POOR NORTH CAROLINA!

The present condition of this unfortunate State is most deplorable. In former years it was inhabitted by a people in the enjoyment of the fullest liberty—one too which know how to appreciate its blessings. The population of this old State is one of the most Conservative and strictly honest and honorable in the world, and the whole internal polity of North Carolina was worthy of such a people. In no State were the laws more equitable, and in none were the rights of person and property more secure. The internal improvements were constructed upon a far-seeing plan and they were raising the State to wealth. The educational system was expanding to meet the requirements of the age. The public debt was comparatively small and easily manageable, the taxes were hardly felt by the people, and to crown all, its noble Judiciary for learning and purity was unmatched in America.

If there was ever a State whose condition and whose laws were near perfection, that State was North Carolina. It came as close to the fabled utopia as could be reached on this earth.

Now see the change under the rule of the arch Secessionist, Holden. The men of influence, character and property are excluded from political position, and the government of the Old North State is in the hands of the lowest portion of its white population, carpet-baggers from New England, and negroes.

The former laws have been altered by the adventurers so as to suit themselves, and by them they have given themselves authority to commit any acts of despotism that Holden, the carpet baggers and negroes may determine upon. The educational system is to be used only as a means by which to feed ignorant Radical teachers and to debase white children by association with negroes. The taxes are to be raised to a point calculated eventually to confiscate property.—The pure judiciary of past years is to be filled chiefly by starveling Northern pettifoggers, who, from want of character or sense, could not obtain employment in their own section; and to end the climax of all these frightful changes, the State is to be governed by the bayonet in the hands of Holden's militia!

Truly the fate of North Carolina is a terrible one; but its noble population have determined to abide their time with patience, knowing that deliverance is at hand. The election of Seymour and Blair will lift the yoke from their necks, and this long suffering people will get have the privilege of managing their own affairs and of reforming their own government. They will then adopt all measures rendered necessary by the changed condition of things, adopting all enlightened measures demanded by the spirit of the age, but, wherever practicable, recurring to the principles of their old government, than which a better one never existed in America.

Citizens of North Carolina, bear your present afflictions as best you may. Possess your souls with patience for the time, knowing that the hour of Jacobinism will soon run its course, and that your glorious old State will ere long lift her noble head as proudly as ever.—Norfolk Journal.

BE ON THE ALERT.

The following capital advice to Conservatives and Democrats, we clip from the Macon (Ga.) Telegraph. Read and act accordingly:

"But the scheme is now being deliberately followed up, and materials are being gathered every day, if possible, to fire the Northern heart against the Democratic ticket.—In Tennessee, the notorious Brownlow is busily engaged in fanning a flame of discord, and using all his arts to provoke violence, which shall be proclaimed on every Northern stump as proof positive of a rebellious and insubordinate temper in the South, and a sword purpose in the Democratic party to encourage the temper.

"No matter what may be the explanation—what the reason—where the true responsibility for any acts of violence, wherever and wherever they occur, be sure that they will be manipulated so as to strike a damaging blow at the Democratic cause in the Northern States. Look at the New Orleans riots, for example.

"The most foolish and ridiculous acts of the most crack-brained enthusiast will be charged to the account of the whole Southern people. The carpet bag Governor of South Carolina says he has been served with a Ku Klux notice to quit the State, or he will be murdered. If he has such a letter, doubtless it is the work of some crazy and irresponsible simpleton. But how many votes will that lose the Democratic ticket in the North?

"We believe we have victory in our hands, if we do not choose to endanger it by any thing which shall lend color and strength to the great Radical trick of the campaign. Let every Democratic voter remember that he who commits, or counsels or incites to violence of any sort, whatever may be his motives or feelings, is practically a formidable enemy to Democratic success and the recovery of our lost liberties.

"We cannot be too careful; we cannot harmonise, conciliate, and gather strength too much. We cannot be too solicitous, in the midst of so much that is inflammable, provoking, and exasperating, to maintain the utmost order and temper, and play out the game with sense, discretion, and judgment. Let the extremist, the violent, the excitable, be careful that by their indiscretion they do not become instrumental in striking down the Northern Democracy in a campaign where everything now augurs the most satisfactory results.

"We have said enough to indicate the grand danger of the campaign. Will not every Southern Democrat do his best to avoid it? Keep the peace. Refrain from all violence. Promote none. Be active—secure every vote you can. Conciliate every influence possible to support the ticket."

THE COLORED DEMOCRATS.—A prominent feature in the Democratic Ward Club procession on Friday night was the presence of over three hundred colored Democrats. We are glad to note this, as it is an indication of the return of reason. The colored people, we think, being to realize that their true interests lie with those of the white people of the States.—Charleston Courier.

The Radicals harp on Grant. They don't allude much to that Jew's harp he played in Tennessee.

GEN. HANCOCK ANNOUNCES HIS INTENTION OF SUPPORTING THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES.

LOUISVILLE, July 27, 1868.

The following correspondence will explain itself:

LOUISVILLE, July 13, 1868.

MAJOR GENERAL HANCOCK:—I deem it proper to direct your attention to statements made by the radical press, to the effect that you are greatly dissatisfied with the results of the National Democratic Convention. The object of the statement is to create an impression that you do not acquiesce in the judgment of the Convention, that your friends do not, and in consequence Seymour and Blair will not have their cordial support. I wish you to know, General, I have taken the liberty to pronounce these statements false, and to assure those who have spoken to me on the subject, that nothing could cause me more regret than to find your friends, or any of them, less earnest in supporting the ticket which has been nominated than they would have been had your own stood in the place of Gov. Seymour. S. T. GLOVER.

NEWPORT, R. I., July 17, 1868.

S. T. GLOVER, Louisville:

MY DEAR SIR:—I am greatly obliged for your favor of the 13th inst. Those who suppose that I do not acquiesce in the work of the National Democratic Convention or that I do not sincerely desire the election of its nominee know very little of my character. Believing, as I really do, that the preservation of the constitutional government eminently depends on the success of the democratic party in the coming election, were I to hesitate in its candid support I feel I should not only falsify my own record, but commit a crime against my country. I never aspired to the Presidency on account of myself. I never sought its doubtful honor and certain labors and responsibilities merely for the position. My own wish was to promote, if I could, the good of the country, and to rebuke the spirit of revolution which had invaded every sacred precinct of liberty. When, therefore, you pronounced the statements in question false, you did exactly right. Principles and not men is the motto for the rugged crisis in which we are now struggling. Had I been made the Presidential nominee I should have considered it a tribute not to me but to the principles which I had proclaimed and practised; but shall I cease to revere these principles because by mutual politicial friends another has been appointed to put them into execution? Never, never. These, sir, are my sentiments, whatever interested parties may say to the contrary, and I desire that all may know and understand them. I shall ever hold in grateful remembrance the faithful friends, who, hailing from every section of the Union, preferred me by their votes and other expressions of confidence, both in and out of the Convention, and shall do them all justice to believe that they were governed by patriotic motives, that they did not propose simply to aggrandize my personal fortunes, but to save their country through me, and that they will not suffer anything like personal preferences or jealousies to stand between them and their manifest duty. I have the honor to be, dear sir, very respectfully, yours,

WINFIELD S. HANCOCK.

GETTING READY.—One L. Jordan, a Chicago negro, is preparing for the new order of things that is to come with the negro millennium, when the Anglo Saxon shall be drawn to the kitchen and African sit in the parlor. This negro, who thinks he sees the "colud 'premiery" in full blast after November next, makeh ready for "nigger superiority and white inferiority," and goes in already for white servants to black mistresses, as indicated in the following "Want," cut from a Chicago journal:

"WANTED.—In a respectable colored family, a white woman to do general housework. Apply at No. 73 Carroll street. No Irish need apply. L. JORDAN."

NOT AS GOOD AS COFFEE.—It is said that Radical Senator Conness opposed the ratification of the treaty with China because it concedes too much in the way of rights and privileges to our Chinese "men and brethren." He is one of the hypocrites who forced negro suffrage upon the South.
