"RECONSTRUCTION."

THE LOUISIANA CONVENTION

New Orleans Correspondence N. Y. World.

The Louisiana Reconstruction Convention holds its sessions in the Mechanics' Institute, known as the scene of the July riots. This building is a large, rambling structure of brick, on which workmen are now placing a fresh coat of stucco, the old one having been much pock-marked with bullets. Down stairs are the offices of state, and on the second floor, in a large room extending the full length of the edifice, unfortunate Louisiana is being ground in a Radical mill. This room, lit by 36 windows and flanked in its upper end by sepulchral committee rooms, also presents marks of conflict in sundry bullet holes bespattering the plaster on the walls. Above the platform, which is as large as an ordinary theatre stage and covered with a dismal carpet, hangs a torn and blood-stained flag, the same which figured in the riot. Beneath this flag sits the President of the Convention, of whom more hereafter, and to his right and left are pilloried that generation of vipers, the gentlemen of the press. Below press and President are other three desks, the left occupied by a mulatto sergeant-at arms, the centre by a mulatto secretary, and the right by an unhappy and tribunish looking white clerk. Below the dais again extends the Convention, a body, as I now view it, of 85 members, whereof 38 are white and 47 citizens of African descent. Outside of the Convention proper extends a railing, the gate wherein is guarded by a large brown negro and a small black dog, and on the outside again of this inclosure swarms the sovereign people. Item, a tall, ruddy faced, gray-haired white man with a hat as high as the younger Smallweed's; item, a jet black negro with no hat at all and his mouth wide open; item, a brown mulatto with a pipe; item, a creole with a cigarette, perched upon a chair and peacefully smoking; item, one of the colored troops who fought nobly; item, a "settlee," with a long blue coat and a silver crescent on the front of his black felt hat. And then, outside of the sovereigns, who, having no seats to occupy, crawl up each other's backs, like crabs in a basket, come ancient women and small boys who vend pecan nuts, pat-pies, and ginger-bread.

With this birdseye view of the hall, let us look at the individual members of the convention. First comes the President, Judge J. G. Taliaferro, white, an ancient man who resembles in personal appearance old Sir Pitt Crawley in Vanity Fair. In politics, Mr. T. has been an unflinching and consistent Democrat. He was a member of the Louisiana Secession Convention of '61, resisted to his utmost the action of that body, denounced the action, and for his general opposition was incarcerated for a while in Shreveport jail. Otherwise the judge is not particularly known. Being a very old man, and, as he stated in his opening address, not a very profound parliamentarian, he generally permits the convention to roar and howl about him as it will, peacefully dozing through the fury of debate. Next to president comes O. C. Antoine, negro; L. W. Baker, white; Jno. L. Barret, white; S. Belden, white; and A. Bertoneau, mulatto, all entirely unknown. W. Jasper Blackburn, white, is a Northern man who edits the Homer Iliad, a little radical paper of intense bitterness published in Claiborne parish. O. C. Blandin is a New Orleans mulatto. Hyacinthe Bonseigner is the same and chairman of a standing Committee—that on "contemporeen expansas." Emile Bonnefoi is a mulatto. Wm. Brown is an unkown white. Dennis Burret is a negro. William Butler is a negro. William H. Cooley is a white man; a district judge in Point Coupee, and Chairman of the standing committee on the new Constitution. He is not so radical as he was, and swears freely. W. R. Crane is a truly loyal man whose name appears subscribed to this oath: "I do solemnly swear that I am qualified according to the Constitution and laws of the State to vote. I will be faithful, and true allegiance bear to the State of Louisiana and the Confederate States of America, and that I will support, protect, and defend the Constitution of the State and the said Confederate States. So help me God. March 20, 1862." Some years prior to this the reconstructing Crane offered a resolution in the Louisiana Legislature to unseat Judah P. Benjamin, then United States Senator, because the said Judah was in favor of Mr. Clay's compromise measure, instead of being, as Soule, Quitman, and the reconstructing Crane then were, for instantaneous secession. After Butler the beast came to this city, Mr. Crane became curator of the estates of persons sent beyond the line, and of registered enemies.—In personal appearance he is adust, as to the face, orange tawny as to the beard, and stringy as to the neck, around which, without any intervention of a collar, is twisted a wispy black cravat. Thos. S. Crawford is a melancholy unknown young white man in blue steel specs; R. J. Cromwell is a negro doctor; Samuel E. Curey is a very black negro; Geo. W. Dearing, Jr., is a mulatto; A. J. Demarest is a white unknown; Chas. Depeauw is a mulatto; P. G. Deslonde, mulatto; Jos. Deslonde, mulatto; Auguste Donator, Jr., mulatto; David Doog'as, mulatto; J. G. Drinkard, white, unknown; Gustavus Duparte, mulatto; Ulger Duparte, mulatto; C. H. H. Duplessis, white, unknown; J. B. Esnard, mulatto; G. W. Ferguson, white, unknown; John Gair, mulatto; R. G. Gardiner, a very black negro, temporary President of the Convention; Abraham N. Gould, negro; Leopold Gilchard, mulatto; Peter Harper, Jno. S. Harris, Thos. P. Harrison, O. H. Hempstead, and W. H. Hiestand, all white and entirely unknown; J. H. Ingraham, mulatto, a cook in the Washington artillery during the war, and now chairman of the committee on bill of rights; P. H. Isabelle, mulatto; Thomas Isabelle, mulatto; Simon Jones, white; G. Y. Kelso, unknown; J. H. Landry, white, wears a pale brimstone colored vest and is Solon Shingle to a hair, otherwise unknown; Victor Lange, mulatto, Chas. Leroy, mulatto; J. B. Lewis, white; Richard Lewis, black; Jno. J. Ludwig, white a German, has good sense, but speaks English lewly; Jno. Lynch, white, "Give ye me weird of humor he has," said he the other day, ante ever in debate; son of such is Delegate Lynch; Frederick Magee, white; Thomas M. Martin, mulatto; J. S. Mansieur, white; Wm. R. Meachem, white; Ben. McKeran, white; W. E. McMillan, of Ohio, ex. U. S. A.; Milton Morris, a very black negro; S. R. Moses, still blacker; Wm. Mundil, mulatto; James Mudaway, white; Theophyl Myers, mulatto; J. P. Newsham, white, ex-U. S. A.; Jos. C. Oliver, mulatto; S. B. Packard, white; Jno. Pierce, mulatto; P. B. S. Pinchback, mulatto, great friend of Banks, N. P.; Robert Poindexter, negro; Curtis Pollard, negro, black as jet; Geo. W. Regers, white, ex-U. S. A.; D. Reese, white; Fortune Riard, mulatto; D. D. Riggs, white; J. A. N. Roberts, mulatto; L. Rodriquez, mulatto; N. Schwab, white, German; Chas. Smith, white, Internal revenue assessor; Sesthene Snaer, mulatto; Jno. Scott, negro; G. Snider, white; H. G. Steele, white; Chas. Thibaut, white; E. Twichant, mulatto; M. H. Twitchell, white, ex U. S. A.; Napoleon Underwood, white; P. F. Vaifoil, negro; Jno. R. Vandergriff, white; Michael Vidal, white; Rufus Naples, white; G. M. Wickliffe, white, is a truly loyal man. In 1860, he edited a paper at Clinton, in this State, called The Spirit of the South, full of death to abolitionists, hang the abolitionist devils, whet the knife, prepare the fuel, etc., etc., in the very worst style of the fire-eating school. As before observed, he is now a truly loyal man. He looks, big black moustache, "hilang!" air and all, as though he has just dropped down out of the Bowery; and with two negroes, Williams and Wilson, closes the roll of this Convention.

Correspondence of the Baltimore Gazette.

THE VIRGINIA CONVENTION—SENATOR WILSON'S MISSION—NEGRO MEMBERS OF THE CONVENTION.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11, 1867.

The proceedings of the Negro Constitutional Convention in Richmond are now of absorbing interest to the Radical Reconstructionists, and every effort is being made by them to curb the wild African element in that body, and which is completely under the control of bad white men in the Convention. Senator Wilson, of Massachusetts, having accepted a formal invitation to visit Richmond and advise with the "newly enfranchised," left last evening, declaring his purpose to prevent, if possible, any further public discussion of questions, as the meddling reporters would tell things just as they happened, and would render the proceedings of the Convention ridiculous and farcical, to the great mortification of "loyal men" North. And well may he anticipate mortification on the part of every decent man, North and South. In that Convention, clothed with power to frame the organic law of a people, he will find Hanover county, which gave birth to Clay and Patrick Henry, represented by an ignorant negro; the County of Charlotte, which contains the mortal remains of Henry and Randolph, represented by a negro; the county of Orange, where Presidents Madison and Tayler were born, represented by a negro; the county of Albermarle, the home of Jefferson, represented by a negro, and even old Charles City County, which gave birth to Presidents Harrison and Tyler, is also represented by an ignorant negro. In such a Convention Senator Wilson may feel proud to be, and take great delight in speaking and advising, but the spectacle to the eyes of the world will be a blot upon American civilization.

The Tract of Land on which the late Wm. F. Collins resided, at the time of his death, situated in Warren County, on the Williamsboro' Road, two (2) miles from Ridgeway Depot, on the R. & G. R. R., and adjoining the lands of Jno. E. Jones, B. M. Collins and others, containing

ONE HUNDRED AND SEVENTY-TWO (172) ACRES.

RALEIGH AND GASTON,

NORTH CAROLINA,

WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA,

WILMINGTON AND WELDON,

ATLANTIC AND NORTH CAROLINA,

WILMINGTON AND MANCHESTER,

CHARLOTTE AND SOUTH CAROLINA R. R.,

And their connections.

Time Quick and Rates Low.

THIS NEW TRUNK LINE FORMS A GREAT FREIGHT ROUTE between Baltimore and Weldon, Warrenton, Raleigh, Hillsboro', Lexington, Salisbury, Morganton, Charlotte, Lincolnton, Goldsboro', Newbern, Beaufort, Wilmington, Chesterville, Winnsboro', Columbia, Summerville, Manchester, and all intermediate points on and near these great Railways and their connections.

The Powhatan Steamers connect at Petersburg with Petersburg Railway for all points in the Carolinas. Cars are run alongside of Steamers' Wharf and goods transferred with careful handling. Cars are run through without breaking bulk between Petersburg and Raleigh, Charlotte, Goldsboro', Wilmington, &c., &c. This Inland Line possesses many advantages over a Sea Route. Marine risk is small and insurance is comparatively nothing. The Wharf of the Powhatan Steamers being situated in the very centre of the great shipping district of Baltimore, renders it convenient to shippers, and drayage is very small.

Great attention paid to consignments of Cotton, Corn, Wheat, Rosin, &c. &c. All produce forwarded at the lowest possible rates.

☞ To insure transportation over this Inland Fast Line, mark all goods, whether Northward or Southward bound, "VIA PETERSBURG."

☞ Freight landed in Baltimore day following delivery to the Steamers.

Through Receipts are given and fixed rate per 100 pounds guaranteed both ways.

☞ Rates in every case same as via Bay Line and Portsmouth to and from Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.

N B.—With regard to last named points, freight is forwarded to and from Petersburg by Philadelphia and N. Y. Steamers.

THE AMERICAN BITTERS.

The Great Southern Tonic,

AND THE MOST PALATABLE STOMACHIC EVER USED.

FOR THE CURE OF DYSPEPSIA, Debilities, Bad Digestion, Flatulency, Diminished Circulation of the Blood, Bilious Complaints arising from a deranged condition of the stomach and Bowels. An Elegant Tonic in debilitated states of the Digestive Organs, or of the System generally. For the loss of appetite it is the most delicious and effectual Tonic in the world. It strengthens, restores and revitalizes the system, and prevents fever diseases. In weak stomach, flatulency, tremors and general nervous derangements, it is peculiarly adapted, giving strength to the stomach, to relieve the nerves, to invigorate the brain and quicken the circulation of the blood. It is, in fact, wherever there is debility, the most agreeable Tonic in existence. It is also an invaluable remedy for Chills and Fever.

Dr. Johnston, R. Jones, one of the most eminent physicians and well known Physicians in the South and West, testifies to its great value, as also many others who have been greatly benefited by the use of these Bitters.
