WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

THE ARMY OF OFFICE HOLDERS.

Do the taxpayers ever think of the useless army of office-holders that a Radical Congress has quartered upon them? A large proportion of the taxes paid never reach the Treasury; the money is taken to pay the men who are thus pensioned upon the country.

There are 240 revenue collection districts in the United States, with a collector and an assessor for each, making 480 of these principal officers altogether. There have been as high as 2,809 deputy collectors at one time, and 3,600 assistant assessors.—Before the passage of the law of last July there were some ten regular revenue agents, but to these there should properly be added an equal number of special agents of the Treasury, who were exclusively employed on internal revenue matters by regular assignment to that duty. These are followed by inspectors of distilled spirits, coal oil, snuff, tobacco, cigars, &c., numbering in all in the neighborhood of 800 persons. We have here in round figures nearly 8,000 officials of direct appointment. To these we must add all those of indirect appointment, whose duties grow out of the public business in this channel, and who are paid with money taken out of the general Treasury. Those comprise the clerical force of the assessors and collectors, the guagers, watchmen, and other persons, numbering, at a fair estimate, 8,000 more, making a grand aggregate of 16,000. This makes up the dimensions of the inland revenue service—an army in itself.

SIXTEEN THOUSAND MEN are employed by the machinery of a Radical Congress to collect the revenue taxes alone!—What is the necessity tor this great army of salaried men? Could not these taxes be collected by the same officers chosen by the people to collect State and local taxes?—No, says the Radical Congress; for they would not be under our dictation and control. They want these Sixteen Thousand office-holders to use as tools—to pay contributions to aid in perpetuating the power of the usurpers; it is not enough that they eat out the substance of the people; they must be used to aid Congress in crushing out the liberties of the people!—Albany Argus.

[From Packard's Monthly.]

Slurs on Women.

At a recent meeting in this city, at which no ladies were present, a man, in responding to the toast on "women," dwelt almost solely on the frailty of the sex, claiming that the best among them were little better than the worst, the chief difference being in the surroundings.

At the conclusion of the speech a gentleman present rose to his feet, and said:

"I trust the gentleman, in the application of his remark, refers to his own mother and sister, and not to ours."

The effect of this most just and timely rebuke was overwhelming; the maligner of women was covered with confusion and shame.

This incident serves an excellent purpose in prefacing a few words which we have for a long time had it in our mind to say.

Of all the evils prevalent among young men, we know of none more blighting in its moral effects than the tendency to speak slightingly of the virtue of women. Nor is there anything in which young men are so thoroughly mistaken as the low estimate they form of the integrity of women—not of their own mothers and sisters, thank God, but of others, who, they forget, are somebody else's mothers and sisters.

As a rule, no person who surrenders to this debasing laxity is safe to be trusted with any enterprise requiring integrity of character.

Plain words should be spoken on this point, for the evil is a general one, and deep rooted. If young men are sometimes thrown into the society of thoughtless or lewd women, they have no more right to measure all other women by what they see of these than they would have to estimate the character of honest and respectable citizens by the developments of crime in our police courts.

Let young men remember that their chief happiness in life depends upon their utter faith in women. No worldly wisdom, no misanthropic philosophy, no generalization can cover or weaken this fundamental truth. It stands like the record of God himself—for it is nothing less than this—and should put a lever's edge of steel upon lips that are wont to speak slightly of women.

STIR UP your friends to REGISTER AND VOTE. Don't neglect this. Remember we MUST carry North Carolina for Seymour and Blair, on the 3rd. of November.

At a local election "out West" crinoline had a great deal to do with the business. The contest turned wholly upon personal popularity, and the successful candidate brought his wife into help him. "His wife," says the country paper, "would have made the fortune of any candidate. A fine, dazzling woman, she rode about with him in a carriage, upon the canvassing tours, and when, one day, he stopped at a public house to see a committee, while she sat without in a barouche, waiting his return, the 'frize coats' gathered round the vehicle, and, giving three cheers for her honor, called on her for a speech. Prompt as lightning, she responded, 'I will sing you a song,' which an Irishman, with music in his soul, any day prefer to a speech. And she sang, in a clear, sweet voice, some of Moore's melodies. The 'frize coats' listened entranced. From that moment, until the election took place, the beautiful politician could never appear in public without being implored for a song."

NEGRO SIMILE.—An old negro named Pete was much troubled about his sins.—Perceiving him one day with a very downcast look, his master asked him the cause. "Oh, master, I'm such a great sinner!" "Hut Pete," said his master, "you are foolish to take it so much to heart. You never saw me trouble about my sins." "I know de reason, massa," said Pete; "when you go out duck shooting and kill one duck and wound another, don't you run after the wounded duck?" "Yes, Pete," said the master, wondered what was coming next. "Well, massa, dat de way wid you and me; de debil has got you sure, but he am not sure of me; he chase me while all de time."

HAVE YOU REGISTERED? If not, take one or two with you, and attend to it now—to-day!

NORTH CAROLINA

THE VOTE IN THE APRIL ELECTION.

We publish below, for the sake of reference, the official tabular statement of the vote in the April election in this State.—The 29,774, who did not vote, were men who were registered, and entitled to vote, at the time of the election. In addition to this, it may be safely estimated that 15,000 men in the State are now enfranchised, who could not vote before.
