RALEIGH, N. C., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1868. NO. 17.

The Daily Sentinel.
W. H. PELL, Proprietor.

From the White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia, Sept. 1st, 1868.
CONCLUSION OF THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE CONFERENCE OF THE SOUTHERN STATES.

Well, the conference between General Rosecrans and General Lee and Beauregard, Mr. Stephens, Mr. Johnston, Mr. Pickens, Mr. H. S. Gentry, Mr. Jones, Mr. Jere Morris, Governor Pickens, Mr. J. M. Moore, Mr. J. M. Moore, which has been in progress since Saturday, reached a conclusion at 10 o'clock, when a statement to be published in the press of the North was signed by the parties above mentioned. It was not deemed advisable by General Rosecrans to allow his press to have copies of it in advance of its formal publication by the widow of General Lee, and it was proposed to have the statement published in the press of the North at once.

A letter received here from Hon. D. W. Voorhees says the democracy of Indiana is full of courage, hope and confidence, and that there seems to be no doubt but that the State will give a handsome majority for Seymour and Blair. He says that he has written a letter here, expressing his opinion that Wisconsin is certain for Seymour and Blair.
