FOR PRESIDENT,
HON. HORATIO SEYMOUR,
OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
GEN. FRANK P. BLAIR,
OF MISSOURI.

THE PHOENIX MAN.

Frankness and decision of character, in all matters, are essential to confidence. A "phoenix man" in religion or politics, is a most detestable creature. I would think neither cold nor hot, but because they are neither cold nor hot, I will speak them out of my mouth.

We have been struck with the large number of persons in this State, who under circumstances that call for the highest nerve and fortitude, are disposed to conceal their political feelings and views, who whisper, when they allude to their course, and who seem to be in constant dread and alarm, if they are known to be decided and fixed in their position, one way or another, lest they will lose a little trade, or suffer in their business, or suffer some small detriment for being an honest, decided, independent citizen. Such men ought to be ashamed to call themselves American citizens. Their dead fathers, if it were possible, would stir in their graves at so shameful a want of manliness.

There are merchants, mechanics, tradesmen and professional men, all over the State, who seem to be in a constant dread and alarm, if they are known to be decided and fixed in their position, one way or another, lest they will lose a little trade, or suffer in their business, or suffer some small detriment for being an honest, decided, independent citizen. Such men ought to be ashamed to call themselves American citizens.

The time has arrived, when the members of the State will no longer be respectable men, cowardly spirit which so extensively prevails. Our people must get on one side or the other, and must be decided in their course. We must either be Radicals, or Democrats and Conservatives. We must either stand up for the Constitution, or the preservation of our liberty and our government, or we must go with the Democrats and sustain Congress and the Federal party in its purpose to destroy the government.

You must take one side or the other. An honest, outspoken Radical will trade with or help, much sooner than one who is a Conservative among Conservatives and a Radical among Radicals, or one who has nothing to do with politics. The time has arrived, when a man could hardly take that position, when the existence of the government was not in jeopardy, when it mattered little whether a man belonged to this or that party, because both parties sought the welfare of the country and government. But now, it is otherwise. A man's character, his standing in society, his patriotism, his liberty, depend upon which side he is on. He is either a friend of the Constitution and of the government, or a foe of both.

Let every man, honestly and independently, take one side or the other. You must either stand up for the Constitution, or the preservation of our liberty and our government, or we must go with the Democrats and sustain Congress and the Federal party in its purpose to destroy the government.

Let every man, honestly and independently, take one side or the other. You must either stand up for the Constitution, or the preservation of our liberty and our government, or we must go with the Democrats and sustain Congress and the Federal party in its purpose to destroy the government.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA.

BY AUTHORITY OF CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 22, 1886.

The Senate was called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. T. H. Pritchard, of the city.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

By Mr. Robbins: A bill in relation to the records of the late Courts of Equity.

By Mr. Repass: A bill to change the mode of listing and collecting county and State taxes.

By the same: A bill to amend sec. 8, chap. 49, Revised Code, entitled "Enfranchisement of Freedmen."

By Mr. Love: A resolution instructing the Committee on Salaries and Fees to report a bill regulating the salaries of Public Officers.

By Mr. White: A resolution, instructing the Judiciary Committee to report a bill providing for a uniform system of Land Valuation in the State.

The following bills were taken up and disposed of:

The bill in relation to Provisional Municipal officers passed its third reading, by the following vote:

Those who voted in the affirmative, Messrs. Bellamy, Brogden, Barnes, Blythe, Colgrove, Cook, Davis, Eaves, Etheridge, Epps, (negro), Finkler, Galloway, (negro), Hayes, Harrington, Hall, Hyman, (negro), Lantz, Lester, Long, Martindale, Moore, (negro), Robt. Keenan, Smith, Sweet, White and Winstead.

Those who voted in the negative, Messrs. Barnes, Lindsay, Love, Melchor, Mason, Osborne, Pardie, Robbins and Wynne.

Bill for the relief of Willis S. Grandy, of Granville County, passed its third reading.

Resolution instructing the Code Commissioners to report a bill regarding the jurisdiction of the State courts.

Bill authorizing the Superintendent of Public Works to procure a room, at an expense not to exceed $30 per month, for the use of his department, was referred to the Committee on Salaries and Fees.

Bill to amend an act to incorporate the Greenville & French Broad Rail Road Company, was referred to the Committee on Internal Improvements.

Bill for the protection of mechanics and other laborers, was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary, and ordered to be printed.

Bill in relation to legal process was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Resolution instructing the Committee on Printing to furnish the Code Commissioners a printed copy of each bill and resolution passed by the General Assembly, passed.

Resolution allowing per diem and mileage to the Senators, for an absence from the State, was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary, and passed.

Bill concerning inspectors for the city of Wilmington, with amendments proposed by the Select Committee, passed.

Galloway, (negro), opposed the bill in its present form, as coming from the Committee, and pronounced it unjust to the citizens of Wilmington. "Their interests" had been overlooked, he said. They had begged that he would not offer any opposition to it. We can get any quantity of bills from the House—large bodies of them; but generally, they are imperfect, and we have to make them reliable and return them back. The bill which they sent us, regarding registration for the city of Wilmington, was all in a muddle, and was not worth a moment's consideration. He, therefore, moved that the bill be printed and laid on the desks of Senators, in order that it may be perfected.

The bill was ordered to be printed, for the purpose designated.

Resolution on adjournment, proposing to adjourn on the 10th of August, to meet again on the 15th of October, was adopted, without specifying the time for reassembling, and passed.

Resolution instructing the Committee on Military affairs to report a bill for the organization of the State militia, passed.

Bill providing for filling vacancies occurring in the offices provided for in Article 7 of the Constitution of North Carolina, passed.

Mr. Robbins offered to amend the title of the bill, so to read, "An act to amend the General Statutes."

The Speaker ruled that it was not in order to amend the bill, in its third reading, and that the question returning on the passage of the bill or its third reading, the yeas and nays were called and the bill passed.

Those who voted in the affirmative were: Messrs. Bellamy, Brogden, Barnes, Blythe, Colgrove, Cook, Davis, Eaves, Etheridge, Epps, (negro), Finkler, Galloway, (negro), Hayes, Harrington, Hall, Hyman, (negro), Jones, of Wake, Long, Lester, Long, Martindale, Moore, (negro), Robt. Keenan, Smith, Sweet, White and Winstead.

Those who voted in the negative were: Messrs. Barnes, Lindsay, Love, Melchor, Mason, Osborne, Pardie, Robbins and Wynne.

Bill in relation to the records of the late County Courts, passed its second reading.

Mr. Sweet offered to amend, by authorizing the Secretary to employ necessary clerical assistance to accomplish this object.

Messrs. Osborne, Lester, Love and Barnes opposed the resolution, on the ground that it was unnecessary and an additional expense to the State, and not relating to legislative matters.

Mr. Sweet supported the resolution, and, on motion of Mr. Barnes, it was referred to the Committee on Salaries and Fees.

The Senate then adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The House was called to order at 10 o'clock.

Journal of yesterday read and approved.

By Mr. Sweet: A resolution, instructing the Judiciary Committee to report a bill to prevent the disability of green and negro freedmen, who were also on the list. Crowds of ladies without veils filled the streets. The most perfect order was maintained; not a single disturbance has been heard of.

Mr. Fox also opposed the resolution, on the ground that it was unnecessary and an additional expense to the State, and not relating to legislative matters.
