THE EXECUTIVE MANSION.

THE RESIGNMENT OF GOV. HUMPHREYS, OF MISSISSIPPI, FROM THE EXECUTIVE MANSION BY THE MILITARY.

JACKSON, Miss., June 18, 1868.—Hon. B. G. Humphreys: SIR—I have the honor to inform you that I have arrived here in pursuance to an order from Major General McDowell, a copy of which is enclosed, and am prepared to assume the office of Provisional Governor of the State of Mississippi. Be pleased to inform me when it will be convenient to receive me for the purpose of making such arrangements as may be necessary to carry into effect the order.

Very respectfully, your ob't serv't,
A. AMES,
Brevet Major General, U. S. A.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF MISSISSIPPI, JACKSON, Miss., June 22, 1868.—General:—Your note of the 16th instant was handed to me this morning, upon my return to the capitol, by my private secretary, Mr. Marion Smith, inclosing a printed copy of General Orders, No. 23, from the headquarters of Brevet Major General McDowell, commanding Fourth Military District at Vicksburg. You request to be informed "when it will be convenient to receive me (you) for the purpose of making such arrangements as may be necessary to carry into effect the order." In reply I must say, that I regard the attempt to remove me from the office of Governor, as a usurpation of the civil government of Mississippi—unwarranted by and in violation of the Constitution of the United States—and having telegraphed to the President of the United States and Commander-in-Chief of the army for instructions, I am authorized to say that he disapproves the order for my removal from office. I must, therefore, in view of my duty to the constitutional rights of the people of Mississippi, and this disapproval of the President of the United States, refuse to vacate the office of Governor, or surrender the archives and public property of the State until a legally qualified successor, under the Constitution of the State of Mississippi, is appointed.

Very respectfully,
BENJ. G. HUMPHREYS,
Governor of Mississippi.

To Brevet Major General A. Ames, U. S. A., Jackson, Miss.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF MISSISSIPPI, JACKSON, Miss., July 6, 1868.—Hon. B. G. Humphreys: SIR—Soon after my arrival here as Provisional Governor, I notified you that you might continue to occupy the Governor's mansion. Since then I have had cause to change my mind in the matter.

You will oblige me by vacating the mansion at as early a day as convenient.

Very respectfully, your obedient serv't,
A. AMES, Provisional Governor.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF MISSISSIPPI, JACKSON, Miss., July 7, 1868.—Gen. A. Ames: SIR—Your letter of the 6th inst., informing me that I would oblige you by vacating the "mansion" at as early a day as convenient, was duly received through the post-office of this city.

The Governor's mansion was built by the tax payers of Mississippi only for the use and occupancy of their constitutional Governors and their families. They offered me to that office in 1865, and I, with my family, have been in peaceable, quiet and legal possession ever since. At the recent election the qualified voters of the State, both white and colored, have by the largest popular vote ever cast in this State, unmistakably expressed their desire for my continuance in the use and occupancy of the mansion at their constitutional Governor. In view of the expressed desire of the just and lawful owners that this property remain in the continuous possession of their own chosen executive—and from the further fact that the mere occupancy of the mansion by my family cannot operate as an impediment to the just administration of the reconstruction laws of Congress, I must respectfully decline to oblige yourself or others, by vacating the mansion, until a legally qualified Governor is elected, under the constitution of the State.

Very respectfully,
BENJ. G. HUMPHREYS.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF MISSISSIPPI, JACKSON, July 9th, 1868.—Hon. B. G. Humphreys: SIR—I have been informed (it is possible that my information is incorrect) that you do not find it convenient to vacate the Governor's mansion.

I presume it is because of the difficulty in finding any other fit residence. It is my wish to put you to as little practical inconvenience as possible. Under the above supposition, I have no objection to your occupying a part of the house, Next Monday, by which time you can make the necessary arrangements, I, with others, will take possession of a part of the house. So long as we may remain joint tenants, great care shall be taken not to inconvenience your family.

Very respectfully, yours, &c.,
A. AMES, Provisional Governor.

JACKSON, Miss., July 9, 1868.—General A. Ames: SIR—Your letter of the 9th was received this morning. It will be disagreeable to myself and family to share the apartments of the Governor's mansion with other permanent tenants. I hope my letter of the 8th will be satisfactory, and relieve us from any such annoyance.

Very respectfully,
B. G. HUMPHREYS.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF MISSISSIPPI, JACKSON, Miss., July 10, 1868.—Hon. B. G. Humphreys: SIR:—Yours of the 8th and 9th were received this morning.

You entirely ignore the reconstruction acts of Congress and the action taken by those empowered to act under them. I recognize no other authority. Under such circumstances your statement, by which you would show yourself the lawful Governor of this State, has little weight.

The feeling entertained not only by me, but by others, not to cause you any personal inconvenience, has, through your own action, ceased to exist.

The controversy about the "mansion" can only terminate as indicated in my letter of yesterday.

Very respectfully,
A. AMES,
Brevet Major General U. S. A.,
Provisional Governor.

HEADQUARTERS POST OF JACKSON, JACKSON, Miss., July 10, 1868.—Hon. B. G. Humphreys, Jackson, Miss. SIR.—General Ames, the Provisional Governor of this State, has called upon me, as the officer in command of this post, to gain possession of one-half of the mansion now occupied by you.

I send Lieutenant Bache, with a guard of men, to see that Governor Ames's request is carried out. Lieutenant Bache will hand you this letter.

I do not desire to use force if I can help it, but he will be instructed to do so if necessary. I wish to avoid all unpleasantness to yourself and family, but if you desire, for political purposes to test a military "pantomime," I have also instructed Lieutenant Bache to carry it out with all the appearances of a reality, without actual hostility.

I am, sir, very respectfully, your obedient servant,
JAMES BIDDLE,
Captain and Lieut. Col. U. S. A., Commanding Post.
