DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

THE GREAT VIRGINIA CONSERVATIVE CONVENTION.

The great Convention of the Conservatives of Virginia, which assembled in Richmond, on Wednesday, was attended by between 800 and 1,000 delegates, embracing a large number of the most distinguished gentlemen in the State. Thus far, we have only seen, in detail, the first day's proceedings, though the telegraph, on yesterday, gave us an abstract of its subsequent action.

The following is the address of the Hon. A. H. H. Stuart, on being conducted to the Chair:

Gentlemen of the Convention:—I thank you for the honor you have done me in calling me to preside over a Convention which embodies so large a share of the virtue, intelligence and patriotism of Virginia.

We have assembled, gentlemen, under circumstances of peculiar interest and solemnity. This is no Convention to advance the interests of a mere party. Thank Heaven, if the late fearful conflict has done no other good, it has effaced all old party lines and subdued all old party irritations. We come together, not as Whigs or Democrats, but as Virginians, earnestly devoted to the promotion of the interests and honor of our common mother. Nor have we come together in any factious spirit or with any aggressive purpose.

Whatever opinions individual members of this Convention may have entertained in the past as to the right of a State to withdraw from the Union, I think I may safely affirm that they have been abandoned as impracticable. The questions arising out of those opinions have been referred to the arbitrament of arms, and, having been decided adversely, all are free that they are bound in honor, as well as impelled by interest, to stand by the award.

The people of Virginia now desire repose, and they earnestly seek a restoration of their constitutional relations to the Union as the best means of affording it. They feel, too, that the material interests of all parts of our widely extended country are involved, and our liberties imperilled, by the longer continuance of the present unhappy state, and we seek a restoration of the Union as the most efficient remedy for all the evils of which we complain.

When the war ceased we were told that if we annulled our ordinance of secession, and repudiated the Confederate debt, and performed the emancipation of our slaves by adopting the constitutional amendments, we would be restored to our Constitutional rights. To these conditions we promptly acceded, because they involved no sacrifice of our self-respect and were attended by no national degradation. We have faithfully fulfilled all these conditions, and yet our rights are withheld. May we not, under these circumstances, appeal to the justice and good faith of the North for the redemption of the promises thus made to us?

Looking to events which have happened in other Southern States, the people of Virginia have been led to fear that a policy is to be inaugurated there which tends, if it be not designed, to subvert our whole social fabric and to bring the land of Washington, Henry, Jefferson, Madison and Marshall under the dominion of an alien and inferior race. We should be false to all the instincts of humanity—false to the blood which courses through our veins—false to every obligation of duty to ourselves, our children and our country, if we did not earnestly protest against and seek to arrest so fearful a calamity.

We hope our fears may be unfounded.—We hope we may be spared this attempted degradation. But it is the part of prudence to guard against all contingencies.—It is for this purpose that we have met to take counsel together to-day. We wish with one united voice to appeal to the patriotic people of the North to come to our relief and stay the hands of those who would oppress and degrade us.

We desire further to perfect our organization, so that all who desire that this shall continue to be a white man's government may be able to act in concert; and by one vigorous and united effort save ourselves from ruin and disgrace. We prefer military rule to the despotism of an ignorant rabble. And we wish to declare, with earnestness and emphasis, that, come what may, we and those we represent can never agree that this shall be any other than a white man's government. Our rights may be wrested from us by violence, but we will never agree that our proud old mother shall be presented in the attitude of consenting to her own degradation.

The Richmond Enquirer, commenting upon the character of the Convention, says:

"The vast throng of gentlemen who yesterday filled every seat in our spacious Theatre, proved that Virginia is neither dead nor sleeping. In the days of the old Commonwealth there could not have assembled a body more remarkable for distinguished talents than the Conservative Convention now in session in our midst.—All party lines having been broken down, the leaders of the old Whig and Democratic parties met as a band of brothers, with greetings as cordial and a purpose as earnest as if they had never been divided by the great issues which died amid the terrible throes of civil war. Not only is every county in the State represented, but we do not recollect scarcely a single Virginian distinguished for talent who is not a delegate.

Statesmen of national reputation, whose voices in the better days of the Union never fell unheeded upon the public ear, are here to protect their State. Distinguished soldiers, lawyers, divines, merchants and farmers—in a word, the leading representatives of every vocation and pursuit—are members of the Convention. The crowds which filled our streets, hotels and the theatre recall those glorious days when the rule of the white man was supreme in the land of Washington, Henry and Jefferson, and when our halls of legislation were not polluted by wheel of Mongrels and Yahoos!

No one can mingle with the members of this very able body now in session in this city and fail to perceive that the men who have long shaped the destinies of Virginia will not become the serfs of the negroes and their degraded white parasites. There is upon the part of every delegate to the Convention a ready acquiescence in the right of the Federal Government to enact obedience to the Constitution and laws, but there is a fixed and great resolute determination that the negro shall not be permitted to destroy that splendid fabric of civilization, the foundation of which our ancestors laid centuries ago. There is not a delegate to the Convention who does not cheerfully award to the negro every right which is essential to the security of his life and property, but the bold, resolute spirit of the body disdains the thought of the brutal negro, and the still more degraded white renegade, becoming their masters.

In no convention which ever met in Virginia was the State so thoroughly represented as in this body. Not less, we imagine, than eight hundred delegates, at a time of great pecuniary scarcity, have braved the inclemency of winter, and are here from the mountains to the sea-shore. From the Valley, from Piedmont, from South west Virginia, from the Southside, from Tidewater, from the Peninsula and the Eastern Shore—we have able and full representatives.—Venerable Virginians of the old school, the friends of Randolph, of Jefferson and Monroe, the surviving members of Conventions and Legislatures which have become famous in history, have emerged from long retirement, and we hope to encourage by their counsels the youth who are just entering upon the duties of life."

Valuable Property For Sale.

BY VIRTUE OF A DEED OF TRUST executed to me, by the late Wm. F. Collins, I will sell, on Monday, the 13th day of January, 1868, to the highest bidder, at the Court House door in Warrenton, the following valuable property:

The Tract of Land on which the late Wm. F. Collins resided, at the time of his death, situated in Warren County, on the Williamsboro' Road two (2) miles from Ridgeway Depot, on the R. & G. R. R., and adjoining the lands of Jas. E. Jones, B. M. Collins and others, containing

ONE HUNDRED AND SEVENTY-TWO (172) ACRES.

On this Tract are situated the celebrated RIDGEWAY MILLS, which are not surpassed in the manufacture of Flour by any in the State. The Mills are in first-rate running order.

There are on the premises a Dwelling House, the necessary out-houses, barns, stables, &c., for conducting a farm. The land is under good fences and in a high state of cultivation, about one-half the tract being in original woods, convenient to the House and Mill.

There is also a fine young Orchard of Apple and Peach trees, well selected, and several young vines of the Scuppernong Grape.

Persons wishing to purchase would do well to examine the property before the sale.

Terms made known on day of sale.

Comprising the following great Freight Routes:

THE POWHATAN

Steamboat Company's Freight Line of Steamers,

PETERSBURG AND WELDON,

RALEIGH AND GASTON,

NORTH CAROLINA,

WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA,

WILMINGTON AND WELDON,

ATLANTIC AND NORTH CAROLINA,

WILMINGTON AND MANCHESTER,

CHARLOTTE AND SOUTH CAROLINA R. R.,

And their connections.

Time Quick and Rates Low.

THIS NEW TRUNK LINE FORMS A GREAT FREIGHT ROUTE between Baltimore and Weldon, Warrenton, Raleigh, Hillsboro', Lexington, Salisbury, Morganton, Charlotte, Lincolnton, Goldsboro', Newbern, Beaufort, Wilmington, Chesterville, Kinston, Columbia, Somerville, Manchester, and all intermediate points on and near those great Railways and their connections.

The Powhatan Steamers connect at Petersburg with Petersburg Railway for all points in the Carolinas. Cars are run alongside of Steamers' Wharf and goods transferred with careful handling. Cars are run through without breaking bulk between Petersburg and Raleigh, Charlotte, Goldsboro', Wilmington, &c. &c. This Inland Line possesses many advantages over a Sea Route. Marine risk is small and insurance is comparatively nothing. The Wharf of the Powhatan Steamers being situated in the very centre of the great shipping district of Baltimore, renders it convenient to shippers, and drayage is very small.

Great attention paid to consignments of Cotton, Corn, Wheat, Rosin, &c. &c. All produce forwarded at the lowest possible rates.

☞ No insure transportation over this Inland Fast Line, mark all goods, whether Northward or South ward bound, "Via Petersburg."

☞ Freight landed in Baltimore day following delivery to the Steamers.

Through Receipts are given and flood rate per 100 pounds guaranteed both ways.

☞ Rates in every case same as via Bay Line and Portsmouth to and from Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.

N. B.—With regard to last named points, freight is forwarded to and from Petersburg by Philadelphia and N. Y. Steamers.

To the Bond Holders of the North Carolina Rail Road Company.

Office N. C. Railroad Company,
Company Shops, N. C.,
Nov. 9th, 1867.

MANY OF YOU HAVING ASSENTED WITH MY proposition, Mr. Wells, to take one hundred bonds, I take the liberty of informing you that we are ready to close the contract.

To accommodate I would say, we will sell one-fifth part, or more, if you are willing, and the balance in equal parts, at one, two, three and four years, at the purchaser's option, with interest payable semi-annually.

The date of the Contract to about $100,000 of bonds to start this fall will be issued.

The property mortgaged to secure the payment of these bonds is worth in currency about millions of dollars. There will be no more issued.

Dr. Johnston, in person, one of the largest stockholders in the road, will be present to explain the road to any who may desire information.

Yours, &c.,
JOHN TAYLOE, Jr.,
Pres't N. C. R. R. Co.
