RON. O. H. DOCKERY.

"We believe in giving credit where credit is due. We are gratified to learn that Mr. Dockery has been decided in his advocacy before the Reconstruction Committee and elsewhere, of the removal of disabilities from all who were present at the Convention in this matter is in a favorable contrast with that of his own party."

"We hardly understand the above from the Raleigh Sentinel, and to prevent any future assumption that the compliments of two such 'Rebel' sheets have influenced the prospects of the renomination of Capt. Dockery, we will state that it is already arranged to defeat him. That gentleman, we know, is too discreet not to have discovered the influence to which he was indebted for his nomination, and to appreciate the fact that the purpose here had their desired effect, and he must give way to the carpet-bagger, who have the control of the organization of most of the counties comprising this Congressional District."

To be more explicit, Capt. Dockery was nominated by the friends of Gen. Abbott, in order that his election might injure the chances of his father, Gen. Dockery, for the Senate. In this calculation, however, did not count without his host. He having secured the Senatorship, New Hanover, Sampson, Brunswick, Bladen, Cumberland, Harnett counties, and probably others, which are under the control of carpet-bagger, will secure the nomination of a certain carpet-bagger of this party, who will be a more 'aggressive' and his object to further the schemes of Abbott, so, whatever might have been the course of Dockery, it is not in the programme that he shall be his own successor. How long Lamb and Jones, the other old citizens, call always though they be, will be permitted to go to Congress, is not beaten by Democrats, we know not. Certainly no longer will the miserable vultures can feel certain that those Districts are ripe for their attacks. — W. E. Journal.

A SENSIBLE CARPET-BAGGER.

At a Radical meeting recently held in Washington, "Mr. Hallbank, of Mississippi, said he had been a candidate for Congress in Mississippi. He, for one, would not go back to Mississippi, but would return to Indiana where he originally came from. He knew he was a carpet-bagger, and was ashamed to own it. He thought Mississippi was not a very desirable place to live in anyhow, as the Democrats there were thoroughly organized, and worked like beavers."

This is the first of the first chapter of Carpet-Bagger "Kodice."

It is to be hoped that the example of this good Mr. Hallbank will be followed by his brethren, and that, like him, they will arise and go into the land from whence they came. And that all these unhappy men, who have mistaken their calling, may be induced to drop the avocation of jack-leg politicians, and return to honest work, we commend to the Democrats the example of their Mississippi brethren, who are gathering their "organize" thoroughly and work like beavers. — W. E. Journal.

THE RADICALS OF MISSISSIPPI.

The Radicals of Mississippi, who are a free country. On Saturday last the Democrats of Saline and Pettus counties held a Seymour and Blair ratification meeting. When Col. Phillips, a gallant soldier of the Federal army, was addressed by the large crowd assembled, he was met with an unusual number of insults, a mob of Radicals attacked the meeting with pistols, clubs, and stones. They were repulsed, but the outrage, which ended in the killing of three and the wounding of twenty persons. "Let us have peace," said Gen. Grant, and this is the manner in which his friends interpret his meaning. — W. E. Journal.

A READING OF THE CONSTITUTION.

The Constitution of South Carolina was read and voted on by the Radicals. This was a horrible act, and it is to be hoped that the Radicals will be so sensible as to see the error of their ways. The new Constitution of that State, which they took occasion to declare, was that of the President of the United States, as stated by the People. The new Radical programme is to elect the electors by the Radical Legislature, in order to avoid and nullify the amendments to the people; and the South Carolina Constitution prohibits anything of this sort. So the usurpation schemes find that they have, in that State, gone so far as to read the Constitution to the people, and to have put that State on the list of those which will go Democratic. — W. E. Journal.

Forney admits over his own signature, "Occasional," that the purpose of Congress in taking recess till the third Monday of September is to give the Radical party a "try" of the position, and then to make them in their hands and legislate in their eyes, yet it is necessary to trick the popular majority out of its victory. Let your Rump Congress just dare to try the little game, Master Forney. — W. E. Journal.

The colored men of Mississippi, since the late election, are going over as men to the Democrats. In a single county one hundred and thirty have procured certificates of membership in Democratic clubs. It was the negro vote that lost the Radicals in Mississippi. — W. E. Journal.

THE PAIR OF LOUIS. — All of the officers of Congress, including the negroes, were seen to day around and paid, and a half per cent of the cash was given to the Grant and Collier clubs. There was some grumbling over it. — W. E. Journal.

Judge Black says that Seymour will carry Pennsylvania by a large majority. — W. E. Journal.
