

WEDNESDAY JULY 1, 1868. A PLEASANT MORNING.

LOOK OUT FOR A CREECH! The Daily Sentinel has been told that in some of the streets of Raleigh, N. C. there are some persons who are engaged in the business of selling cheap goods...

LADIES DRESS GOODS. There is a beautiful assortment of the various styles and latest importations. It is a well known fact, that the ladies of Raleigh, N. C. are very particular in their dress...

MAKING A WIFE. A story is told of an auctioneer, who was very much annoyed, while in the exercise of his profession by the insolent bids of a fellow who often seemed to be making sport of the buyers, rather than buy himself. At length, enraged beyond endurance, the knight of the iron hammer, looking around the crowd for a champion to avenge his wrongs, fixed his eyes upon a biped of large dimensions...

THE CREECH. "I take you for a dollar!" "I don't, you shall have it!" "Assuming the tobacco cutting in his hand, spreading his mouth like a lion's, and putting on the air of a fellow who had just been successful in a lottery, he stepped to the counter, and, with the terrified twitch of the collar, said to him in a whisper that was heard all over the room: "My good friend, you go out with me, I give you half the money!"

BLACKBERRY WINE. Now is the time to make this excellent wine. The fruit is just coming to perfection, and can be had for very moderate consideration, so that the wine may be prepared at a small cost. It is not only an excellent and innocent beverage, but is highly medicinal, and so family, who can make it, should permit the season to pass without putting up a full supply. If the annexed recipe is followed, the wine will be of excellent quality.
