

THE SENTINEL

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1898.

MAJ. AVERY AND THE SENATE.

The action of the Senate, on Friday, in the case of Maj. Avery, of Burke, Senator elect from the 4th District, will strike the honest reader as one of the most singular and unaccountable personal reasons yet developed in the history of that body.

THE STAY LAWS—RELIEF.

If there be a man in North Carolina, who understands the real condition of the laborer or class in this State, and who proposes to break up the stay laws in existence, and thus to relieve the people of the State from those who have sought relief through their agency, his heart must be adamant—lost to humanity, to the cries of widowed and orphaned innocence, and to the ruin of women and children.

Legislature of North Carolina.

By Mr. Long, from the Committee on Privileges and Elections, to whom were referred the credentials of James C. Scott, Senator elect from the 12th District, reported favorably, and the Senator qualified and took his seat.
