GENERAL ORDERS, }
No. 57. }

The Ordinance of the Constitutional Convention of the State of North Carolina, convened in conformity with the Act of Congress of March 23, 1867, supplementary to the Act of March 2, 1867, "to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," entitled "An Ordinance respecting the jurisdiction of the courts of this State," which was ratified in said Convention on the 17th day of March, 1868, and which is hereby published, is hereby approved, and will have the force of law in said State until the question of the ratification or rejection of the Constitution framed by said Convention, by the people of said State, shall have been determined by an election held in the manner prescribed by law, and, in the event of the rejection thereof, for the further period of thirty days: Provided, that the terms of said Ordinance shall not be held to apply to or conflict with any agricultural or labor lien guaranteed by any law of said State, enacted subsequently to the organization of the provisional government of said State under the President's proclamation of the 29th day April, 1865, or by any military orders from these Headquarters, now in force. And provided further, that all proceedings in any court of North Carolina, recognizing or sanctioning the investments of the funds of minor heirs, or of females, or of insane persons, in the securities of the late rebel government, or the securities of the State of North Carolina, created for the purpose of carrying on war against the government of the United States, shall, as now, be suspended until the question of the validity of such investments shall have been determined by the courts of the United States, or by national legislation.—And nothing in the provisions of this order, or of the Ordinance herewith published, shall be held to bar or hinder any legal proceedings in behalf of any minor heir, female, or insane person, respecting trust estate, property or interests in the hands of executors, administrators, trustees, guardians, commissioners, masters or clerks of equity courts, and other fiduciary agents, or invested by them in their fiduciary character.

By command of B'vt Maj. Gen. Ed. R. S. CANBY:

LOUIS V. CAZIARC,
Aid-de-Camp,
Act'g Ass't Adj't Gen'l.

AN ORDINANCE RESPECTING THE JURISDICTION OF THE COURTS OF THIS STATE.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the people of North Carolina, in Convention assembled, That Sections 1 and 2 of the Ordinance of the Convention, adopted June 23, 1866, entitled "An Ordinance to change the jurisdiction of the Courts and the rules of pleading therein," be and are hereby repealed.

SECTION 2. Be it further ordained, That Section 3 of the above entitled Ordinance be amended to read as follows:

SECTION 3. That all actions of debt, covenant, assumpsit and account now pending in the Superior Courts, shall be continued to Spring Term 1869, and that the several Superior Courts at the Spring Term thereof only, unless otherwise herein provided, shall have exclusive original jurisdiction of all such causes of action, except where jurisdiction has been or shall be given to a Justice of the Peace by the Constitution or laws of North Carolina. Should the defendant at the Spring Term of 1869, on writs which shall be returned to that Term or in any suit, for the above causes of action then pending in the Superior Court, pay or confess judgment to the plaintiff for one-tenth of the debt and demand, (principal and interest,) and all costs to that time, he shall be allowed until next Spring Term to plead. At the said Spring Term, should the defendant pay to the plaintiff or confess judgment for one-fifth of the residue of the said debt or demand and costs, he shall be allowed until the succeeding Spring Term to plead. At the said Spring Term, should the defendant pay to the plaintiff or confess judgment for one-half of the residue of the debt or demand, he shall be allowed until the succeeding Spring Term to plead. At the said Spring Term, the plaintiff shall have judgment for the residue of his debt or demand: Provided, however, that the plaintiff, if required, shall file his debt or demand in writing, and if the defendant shall make oath that the whole or any part thereof is not justly due, or that he has a counter demand, all of which shall be particularly set forth by affidavit, then the defendant shall pay the instalment required of what he admits to be due, and the Court shall order a jury at the same or some subsequent term to try the matters in dispute between the parties, and at the next Spring Term the defendant shall be allowed time to plead only upon paying or confessing judgment for one fifth of the residue of the admitted amount, and whatever the jury finds him indebted over and above the same: Provided, further, that should the defendant fail to pay or confess judgment for the first or any subsequent instalment, then and in that case the plaintiff shall be entitled to proceed to judgment and execution for such instalment, unless the defendant shall put in pleas, in which case the suit shall proceed according to the course of the Court in 1860: Provided, further, that by consent of the plaintiff the defendant, at any term of the Court, may confess judgment for a stipulated sum in full and final discharge of all further demand or liability upon such claim.

SECTION 3. Be it further ordained, That Section 10 of the above recited Act shall be amended to read as follows:

SECTION 10. That the executions on judgments in action of debt, assumpsit, covenant or account, or decrees for money demands in Equity, which have been or shall be issued on judgments or decrees heretofore obtained, shall be levied on the property of the defendant, and returned without sale: Provided, such return shall not prejudice any lien the plaintiff may acquire or then have by virtue of said fi. fa. or additions expenas.

At the Spring term, 1869, execution on all such judgments or decrees shall issue for only one tenth of the amount then due; at the spring term 1870, for one-fifth of the residue; at the spring term 1871, for one-half of the residue, and at spring term 1872, for the balance of the debt; and no executions shall issue from the fall term to any such judgment or decree except by consent of the defendant; that no mortgagee or trustee shall expose to sale the property conveyed in such mortgage or trust deed, without the consent of the grantor, before the first of March, 1869; should the mortgagee or trustor at that time pay one-tenth of the debts mentioned, the sale shall be postponed to first of March, 1870; at that time, should the mortgager or trustor pay one-fifth of the residue, the sale shall be postponed to the first of March, 1871; at that time, should the trustor or mortgager pay one-half of the residue, the sale shall be postponed to first of March, 1872; and at that time the trustee or mortgagee shall sell the property or so much of it as will realize the balance of debts: Provided, however, that should the trustor or mortgagor fail to pay the first or any subsequent instalments, then in that case the trustee or mortgagee shall sell at six months' credit so much of the property conveyed as will realize such instalment.

SECTION 4. Be it further ordained, That Section 11 of the above entitled Act be amended to read as follows:

SECTION 11. That no warrant before Justices of the Peace shall issue or be returnable until Jan. 1, 1869. Should the defendant upon such return pay to the plaintiff, or the collecting officer for his use, or confess judgment before the magistrate, for one-tenth of the debt and demand, (principal and interest,) he shall be allowed twelve months to plead; at the expiration of that time, should the defendant pay to the plaintiff, or confess judgment for one fifth of the residue of the said debt or demand, he shall be allowed twelve months more to plead; at the expiration of that time should the defendant pay to the plaintiff or confess judgment for one-half of the residue of said debt or demand, he shall be allowed twelve months more to plead; at the expiration of that time the plaintiff shall have judgment for the residue of his debt or demand: Provided, however, that the plaintiff, if required, shall file his claim in writing, and if the defendant shall make oath that the whole or any part thereof is not justly due, or that he has a counter demand, all of which he shall particularly set forth by affidavit, then the defendant shall only pay the instalment required of what he admits to be due, and the Justice shall proceed to try the matters in dispute between the parties; and at the expiration of twelve months the defendant shall be allowed time to plead only upon payment of one fifth of the amount admitted to be due and whatever the Justice may have found him indebted over and above the same: Provided, that should the defendant fail to pay or confess judgment for the first or any subsequent instalment, then and in that case the plaintiff shall be entitled to proceed to judgment and execution for such instalment: Provided, further, that by consent of the plaintiff the defendant may at any time confess judgment for a stipulated sum in full and final discharge of all further demand or liability upon such claim; that all executions and judgments in actions of debt, covenant, assumpsit or account, which have been or shall be issued on judgments heretofore obtained before any magistrate, shall be levied on the property of the defendant and returned without sale. At the expiration of twelve months from such return, execution on all such judgments shall issue for only one tenth of the amount then due; at the expiration of twelve months from that time, for one fifth of the residue; and at the expiration of twelve months more, one half of the residue; and at the expiration of twelve months more, for the balance of the debt.

SECTION 5. Be it further ordained, That Section 17 of the above entitled ordinance be amended to read as follows:

SECTION 17. That the provisions of this Ordinance shall not be construed to extend to any debts or demands contracted or penalties incurred since the first day of May, A. D., 1865, or which may hereafter be contracted or incurred, except actions founded on any bond, promissory note, bill of exchange, or any other instrument of writing or parol promise made since first May, 1865, in renewal of or substitute for a contract made prior to first of May, 1865, to the full amount of the principal and interest of a debt existing prior to said day, and without other consideration than such pre-existent debt, and except also actions, suits or process to revive, continue or enforce any judgment heretofore recovered upon any such bond, promissory note, bill of exchange or other instrument of writing or parol promise, as is heretofore mentioned.

SECTION 6. Be it further ordained, That this Ordinance shall be in force from and after its ratification.

Ratified this seventeenth day of March, A. D., 1868.

CALVIN J. COWLES,
President Constitutional Convention.

The Bankrupt Act.

We have been requested to publish the Bankrupt Law. As it is lengthy, it takes a good deal of space to publish it, however, that our readers may understand it, and may therefore not be liable to be imposed upon by persons, who are indifferent to the feelings of others, we have taken some pains to publish from several sources the leading general principles of the Act, for the benefit of all who contemplate seeking its benefits. And first of all, we advise our friends not to determine hastily what they will do, until they have had the counsel of a respectable and intelligent Attorney, upon whom they can rely.

1. The simplest design of the Bankrupt Law is to benefit honest, but unfortunate, debtors, whose just liabilities are greater than they can pay.

2. To become a voluntary bankrupt under the Act, the debtor must owe at least $300, which, of course, he must also be put in full.

3. Petitioners under the Bankrupt Act are required to render a schedule of all their debts and liabilities, of every kind and description whatever, and also an inventory of all their estate, both real and personal, including all property and effects of which they are possessed, or which they may have an interest, (though not in possession) in conformity with certain "Forms" prescribed in the "General Orders" of the Supreme Court of the United States. These schedules, verified by the oath of the petitioner before a District Court Judge, Register in Bankruptcy, or U. S. Commissioner, must accompany the petition, and, what is, is the commencement of proceedings in bankruptcy. If it should be found out, pending the proceedings at any time before the bankrupt is discharged, that he has, by any shift or subterfuge, made a false or partial schedule, this would be evidence of fraud and would defeat his discharge.

4. When the petition is by a firm or copartnership, a full set of schedules of the respective estates of the members of the firm should also be added.

5. When the petition is filed, the case is immediately referred to a Register, who examines the petition and schedules annexed thereto, and if they are correct in form, makes a certificate to that effect, to be filed with the Clerk, then adjudges the debtor a Bankrupt and issues a warrant to the messenger to summon all the creditors named in the petitioner's schedules to meet the Register's office, at a certain time and place, to prove their claims and elect one or more Assignees to take charge of the Bankrupt's estate.

6. A creditor can, however, prove his claim at any time previous to the last dividend, which will generally be six months subsequent to the adjudication of Bankruptcy.

7. No creditor has any standing in a Bankrupt Court until he proves his claim.

8. Creditors have no right to compel the Bankrupt to answer questions concerning the disposal of property by him acquired subsequent to filing a petition in Bankruptcy, or other words the date of the filing of the petition by or against a debtor, to the date at which, if adjudication of bankruptcy follows, the old order of things passes away and a new leaf is turned over. On this point decisions have been variant. The safest appears to be, that the applicant in Bankruptcy has a perfect right to claim whatever he has made after his application, by his personal exertions, but any profits he may have made from investment or credit, may be liable to the claim of the receiver up to almost the period of his discharge.

9. The Bankrupt can apply to the Court at any time after the expiration of six months, and within one year from the adjudication, for the discharge in bankruptcy, and in case no assets come into the hands of the assignee, or no debts be proved against his estate, at any time after the expiration of sixty days.

10. As soon as an Assignee is elected or appointed, the Judge or Register will convey to him, by deed of assignment, all the bankrupt's property except what is exempted, viz: Household and kitchen furniture and other necessaries not exceeding in value $300; five hundred dollars' worth of wearing apparel and that of his wife and children, and such other property not included in the foregoing as is exempt from levy and sale upon execution or other process by the laws of the State in which the bankrupt resides, to an amount not exceeding that allowed by State exemption laws in force in 1867. A safe "Counsel of prudence, under late legislation," is the common impression that persons may become bankrupts and not pay one cent on their honest debts, or their property of course taken from them to a great amount. Under the Act, no person Bankrupt in this State can have allowed to him free from the operation of the Act exceeding $700, besides the wearing apparel of himself and family. Bankrupts in this State are not entitled to homesteads under this Act.

11. It is the duty of the Assignee within twenty days after his appointment, publicly to sell to the best bidder all such property as may be applied, and file an inventory of the same with the value of each article, as affixed, and creditors may make objections to the report of the Assignee at any time within one year after it is filed.

12. As to costs in bankruptcy proceedings, section 46 of the Bankrupt Act provides that the petitioner, before a warrant issues, shall deposit fifty dollars with the Register, or with the Clerk, to be secured to the Register as a security for his fees. General order XXIX provides that the fees of the registers, Marshal and Clerk shall be prepaid or secured before they can be compelled to act. It is also provided by General order XXX that where the debtor has no means, and can prove the fact to the satisfaction of the Court, upon application, an order will be made requiring all the costs in the case to be paid out of the fifty dollars deposited with the Register. If, however, there are assets, but not enough to pay the Messenger after deducting the Bankrupt's exempted property, so that nothing comes into the hands of the Assignee, the fees will have to be paid by the Bankrupt's SOLICITOR. Assignees receive assets, the fees of the Messenger will be paid by him before any dividend is made among creditors.

13. Some suppose that the Register is entitled to $50 fee. The fees of the Register, Messenger, Clerk, and costs of publication of notices in Bankruptcy, are fixed by law, and if they demand higher fees, they are liable, as in other cases of malfeasance in office. In ordinary cases of Bankruptcy, the fees may amount to $100. In some cases more, in some less, the costs depending on the amount of labor and litigation involved in each case.

14. Differences of opinion among Attorneys have existed in this State, as to the limit which the Act imposes as to the time to make application in Bankruptcy. Some have supposed that no debtor will be permitted to apply for Bankruptcy after some early day in March, unless he is able to pay fifty per cent of his indebtedness. This is not the case. The law did not go into operation for the purposes for which it was enacted until June 1st, 1867. It gives twelve months from that time, for all honest debtors, whose circumstances which they cannot pay in which to present their applications. After the 1st of June next, every debtor must be able to pay fifty per cent of his indebtedness in order to a successful application in bankruptcy, unless he first obtain the consent of a majority of his creditors.
