companies of this City have decided to adopt a uniform scale of premiums to take effect after the close of the present year, with a view to greater simplicity and uniformity in their business. These rates have been carefully declared from American experience, and will be more accurate and satisfactory than those hitherto used, which were mere European imitations. The Boston, Equitable, Washington, Widows and Orphans, Standard, and one or two other companies, have entered into the favorable arrangement. We learn also that the companies have decided to establish a system by which their expenses and other points relative to medical examination and inspection will be made known to each other, so as to avoid needless competition. Such movements will be hailed by the country as very timely.

There are many other points in life insurance, both theoretical and practical, upon which we could comment upon the present principles and methods of mutual and stock companies, and point out their individual shortcomings and merits, but we choose in all other respects, rather to speak of the le
