FORCED CONTRIBUTIONS.

"TESTIMONIAL TO GEN. HOWARD.—At Washington an Association has been formed for the purpose of raising $30,000 among the colored people to purchase a homestead for General Howard. It is proposed to collect but one cent from each colored man, woman and child, who feels disposed to give that much. It is believed that out of 4,500,000 people of color in the United States, at least 3,000,000 will contribute, which will make up the sum proposed. This money is to be collected through Sunday schools, day schools, and churches of the whole country."—Boston Journal.

This announcement may well be regarded in the light of a "general order" to the negroes to come forward and subscribe for "a homestead" to the chief of the Freedmen's Bureau. It is the first time that the spectacle has been presented of a high military officer carrying round his hat to collect pennies for his own benefit, and we hope for the sake of the service, it may be the last. The organization of such a movement in Washington, where the headquarters of this Bureau is established, and the proposed beneficiary resides, is to stamp it with the brand of that corrupt concern which has done so much mischief by encouraging idleness and vice, and which has been used only to promote partizan objects and to serve personal interests.

General Howard has already received a valuable "homestead" from the land sold for a negro institution in the suburbs of this city, and has had erected upon it a palatial residence which towers above the neighborhood. He is the recipient of large pay and emoluments, and has the management of the funds and contracts belonging to the Freedman's Bureau and its extensive ramifications. To tax the poor negroes for another "homestead," and to call it a voluntary contribution, would be a gross imposition, which ought not to be permitted. This proposition, however, may be only an ingenious device to cover up some matters which might not be easily explained. It is well known that many of the agents and employees of the Freedmen's Bureau have risen suddenly into large wealth, who went into that employment in the most needy condition. The negroes in this vicinity, both men and women, complain loudly and openly that they have been swindled, that the wages contracted to be paid them have been appropriated by their white "friends of humanity," and that the supplies voted for their use and support have been stolen and sold by male and female officials.—These charges can be substantiated, and have repeatedly been laid before Gen. Howard. And what is true here, right under the eye of Congress, is doubtless even worse in the remoter parts of the country, where there is less restraint. The whole thing is rotten to the core, and a monstrous burden to overladen taxpayers, for the profit of a lazy and venal crew of Yankee adventurers of the worst kind.—Nat. Intel.

EXCITING RIOT IN CHARLESTOWN, JEFFERSON COUNTY, (VA.)—FIGHT BETWEEN NEGROES AND WHITE MEN.

From the Spirit of Jefferson, July 14

On Saturday between 2 and 3 o'clock some young men were sitting on the boxes in front of the store of Mr. Jacob B. Brown, when two negroes came out of the store. A trivial circumstance led to words between the parties, and from words to blows. One of the negroes was knocked down by the fist, and another with a stone. The negroes then ran up street, as far as the store of Trussell & Co., followed by the white men. Here the negroes halted and called for their color to rally—which they did with promptness and spirit, rushing down from the different corners with a tiger-like ferocity, until about thirty had reached the spot.—A young white man named Codrick, who was in the commencement of the difficulty, finding himself about to be overpowered, retreated into the store, and the negroes attempted to follow him, but were met on the pavement and entreated to desist, and efforts made to quiet them by expostulation; but they were deaf to any words of advice, and swore they would have Codrick, who, in the mean time had stepped through the store and passed out the back way, for the purpose of arming himself. For several minutes the negroes, who seemed to be greatly enraged stood in the street cursing white men generally, throwing off their coats and daring a conflict. At this time the number of whites immediately present was not more than five or six, whilst the negroes, at a moderate estimate, must have numbered thirty; each one vehemently swearing and gesticulating in the most arrogant and defiant manner.

Dr. James N. Gallaher and others tried to reason with them, but to no purpose, until finally a negro man named John Jackson struck Mr. Gallaher with a rake, felling him to the ground. Then commenced an indiscriminate fight, maintained at first by the white men at great odds—at least five to one, until the citizens of the town gathered at the scene. A complete rock battle raged for the time, and furiously the races assailed each other. We are sure we never saw a fight in which so many men were knocked down in so short a space of time, and we sicken as we contemplate the scene of crushed heads and bleeding faces.

With a sort of reckless desperation the negroes contested the ground, throwing their missiles with remarkable precision of aim, until they saw that they were about to be overcome, when they bolted in different directions; and at the expiration of ten minutes hardly one was to be found upon the streets. By a mercy which appears inscrutable, no one was killed, although several severe wounds were received. Among the whites who were more or less injured were the following: James N. Gallaher, George Robinson, William Moore, John Sheets, J. S. Morris, and perhaps others.—All of the above, we are glad to say, are doing well, though suffering from their wounds. Among the negroes who received injuries were Wesley Lowrey, John Jackson, Tom Ransom, and Carter Fisher. How seriously these latter have been punished we have no means of knowing, as only Lowrey has been seen since the difficulty.

Some half dozen of the negroes have since been arrested, and bailed for their appearance at the October term of the Circuits Court.

"Do you chew tobacco?" asked a lady of a young man in a street car, by whose side she displayed her immaculate skirts. "No, ma'm," was the reply, "but I can get you a chaw, if you like."

OUT OF THINE OWN MOUTH, &c.

The Republican party was born in 1856, met in grand convention twelve years since, and made the following platform, which we commend to the attention of the honest men of the party:

Resolved, That while the Constitution of the United States was ordained and established by the people in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defence, secure the blessings of libert , and contains ample provisions for the protection of the life, liberty, and property of every citizen, the dearest constitutional rights of the people of Kansas have been fraudulently and violently taken from them; their territory has been invaded by an armed force; spurious legislative, judicial and executive officers have been set over them, by whose authority, sustained by the military power of the Government, tyrannical and unconstitutional laws have been enacted and enforced; the rights of the people to keep and bear arms have been infringed; test oaths of an extraordinary and entangling nature have been imposed, as a condition of exercising the right of suffrage and holding office; the right of an accused person to a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury has been denied; the right of the people to be secure in their persons, hodses, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures has been violated; they have been deprived of life, liberty and property, without due process of law; that the freedom of speech and of the press has been abridged; the right to choose their representatives has been made of no effect; murders, robberies, and arsons have been instigated and encouraged, and the offenders have been allowed to go unpunished—that all these things have been done with the knowlege, sanction, and procurement of the present administration; and that, for this high crime against the Constitution, the Union, and humanity, we arraign the President, his advisers, agents, supporters, apologists, and accessories, either before or after the facts, before the country, and before the world, and that it is our fixed purpose to bring the actual perpetrators of these outrages, and their accomplices, to a sure and condign punishment hereafter.

Here (says the New Haven Register) is an exact picture of the South under the Radical rule of military government and Freedmen's Bureau. Every word said in regard to the Kansas of 1856 applies to Virginia and all the States South in 1868. There the military power is superior to the civil power. The Freedmen's Bureaus and military satraps take the place of State and municipal government. There the negro is placed above the white man. There 250,000 white citizens are disfranchised, and 715,000 negroes given the ballot. There, in the precise terms of the above resolution, the Constitution is daily violated, and has been for the last thousand days, which is not the time since the surrender of Lee by more than two hundred days. In the better days of the Republic one hour's deliberate violation of the great principles of constitutional liberty would have aroused the people like the blast of a trumpet.
