ORDER DURING THE STATE CONVENTION.

We are pleased to record the fact, that, notwithstanding the immense crowds of white persons from a distance present at the present Convention, many of them young and excitable, and the large number of blacks on the streets, no incident occurred disturbing the quiet and harmony of the occasion, at any time, except the threatened negro riot mentioned on Thursday, which occurred at the Depot, just before the arrival of the Wilmington delegation.

This can only be accounted for by the determination and forbearance of the white people—their disposition to avoid all causes of irritation themselves, and, at the same time, to overlook, as far and as long as possible, the unmannered, noisy and insulting conduct of certain negroes. We have not heard of one instance in the State, in which Conservative and Democratic boys, disposed, irritated or annoyed a Republican or Radical meeting of any kind. Our people carefully avoided such conduct as ungentlemanly, unbecoming, and which is seriously jeopardizing the peace of society. In Wilmington, we learn that negroes gather in crowds before the Seymour and Blair Club House, and indulge in the most insulting and menacing language. The municipal authorities, who would allow such conduct, deserve prompt removal from office and imprisonment. We are glad to say that in this city we have had nothing to report and it is hoped we never shall.

During the procession, however, on Thursday night, some of the rowdies who followed the ox-side were repeatedly and rather mendacity disturbed, the police being called to arrest them for "Grace and Quiet," accompanied, occasionally, with insulting allusions to the crowd, &c. They were promptly by any one in the procession, or responding to them in any way. Had the crowds in such demonstrations ought always to result most disastrously to the quiet of the community. All this is exceedingly wrong, and if the negroes think they will be allowed to continue their insults and menaces, they are mistaken. No man of sense, of virtue or of any patriotism, will defend or promote such conduct. It is said that leading colored men discourage them in this behavior. We are unwilling to believe it. Indeed, it is currently stated, as a reliable rumor, that some of the white leaders urged the negroes to do all in their power to cause a riot during the Convention, as the best means of promoting the interests of their party. We are unwilling either, to give any credit to this statement. No man of sober mind could give such counsel; yet it is evident that the negroes are under the influence of bad advice of some kind, and that they are becoming, under such teaching, more and more insulting in their tone and bearing.

As public journalists, and as friends of peace, we counsel all imprudent and bitter advisers of the colored people to beware. Instead of inflaming and exciting them, every effort should be made to give them correct information and to discourage and discountenance such conduct. The white people of the State are not indifferent or inactive, under the multifying evidences, daily before them, that the Radicals are determined to force a conflict between the blacks and whites. The white men of the State will not provoke it, will give no cause for it, but when it comes they will be READY FOR IT. It is, most unfortunately, clear to me, the white scoundrels, who encourage and control the negroes to such conduct, will find that there is no escape for them. Their punishment will be prompt and terrible, whenever they provoke a lawless attack upon the rights of our citizens, who have no other objects in view than those which are legitimate and proper.

The New York Herald, while it does not give in its formal adhesion to the Democratic nominees, yet predicts their triumph at the polls.

Vote for Seymour and Blair and you vote for war and repudiation.

THE PEOPLE MOVING.

The entire country from Maine to Texas, and from the Atlantic to the Pacific, now at this early stage of the Presidential canvass, gives signs of earnestness, feeling and determination not witnessed for many years, among the great Democratic and Conservative masses of the country. Our people, heterogeneous as they are, composed of men of all the nations of Europe, are nevertheless homogeneous in sentiment, in regard to the great issues which move the national intellect and will. Every one seems to feel that the ship of State has encountered a disastrous gale, lost her reckoning, sail rent in her spars and rigging, and been down upon her beam ends, and that some potent voice has summoned all hands on deck to right the ship, put her in trim again fully furnished and officered to take her safely to her haven. The plans are marshalling in every quarter for the contest.

This enthusiasm, strange to say, is almost entirely confined to one side of the political hemisphere. The Radicals having put forth a platform of principles without principle, and a candidate without a policy or a platform, they seem to have settled it deliberately, that possession, being equal to nine points in the law, of course, be good; if reasonable doubt, Grant will be elected. Having launched their bark, they seem to have left her to the chances of brick or caprice, or to the purpose of the party to hold on to the spoils, whatever may befall them. It is scarcely possible to arouse the Radicals at any point. They are still comfortable and working, no doubt, relying vastly upon the efficient organization of their secret associations. Their bitterness, their proscriptive zeal, their disregard of Constitutions, their extravagance and waste, grow upon them, but they seem to place no reliance in the capacity of their candidates, the soundness of their principles or the tone of the popular will, but in the mere mechanism of party and their dogged purpose to hold on to the spoils.

How different with the democratic and conservative masses, which for the last three years seemed to be sleeping the sleep of death! The people are not quite willing to surrender, without another struggle, the idea of their capacity for self government—they are not yet ready to risk the loss of liberty by the surrender of the rights of the States, or the ignoring of the Federal character of the government, by setting up the Empire. Hence they have enough of war and enough of Grant and Colfax. Hence their cry is, "let us have a peace, that is a peace." Every where the spirit of confidence and hope is rising, that constitutional law and civil liberty will again triumph, and that we, before long, will rejoice in a restored Constitution and a restored Union.

TADDEUS STEVENS.—Our telegrams have barely announced the death of this man. He was, perhaps, one of the bitterest enemies of the Southern people in Congress, or out of it, a fanatic in his devotion to the negro, and an enemy to the Constitution. He was a man of strong will, of force of intellect perverted by his passions, but an open, frank, honest man. In the decline of his popularity and influence, and when the power of his party is waning, at a ripe old age, covered with infirmities, he is summoned before the bar of the Eternal Judge. There we leave him to answer to the long, dark catalogue of charges registered against him. He has left some behind who are equally bitter, equal in their enmity to the South, but without the honesty and the frankness of Thad. Stevens.

THE HERALD.—We are told that the Radical Rebel sheet in this city, the Standard, tries to be facetious and humorous over the State Democratic Convention. The public delight in dry these things, (if they saw them,) were they not accompanied with such evident malice of chagrin and anger at our success, and had not its capacity for falsehood and lying been so completely exhibited heretofore. The Standard, used to Billingsgate, has, in this instance, we learn, added to its accomplishments the vulgar slang of the Five Points. All this will work its own cure.

HOOTING.—When Gen. Grant stopped in the cars at the Carlinville depot, in order to elicit the feelings of the assembled people, three cheers for Grant alternated with cheers for Seymour for over ten minutes. Just then a tall man, standing rather in the back ground, exclaimed in a loud voice, "This is not fair! You are neglecting Coalfax. Give him three cheers, too!"—"Where is he? Where is he?" inquired the crowd; "Where's Coalfax?" "Don't you see him," said the first speaker, pointing to a negro in the adjoining window. "There he is. Three cheers for Coalfax." At this the negro withdrew his wool. Grant's cigar disappeared in the window, and the cars moved on amid loud and repeated cheers for Seymour and Blair.—Alton (Illinois) Bulletin.

THE PRESIDENT AND THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES.—"Delta," the usually well-informed correspondent of the Baltimore Sun, says the reports sent hence relative to the feeling of the administration toward the Democratic nominees for President and Vice President are erroneous. There has been no formal consideration of this subject in cabinet. So far as Mr. Johnson is concerned, it is certain that he will support Messrs. Seymour and Blair, and several of the members of the cabinet are as decidedly in favor of these candidates.

"Mr. Speaker, I am alarmed at the condition of the country. It is proposed to send arms to North Carolina, that the people may eat them again at each other. Great God! we cannot afford to fight each other. KEEP AWAY YOUR ARMS! DO NOTHING TO IRRITATE OUR PEOPLE, BUT DO EVERYTHING IN YOUR POWER TO ASSUAGE AND HEAL THE EXCITEMENT THERE. We want no arms. I WARN THE HOUSE THAT IF ARMS ARE SENT THERE WE WILL BE RUINED, as we cannot live there. If we need anything to the way of arms, in God's name send an army of the United States there, but do not arm neighbor against neighbor. There never was a more mischievous measure than this proposition to arm one class of our people against another."—Mr. Bingham's speech in the House of Representatives.

In their despair, Radicals threaten civil war, in order to make a fair and free election by the people of North Carolina impossible.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

[BY UNDERGROUND RAILROAD.]

SATURDAY, Aug. 15, 1868.

The House was called to order at the usual time.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Shaver, of the House.

The Journals of yesterday morning and evening were read and approved.

Mr. Ingram arose to a personal explanation. He said he understood that the language which he had used, on yesterday, towards the Reporter of the Sentinel, had been construed as reflecting upon the character of that gentlemen. He disclaimed any intention of casting disrespectful reflections upon any one, and in justice to the Reporter and himself made this statement.

Leaves of absence were granted to Messrs. Ingram, White, and some others, until Tuesday next.

Laiflin (c. b.) objected to the system of granting leaves. It reminded him of the three months men in the Federal army, after the battle of Bull Run. They all wanted to go home.

By Smith, of Martin: A bill concerning the Williamston Landing, in the county of Martin. Under a suspension of the rules, the bill passed its several readings and was ordered to be engrossed and sent to the Senate.

Seymour (c. b.) presented and read a bill in reference to the location of a State Penitentiary. The bill was ordered to be printed.

By Estes (c. b.): A bill providing for the funding of the matured interest on the public debt. The bill passed its second reading, and was ordered to be printed.

Harris, of Wake, (negro,) offered a bill concerning the bonds of constables and other officers.

Mr. Forshee objected to the whole bill, and moved to lay it on the table, and on the motion called for the yeas and nays.

The call was sustained, and the motion was lost, by a vote of yeas 24, nays 64.

The bill passed its second reading, after being so amended as to increase the bonds of constables from $1000 to $2000.

Upon its final passage, the yeas and nays were ordered and resulted in a vote of yeas 56, nays 32.

The bill in relation to the Registration of Deeds passed its several readings.

By consent, Mr. Sinclair withdrew House Bill No. 89.

The bill defining the powers and duties of Superior Court Clerks passed its third reading.

Foster (c. b.) called up the bill providing for the support of the Insane Asylum. The bill passed its several readings and was ordered to be sent to the Senate.

The bill incorporating the Union Joint Stock Company was next taken up, when, on motion of Seymour, (c. b.) it was ordered to be printed.

The bill providing for the settlement of the estates of deceased persons came up.

Mr. Hodnett moved to print. The motion was put and carried.

The bill in relation to the settlement of Sheriffs was next reached, and passed its several readings.

Sykes (negro) introduced a bill to incorporate the Dismal Swamp Steam Transportation Company. The bill was read and referred to the appropriate Committee.

The bill to punish Sheriffs for malfeasance in office passed its third reading, and was ordered to be sent to the Senate.

The bill making language likely to lead to a breach of the peace an indictable offence was reached.

Mr. Pou favored the bill, and, at some length, advocated its passage.

Ingram (c. b.) opposed its passage upon various grounds.

Mr. Futrelle also objected to it.

Barnett moved to lay it upon the table, and upon the motion called for the yeas and nays.

The call was sustained, and the motion to table prevailed, by a vote of yeas 44, nays 35.

On motion, the House then adjourned.

On motion of the Wayne delegation, E. A. Wright, of Wayne, and Geo. W. Whitfield, of Wilson, were appointed Secretaries.

On motion of the Pitt delegation, a roll of the counties composing said district was called, and all found fully represented save the county of Greene.

Special Dispatch to the World.

IMPORTANT RUMOR ABOUT GRANT.

Does Grant Mean to Withdraw?—The Sudden Eastward Journey of the Man on Horseback—Alarm of the Radical Leaders, etc., etc.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.

Most extraordinary rumors are afloat in this city touching the expected return of Gen. Grant from his Western tour, and his relation to the political canvass. From all I can gather among those best acquainted with the views of the members of the Republican National Committee, it appears that private letters have been received from members of Grant's party, showing an anxiety on the part of the General to throw up the candidacy for the Presidency. To this he has been moved by overwhelming evidences from every quarter of the utter want of spirit in the Republican canvass, and the tremendous popular tide running in favor of the Democratic ticket. All the letters received here, both by the Congressional and National Republican Committees, are sorely discouraging the Radical leaders, nor are the letters from the South less alarming. The blacks cannot be controlled, and all efforts on the part of carpet-bagging Reconstruction element have so far failed, and the Radicals see that a continuance of these riotous and incendiary scenes on the part of the colored population will add hundreds of thousands to the Democratic vote in the North. Hence the sudden change of Grant's Western trip, hence the rumors that he is about to throw up the candidacy, and the intimations thrown out in political circles that the Republican National Convention will be called together again, and romors have it that the nomination will be tendered to Gen. Sherman.

"When the storm is over, the Conservative party, representing, as it does, THE PROPERTY AND INTELLIGENCE OF THE STATE, will take the guidance of affairs, AND ALL WILL BE WELL."—Judge Pearson's Letter.

GRANT says "Let us have peace." What does he mean but that the "Reign of peace!"
