VOICE OF THE NORTH CAROLINA PRESS!

VANCE AND HALL.

The White Men vs. the Mongrels!

From the Wilmington Journal.

VANCE AND HALL.

From a telegram received from Mr. Badger, the Secretary of the Executive Committee, we are glad to announce that Governor Vance has received the nomination as the Conservative candidate for Governor, and Col. E. D. Hall, of this city, for Lieutenant Governor. It gives us pleasure to place the names of these patriotic and distinguished gentlemen at the head of our columns, and shall labor faithfully and hopefully for their success. A better or stronger ticket could not have been placed before the people of the State. Their names will excite enthusiasm throughout the length and breadth of North Carolina.

Before we go to press we shall most probably be able to give the entire ticket, and feel confident that its selection will exhibit the same wise judgment shown in the nomination of the two names which head the ticket.

From the Newbern Journal of Commerce.

VANCE FOR GOVERNOR.

Who in North Carolina has not heard of Zebulon R. Vance? Who will not rejoice in the language of our special telegraph, that he has been nominated to lead the Conservative hosts of North Carolina to victory? Zebulon R. Vance, who never turned his back upon a friend, or an enemy, is the willing man's candidate for the highest official position to which the people of North Carolina can elevate him. That he will accept the nomination is beyond all doubt; that he will canvass the State from mountain to seaboard, if time is allowed, is equally certain; and that he will literally skin his opponent is beyond all peradventure.

The nomination of Col. Hall is a decided compliment to a gallant gentleman, and to the sterning Conservatives of the lower Cape Fear.

The State Executive Committee have been exceedingly fortunate in these nominations, and the people's plain duty is to return them by overwhelming majorities at the ballot-box, on the day of election.

From the Old North State.

GOV. VANCE IN THE FIELD.

We are highly gratified at a rumor which reached here to-day, from Raleigh, to the effect that Z. B. Vance had been nominated by the Conservative State Executive Committee, as candidate for Governor.

The Committee have struck the right man. Vance is up to the mind of every Conservative in the State. He is a rousing live man, and his clarion voice will inspire more life into the depressed and drooping hearts of the people, than any other in the State.

It is hoped Holden will meet him on the stump. He says he is not afraid to do it. Of course not. Vance protected him once, when some wild Georgia soldiers had a notion of giving him a cravat, and will double show him all possible courtesy on the stump. There are thousands of people who want to "go about through a hard rain at any time," Sundays excepted, to see and hear them speak. We very much hope they will not be disappointed.

From the Charlotte Bulletin.

VANCE FOR GOVERNOR.

By a telegraphic dispatch, received by one of our citizens yesterday, we are informed that at the meeting of the State Executive Committee of the Conservative party, which held its session in Raleigh, yesterday, it was determined to run the Hon. ZEBULON B. VANCE, of Mecklenburg, for Governor, and the Hon. EDWARD D. HALL, of New Hanover, for Lieutenant Governor to be voted for at the time of voting on the new constitution.

This selection will carry joy to the hearts of many North Carolinians, and cause the friends of liberty from Republicanism, and in favor of a white man's government to leave no stone unturned to secure their election. We heartily approve the action of our Executive Committee. No better choice could have been made. With such men as Vance and Hall, the doom of the Republic can only be sealed.

From the Wilmington Journal.

RADICAL TICKET.

The Radicals and adopted a resolution that no man with a decent character and honorable reputation should be nominated for their ticket for State offices, they could not have blind the blindest eye completely. Of Holden and Caldwell it is useless to implore to repeat. The fathers of the Radical language, though understanding the Radicals and wished well of them, never comprehended the depths to which the two have lowered themselves, and therefore did not fashion words or phrases to suitably represent them.

Jenkins, candidate for State Treasurer, was a negro trader up to the breaking out of the war, and what money he has was made in the traffic of human flesh. He is now an accepted Radical, and therefore a good friend of the negro.

Haris, we beg pardon, Colonel Harris, who claims to superintend public works was a Colonel of home guards, and was hunting Confederate deserters until the surrender.

Coleman is a young man of bad moral character, and ran away from his home in Concord to avoid the vengeance of a respectable colored man, whose daughter he had outraged. He is a poor lawyer, but will do well enough for the Radicals.

Moore is a political pillar from Ohio. Brick Pomeroy tells some hard things about his private character, which we may be forced to publish.

Ashley is a dirty, low fellow, who has made the living and dying with the negroes of this city. Should he be elected, his official absence from this place will be of service to our radical negroes, but those of the State will feel the evil influence of this bad man.

Goss grants that North Carolina was never so carried away under the control of the negroes, and that a white man will always fight under the good name and honest progress of the State.
