TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 1868.

"PEACE!"

The political waters, so long agitated and perturbed, are sinking to repose, except that, here and there, some bad spirit, that can only subsist on confusion and disorder, is seeking to lash them into further excitement. The storm is subsiding and the sea gulls are flying from the lately troubled waste, except that, here and there, one lingers and screams, in the hope that the war of the elements is not entirely over. We have before us, this moment, a large exchange list of Southern papers, with whom we have waged fight for the supremacy of the Constitution, and for the election of the gallant standard bearers who held that banner aloft. Without an exception, their tenor is placid, acquiescent and manly. They submit gracefully to the result, and aver a determination to seek to guide that result to the best interests of the country possible under the circumstances. Their tone cannot be too highly commended, and is sufficient, one would suppose, to disarm resentments and excite admiration, instead of provoking jibes and sneers.

It is pleasant to observe that many, perhaps most, of the journals of the Opposition evince no such pusillanimous spirit. It is mainly reserved for North Carolina, which has been cursed, in a greater degree than any other Southern State, with the agents of malignity and evil, to present the exception to the almost general rule. While the Democratic press and people are occupying themselves with thoughts of peace, discussing material interests, striving for the best and looking as hopefully ahead as the circumstances will permit, the organ of the Executive—the man who, above all others, should consult the tranquility of society and seek to put a stop to popular exacerbations—is still crying out "rebel," "disloyal," "traitor," when recrimination would show him to have been a double traitor: first, to the Union, if any were traitors, and then to his own State! A spirit is thus evinced as in the hearts of all good people, menacing wagon loads of arms are trundling through our streets and emptying themselves into the State Arsenal, on the shades issued to "loil organizations," with openly avowed instructions that the only road to "peace" is to "crush out" and "trample under foot," what is stigmatized as the "rebel Democracy!"—by which is meant over one-hundred thousand of the best white men on the face of the earth.

For all this a pretext must be sought; and the pretext is as false and shameless as the spirit which invents it is mean and dastardly. We observe, by a telegram in the New York World, furnished by the intelligent correspondent of that paper, now in this city, who has had "a talk" with Gov. Holden, that he (the "Gov.") contends that

"That so long as the existing State government is denounced as a usurpation by the leading democratic organ of the State, liable to be overturned at the point of the bayonet, it is only safe to guard against such a rebellious act."

It is unqualifiedly false that any Democratic paper has ever intimated the possibility of overturning the existing State government "at the point of the bayonet,"—desires such a thing—dreams of such a thing,—would connive at such a thing,—would not use all its energies to defeat the courage and express any such attempt, if any individual could be found anywhere within our wide borders silly enough to think of it.

We all have our opinion as to the legality of the present government. We believe it to have been erected "at the point of the bayonet," in utter defiance of the Constitution; but "might," while it cannot make wrong "right," has fixed that government upon us, and it will stand. We propose to aid it in all that it may do to conserve the interests of society and to advance the condition of the State and its people. We expect to denounce and oppose it in all that it does against these great objects. We propose to obey it and advise others to do so, but we do not expect to surrender our convictions as to the manner in which it was put upon us, or to cease to use them on that account. We propose, at the ballot box, at the proper time, and in the manner prescribed by the very Constitution which these men have made,—and by the ballot box, only,—to change, if we can, such that is offensive, odious and unadapted to our condition in this State government. We expect still to hold up to the virtuous indignation of the people, if the occasion demands it, the derelictions of "incompetent and corrupt public functionaries." If this be "treason,"—requiring the bayonet, the bullet and the sword,—why "make the most of it!" We shall see what will be the end of it.

THE LEGISLATURE.—It will be seen that there was barely a quorum in the lower House, on yesterday, and not a quorum in the Senate. We presume that both Houses, however, will get "under weigh," this morning.

Seventy-two persons have already been announced as "some" of appointments in President Grant's cabinet.

SWISS IMMIGRATION.

We are glad to learn that the meeting, on Friday last, at Goldsboro', for the purpose of forming a practical emigration movement, was a decided success. It was gotten up on short notice, but there were fourteen counties represented, by a number of substantial men. The consultations of the meeting exhibited great unanimity and a purpose to encourage the movement. Numbers, not knowing what course would be taken and what would be required, and having had but little consultation with their neighbors, were not prepared to speak for others. Various means were made, then and there, for obtaining 500 Swiss peasantry, but it was thought advisable to adjourn the meeting to Saturday, the 28th of November, to afford others the opportunity of making their arrangements.

We understand that Mr. Atkinson, of Johnston, and Mr. Trosh, the Swiss emigrant Agents, were appointed the Agents of the enterprise, who will sail for Europe early in December, with means to cover the necessary expenses of the emigrants. It is thought that, by the 28th. inst., some 1,500 or 2,000 will be spoken for. We understand that applicants for emigrants are required to advance $15 in gold for each emigrant, embracing men, women and children. This will be refunded to labor, by the emigrants themselves, as they shall be able.

The experiment, made some time ago, by the Messrs Atkinson, is said to be working well. Already, emigrants are coming over at the suggestion of those who have been in the country a short time.

We beg leave to suggest, that those who go into the experiment should not expect to realize too much from these emigrants, by employing them on small wages. The change of climate, soil, food and their general surroundings must be compensated by the extra labor which should be made for their comfort and health, looking for profit from their skill and industry, rather than from the small wages paid them. It is said that the laborers can be employed for $10 per month and found, and that house girls can be had at $6. For a few months, this may do, until they become fully indoctrinated into the new labors and scenes upon which they have entered, but we shall be greatly mistaken, if their steadiness and skill at field labor will not be worth more than this to the planter; though, of course, the wages of hands must be regulated by their efficiency and the amount required to feed them and their families.

We feel confident that the recuperation of the State, under the heavy pressure of private and public debt and taxation, cannot be effected without the increase of population and capital. This movement is a strike in the right direction. We hope, therefore, that the experiment will be fairly tried, and that everything will be done to provide for the health and comfort of the emigrants. A failure at this point would seriously interfere with its success.

THE ELECTION OF GEN. GRANT.

Prior to the election, the Radical press assured the public that the election of Seymour and Blair would block the way to recuperation in the South, at once, as Northern capitalists, in that event, would not risk capital in the South; but, if Gen. Grant should be elected, the South would immediately begin to revive under the influence of Northern capital and labor. Mere mercenary motives would never have led us to support any party or candidate, whose principles we did not approve. Hence we supported Seymour and Blair upon the Democratic platform, from principle, and under the conviction that their election would do more to revive the South than anything else.

If the statements of our Radical opponents were made in good faith, they will soon have an opportunity to prove the correctness of their declarations. Nothing, outside of the honor and integrity of the South, is so important to our people as the encouragement of their industry and enterprise. This can be specially effected by an increase of the right kind of population and capital. Any accession to our enterprise and productiveness, and the increase of money, will be hailed by our people gladly. There is full verge in the South for the operation of all the surplus capital and labor of the North and of Europe, and we shall be glad to see them among us. We have no apprehension, however, that, so long as the necessities of the Government afford certain reliance to capitalists for the use of their money in Government bonds, but little of it will find its way South. The necessity, however, for an increase in the cotton products, as a medium of exchange with Europe, is our only hope for the flow of Northern capital among us. That necessity is now being felt, and may produce the effect which Radicals have predicted, as the consequence of the election of Gen. Grant.

WHO EVER heard of a pistol being presented at the head of a high State official in the South, to compel him to deliver a State office, until the carpet-baggers in Florida "tried it on?" This is a Yankee mode of civilizing the South, with a vengeance.

A COMMENTARY ON THE NEGRO CHARACTER.—On Saturday morning last, the wife of Wiley Tucker, a colored Democrat, died, and to such an extent had the feelings of resentment been carried against him among his race on account of his voting the Democratic ticket, that none could be found willing to assist in preparing her for interment.

This fact coming to the knowledge of the white citizens, a sum was raised among them sufficient to procure a very neat coffin and defray all other burial expenses, and on Sunday a large number of white gentlemen followed her to the grave and saw her decently interred. Several negro men in town, finding that the whites had taken the matter in hand and ashamed of their conduct, were also present at the burial and assisted in the duties pertaining thereto, but as a race, they stood aloof, and carried their prejudiced feelings even to the grave.—Tarboro South Star.

ON TUESDAY, a Philadelphia German amused the third ward voters by asking for a "dicket mit Kraut and Coalbox."

Legislature of North Carolina.

SENATE.

MONDAY, Nov. 16, 1868.

The Senate was called to order at 12 o'clock, according to adjournment, the Lieutenant Governor, Mr. Caldwell, in the chair.

The roll was called and the following Senators answered to their names, viz:

Messrs. Barnes, Bellamy, Blogden, Bond, Blythe, Davis, Eaves, Forkner, Galloway, colored, Lindsey, Long, Moore, of Carteret, Rich, Reapass, Robbins, Shoffner, Smith, Welker, Wynne, and Winstead—20.

There being no quorum present, the President announced the Senate adjourned until to-morrow morning at 12 o'clock.

[Messrs. Avery, Graham, Grant and Scott, Senators elect, have arrived in the city, and will qualify, when the Senate is organized.]

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

MONDAY, Nov. 16, 1868.

The House was called to order at 12 o'clock, according to adjournment, Mr. Speaker Holden in the Chair.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Pepper, Chaplain of the 40th. U. S. Troops, (colored.)

The Speaker congratulated the members upon their safe return, and trusted the proceedings of the session would be harmonious and productive of great good. The excitement had abated, and it would be their highest duty to see to the development of all the interests of the State. In such enterprises, he (the Speaker) would assure them of his hearty co operation. He thanked them for their former support and encouragement, and, in conclusion, pledged himself to adhere to the strict line of justice and to walk in the path of duty.

The Clerk called the roll and the following responded to their names, viz:

Messrs. Speaker, Argo, Allcock, Allsworth, Armstrong, Boddie, Blair, Barnes, Cary, (colored,) Cawthorn, (colored,) Ellis, Farrow, Perebee, Gahagan, Gunter, Gibson, Gilbert, Green, Hodnett, Hutchings, Harris, of Franklin, Harris, of Wake, (colored) Hoffman, Hodgin, Hayes, (colored,) Hinnant, Hendricks, Ingram, Justice, of Henderson, Justice, of Rutherford, Kinsey, Long, of Chatham, Long, of Richmond, Leary, (colored,) Laflin, Mayo, (colored,) Moore, Morrill, Morris (colored,) Mendenhall, McCanless, Mering, Pou, Price, (colored,) Proctor, Ragland, Robinson, Reynolds, Simonds, Sweat, (colored,) Sykes, (colored,) Sinclair, Siegrist, Stanton, Vest, Wilson.

Mr. Argo moved that the newly elected members present be allowed to come forward and be qualified.

Mr. Laflin raised the point of order, that, as no quorum was present, no business of any kind could be transacted.

The Chair said that in organizing at first, the House had to qualify members in order to commence the transaction of business, and he did not see why they could not now qualify members, elected to fill vacancies, who were now present, in order to secure a quorum, as no question was raised as to their qualifications or objection made to their credentials.

Mr. Argo's motion was then adopted, and G. Z. French, of New Hanover, W. H. Malone, of Caldwell, W. P. Welsh, of Haywood, and J. C. McMillan, of Duplin, were then sworn in, according to law.

The Speaker then suggested that a message be sent to the Senate, informing them of the organization of the House.

W. T. Hayes, colored, informed the Chair that the Senate was not in session; whereupon,

On motion of Mr. Laflin, the House adjourned until to-morrow morning at 12 o'clock.

Gen. Grant's Letter of Acceptance—Read it Again.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 29, 1868.

To Gen. Joseph R. Hawley, President National Union Republican Convention:

In formally accepting the nomination of the "National Union Republican Convention" of the 23d of May, instant, it seems proper that some statement of views beyond the mere acceptance of the nomination should be expressed.

The proceedings of the Convention were marked with wisdom, moderation and patriotism, and I believe express the feelings of the great mass of those who sustained the country through its recent trials. I endorse their resolutions.

If elected to the office of President of the United States, it will be my endeavor to administer all the laws in good faith, with economy, and with the view of giving peace, quiet and protection everywhere. In times like the present, it is impossible, or at least eminently improper, to lay down a policy to be adhered to, right or wrong. Through an administration of four years, new political issues, not foreseen, are constantly arising, and the views of the public on old ones are constantly changing, and a purely administrative officer should always be left free to execute the will of the people. I have always respected that will, and always shall. Peace, and universal prosperity, its sequence, with economy of administration, will lighten the burden of taxation, while it constantly reduces the national debt.

Let us have peace!

With great respect, your obedient servant,

U. S. GRANT.

TRAGEDY AT SCOTT'S HILL.—ONE NEGRO SHOOTS AND KILLS ANOTHER NEGRO FOR IMPROPER INTIMACY WITH HIS WIFE.—The sheriff yesterday received from the custody of a party of citizens, a negro man named Robert Cade, whom they charged with killing one Charles Hughes, another negro, on the place of Mr. W. T. Pope, at Scott's Hill, some fourteen miles from this city, that morning. The prisoner was immediately committed to jail, to await the investigation of the Coroner, who will proceed to the fatal spot where the body awaits inspection, this morning.

From what we can learn, the cause of the difficulty, which led to such a fatal termination, was in regard to the wife of Cade. He alleged that Hughes' intimacy with her was conducted in an improper manner and for this vowed revenge, and accomplished it in the manner stated. Cade is a young man about 24 years of age, and is said to be of a notoriously bad character.—Wil. Journal, 14th.

SICKNESS.—We learn that on last Wednesday night, drunken colored soldiers were prowling all over town. One gang of these "able warriors" went to the residence of Mr. Charles Smith, in the lower portion of the town, yesterday demanded an entrance. Mr. S. tried to correct them but was informed that they had come to cut his d—d democratic throat.

Mr. Smith fearing violence at the hand of these "braves" stoned his sleeping family and effected their escape through the back lot to a neighboring house.—Goldsboro' Messenger.

A little girl of two summers had learned to pass her plate at table. One dark night she awoke, reached out her little hand, searching for her mother, but in vain. She raised her voice: "Please, mother, pass your face."

Dr. Hall says that for the period of a month before marriage and a month after death, men regard their wives as angels.

THE TENNESSEE LEGISLATURE—A RESOLUTION REGARDING THE SPEAKER'S CHAIR ADOPTED.

NASHVILLE, Nov. 12.

Senator Cole, of Hamilton, introduced a preamble and resolution in the Legislature to-day, to the effect that, Whereas, D. W. C. Senter, the Speaker of the Senate, was a member of the Confederate Legislature of Tennessee under Isham Harris, has favored many acts oppressive of the Union people, and has been clearly guilty of conspiracy and treason against the government; that, whereas, he was clearly ineligible to office under the third section of the fourteenth article of amendment of the Constitution, all acts which he has signed as Speaker of the Senate are illegal, and therefore, the Speaker's chair should be declared vacant, and the Senate proceed at once to the election of a new presiding officer.

This document created a great deal of excitement in the Legislature, as it was entirely unexpected. It lies over for action to-morrow, when a stormy time is anticipated.

THE CUBAN EXPEDITION.—The filibustering movement is still engaging the attention of our citizens, and it is still manifest to every one that we shall soon hear of a [illegible] adventurers on the Cuban coast, either from this port or the port of New Orleans.

Yesterday a large number of recruits were [illegible], and it is believed that many of them left last evening for New Orleans by rail, so as [illegible] to New Orleans by city in vessels that will be ready for them in a few days. Col. Gibbons has his hands full, and it is more than certain a great number of commissions have been issued during the last twenty-four hours to officers.

Over a dozen men left yesterday on the Morro Castle for Havana, who carried commissions in their pockets to enlist men for service against Lersundi. It would be easy to give their names, but that would insure their arrest on their arrival in Cuba; so we therefore omit giving their names.—They carried no arms but revolvers, and got on board of the vessel very quietly, as our reporter was informed.

Gen. De Pallakoff, who is to have an independent command, left his lodging in Jersey City yesterday afternoon, to take the cars for Philadelphia en route for New Orleans, where he says he is to meet his braves and start with them on the war path. Colonels Radjewiesk and Lubomiski, both staff officers of the General, accompanied him on his journey, and they took with them two trunks full of revolvers. Gen. De Pallakoff informed our reporter that he was well aware that Murray's spies were tracing him from one place to another, and for that reason he was going to New Orleans.—N. Y. World, 14th.

THE UNIVERSAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

NEW YORK.

Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the Stock system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the MUTUAL, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURE and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting insurance on his life; the amount will immediately secure him in the "Universal" the sum of $11,751, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,474.

The difference between these sums ($3 277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, in an office charging high rates, live long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass that above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms, it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy Thirty-Three and one-third per cent greater and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty per cent. payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.
