OUR NOMINEE FOR GOVERNOR.

We raise to our next best, this morning, with pride and pleasure, the name of the Hon. THOMAS S. ASHE, of Anson, as the candidate of the Conservative party for the office of Governor of North Carolina.

This nomination was made by the State Executive Committee, on Saturday, quite a full representation being in attendance.

Of established and most honorable private character, of eminent attainments, of fine address, and excellent capacities as a public speaker, Mr. Ashe is one of the first and great men in the State.

With him upholding the banner of white supremacy, civil liberty and Constitutional Union, we hope to march on to certain victory.

Let every Conservative in the State rally at once to the support of our noble ticket, and the work of organization be thoroughly accomplished—let no exertion or effort be spared in the line of patriotic duty—AND ALL WILL BE WELL!

GENERAL HANCOCK.

The few short months that Gen. Hancock has been engaged in the execution of the Reconstruction Acts, in Louisiana and Texas, vice Sheridan removed, he has done more to impress the excellencies of his character and his executive ability, upon the public mind, than all the District commanders combined, and even more than by his distinguished services in the late war. His orders have been judicious and well-timed, and his general demeanor, showing his great reverence for the Constitution and the laws, and his respect for the rights of all the people, have noted like a charm upon the hitherto disturbed condition of that District, and the consequence is, universal respect and obedience to the law and general quiet and good order. More than a year ago, Gen. Grant would have most heartily endorsed his action, but the malign influences of the "trusty toll," the vindictive and violent men who have been expelled from the District, have been exerted upon the General of the Army and his friends, to the extent that he required Gen. Hancock to revoke orders, which his own mind had carefully considered before issuing, and in which he now sees nothing but propriety and wisdom. Gen. H., like a good soldier, obeys the mandate of his superior, but, like a high-souled officer, feeling that had results must follow, he saw the President to relieve him from the command.

Most earnest remonstrances have been sent to the President against his removal, and it is understood that the President is loth to consent to relieve an officer, whose entire administration has so heartily approved.

IS POVERTY A CRIME?

The affirmative of this proposition is the logical corollary of the so-called Constitution, which the Memphis Convention has concocted. In the Articles of Amendment, they have provided that all children, (white and black) in the State, between certain ages, SHALL attend the public schools, if unable to obtain an education otherwise. AND THEY HEREBY insert a proviso that separate schools for the races should be provided. So that the room was left to deprive his children by sending them to school with negro children!

JUDICIAL.

Judge Fisher, of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, whose conduct in the recent trial of Barrett was very generally condemned for his partisan character, and whose judicial ermine has been so recently soiled in his collusion with Stanton to prevent an immediate appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States by the President, on the Tenth of office bill, has now added to his partisan character by deciding that Virginia is not a State in the Union, in direct contravention of the decision of six of the eight U. S. Supreme Court Judges, only a few days before. No party could desire more abhorrent tool than he.

MR. McLAUGHLIN.

Mr. McLaughlin, Esq., of Iredell, is recommended by "Many Conservatives," in the Statesville Democrat, as a candidate for Congress in the District, at which that county forms a part. Mr. McLaughlin can take the test-out, and is one of the staunchest Conservatives in the State. He is devotedly attached to and uncompromisingly opposed to the designs of the negro-suppressors.

RECENT MATTERS.

Several matters that have transpired in the so-called, within a day or two past, demand our attention, but our time and space are too much engrossed in day. We shall especially ventilate the infamous action of the ridiculous editors on the subject of "the intimidation of voters." Mr. Ellis' remarks on this subject shall appear in our next.

REMARKS.

The Committee of this city are organizing upon a perfect plan. Among other features of their organization is a Committee on Challenging and Registering. President of the Righteous, and in the list we recognize the names of many of the best and ablest men in the county. They are a noble set—these Newborn Conservatives.

CANTONERS.

The following have been added to the list of cantoners: J. L. Harris, C. M. McCaskey, D. A. Caston, W. W. Walker, and J. B. Moore.

SHALL NEGRO SOLDIERS BE ADMITTED TO THE MILITIA?

SHALL WHITE MEN BE ENROLLED IN THE MILITIA WITH NEGROES?

DOWN WITH THE MONGREL CONSTITUTION!

That is the slogan.

RELIEF OF THE PEOPLE.

It is known that Mr. Rodman's Convention has been upon the subject of relief of the people, and it is regarded by many as a shining relief in special cases. On Friday night, he made his last effort to push it through, when it was defeated. This was a sore link. Perhaps he was not much interested in that measure as in any thing brought before the body. Other Radicals have been urging relief, but nothing which they could devise would do, at length, the Conservatives determined to fly their standard.

Mr. Graham, of Orange, offered an ordinance, as a substitute for Mr. Rodman's, which seemed to meet the views of a majority, and which, after some amendments, passed its final reading, on Saturday. It is too long for insertion to day, but will appear to-morrow.

Mr. Rodman admitted that it was a triumph of the Conservatives, and seemed very sorry under his defeat. Mr. Graham's ordinance is in the form of a message, and is based upon the Convention ordinance of 1865, with several important amendments.

But how anxious this body must be to grant relief to the people, when, immediately upon the back of the foregoing ordinance for relief, the Radicals passed an ordinance, requiring the Legislature to make arrangements, BY TAXATION, for the payment of the interest on the State debt, commencing January 1869! This is a relief with a vengeance. Can the people of North Carolina bear a tax amounting to nearly a million and a half of dollars, to pay interest, defacing the Federal and State taxes!

But more soon. The ordinance will appear in our next.

RATIFICATION MEETING.

The White Men's Club of Raleigh held a Ratification Meeting at the Court House, on Saturday night. Notwithstanding the exceeding inclemency of the evening, there was a very large and enthusiastic attendance, and the meeting was a highly interesting one. The nomination of Mr. Ashe for Governor was heartily and cordially approved, and his administration was commended by Capt. J. J. Davis, of Franklin, and Mr. Robbins, of Rowan, two of the best speakers we have had the pleasure of hearing for many a day. Mr. Davis was forcible and impressive, as he always is, while Mr. Robbins carried the house by storm by his vitriolic satire and rail, genuine eloquence.

Messrs. Leach, Engelhard and Dlodge were called on, but excused themselves in brief and pertinent remarks. It was, altogether, a glorious evening, of which we shall have more to say hereafter.

IS IT A FRIEND HAS HANDED US THE FOLLOWING FROM THE STANDARD OF SATURDAY:

"The meetings at Kinston and Goldsboro, which were attended by Gen. Holden, Messrs. Leach and others, were great successes. Our informant is, that 'the meetings at Kinston and Goldsboro,' so far from being successes, were complete failures. Scarcely any white men attended the meetings or approved of the candidates. We do not believe the statement that Jas. Rumley, Esq., of Carteret, or J. M. Parrott, of Lenoir, have finally and unequivocally declared for the Republican party." Mr. Rumley is a quiet man, indisposed to be mixed up with partisan politics, but we do not believe that he, or either of the Messrs. Parrott, of Lenoir, will vote for the new Constitution or for the Holden ticket. If our impression is incorrect, we hope those gentlemen will correct us. We shall take their silence as evidence that we are correct.

NEW YORK.

At the recent Democratic State Convention of New York, held at Albany, Mr. Philo White, of Oneida, (we presume, Philo White, Esq., formerly of this State,) moved the following resolution, which was referred:

Resolved further, That although there are many distinguished and favorite sons of the State of New York in the Democratic ranks who would, by their distinguished character, brilliant talents, and eminent public services, honor and dignify the highest official post under our government, yet yielding individual preference on the altar of our allied country, we would with all deference suggest that there is no among eminent citizens whose gifts of heart and mind, elevated intellect, ability of manner in a great measure, and ripe possession of a brilliant career of public service, would seem especially to point to him as the man adapted to the present great emergency, when our cherished Republican institutions are menaced with extinction; and we name as that man ex-Governor Horatio Seymour, of Oneida county.

Mr. Seymour adheres to his position not to be a Presidential candidate. He is one of the delegates for the State at large to the National Democratic Convention, to be held at New York, on the 4th of July next.

NEGRO SUPPLANT AMENDMENT TO THE PENNSYLVANIA CONSTITUTION.

The amendment to the Constitution of Pennsylvania giving the negroes the right to vote was lastly debated last Tuesday evening, and afterwards voted upon. When the vote was taken there were found both the white and black who had the courage to vote in its favor, and twenty-three votes were cast against it. In view of the coming Presidential election, these minority fellows backed out of the support of their favorite measure, in which they party is committed. While these Radicals are willing enough to show signs of courage to the people, it is to allow the negro to vote in the State of Pennsylvania. They were a noble set—these Newborn Conservatives.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

LOUISIANA, N. C., March 13, 1868.

Editors Sentinel: Appreciating your desire to keep posted as to the current events of the day, especially when those events indicate the character of the people politically, I will present upon given you a few notes relative to incidents that have transpired during the past several days in Louisiana.

This week is the March Term of the County Court, and as usual, many of the young men of the county were present. But little was done Monday, either in or out of Court. On Tuesday, the 10th, the Court dealt with the case of State vs. McDonald, et al. McDonald, of Ohio, and Col. Dwyer, of Illinois, et al., were charged with a chronic degree of Black Congressional fever, Messrs. Dlodge and Jones, competitors for our State Senate, Messrs. Eaton, Jr., of Warren, and Franklin's accomplished son, Capt. Joe J. Davis, being the public upon the important case.

Mr. McDonald was the first to gather his crowd: mounting the balcony of the Louisiana Hotel, very soon after his arrival, he proceeded to enlighten his fellow citizens. I have time only to say of him, that he said "he was not nor should not be held responsible for having been born white." He had not proceeded far, before he belittled to the court house notified as that the white men of the county were assembling for the purpose of holding a Conservative meeting. The hall was soon crowded, leaving the monger whites, (a few only) to harangue the colored people.

The meeting was called to order by Capt. Davis, and Dr. E. A. Crudup requested to preside. Capt. Davis was called upon to state the object of the meeting, which he stated to be the organization of all true white men of the county, for the purpose of defeating, if possible, the infamous and degrading Constitution that will be submitted for our ratification or rejection in a short time, framed, ostensibly, for the purpose of making us all rich and free, but which would really have the effect of making the rich poor, the poor miserably poor, and degrading worse than that visited upon the people of France after the great French Revolution. His remarks were soul-stirring and patriotic throughout, frequently eliciting heavy applause. He ventilated several of the Radical nominees, among them Mr. Watts, who ran over the county on a former occasion in quest of a short time, since running against him, and to get them to vote for him for Judge of this District.

Mr. Eaton was then introduced. He spoke at some length, forcibly and eloquently, handling the new Constitution and some of its advocates with telling effect. This distinguished gentleman evinced a degree of enthusiasm and fervor during the delivery of his speech, that brought tears even to the eyes of many of his hearers. I wish his speech could be published in full. Suffice it to say that he sustained his reputation as a man of eminent abilities, a profound thinker and forcible orator.

A native son of old Franklin, but long since adopted son of Wake, Moses A. Bledsoe, was then loudly called. Mr. B. came forward and commenced by allusions to the fact that he had visited the county in a public capacity, and that he was gratified himself greatly at the pleasure of again meeting so many of them, he then announced himself as a candidate for the suffrages of the Senatorial District of Wake and Franklin, to represent, directly, the county of Wake, and as the nominee of the Conservative party of Wake. He then explained how, by the aid of the Republican party, the nomination of Mr. Bledsoe as one of the Senators to represent Wake county, came about. He declared himself a white man still, and was proud to confess it—that there are white men enough to rule North Carolina, of sufficient intelligence; they must and will rule her, and whenever the flag of the white men of this country should trail in the dust of a Radical negro victory, they should be ready to fall a martyr to its defence. He then alluded to his visit to the meetings of the infamous diabolical and indignation of his hearers. He called for him, wanted to look at him, but Mr. Jones could not be found. Mr. B. told the citizens to listen to Mr. Jones if he should wish to address them, and notwithstanding he was loudly called for by the people, who were anxious to look on him, "he could not be found." Nor did he give himself up, as a speaker, to the hands of his hearers, but he respected the X. P. G. Mr. Holden was not little surprised therefor. Mr. B. read some passages from an address delivered by his Excellency (once and would be) in 1867, touching upon African slavery, its benefits to the country and what would result from its abolition, all of which, as subsequent events have shown, Mr. B. added, have proven Mr. Holden's correct respect to the X. P. G. Mr. Holden was well-timed, pointed and effective. He retired amidst thundering applause. He has not secured of the Whites of old Franklin.

A series of patriotic resolutions were adopted by the meeting, which have been sent you. Capt. J. J. Davis was nominated for private reasons, which his friends desired to hold up to his hearers, in respect to the nomination.

The meeting adjourned to meet, as usual, in this place, on the 30th inst., at which time suitable candidates for the respective offices will be brought out. The youthful gentleman, whose name I have given, in the estimation of his associates, has gained for him the nomination for the Attorney Generalship, which, by the way, has formed the subject about the most of the office more generally than that which Convention was present, but only looked about one of the far removed the town, and among his associates. Birds of a feather, &c. It is the first time I ever saw him, and I must say that I think the degree was in bad company, a political one. Dwyer did not make his appearance. Old Watts will be all right.

Any other news of interest will be communicated.

Yours truly, MCKNIGHT.

CONSERVATIVE MEETING.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Conservative party of Franklin was held in Louisa, on Friday, the 10th.

The meeting was called to order by Captain J. J. Davis upon whose motion Dr. E. A. Crudup was called to preside, and Chas. H. Thomas and M. Lankford, Esqrs., were designated to act as Secretaries.

Upon coming to the chair, Dr. Crudup acknowledged the compliment by a "becoming manner, and called upon Capt. Davis to preside over the object of the meeting, which he did in an appropriate way.

On motion of Captain Davis, a committee, consisting of one from each Captain's District was appointed to draft resolutions embodying the views of the meeting. While the committee were devising the resolutions, Wm. Eaton, Esq., of Warren, was called for, and addressed the meeting in a wise and patriotic style.

After the conclusion of which the committee, through their chairman, Mr. D. S. Hill, submitted the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That we, the white men of Franklin county, do most heartily approve and endorse the Declaration of Principles enunciated by the Convention of the Conservative people of North Carolina, at Raleigh, on the 5th and 6th of February last, and we pledge ourselves to exhaust every honorable means, and use every effort, to secure the triumph and establishment of those principles in our beloved State.

Resolved, That, while we entertain no unjust prejudices against the colored population, and are anxious to live with them on terms of peace and mutual good-will, by according and securing to them every privilege they can rightly claim, we are constrained by the instinct of self-preservation, and by our devotion to civil liberty, which is our birthright, to maintain strenuously the great principle that this is a white man's government, established by white men, for the benefit of white men; and that its preservation as the ralliation of liberty for all, depends upon its control and administration by white men.

Resolved, That the issues involved in the pending contest are too momentous to permit us for a moment to yield to the influence of any former personal or partisan predilections or prejudices, and that the only tests of political orthodoxy we ought to regard, are a firm and unwavering devotion to the doctrine of white supremacy in this country, and a determined opposition to social or political equality between the white and colored races.

Resolved, That we protest against and denounce the attempts on the part of the "so-called" constitutional convention at Raleigh, to abolish and supersede the time-honored laws and institutions of our dear old State, and to fast upon the white experiments of fanaticism in other States in their stead; and that we will use our best efforts to defeat these dangerous innovations.

Resolved, That we approve of the plan of organization recommended by the State Conservative Convention, and in pursuance thereof the chairman is requested to appoint three or more Committee men in each Captain's District, to canvass their Districts and attend to matters of registration, &c.

Under the above resolutions the following Committee men were appointed viz:

Louisa—W. H. Ferguson, Rufus Placon, J. L. Ferguson, Jos. Murphy, Jas. Winn, N. H. Hawkins, Henry Plessants, Peyton J. Brown, Jr., Jas. Williamson, and Wm. E. Young.

Peep's Hill—J. B. Littlejohn, R. F. Cook, Dr. P. S. Foster, Benj. Wilson, and Joo Will son.

Perry's Mill—Robt. Speed, Green, Cuyton, Wm. Cooper and Burton Carr.

Cooper's Arch—Wm. Williams, Joo Peace, Wm. Collins, Arch Taylor, and Joshua Perry.

Davis—Washington Harris, Wm. Moore, Dr. Lankford, Col. Wm. H. Yarbrough, and Thos. Davis.

Dennis'—Dr. Fowler, Dr. Theo. H. Mack, Robt. Griffin, Capt. Bains and Maj. Arch Crudup.

Galloway's—Benj. King, J. P. Finberlake, J. J. Freeman and Wm. K. Martin.

Harris—J. Robt. Jefferey, Saml. Harris, Joo Chamber and P. P. Peacor.

Franklin—A. G. Perry, Fenner Chapman, Wilson Williams, W. H. Mitchell, Joo B. Whitfield and Jas. Joyner.

Highway—D. D. Dwyer, Jas. Gill, Richd. Wm. H. High and Jas. Perdue.

Resolved, That we approve, and will give our best efforts to, the nomination of Moses A. Bledsoe as one of the Senators from this Senatorial District, recently made by the Conservatives of Wake in their county Convention; and that this Convention do nominate as their choice for the other Senator from our District, Thos. Davis.

Resolved, That the Chairman of this Convention be requested to appoint 25 delegates to represent the county in the District convention, to nominate a Conservative candidate for Congress, and delegates to the National Democratic Conservative Convention.

The following were appointed: John E. Thomas, Buckner Dobbins, Wm. Ferguson, Fenner Thaxton, J. A. Handley, J. F. Jones, W. H. Davis, Benj. Wilson, H. Ays, W. B. Foster, Jonas Wilson, J. R. A. Speed, Richard O. Wynn, Dr. W. W. Green, Daniel S. Hill, Wm. Collins, N. H. Hawkins, Alex. Moore, A. B. Jordan, Wm. E. Young, H. Young, H. B. High, Dr. E. A. Crudup, J. B. Littlejohn, James O. Davis, Dr. W. H. Davis, Moses A. Bledsoe, Esq., of Wake county, being present, was loudly called, and, owing forward, sustained the meeting by one of his best efforts, handling Mr. W. H. Jones and his friends W. W. Holden in a trenchant style. The remarks of Mr. Bledsoe were warmly and enthusiastically applauded by all the white men present, and were loudly approved by the colored people.

On motion, the chairman was requested to appoint a committee of three from each Captain's District to canvass their respective Districts, and attend to matters of registration, &c.

On motion, the meeting adjourned to meet on Friday, the 20th inst. as aforesaid.

THE RECONSTRUCTION LAWS OF THE SUPREME COURT.—So general is the belief that the Supreme Court will decide the Reconstruction laws unconstitutional, that the Radicals are making an effort to induce Grant to issue an order changing the time for the holding of the elections in Georgia and Florida. It is believed that Chief-Justice Chase's presence in the Senate in trying impeachment will not delay a decision in the McCord case.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. World.
