THE ADJOURNMENT.

The General Assembly adjourned, according to order, at 5 o'clock, this morning. The adjournment, in fact, took place on Saturday morning.

It would have been well, from what we learn, for the credit of the State, if Saturday night's session of the House could have been avoided. Our Reporter will probably furnish an account of the disgraceful scenes then and there enacted.

The captions of the acts, which we publish on our first page, are copied from the rebel Radical paper in this city, and, though not complete, having a few acts, &c., passed on Saturday, will give an idea of the labors of the session.

The action of the dominant majority will be subject to review and criticism during the canvass, and it will be seen that a more vindictive partizan body never assembled in this State. The extravagance and waste exceed anything ever before known among us, which the people will hardly begin to see or feel until the body returns in November, and shall propose to provide the ways and means by taxation and an increase of our funded debt, to provide for its reckless expenditures. The carpet-baggers have been remarkably successful, in the work of plunder, and scarcely failed in a single instance to "feather their own nests" largely.

Clothed with power in the State, and having a majority sufficiently large to do its will, some might have looked for moderation, if not magnanimity, in its action, but they will look in vain. The public interest, and the public feeling, demanded such legislation as was calculated to soften the asperities of the past, to preserve the public quiet and promote harmony, as far as an honest difference of opinion would allow, but, instead of this, every measure which could excite and promote discord, and keep up the irritations of the past, seems to have been eagerly and of set purpose sought for.

If so, how was it that, especially in the Senate, the closing scenes were so harmonious? Custom has established in legislative bodies the exhibition of courtesy to the presiding officers, even where they may not be strictly entitled to it—a custom, however, which we do not sanction at the expense of truth. But in this instance the presiding officer of the Senate had exhibited towards the minority more than ordinary courtesy, we suppose, and will all Conservatives are generous, forgiving, nay, magnanimous, even to their foes. We are glad to see a kindly spirit even towards those who would oppress and degrade us. The good book tells us, "Love your enemies," and that is our warrant.

CHARGE! CHARGE! CHARGE!!

Never was a party more vulnerable, more utterly offensive to the high toned, honest people of the South, than the Radical party. Never were candidates more personally offensive, more utterly incompetent to fill the high position, for which they have been selected, than Grant and Colfax. The want of capacity, especially of Grant, for the civil administration of the affairs of this great nation, is known to every school boy. Never were the measures, professed principles and practices of a party so utterly indefensible. The policy of the Conservatives and Democrats is, therefore, perfectly plain. Charge upon them! Expose their incompetency—their revolutionary spirit—their disregard of the Constitution—their enmity to civil liberty and to the rights of the white freemen of the South. Charge upon their extravagance and waste—their dishonesty, their plunder upon the public purse.

The Democratic platform requires no defense. Its principles go home to the conscience, the good sense and the intelligence of the nation. Horatio Seymour, as a statesman, a man of intelligence, of unblemished integrity and moral character, stands head and shoulders above the whole tribe of truculent demagogues and intriguers who control the Radical party. He, nor Francis P. Blair, need any defense. They stand upon the Constitution and the Union, and upon high moral grounds, which the assaults of our enemies cannot reach. "Therefore, we say, we are on the offensive. Charge upon them and carry the war into Africa.

GRANT says "Let us have peace." Which does he mean by that but that the "Empire is peace!"

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA.

BY AUTHORITY OF CONGRESS.

FIRST SESSION.

SENATE

EVENING SESSION.

FRIDAY, Aug. 21, 1868.

The Senate was called to order at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Rich introduced a bill to incorporate the State Loan and Trust Company, and, on his motion, it passed its several readings, under a suspension of the rules.

The following bills passed their third readings:

Bill establishing a lien in favor of Mechanics and other laborers.

Bill providing for the election of Presidential Electors.

Resolution in favor of certain persons holding claims against the Insane Asylum.

Bill in favor of Mrs. Sarah Mann.

Bill to incorporate the North Carolina Iron and Steel Rail Company.

Resolution in favor of A. J. Summerwith, Tax Collector of Wayne County.

Bill to incorporate the Dismal Swamp Steam Transportation Company.

Resolution in favor of W. H. & R. S. Tucker.

House Resolution appropriating $500 for contingent expenses: Mr. Robbins asked if this appropriation was to defray the expense of the third branch of the Legislature.

Mr. Jones, of Wake, said he knew something about that branch, and it was not for that purpose. [There has been a bar established in the Capitol, which has been accessible to any body who desired to drink something stronger than water, and a large majority of this moral Legislature stepped in often and took "anger in there." It was better known as the third branch of the General Assembly.]

On motion of Mr. Sweet, the resolution allowing John W. Stevens, (he would be Senator from Caswell county,) the same per diem and mileage as members, from the beginning to the end of the session, passed.

Those who voted in favor of the motion were Messrs Bellamy, Cook, Davis, Galloway, (negro), Hayes, Long, Moore, of Carteret, Sweet, Walker and Winstead—10.

NAYS.—Messrs. Barrow, Brogden, Barnes, Blythe, Eppes, (negro,) Harrington, Hyman, (negro,) Jones, of Wake, Lassiter, Melchor, Purdie and White—12.

No quorum voting, the resolution was lost.

The Senate adjourned until to-morrow morning.

SENATE.

SATURDAY MORNING, Aug. 22, 1868.

The Senate was called to order at 9 o'clock.

CALENDAR.

Bill to incorporate the McLean Fire Company, in the town of Fayetteville. Mr. Harrington said this bill had been sent up by this Company to Col. Sinclair, a representative of another constituency. They had overslaughed their own representatives simply on the ground of partizan malignity, and moved that its further consideration be postponed until the 3rd Monday in November next, which was carried.

Bill to establish a Criminal Court in the City of Raleigh. Mr. Walker stated that as Mr. Jones the Senator from Wake was absent and desired to have a hearing in favor of this measure, in order to give him an opportunity, moved its further consideration be postponed until the 3rd Monday in December next.

Mr. Robbins hoped the motion would prevail, as the citizens of Raleigh were utterly opposed to any measure which is calculated to increase their present burdensome tax, and the motion of Mr. Walker prevailed.

On motion of Mr. Robbins the Resolution in favor of J. W. Stevens, (which failed to pass last evening for want of a quorum,) was taken up and Mr. Sweet offered the following as a substitute:

Resolved, That the President of the Senate be and is hereby authorized to give to John W. Stevens, contestant of the seat of Bedford Brown of the 24th District, a warrant for per diem and mileage from the commencement of the session, to include Aug. 18th, 1868. Also to the following persons who presented certificates of election but were declared ineligible, the latter warrants to extend to the time at which they were respectively declared ineligible to-wit: Ed W. Jones, W. A. Allen, Bedford Brown and Josiah Turner, Jr. Provided, That no warrant issued by authority of this resolution shall embrace the time during which any one of the above named persons was absent from the seat of government.

On motion of Mr. Hays, the question was divided. Those who voted to allow Mr. Stevens per diem and mileage, are Mess. Barnes, Beasley, Bellamy, Burns, Cook, Davis, Epps, (negro) Hayes, Harrington, Hyman, Lassiter, Legg, Long, Martindale, Osborn, Rich, Robbins, Shaffner, Sweet, Wilkie, White, Wynn and Winstead.—24.

Nays.—Mess. Brogden, Blythe, Melchor, Moore, of Carteret and Moore of Yancey—5.

Those who voted to allow per diem and mileage to the four Senators who were decided to be ineligible, are Mess. Burns, Beasly, Cook, Davis, Epps, (negro) Harrington, Hyman, (negro) Lassiter, Legg, Long, Osborn, Rich, Rogers, Robbins, Sweet, White, Wynn and Winstead, 19.

Nays.—Mess. Bellamy, Brogden, Burns, Blythe, Hayes, Melchor, Moore, of Carteret, Moore, of Yancey, and Walker, 9.

The substitute was adopted and passed its several readings.

Mr. Winstead introduced a resolution prohibiting the removal of library, &c., from the Supreme Court room, and authorizing the Superintendent of Public Instruction to procure a room elsewhere. Adopted. Messrs. Bellamy, Brogden, Hyman, (negro,) Cook, Hayes, Legg, Long and Walker voting in the negative.

Mr. Osborne introduced a resolution in relation to the importance of constructing the Southern Pacific Railroad and requesting the Representatives of this State in Congress to use their efforts to procure an appropriation to complete the same, and also to procure an appropriation to repair the damage done to the Governor's Mansion by the Federal Troops who occupied it after the surrender. Adopted.

Bill in relation to the Mayor and Commissioners of the town of Newport, Carteret county, passed its third reading.

Resolution instructing the Treasurer to pay Mr. T. R. Caldwell, and two others, $100 each, for services rendered the State in 1863, was postponed until the next session, by the request of the President.

It having been agreed by common consent, on yesterday, that the Senators should present to the President of the Senate, a substantial proof of their respect, and Mr. Robbins, having been selected to present the same to-day at 12 o'clock, at the appointed hour, on motion of Mr. Rich, the Governor and other State officers, were invited to seats on the floor.

Mr. Robbins, holding in his hands a fine gold watch and chain, arose and said:

MR. PRESIDENT:—Men of earnest souls and stern convictions may expect often to find each other opponents on the world's wide field of battle, contending sometimes with rushing words, sometimes perhaps with flashing blades. In that arena, true heroes ask only for foemen worthy of their steel.

But there is also a neutral ground, where the white flag always waves, and where those who have been valiant in conflict may meet in peace, and, for a while, lay down their weapons. Upon that ground, and under that white flag, the members of the Senate are now met, to dedicate this hour to the offices of friendship. That we are able to meet for such purposes, and on such terms, is largely due to the example of uniform courtesy which you, Sir, have set us as our presiding officer.

Feeling this, as we all do, without respect of party, the members of this body have deemed it proper, in addition to the resolution of thanks heretofore unanimously adopted, to present to you a more substantial token of their kindly sentiments and sincere regard. And they have selected me to communicate to you their message of friendship and good will, and to accompany it with the presentation, in their name, of the handsome gold watch and chain which I hold in my hand.

This chain is emblematical of the golden links of friendship. The watch, in the constant and regular movement of its machinery, symbolizes the pulsations of a true heart.—And it is also a type of perfect honesty; for it always shows on its face what it feels within.

In the name of the Senators, I present it, Sir, to you, with the wish that each hour of time, which it shall mark, may bring an increase of happiness and good fortune to its owner.

At the close of Mr. Robbin's remarks the President responded as follows:

GENTLEMEN.—Your kindness overpowers me. In vain I search for words to express my gratitude to you. This is a compliment beyond any which I had a right to expect. I accept the beautiful, generous present with my most profound acknowledgements and shall always esteem it as the proudest trophy of my life. I shall preserve it while I live and transmit it as one of my most valued treasures to my family. May God bless you, my friends, and protect and defend you during this life and eventually save in the life which is to come, is my most earnest prayer.

On motion, the Senate adjourned, until Monday morning, at 5 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

BY UNDERGROUND RAILROAD.

SATURDAY, Aug. 22, 1868.

House was called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by Morris (negro) of the House.

On motion of Proctor the reading of the Journal was dispensed with.

A message was received from the Senate announcing the passage of several bills.—Among them a resolution investigating the action of the Committee on Public Grounds and Buildings in moving the Supreme Court room.

Hodgins explained and sustained the action of the Committee.

Mr. Argo said that there was a law giving those rooms to the Supreme Court; therefore a mere resolution of the Committee vacating them was invalid, and he moved to concur in the resolution.

Hodgins moved to lay the motion on the table. Lost.

The resolution was then concurred in.

Proctor moved a call of the House.

Estes moved to lay that motion on the table. Carried.

CALENDAR.

The bill to incorporate the Deep River Navigation Company was taken up and passed its third reading.

The Senate bill to incorporate the Roanoke Batteau Transportation Co., passed its last reading.

The Senate bill, to charter the Union Emigrant Transportation Co., was, on motion of Hayes, (negro,) laid on the table.

A petition from the citizens of Chatham county was postponed until next session.

The bill to amend the charter of the Cheraw and Salisbury R R. Co. was laid on the table, on motion of Proctor.

The Senate bill incorporating the Loan and Trust Co. passed its final reading.

The bill concerning refunding bonds—requiring them to be filed in the Clerk of the superior Court's office,—passed its third reading.

The Senate bill relating to suits pending in the late County Courts: Mr. Pou said that the bill was a long one and the Engrossing Clerks had already a large amount of work to do; he moved to postpone it until next session.

The motion did not prevail. The bill then passed its final reading.

The Senate resolution, being the report of the Committee on claims in favor of certain parties, passed its several readings.

Senate bill No. 103, to amend the charter of the Mecklenburg Female College, passed its third reading.

Senate bill 107, to facilitate the settlement of estates of deceased persons and for other purposes, passed its third reading.

Senate bill to amend sec. 6, chap. 85, Revised Code, passed its third reading.

House resolution in favor of W. H. & R. S. Tucker for articles: Passed its several readings.

The report of the County Commissioners of Washington county, dividing the county into townships, was postponed until next session.

Senate bill 120 relating to the Mayor and Commissioners of the town of Newport, Carteret county, allowing them to appoint an inspector of Naval Stores, passed its last reading.

A message was received from the Senate asking the concurrence of the House in a resolution continuing the Supreme Court in their old rooms, and that the Committee be instructed to find other rooms for the Superintendent of Public Instruction and Auditor.

Mr. —— moved that the House concur. Stilley moved to lay the resolution on the table. Carried.

On motion the House then adjourned until 4 past 8 o'clock this evening.

GEN. GEO. D. ROBINSON, formerly an uncompromising Radical, has been in Florida, for eighteen months, witnessing the conduct of the carpet-baggers, and has returned to his home in Auburn, N. Y., thoroughly converted to the Democratic cause. He made a speech in that city, at a Democratic meeting, on Monday night last.

A REBEL officer of the Butler Zouaves, who recently accompanied the body of Thad. Stevens to Lancaster, Pa., and who were treated so unceremoniously by the Pennsylvanians, after his return to Washington said to another colored friend:

"Why, you niggers tink Mister Grant going to be lected? Caws, chile, I ain't seen no Grant flag since we left dis city. Why, everybody hurrahing for Seymour and Blair every place we went. No, indeed, niggers, Grant ain't going to be lected, also."

THE PETERSBURG Index says:

"Since Holden turned the Standard over to its carpet bag owners, it is more venomous and indecent than ever."

UNDER a proclamation of Gov. Smith, the people of Alabama will vote in the Presidential election, notwithstanding the action of the Legislature.

A NEGRO CRIMINAL RESCUED FROM THE HANDS OF THE POLICE AT ATLANTA, GA.

ATLANTA, Aug. 19.

Between 10 and 11 o'clock last evening a drunken and unruly negro was arrested by two policemen in front of the National Hotel. The police were proceeding to the guard house with the prisoner when a mob of negroes pursued and attempted a rescue. The police resisted and the negroes collected, and, using clubs, the police were knocked down and the prisoner escaped. At this time some person in the mob gave word to fire, and the negroes did so, wounding a policeman. The fire was returned by the police and the discharges followed in rapid succession. One negro was killed and two wounded, when the negroes fled; but they rallied again near the guard-house and again moved forward to attack the police. By this time the whole police force and a large number citizens were on the ground, prepared for conflict. When the negroes saw the determination to protect the lawful authorities they rapidly dispersed.

GEN. MCCLELLAN.—It is rumored that Gen. McClellan is about returning home to take an active part in the coming election. We hope the rumor may prove true. The General's name alone would be a tower of strength with his old comrades of the Army of the Potomac, and they would follow his lead in the political as they did in the military campaign. His services in Pennsylvania would be of immense value in the October election, and ought to be secured if possible.—Wash. Express.

Thaddeus Stevens' will has been admitted to probate. He donates the bulk of his property to his nephew, Captain Thaddeus Stevens, on condition that he totally abstains from intoxicating liquors, and in the event of his failing to make the condition good it goes for the erection of a refuge in Lancaster for homeless and indigent orphans, without regard to race, color, religion or descent.—N. Y. Herald.

NO MONEY FOR THE CARPET-BAGGERS.—Gov. Scott, of South Carolina, reports here that he cannot procure the loan authorized by the Legislature. He has been offered only $35,000 on sixty days' time, and the bonds to be antedated so as to mature prior to the Presidential election. The Radical officials of the State are alarmed at the prospect of being paid off in "certificates of indebtedness," which must depreciate.—Gov. Scott doubts if the credit of the State can be sustained.—Wash. Evening Express.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

VEGETABLE PILE OINTMENT.

TO THE PUBLIC.

FOR 25 YEARS I was sorely afflicted with the PILES. After trying every remedy I could hear of and failing to receive any benefit, in 1857, I discovered a remedy, purely vegetable, which effected an entire cure, and I have had no return of it.

Anxious to relieve the afflicted and to promote my own benefit, I made public my discovery and had the gratification to know that my remedy cured a large number of persons. My ointment was advertised in the public prints and I met with great success, until the war came on.

By the advice of friends, I have determined again to manufacture the OINTMENT and offer it for sale. Any number of certificates of its value could be obtained if necessary.

Price of box $1, and postage when sent by mail. As soon as I can make arrangements, I will put it in the hands of the druggists of the State.

For Sale.

ONE OF THE MOST VALUABLE FARMS IN Greene County, containing

1,300 ACRES.

There is on the plantation a good Dwelling, with 6 Rooms, and all necessary out-houses.—Besides, there are two other settlements, with good residences and good out-buildings.

There is an inexhaustible supply of the best SHELL MARL on the plantation. There is now growing on the lands a fine crop of COTTON, at an average height of 4½ feet.

The plantation can be bought at less than its value before the war.

We have a plat of the land, showing distance from Railroad and shipping places on the River.

COLUMBIAN COLLEGE,

WASHINGTON, D. C.

THE SESSIONS OF THE SEVERAL Departments open as follows:

The PREPARATORY, September 9th; the COLLEGIATE, September 23rd; the THEOLOGICAL, October 5th; the LAW, October 14th; and the MEDICAL, October 19th.

This College was organized with a reference to the original suggestion of WASHINGTON, that a University, at the Federal Metropolis, would tend to the consolidation of the principles, opinions and manners of our countrymen, by the common education of a portion of its youth from every quarter. Its graduates have verified the expectations of MADISON and MONROE, that the facilities of hearing debates in Congress, arguments in the Supreme Court and Lectures from eminent men, and of visiting Libraries and Collections in Science, gathered at this centre, would foster a comprehensive mental development.

The Preparatory School gives a thorough training for business, and preparation for College. The College proper has eight efficient Professors; all the Chairs being filled. The Theological School has three Professors and Lecturers; the Law School four, and the Medical, ten. The expenses are as low as at other Colleges. Number of students the past year, 424.
