ELECTION RETURNS.
Our friends, in every section of the State, will confer a favor upon us, by forwarding us the Election returns in their respective counties, towns, &c., at the earliest practicable moment.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—We direct special attention to the extensive sales of Real Estate advertised by Messrs. J. L. Morehead and Wm. H. Smith, Executors of P. G. Evans' estate. The property is among the most valuable in the State.

Yoke of Oxen stolen: James Rountree, near Wilson. $25 reward offered.
Bayne's India Rubber Scrub, manufactured by Thos. H. Briggs. Liberal discount given to the trade.
J. Brown, with H. & Lewis, offer best Kerosene Oil and Blacksmith's tools.
W. H. & R. S. Tucker give notice of additional importations.
See Mayor's notice.

RALLY DEMOCRATS!
We are requested to announce that the three Seymour and Blair Clubs of this City, the Western, Eastern and Middle Ward Clubs, will all meet this evening (Monday) at 7 o'clock, at the Western Ward Club Room. All are invited to attend. Accommodations will be prepared for all. Business of importance will be transacted. Let all the members of the Clubs attend.

SWIFT CRUISE BARBECUE.—The Barbecue and Mass Meeting at Martin Jones, on Saturday, notes up by that gallant band of Swift Creek, was a glorious affair. The crowd, both of men and of ladies, was very large, and in addition to other exercises, the people were addressed by Gov. Briggs, Maj. O. H. Wilder, M. A. Bledsoe, Esq., and J. H. Gales. Full particulars (crowded out) by the hour at which we make up our forms on Saturday night) will be given to-morrow.

HYPERBOLICAL.—A typographical error occurred in our leader on Saturday, headed "A Word of Warning," which escaped our notice. We wrote hyperbolic, but the type by mistake put it, hypocritical—a word we by no means intended to use.

SHERIFF'S LAW.—We are assured by the Sheriff that the rumor to regard to the order from the Judges to his members to go upon the election grounds with bludgeons, &c., is wholly unfounded, and that as a peace officer he will countenance nothing of the kind. He is disposed to do his duty and assure us that he will discharge it with impartiality and promptness. That is all we want, and we shall not be backward in giving him due credit for the faithful performance of his duty.

TRICKERS.—The Radicals and the Women Insular have estimated that bogus tickets have been printed at this office. The information is false. Most of our tickets have been printed plain on white paper and black ink with the full Democratic ballot. The same tickets, and some others, have been printed in black ink on colored paper, as they have been ordered. Colored inks are not used in our office. We have printed no bogus or deceptive tickets of any kind nor have any such been printed in this office. We hear of bogus tickets intended to deceive, but so far as we can learn, they have been printed at the Standard office and nowhere else.

BANK OF NORTH CAROLINA.—It is rumored that the Bank of North Carolina will be forced into bankruptcy, for the reason that some of its creditors have sued the Bank. We do not state this as a correct fact, but state it as a rumor. Should the Bank go into bankruptcy, its object will be to secure to all its creditors, alike, a pro rata proportion of its resources, and to avert all its creditors. The President and Directors of that Bank are honest men and are among our best and most reliable citizens, and will do justice to every man. If in the untoward circumstances which have befallen the country, when its finances and every thing else have been upturned, our best financiers have served in judgment and have not shown the sharpness of others, it is simply mean and wicked to intimate, in the slightest degree, incompetency or infidelity, on the part of any director or officer of that Institution. To hold on to it, at present, would be to pay all its debts to break and others, whose claims are being up to him.

THE N. C. BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION.
The thirty-eighth session of this body was held in Hillsboro, last week, having commenced on Wednesday morning last. In the absence of Rev. James McDaniel, of Fayetteville, who has presided over its deliberations for many years, Rev. S. G. Mason, of Yadonville, Caswell County, was elected President of the Convention. Rev. J. L. Carroll, of Oxford, was elected Secretary. Quite a large and respectable delegation, representing the different sections of the State, was present. Rev. J. B. Jeter, D. D., of Richmond, Va., Rev. John A. Broadus, D. D., of S. C., and Rev. T. B. Kingsbury, of Tennessee, were present. We learn that liberal contributions have been made to several benevolent enterprises under the control of the denomination. The next session of the Convention will be held in Newbern, in November, 1889.

The dedication services of the new Baptist Church building just completed took place on Tuesday night last, and the sermon preached on that occasion by Rev. T. H. Prichard, D. D., of this city, was very highly spoken of. The church edifice is said to be one of the finest of its size in the State, and its completion at this time reflects great credit upon the Baptists of Hillsboro.

We learn from a delegate that the citizens of Hillsboro sustained their time honored reputation for hospitality, and that they had made ample preparations for the accommodation of a much larger number of delegates than was present. We have the promise of a more complete account of the proceedings of the Convention.

RAILROAD AND GASTON RAILROAD.—The Henderson Index says: "The able and efficient management of our Raleigh & Gaston R. R. have recently placed on it a new and handsome coach, manufactured at the Company shops, and of the latest and most improved fashion. One or two more will be on in a few days. They have also had much of the track laid with new iron ties, and are now engaged in further perfecting it, so as to make it equal to any for comfort and pleasure." The officers deserve the greatest credit for their energy."

THE MAYOR OF WILMINGTON has published a proclamation regarding the election to-morrow, and appealing for the preservation of peace. He has also appointed thirty-six special police for the occasion, consisting of twelve Southern gentlemen, twelve Yankees and twelve negroes.

MR. NICHOLAS N. NIXON, an old and valued citizen of Wilmington, died in that city last evening. He has been suffering for years past with a cancer, which has finally caused his death and thus bereaved his family.

IT HAS at last been discovered why so many corkers were included in the "stationery" of Congress last session. They were needed to let Butler out.

THIS radical's claim all the morality—judging from the columns of their organs they have also all the brain."

THE NEW YORK HERALD has within a few days become quite amused with Gen. Frank Blair, since his visit to New York.

THE ELECTION IN INDIANA.
The following is the result in Indiana on Congress:
Districts. Republican. Democrat.
First.....16,626 18,120
Second.....12,848 18,770
Third.....14,008 16,240
Fourth.....14,418 13,297
Fifth.....17,716 16,283
Sixth.....16,544 16,283
Seventh.....16,248 14,968
Eighth.....15,897 14,968
Ninth.....16,404 14,238
Tenth.....14,869 14,268
Eleventh.....17,580 17,072

DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY.
It will be seen that the Democrats have a majority in Indiana on the Congressional candidates, which is the true national test involved in the election. It is evident, therefore, that our friends can certainly carry Indiana for Seymour and Blair in November if they will only work, as we presume they will, with energy and zeal. Cincinnati Inquirer.

Washington Evening Star, Oct. 31, 1888.
THE OUTLOOK.
There has been a manifest reaction in the public mind since the recent elections, and it is not only to be regretted, but it is enough that there was really nothing in the results at all warranting Radical exultation on the one hand, nor the discouragement on the part of certain faint-hearted Democrats on the other.

On the contrary, it is now plainly apparent the effect has been to induce the rank and file of the Democracy to work harder than ever, not only to regain lost ground, but to place the election of Seymour and Blair beyond question.

All over the land, there is a great awakening indicative of this determination. The Radicals see it and feel it. They keep up a show of confidence by empty and noisy boasting, by persistent misrepresentations of the facts and figures, and by the most scandalous imputations upon personal character. These are the devices of desperation, of those despairing demagogues, and so far from disheartening the friends of Constitutional liberty and free Government, they ought to animate them with fresh courage and strengthen their determination to win.

There are signs throughout the so-called military reconstructed States that Radical calculations there are by no means as bad as they are in the North. The carpet-bag office holders, and the emissaries from New England, are finding it a much harder job to "ring in" the negro than they anticipated. The negro, in fact, is rapidly finding out that these aspirants are not their friends, but their enemies—no matter what their professions may be—and as a result of that conviction, when election day comes along, we suspect a good many votes that were anticipated for Grant and Colfax from that class of population will be found on the other side.

Courage, then, friends, one and all, and coverage. But turn to account the few days that intervene between now and Tuesday next, and we feel certain we shall have the unspeakable gratification, this day week, of announcing not only that all is well, but that the victory we have all been looking for so long is so thorough and complete that Radicalism, with its concomitant abominations, is buried so deep out of sight as to make its reconstruction at any future time impossible.

"Let the Union slide," said Banks. "We need a little blood letting," said Chandler. "Let us have peace," said Grant. Great Heavens what a party. They have had not only a little, but an ocean of blood letting.

And now, as some leading Radicals, Ger-schweid, we believe, explain it, Grant's peace is a "piece of triangular steel, called a bayonet."

And such a party as this the American people propose to retain in power. What a great people we are—to what a pass the Great Republic has come!

Our history as a free people is perhaps written. The end of such rottenness, ignorance, fanaticism, or whatever else it may be, cannot be doubtful. —Harrisburgh Patriot.

An ex-Governor of Ohio, noted as an advocate of total abstinence, once had his sympathies aroused by an unscrupulous, who had buried three wives. "The Lord has indeed deeply afflicted you," said the Governor. The mourner, sobbing, replied, "Yes, he has," and, pointing to a monument of granite, continued, "but I don't think the Lord got much ahead of me; for as fast as he took one I took another."

Pennsylvania polled 653,000 votes. Compared with the next largest vote ever given—that of 1860—it reveals these results:

Democratic increase, 31,295 10 7-10
Republican increase, 23,790 7 7-10

That Minister Johnson has made effective efforts for the satisfaction of the Alabama difficulty is no longer a matter of mere speculation, and that a protocol will directly be agreed upon is believed. —Delta, in Delta.

Our Midnight Dispatches.
FROM WASHINGTON.
Washington, Oct. 31, P. M.
Butler's motion to change suits against him in Baltimore, as a breach of his Congressional privileges, was denied and the trial will proceed.

Treasury employees, who refuse to sign an oath of non-union, will be summarily dismissed. The debt statement will show little change. Grant, by order of the President, issues an order, calling the attention of persons, engaged in the naval or military service, to the laws forbidding their interference in elections.

In the case of Tyler versus DeForest, to recover possession of property sold under confiscation, the Court deferred in possession during Tyler's life. The opinion was delivered by Judge Carter. The case was heard by full bench. Revenue for the fiscal year is said to be fifty millions.

It is denied that Ervins has given any opinion regarding double distilled whiskey.

SEWARD'S CLOVEN FOOT.
AUGUSTA, Oct. 31, P. M.
Secretary Seward addressed a large meeting to-day. He defended Johnson's policy and approved the course of the Radical party. He would not take the sword or put it into another's hand to undo what had been done. It was unnecessary or unwise. He thought that the trust of the Democracy, felt by a large portion of the people, ought to be respected. He says that he confides in the Republican party, who saved the Union and abolished slavery. He believes that the success of the Democrats would delay the restoration of peace and harmony.

FROM NEW ORLEANS.
New Orleans, Oct. 31, P. M.
Gen. Steedman, to-day, tendered his unqualified resignation as Superintendent of the Metropolitan Police.

George L. Cain is acting Superintendent of the Police.

The Commissioners state, this evening, that they intend to appoint a Superintendent, on the recommendation of merchants and conventionists. General Rossman, by request, laid night, visited the Club rooms of the Innocents, the club which was most prominent in the trouble with the negroes, and in which considerable feeling still exists, on account of the deaths and wounding of several of its members.

In a sharp speech, Gen. Rousseau warned them that the responsibility for all outrages and disorders in New Orleans was laid on his shoulders, and that he looked to them to keep the peace and encourage others to do the same. He said he felt it his duty to tell them that the blame to be observed, and that they must who had the right, and will vote unimpaired on the election day.

General Rossman was enthusiastically received. The Clubs pledged themselves to obey his wishes. During the recent troubles, the presence of the United States uniforms was always sufficient to restore order. Rousseau's force of troops in the city at no time exceeded a few hundred men.
