JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

A Few Savory Reminiscences of Fort Lafayette—Stanton's Temple of Liberty.

The burning of Fort Lafayette calls from G. D. P. (George D. Prentice,) the following account of the writer's experience, when engaged on an errand of mercy:

"I have some peculiar reminiscences connected with Fort Lafayette. In 1861 three distinguished gentlemen, Hon. Wm. M. Gwinn, who had served many years with distinction in the Senate of the United States, Hon. Calhoun Benham, who had been United States District Attorney in California, and Mr. Brent, who had been a prominent lawyer in Baltimore, and was then a very prominent lawyer of California, embarked on a steamer for some point in the East. General Sumner was on board the same steamer. When she was near the Narrows the General made them his prisoners. He simply deigned to tell them that he arrested them on suspicion that they were intending to fight against the United States, a suspicion perfectly preposterous in the case of Dr. Gwinn, who was an infirm old man of about seventy years. When they demanded the ground of his suspicion, he only answered that he entertained it, and was not responsible for his suspicions. The three victims were conveyed to the Federal government, and Mr. Seward, Secretary of State, ordered them, without an interview, to Fort Lafayette.

As one of the three prisoners was my near and very dear relative, I hastened very soon to Washington to procure their release. I had written and telegraphed earnestly to the President for the release of Governor Morehead, Mr. Darrett and others, but, when a member of my own family was a victim of oppression and tyranny, I felt that I should give my personal presence to the effort for deliverance. I arrived at the capital long after dark and called immediately upon Mr. Lincoln. He received me with the greatest cordiality and geniality, though he gently intimated that he rather thought that I had been a little unjust to him. I asked him for the discharge of the three Fort Lafayette prisoners, Gwinn, Benham and Brent. He inquired what were the charges against them. Of course I told him that I didn't know, and suggested whether it wasn't more his business than ours to know. He answered, "well I don't know about these things, but I am disposed to do what I can for you and will give you a letter to Seward." I took the letter and called at Mr. Seward's office the next morning. The distinguished Secretary received me with his accustomed amenity, but in regard to the matter in hand, talked quite diplomatically. It was about my first experience of a regular diplomatist's conversation. I didn't much admire or understand it. Mr. S. invited me to take tea with him that evening. I did. After tea I renewed my application for the release of my friends and argued the matter as well as I could. He had only this reply to make: "I am considering the matter, and I shall be very glad to see you at tea or breakfast or dinner every day, and we will talk the subject over."

One evening, when I had been about four days in Washington, I ventured to urge my request very strongly upon the Secretary, and he said, "call at my office to-morrow morning at half-past ten, and I will give you an order for the release of your friends." Of course I was punctual to the minute. "Fred," said he, addressing his son and assistant secretary, "give Mr. Prentice the document I directed you to make out." The assistant secretary placed it in my hands. I read it. It was not an order for the discharge of the victims. It was only an order that I should have the privilege of seeing them in their prison when I pleased. "Why, Mr. Seward, this is not what you promised me yesterday." "No, it is not, but I especially desire that you go to New York and talk with your friends and ascertain their feelings and intentions and report to me." I told him in terms, a little brief possibly, that he certainly could not expect me to visit my friends in prison and enter into conversation with them as a government spy. "Well," he said, "do me the favor to go and see them, and write to me as you like." I said "yes." I went and wrote to him every day as strongly as I could in favor of the release of the prisoners. My first three letters were unanswered. In reply to the fourth I received a dispatch saying that my friends were "paroled to Washington for explanation." Of coure I considered that dispatch as implying a discharge. I went immediately with Dr. Gwinn's wife and daughters to Fort Lafayette, exhibited the order to the prisoners, and advised them to proceed to Washington immediately. "Go with us," said they. I told them that it would be exceedingly inconvenient for me to go with them. They were apprehensive of deceit and treachery. "Go with us," said they, "or we will not go." I went with them. On arriving at Washington I called upon Secretary Seward in their behalf. He required that they should either take a certain obnoxious oath or be remanded to prison. I asked them what they would do, and they agreed that, as there were no charges against them, and as they had committed no crime, they would sooner go back to their bastile than take any oath. All my appeals to the secretary were of no avail.

Then my appeal was to President Lincoln, certainly a kind-hearted, though, in many things, a sadly misguided functionary. At my second interview with him, he said, "I will set your friends free. They may go as much at large as any other citizen of the United States." I asked him if he would grant them permission to go to Europe. He replied that none of our people had the right to go to Europe without passports, not even himself, and that, therefore, he could not give passports, but that my friends should be just as free as he or any other man under the government, to go and come at pleasure. I requested him to put the declaration in writing. He said, "No, it is a very delicate subject, and Seward will be very mad about it. I will not touch pen to paper in regard to it. Tell your friends what I have told you, and tell them further that I shall be glad to see them." All of them, I believe, called upon him and expressed their thanks, though whether thanks were due, under all the circumstances, is, I think, quite a question.

In 1865 Dr. Gwinn, who had not taken and could not have taken any part in the war, went from this country to Mexico for his own private purposes, whatever they were, and I have reason to know that they were right and proper. He went and took others with him to make money, but on account of the miserable condition of Mexican affairs, they failed. Dr. Gwinn came back to the United States in the full consciousness of right and the expectation of safety. He had done no wrong to others, and he anticipated no wrong to himself.—But upon his arrival on this Federal shore, then kept up for no useful or proper purpose, he was snapped up upon not even a pretext, and thrust into Fort Jackson, below New Orleans. Several of his friends were thrown into Fort Jackson with him.—There they were kept for many months.—They were kept incarcerated, but perhaps not badly used. I went to Washington to get them discharged and succeeded, although in opposition to all diplomatic efforts of Secretary Seward in the opposite direction. And in an interview on that occasion, Mr. Seward had the very intense coolness, fifty degrees below zero, the point of the thermometer where the mercury freezes, to say to my face that he was the man who had discharged my three friends from Fort Lafayette and given them all their subsequent liberty.

Mr. Seward is able, but he is ruthless. No trust can be safely reposed in him. He seems genial enough, but he is not just and true. I am glad that he is to retire from the government, hoping only that a worse man will not succeed him. There are thousands worse, and certainly more thousands better. I am considerably afraid that the worse will have to go on the left hand in the judgment day when the sheep shall be divided from the goats. G. D. P.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Valuable Property for Sale,

I WILL SELL to the highest bidder, for cash, on the 26th day of December, 1868, on the premises, (if fair; if not, the next fair day) all that large and valuable tract of Land containing by recent survey lying on both sides of the Virginia and North Carolina lines, 1,355½ situated in Virginia and 1,093 in North Carolina on the main road leading from Halifax Court House to Milton.

2,348¼ ACRES,

The building and grounds are in fine condition, and the position on the State line is regarded as the healthiest in the State, being between the waters of Dan River and Hyco, and distant about 9 miles from Barksdale's and News Ferry Depots on the Richmond and Danville Railroad.

All gether, this a truly regarded as the most desirable residence in the State, and will be divided into tracts to suit purchasers, due regard being observed in attaching suitable and sufficient land to the improvements.

The above was the residence of Alexander Cunningham, dec'd, and recently of his widow, Mrs. P. M. Cunningham, lately dec'd.

Also, the Tract of Land in Halifax County, Va., on ——inn's Creek, containing 30 4-10 acres, with the Mill House, machinery, &c.

Also, at the same time and place, the HOUSEHOLD AND KITCHEN FURNITURE, several FINE CARRIAGES and PIANOS, Farming utensils, Stock and Crop of all kinds.

Persons wishing to examine the Lands can call on the undersigned or Mr. Brooks, on my store.

A Most Wonderful and Successful Invention!

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC

CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

Awarded the highest Testimonial wherever Exhibited.

Rev. M. W. STAPLES, Inventor and Patentee.

THIS BOILER is self-acting, and dispenses entirely with labor and the wear of clothes. The hot suds and steam, by the action of fire, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing it perfectly without any rubbing. It has been thoroughly tested, and pronounced unequalled as a Clothes Washer, by those who have used it.

All fabrics, from the finest lace to the bed-blanket can be washed perfectly and with ease and without the aid of the rubbing-board. For Flannels it is invaluable, as the rubbing, rolling, and pressing process must necessarily full them more or less.

It is truly a labor and clothes saving invention. Washing will no longer be a hardship, and washing day no longer a terror and a dread to housewives.

The invention can be used in any boiler, and the low price of the article places it within the reach of every family.

The saving in the wear of clothes will soon pay for the outlay.

It is estimated that 200 to 300 gallons of boiled suds pass through the clothes in thirty minutes; this being the longest time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes.

Hundreds of these Boilers are being sold each week, giving perfect satisfaction.

Every Boiler sold guaranteed to do all we claim, or money refunded.

Can be seen in full operation at Lougee & Brothers'.

We are selling COUNTY RIGHTS rapidly.

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck generally—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Drink every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but stop! LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by Oxford Female Academy.

THE EXERCISES OF THIS INSTITUTION will be resumed on Monday, the 4th of January next, under the direction of Miss MARGARET MITCHELL, as Principal, aided by Mrs. E. E. GRANT, and other competent instructors.

It is the determination of the Trustees and Principal that this shall be a School of the best grade.

No other guaranty of its character will be asked by those who know Miss Mitchell and Mrs. Grant. But the Trustees deem it right to state that these ladies are daughters of the late Professor Mitchell, of Chapel Hill, and were educated by their father with a view to the profession of teaching; and that they combine, with unusual attainments, a happy facility for imparting instruction, and a thorough devotion to the business, which they have prosecuted with success for some years.

The undersigned, on behalf of the Principal, will furnish circulars stating terms, &c., on application.

THE EXERCISES OF THIS INSTITUTION will be resumed the second Wednesday in February.

The Annual Commencement will occur the last Wednesday in June.

REV. T. M. JONES, the former popular and accomplished President of Greensboro and Louisburg Female Colleges, has accepted the Presidency of this school, and will enter upon his duties in February. His long and successful experience, his eminent scholarship, and his devotion to the educational interests of the South, forbid any word of commendation.

REV. C. B. RIDDICK, formerly President, is still identified with the operations of the Institution, and retires from the care of the Literary Department, only to devote himself more exclusively to its other interests.

LOCATION not to be surpassed. The celebrated MINERAL WATER an unfailing fountain of health. EDUCATIONAL FACILITIES complete. An extensive APPARATUS and LIBRARY. MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS new and of the best style.

Terms moderate as at any other school of similar grade.

Persons wishing to send their daughters will remember that we are on the great line of railroad leading North and South, within less than a minute of Kittrell's Depot, Raleigh and Gaston Railroad.

RAILROADS.

TO MANUFACTURERS.

NORTH CAROLINA

ALL STATE

RAILWAY LINES,

THE OLD RELIABLE & GASTON RAIL ROAD,

THE SHORT AND DIRECT LINE TO THE NORTH,

BEST LINE OUT TO THE COLD UNDERSIGNED

BAY VIA A. & G. R. R.

Inaugurated and opened the Great Through Route to the North and West, the Northern Routes, with their connections, via the Line to the eastern cities, and the Southern Routes, via Wilmington in South Carolina, and Augusta in Georgia, we point the attention of Manufacturers and Dealers for their interest in the Road, thereby saving the people from Fayetteville and all points to the Cape Fear, and we confidently declare that we can have it for more freights to all points North and South, than any other Line.
