FORREST AND KILPATRICK—SPICY CORRESPONDENCE.

As the report of General Kilpatrick's speech to the Boys in Blue, (in which he charges Gen. Forrest with abominable cruelties at Fort Pillow,) first appeared in the Register, we are permitted to publish the following correspondence, which is probably the closest scene of the incidents growing out of the late conventions:

HARTFORD, CONN., October 30, 1868.

Gen. H. R. Shackelford, New Haven, Conn.:

General: In reply to Forrest's recent letter, in which since officers of the United States army who were present at the investigation of the Fort Pillow massacre, the testimony of hundreds of witnesses there taken, and the report of the Congressional Committee which conducted that investigation, have not only confirmed his (Kilpatrick's) statements on that subject, but have given additional and more shocking details of Forrest's inhuman conduct at Fort Pillow, Gen. Kilpatrick has nothing to communicate either to Forrest or Basil Duke, except to reiterate his denunciations of Forrest's unparalleled atrocities.

I am, very respectfully, &c.,
E. W. WHITAKER.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Nov. 6th, 1868.—General E. W. Whitaker, President of Central Grant Club, Hartford, Ct.:—General:—Your note of the 2d inst., in which you say "in behalf of General Kilpatrick, that since officers of the United States army, who were present at the investigation into the charges against Forrest, have not only confirmed General Kilpatrick's statements on that subject, but have given additional and more shocking details," &c., is before me; and in reply, I will state what every intelligent man in this country knows to be true, that the so called "investigation," to which you allude, was a one-sided, Radical affair, intended to intensify the bitter feeling then existing both North and South, and to make capital in the then approaching elections.

The few soldiers, black and white, who gave evidence in that farce, misnamed "investigation," had not recovered from the fright they received in the Fort Pillow fight, and knew nothing of the fate of the missing men, who were taken prisoners and afterwards exchanged—hence the wily and unscrupulous chairman of that so-called "investigating committee" easily filled the vacuum in their distorted imaginations, by suggestions which any shrewd lawyer can make in asking "leading questions," that those missing men were "slaughtered, mailed to fences and burned to death," &c.

The exercise of a little common sense, sir, would teach any man that were there the least vestige of truth in the [illegible] mouthed slanderous charges against Gen. Forrest, no power on earth could have saved him from the fate of Captain Henry Wirz, and none should [illegible] better than Gen. Kilpatrick himself.

It is a well-known fact that Gen. Forrest has repeatedly demanded a court of inquiry into these charges, to which demand "powers that be" have made no response.

Since the smoke of battle has cleared away, the excitement allayed, and the combatants again on friendly communication with each other, the truth could the more readily and more accurately arrived at, than when the confusion incident to war was at its zenith. Then why has he been refused this inquiry? Are the Radical authorities afraid of the development of such an inquiry, fairly conducted? General Forrest and his friends deny the truth of those charges, and all love and equity consider persons accused guilty.

You say General Kilpatrick has nothing to do with either Forrest or Basil Duke, except to reiterate his denunciations of Forrest's unparalleled atrocities. If Gen. Kilpatrick is not utterly lost to all sense of honor, sir, he will hold you responsible for such a remark, or else occupy a position a distance of 500 miles from General Forrest evidently makes the valiant Kilpatrick feel very brave. I believe, sir, that distance has a tendency to inspire with all cowards and braggarts—hence he "reiterates his denunciations, &c," but seems to forget that he has been publicly denounced as "a black guard, a liar, a scoundrel and a poltroon," by this gentleman, with whom you say he "has nothing to do." He is evidently a man of "very courage and flinty cheek."

If you are the champion of Gen. Kilpatrick and authorized to act for him in this affair with General Forrest, I would very respectfully suggest that General Basil W. Duke, of Louisville, Ky., is the proper party to address and not myself.

Respectfully,
H. K. SHACKELFORD.

THE ALABAMA ELECTION.—THE NEGRO [illegible] Of the negro [illegible] negro vote for [illegible] Dallas and every [illegible] of the counties we have heard from, has the negro vote kept pace with their [illegible] In other large counties the negro vote has fallen off largely, and some counties having negro majorities have gone Democratic. Thus Lowndes, with nearly 3,000 negro majority, gives only 1,900 majority for Grant. Chambers, in which the negroes have a small majority, goes Democratic by 300 and more. In Russell and Lee united, where the negroes have nearly 2,000 majority, Grant gets only 600 majority. In Madison county, where the negroes have a [illegible] majority in [illegible], the Democrats get 700 majority. In Mobile county, where the negroes had last year a registered majority, the Democrats get about 1,300 [illegible]; and so on throughout the counties where the negroes have not been drilled and dragooned as in Montgomery and Dallas.—Montgomery Mail, Nov. 7th.

WHEELBARROW RACE.—Market Street, at Wilmington, Delaware, was the theatre of two ridiculous scenes on Monday afternoon, both connected with the late election. In consequence with the terms of a bet on Grant and Seymour, George W. Kennedy, a Democrat, wheeled Jas. H. Heal, a Republican, (proprietor of the "Mount Vernon Hotel,") up Market Street from Second to Brandywine bridge. Kennedy bet that Seymour would be elected. The people manifested [illegible] interest in it then, they would have done had not their attention been mainly turned to the next wheeling affair. Heal, however, looked as though he enjoyed the ride, which is more than we can say of the man who was Rise up, sir, she what right ahead and protect no one.

The other bet, the one in which the public interest was manifested, was that between Thos. M. Culbert, hatter, and Washington Cox, the well known mason and builder. Both are republicans, and as to their party carrying New Castle county, made a bet, Culbert betting that the republicans would carry it, and Cox that the democrats would. The terms of the bet were that the loser was to wheel the winner in a wheelbarrow from Front street to Tenth, up Market. At each corner the barrow was to stop and the man inside was to take up a collection for the benefit of the House for Friendless Children. Of course Culbert lost the bet.

The parties most concerned were willing to do the thing with as little parade as possible, but none of their friends kindly consented a man sufficient to sound a bell was to announce their coming, and to procure the Mount Vernon Cornet Band (colored) to precede them. At about half past two the novel procession started, the band performing patriotic airs, and an immense crowd thronging the sidewalks and filling up the middle of the street. A large number of police surrounded the barrow, to give the betters freedom of movement. At each corner they stopped, and the band played while Mr. Cox went around with his contribution box, apparently receiving donations on every hand. Having received his money he returned to the barrow, took his seat, and Mr. Culbert grasped the handles for another square's march. The amount collected was $106 30.—Wilmington Commercial.

NOTICE.

WHEREAS, ERASTUS H. RAY, AND Christiana D. Ray, his wife, on the 9th day of June A. D., 1868, made and executed a mortgage to Robert G. Lewis to secure the sum of two thousand, two hundred and seventy-nine dollars and forty cents, ($2,279.40,) payable to A. T. Stewart & Co., of the City of New York, which mortgage was recorded in the office of the Register of Wake County, on the 11th day of June, 1868, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, in Book 26, page 104, and the above sum of $2,279.40 principal and eighteen dollars and twenty-four cents, ($18.24,) interest, is due on said mortgage on the 27th day of October—the day of the first publication of this notice; and whereas default has been made in the payment of the money secured by said mortgage, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of said premises, by virtue of the power contained in the mortgage; which sale will be made by the subscriber, at public Auction, at the Court House door, in the City of Raleigh, on the 18th day of November next, at one o'clock in the afternoon.

The following is a description of said mortgaged premises:

Adams, and described in said Adams' deed as lot No. 120 in plan of said City, upon which there is a Brick House erected; being 30 feet 7 inches East and West, and fronting on Wilmington Street 25 feet, with all the appurtenances thereunto belonging; subject, however, to a mortgage heretofore executed to H. F. Moore, for the sum of one thousand dollars and interest.

W. Yass and W. D. Johnson of Thomas Bell, and by them conveyed on first October, 1863, to E. H. Ray, the latter deed registered in Register's Office of Wake County, Book No. 23, page 741.

Also a tract of Land lying in the County of Wake adjoining the lands of W. H. Cunningham, the late Wm. Hill, and others, bought by said E. H. Ray of John Ray, June 21st, 1867, and containing about 71 acres.

A Most Wonderful and Successful Invention!

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

Awarded the highest Testimonial wherever exhibited in the United States.

THIS BOILER OPERATES UPON PURELY philosophical principles.

It is self-acting, and dispenses entirely with labor and the wear of clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of fire, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the Clothes and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing it perfectly without any rubbing. It has been thoroughly tested and pronounced unequalled as a Clothes Washer by those who have used it.

All fabrics, from the finest laces to the bed-blanket, can be washed perfectly and with ease without the aid of the rubbing-board. For Flannels it is invaluable, as the rubbing, rolling, and squeezing process, must necessarily fall them, more or less.

It is truly a labor and clothes saving invention! Washing will no longer be a hardship, and washing day no longer a terror and a dread to housewives.

The invention can be used in any boiler, and the low price of the article places it within the reach of every family.

If the directions are strictly followed, success is certain.

The saving in the wear of clothes will very soon pay for the outlay.

It is estimated that 200 to 300 gallons of boiled suds pass through the clothes in thirty minutes; this being the longest time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes.

Having purchased the exclusive interest and control of the Automatic Clothes Washer and Boiler, for North Carolina, we have established a depot in Raleigh, where we are prepared to fill orders or to sell COUNTY RIGHTS. Letters addressed to us at Raleigh, N. C., or Portsmouth, Va., will receive prompt attention.
