THE ATROCITIES IN INDIANA.

STATEMENT OF AN EYE WITNESS.

PARTICULARS OF THE HORRIBLE TRAGEDY.

The Cincinnati Gazette contains the following dispatch:

LOUISVILLE, Dec. 12.—Between three and four o'clock yesterday morning about seventy-five armed men, wearing soldier masks visited the jail in New Albany and overpowered the guard, after a severe struggle in the cells, and took possession of the keys. The Sheriff refused to deliver the keys, which were finally found by the maskers, and Simeon, Frank and William Reno, brothers, and Wm. Anderson, the notorious Seymour express robbers, were taken from their cells and hung.

Henry Clark, a prisoner in the jail for killing George Tolle, at Salem, Indiana, was an eye-witness of the lynching, and makes the following statement:

The first person I saw in jail were two men who had on masks of red flannel, or something of the kind—perhaps red handkerchiefs. Heard the men talking to Matthews, the guard, apparently endeavoring to force him to point out the cells. Matthews refused to tell them anything. Then a voice said something about putting a rope around his neck, and the order was given to pull him up. Then heard Nos. 23, 11 and 7 distinctly uttered, and they seemed to have released Matthews. No. 24 was Frank Reno's cell. Number 11 was Chas. Anderson's, and Simeon and William Reno were in No. 7. Then heard some one say, "Bring a rope," and they went to Frank Reno's cell first. Frank said nothing, and heard the words, "Frank Reno, No. 24," and then "Pull him out." He resisted somewhat, and cried, "For God's sake, gentlemen, what are you going to do?" They told him to "drop up," and then tied his hands, and a couple of them grabbed him by the throat, pushing him along. As they got to the top of the stairs he clinched at the banisters, but made no noise. He died very hard.

After hanging Frank, they went to No. 7, where Simeon and Wm. Reno were. As they opened the door, some one spoke up and said, "What do you want here?" Then and I heard something fall, and afterward heard that one of them had been knocked down by Simeon, who had seized the sink lid to defend himself. I then heard the fall of another body, as they rushed into the cell. Simeon had been knocked down. Heard him groan. They then took him out, carried him round and hung him. I heard him make no noise.

They then brought out William, and I saw them put a rope around his neck. An order was given for Nos. 3 and 5 (every man seemed to be called by a number instead of by name) to go up and catch the rope. William said: "I am innocent, gentlemen; never done the robbing. Oh, Lord, protect my father and sister." Two men pulled him up. William struggled very hard.

When Anderson was taken out of his cell he asked for time to pray, but was told to shut his mouth, and that they did not want anything out of him. They strung him up, but the rope broke. It was tied again, and he was again pulled up.

The murderers arrived by the Jeffersonville railroad and departed the same way. They are generally supposed to be the Jackson county vigilance committee. It is understood that Reno and Anderson intended to apply before Judge Bicknell for writs of habeas corpus, saying that they could show that they were not concerned in the Marshfield robbery. The so called vigilants probably got wind of this and hence the terrible tragedy. These four make ten lives who have been taken in Indiana for the robbery of the Adams Express Company. Volney Elliott, Charles Rosebery and Phillip Clifton having been hanged near Seymour, on the 20th of July last, and a short time after, Frank Sparks, Jas Mears and Henry Jerrell were captured and hanged near the same place.

Capt. C. F. Sewell, the notorious federal guerilla, died in the City Hospital, to-day, of wounds received in his celebrated raid on Shelbyville, in May, 1866.

THE SOUTHERN MILITIA BILL.—The bill providing for the formation of local militia in the seven reconstructed States developed some element of interest in it's debate to-day. It came out that the bill is only preliminary—intended to be realized in detail by the other bill now before the Military Committee, which provides for the issuing of 2,000 stand of arms, of improved Springfield pattern, to each Congressional district in the reconstructed States, with two batteries of artillery; the same to be distributed by the Government to loyal companies in those districts. Thus the full and powerful equipment of a standing negro army is to be provided for. In support of this design Winson-to-day recounted four thousand murders in Texas since November 3rd, and stated that more Union men have been murdered in the South since the 1st of January, 1867, than were killed at Gettysburg. He told of one disloyal Louisianian who boasted he had pinned 190 Union men with his own hand at Opelousas. To this narration by the Senator no dissension can do justice. He was in his most God-fearing, liberty-loving vein, and delivered the fiction with a contempt for grammar and pronunciation which brought tears to the eyes of an open-eared intelligent countryman in the gallery. In the discussion of the bill several of the exotics from the South made their debut. Warner, of Alabama, exchanged compliments with Garret Davis on the virtues of mulesaugs and carpet-baggers, and was so very sensitive as to insist that he had lived at least eighteen months in the State, and had a right to be considered a regular representative. Sawyer, of South Carolina, made the best speech of the carpet-bagger, and, it must be said, was respectful, intelligent and direct. King, of Arkansas, has a voice which sounds as the yelp of a terrier after a rat; his voice cannot fill the chamber, but can empty it at any time.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. World.

A Washington dispatch to the Philadelphia Press says that "no doubt now exists that Mr. Stanton will decline to enter General Grant's Cabinet under any circumstances."

Senator Drake has written a letter to a member of the Missouri Legislature opposing universal amnesty and universal suffrage in that State, and favoring negro suffrage only.

THE FIRST BLOW FOR WOMAN SUFFRAGE.—Senator Wilson, of Massachusetts, has become an advocate of female suffrage, and made the first bold movement in favor of woman's rights in the United States Senate to-day by the introduction of the following bill:

"Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the word 'male' in the first section of the act entitled 'An Act to regulate the elective franchise in the District of Columbia,' approved the 9th day of January, in the year [illegible] be and the same is hereby stricken out, and the said act as applicable to persons of the male sex, so that hereafter women who are inhabitants of said District of Columbia, and citizens of the United States may vote in all elections on the same terms and conditions in all respects as men."

Thus the favored District of Columbia is to be the place where female suffrage is to be tried, as it was the first where Sambo put on his full political vestments. Since the commencement of the present session of Congress memorials have been presented from different places signed to all by about two thousand persons, a majority of whom are women, asking for female suffrage in the District of Columbia. About two hundred persons in Washington have memorialized to the same effect. There are six different measures pending, involving female suffrage, including two propositions for a constitutional amendment, one bill for such suffrage in the Territories, and three bills for suffrage in the District of Columbia. Representative Julian introduced three of these measures.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. Herald.

SAVE US FROM OUR FRIENDS.—If report be true, the Indians recently attacked on Sheridan's order, and killed by Custer's cavalry, were friendly to the whites. Superintendent Murphy says that Black Kettle has always been a firm friend to the Government, even interfering for the protection of whites to the deep displeasure of a large portion of his band. When attacked, his people were within fifty miles of Fort Kearney to obtain their annuities. Superintendent Wynkoop has cast in his resignation, for the following reasons:

"He had ordered the Indians to rendezvous to receive their annuity goods, when they were attacked by Col. Chivington, at Sand Creek, and mercilessly slaughtered. After that the Indians lost confidence in him, but he succeeded in finding his way back to them. Then while passing from the northern hunting grounds to their reservation, they were attacked by troops under Hancock and again outraged. Again they suspected Col. Wynkoop, and refused to deal with him, but once more he regained their confidence. Since the attack made by Custer, the Indians have become incensed against the Superintendent, and he dare not venture among them."

If these statements are true, it will tell fearfully against the intelligence and humanity of those in military authority in the Indian government. It is popular to cry out against the Indians, but the best evidence we can find is, that they are more sinned against than sinning.—New York Express.

A Most Wonderful and Successful Invention!

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES

WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC

CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER,

Awarded the highest Testimonial wherever Exhibited.

Rev. M. W. STAPLES, Inventor and Patentee.

THIS BOILER is self-acting, and dispenses entirely with labor and the wear of clothes. The hot suds and steam, by the power of pressure are driven up through holes, forced upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric, constantly carrying it entirely clean, and leaving it sweet and pure. By the power of pressure and pronounced superior as a Cleanser to any by those who have used it.

All fabrics from the finest laces to the coarsest blankets, can be washed perfectly clean. Flannels it is invaluable, as the rubbing, rolling and pressing process necessarily full them more or less.

It is truly a labor and clothes saving invention. Washing will no longer be a horrible, and washing day no longer a terror and a dread to housewives.

The invention can be used in any family, and the low price of the article places it within the reach of every family.

The saving in the wear of clothes will more pay for the outlay.

It is so simple that any one can understand it in thirty minutes, and a child can operate it. Only one boiler will be required for a family.

Specimens of clothes washed can be seen at work, giving perfect satisfaction.

Every Boiler sold guaranteed to do all we claim, or money refunded.
