NEVER SURRENDER.

We are strong in the faith of Democratic triumph in November, for we have not yet come to distrust the intelligence and the patriotism of the American masses. We believe that Radicalism has attained the zenith of its power, and that its course of violence and oppression is about to be checked by the determined voice of an injured and outraged nation. That Seymour and Blair will be elected President and Vice President of the United States, in spite of all the desperate and unscrupulous efforts of the supporters of Grant and Colfax, we most confidently believe, in common with the majority of intelligent and well informed Democrats throughout the country.

But while we regard success as reasonably sure, we do not forget that defeat is among the possible contingencies. Our enemies are struggling with all the energy of desperation to retain their wonted hold upon power. They are making use of every conceivable agency in aid of their cause. Corruption heretofore unparalleled has been resorted to, and unnumbered millions of money, drawn really from the labor of the working masses, will be expended to purchase their continued submission to slavery. Remembering that defeat is possible, we cannot forbear rebuking the spirit manifested by those few Democrats who declare that "if we are beaten in this fight further resistance is useless." It is the mission of Democracy to contend for human rights and the liberties of the people at all times and seasons, and that mission should never be forgotten by its followers. If we are beaten this fall, which God forbid, there is ten times greater reason why we should continue the contest with the enemies of popular liberty; why we should continue to interpose to the fullest extent of our power, the shield of Democracy between them and its oppressors.

A true Democrat will "never say die."—"Never surrender" should be the motto for our banner, and, come victory, or come defeat, that banner should never be lowered. It is the symbol of right and justice in the administration of human government, and as sure as God reigns, it will yet wave in triumph over the land.

THE ASSASSINATION OF GEN. HINDMAN.

We publish below the full account of Gen. Hindman's assassination, already announced by telegraph. The Chicago Times very justly says:

In the frequent reports of "Southern outrages" in the Radical newspapers, one sees no indignation over the assassination of Gen. Hindman. There has not been a solitary howl among the Tribune of the press over this occurrence.

Why is this so? Among all the tears which Radicals are weeping over riots which they have instigated, and over outrages which never had an existence, have they not a few to spare over the murder of Hindman? Had this Confederate general been a plantation negro, wordly, brainless, malicious, ignorant, and a Radical, there would have been raised a storm of indignation throughout the Radical North that would have convulsed things like a South American earthquake. It would have been something, with reference to its justice, like the case of the rebel Wirz, who was ignominiously hanged, and the Radical scoundrel Joe Brown, who is now a Radical saint.

[From the Helena (Ark.) Clarion, Oct. 11.]

ASSASSINATION OF GEN. HINDMAN.

We are called upon in the sad duty to chronicle one of the most tragic events which has ever cast its shadow over this community. Our distinguished fellow citizen Gen. Thos. C. Hindman has been suddenly laid low by the hand of an assassin. His life was taken last Sunday night, at half past 8 o'clock, while sitting in his room surrounded by his family, under circumstances of the most horrible character. He was shot with an army musket, through the east window of the southeast room of his dwelling house, sitting by the fire and smoking. His left hand, in which he held his pipe, was torn away, and two balls passed through his neck, severing the windpipe and doing other injuries which produced copious internal bleeding.

The muzzle of the musket, from the powder burns on the window blind, was not exceeding [illegible] and but for the accidental position of his hand, possibly close, which diverted the aim of the shot, would have almost blown his head from his shoulders. The boldness of the perpetrator of this bloody deed is manifest. It was a clear, moonlit night. A person could have been seen and almost recognized a hundred yards off. From whatever direction the assassin may have approached, or by whatever, after the commission of the crime, (as indicated by their tracks,) towards the road or street in front of the residence, many persons were known to be passing at all hours. The tracks show two persons present, but of whom, from appearances, was a white man, but no clue has as yet been found fixing suspicion upon any particular individuals. It is thought that political malice was the cause, and that a hired villain struck the blow.

Gen. Hindman survived about eight hours, during which he conversed calmly in relation to business matters, spoke with touching beauty and affection of his wife and four little children who have been so inhumanly bereaved. He was conscious of his fate, rational to the end—which he met with sublime courage and resignation. Gen. Hindman was the great leader of the Democracy of this State, and was dealing such heavy blows against Radicalism as to mark him as its most formidable opponent. But whatever the motives which instigated this foul and dastardly deed, the state of the public mind and the violence done and threatened lead to the belief that he fell a victim to the vindictive party antagonism which menaces the peace of the country.

Hit Them Again.—The Utica (N. Y.) Observer say: "In the Massachusetts Methodist Conference yesterday the persons using 'Praise God from whom all blessings flow' in honor of the promised reports from Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Indiana, and those in favor of singing and hallelujahs because the soldiers did not murder Democrats, rejected their application. Men who pervert sacred hymns of praise to the gratification of their malice or their Radical politicians are pretty certain to do all their singing on earth. There'll be no singing (but plenty of singing) in the place to which they will go."

NORTH CAROLINA ELECTION.

THE VOTE IN THE APRIL ELECTION.

We publish below, for the sake of reference, the official tabular statement of the vote in the April election in this State.—The 29,774, who did not vote, were men who were registered, and entitled to vote, at the time of the election. In addition to this, it may be safely estimated that 16,000 men in the State are now enfranchised, who could not vote before.

NEW YORK.

Losses paid in 28 days. No restrictions on TRAVEL or RESIDENCE. No extra charge for Travelling. No charge for medical Examination, Policies or stamps.

THE UNIVERSAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

NEW YORK.

Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the Stock system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the Mutual, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is guaranteed, secured, and certain; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is uncertain, contingent, and uncertain; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION. Suppose that A, without just thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance upon his life; the amount will immediately secure him in the "Universal" the sum of $11,751, payable on his decease. This sum, paid on a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,571.

The difference between these sums ($3,277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the assured. At the same time the assured, in an office charging high rates, the long average, and having no periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass that above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured, contingent on the event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.

To illustrate the advantages of the guaranteed low rates of premium, in more general terms, it may be stated that, by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy having three and one-third per cent greater paid-up and surrender value; a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty-three and one-third per cent, payable at decease, or to a dividend of forty-four per cent, payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full amount of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taking all the risk. In the Mutual plan one half only is instructed to the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

Rates to Secure $1,000 at Death.

Age.	Ordinary Life. Yearly Payments.	Age.	Ordinary Life. Ten Payments.
20	$14.92	25	$17.66
30	17.42	30	20.44
35	19.43	35	23.25
40	21.77	40	26.51
45	24.51	45	30.51

All the improved descriptions of Life and Endowment Policies issued on the Stock plan at greatly reduced rates.

Policies issued at rates lower than those charged by Mutual Companies, guaranteeing the return of all premiums paid in addition to the amount insured.

Policies issued at rates less than those charged by Mutual Companies, guaranteeing a return of fifty per cent. of the premium after the third annual payment.

The undersigned having been appointed General Agents for the States of North and South Carolina, for the above STERLING Company, desire Agents in all the principal towns and sections in said States. To live and energetic Agents, who are willing and anxious to work, liberal terms will be entered into. COMMISSIONS GOOD.
