

DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, Proprietor.

IMPEACHMENT—COMMENTS OF THE PRESS—WASHINGTON GOSSIP, &c.

The adjournment is until Saturday, but it is not likely that the vote on the President's removal will be taken on that day. The Chicago Convention is appointed for Wednesday next, and somebody will be ill enough to justify the adjournment.

Had the vote been taken yesterday, in pursuance of the previous arrangement, the impeachment gun would have exploded in the hands attempting to discharge it.

But I am aware that other motives and hopes will be alleged to have inspired this cowardly dodge. It is urged by Radicals as the Capital that "time is of the essence and desire to be let down easily."

It is proper also that I should mention that certain desperate political publishers openly advocate the admission of a sufficient number of Senators from the South.

The Philadelphia Register says: "By our despatches this morning, it will be seen that there is little, if any, hope that the impeachment of the President will progress successfully."
