A Thrilling Adventure.

I was a medical student in Paris at the time the strange and startling adventure happened which I am about to record. I lived with long hours and hard work, and was out one evening for a walk in the fresh air. It was a pleasant night in mid-winter, and I was walking along a quiet street, feeling very happy and contented.

As I walked along, I noticed a woman in a dark dress and bonnet, who seemed to be following me. I turned back and saw her looking at me with a suspicious expression. I walked on, but she continued to follow me.

"Why should I be here at this hour of the night?" I thought to myself. I turned back and saw her looking at me with a suspicious expression. I walked on, but she continued to follow me.

"What is your price?" she asked. I looked at her and saw that she was a woman of a certain class. I turned back and saw her looking at me with a suspicious expression. I walked on, but she continued to follow me.

"Why did you not send for a doctor at once?" she asked. I looked at her and saw that she was a woman of a certain class. I turned back and saw her looking at me with a suspicious expression. I walked on, but she continued to follow me.
