

Gold closed in New York, last evening, at 136 1/2. Cotton was quoted at 23. North Carolina Bonds at 103 1/2. New 4 1/2. U.S. 4 1/2.

The following additional discharges in bankruptcy are announced: TAYLOR, Geo. Fox, John Stanton, Timothy Hunter, Alman Spencer.

Wm. A. Moore, Rad., has been elected Representative from Chowan, vice Richard Clayton, Rad., resigned.

"Judge" Watts announces, through the Standard, that "stationary" (he spells it stationary), and "postage" (he means stamps) have "not yet been provided for the Judges, and that correspondents will please remit stamps for returns."

A negro in Salisbury on Saturday night, shot his wife in the head. Unlike Achilles, that is the least vulnerable part with a dagger.

French, of Norfolk County, vice the First Congressional District of North Carolina, was one of the 47 in the House of Representatives who voted against the repeal of the Tenure of Office Act.

In the announcement of President Johnson's appointment of Edwin J. Cowles to be Mayor of the Charlotte City, as published in the New York papers, the name of Cowles is given as Charles J. Cowles. Such, Daily E. is lame.

General K. Gregg, of the North, has been elected Ranking Clerk of the Florida State Senate.

The Tribune says the American Government is "a grotesque caricature of two Billions and a half, and in a state of virtual, chronic insolvency."

A Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune, alluding to the flight of Hon. A. H. H. St. John and other members of the Southern Democracy, and those in Congress from the border States, look on the Virginia movement with despair, and regard it as a mistake, assuming that the West is opposed to negro suffrage.

A Georgia correspondent says that in the next month's contest for Congress, (the State is not put out of the Union again,) they will elect only white men. The negroes themselves refuse to be set up as targets to be shot at in Washington by their own party, and are going to try the effect of sending white Conservatives. Carpet-baggers are nowhere.

The Pope has issued a brief for the Bishop of Montreal, in which he speaks of the vice of an institution which is preparing for society not good mothers of families, but women pulled up with a wire and sharp swords, and which he deprecates as "an evil so great, that it merits at the same time religion, the family and the country."

The population of Memphis, Tenn., was estimated at 120,000 three years ago. A late census returns but 99,000. The decrease is attributed to the terrible condition of Tennessee under Brewer and the negro rule.

The New York Herald gives the following advice to people who want to be elected United States Senators from that State: "Go to Albany, and take a trunk with you, full of greenbacks. This is the surest way to do it; and there is no time to be lost."

Subjects for an article: Butler affectionately shaking hands with "a party by the name of Johnson," and Duddy Korwie accepting an appointment at the hands of the same "party."

The New York World's Washington correspondent, speaking of Mr. Acting Vice President Wade's appointment of Biles, "of Arkansas," and Abbott, "of North Carolina," as the additional members of the Senate Committee on the Pacific Railroad, says:

"It is not incorrect to state that these appointments precisely place what is known here as the Railroad ring, and very much displeases those who are not members of the Senate who desire to see the great resolution to grant a better subsidy to be overridden, and to hold those under contract for subsidies to a more rigid account."

A CAPITAL HOUSE.—We breakfasted by invitation on yesterday at the Boarding House at Geo. T. Cooke, Esq., where, in company with friends, we enjoyed a most excellent meal. Mr. Cooke's House is admirably kept, in all its departments, and is a good place for the "wayfarer man," or any other man, to put up at. We only fear, he feeds so well, that the members of the Legislature, who conjointly with him, will be slow to vote for an adjournment.

REVEREND NOTICE.—Rev. Thos. A. Kirkson, Bishop of the Diocese of North Carolina, will preach in Christ Church, in this City, to-morrow morning, and administer the Rite of Confirmation.

MR. BRASLEY, now of Kentucky, formerly of this State, of whom we spoke on yesterday, as engaged in the manufacture of angst from sorghum, is at present in this City. He will exhibit his specimens.

NOTICE EXTRAORDINARY! $50,000 REWARD!!!

The Editor of the Sentinel will pay FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS for the personal appearance of Gen. Littlefield, Editor of the Standard, said Editor to be delivered to Senator Sweet, as a witness to go before the Legislative Committee, to testify as to the alleged bribery of certain members of the General Assembly, who, Senator Sweet, on the floor of the Senate, has already declared, received dollars and cents for their vote!

Said Editor is supposed to be interested in the Rings.

WHEN HE LIES. When the Editor lied, he had in his left hand a small carpet bag.

He had on shirt, shoes and hat. His shoes just the color of one hundred members of the South Carolina Legislature and fifteen members of the North Carolina Legislature.

About 5 feet 10 or 11 inches high, in his stocking feet or bare footed; round shouldered, head heavily hungy athletic in configuration, much after the model of Cuffee Mayo, negro colleague of Senator Lassiter, who stole the pistol, (pistol in this advertisement referring to Cuffee.)

WHEN HE LIES. About 20 lbs. more than that of Galloway, and his weight is 199 lbs., so we have learned, as elsewhere stated, from his own Senatorial lips.

Not equal to Brodie (colored) in belated attainments, nor to Galloway in the charms of eloquence and graces of oratory, but superior to Friday Jones and Solomon Bragg in both. Nevertheless, not so poor of intellect as not to be able to prompt and aid Gen. Lassiter, as State Proxy in the late Railroad meeting.

He is said to have paid $1,000 for the negro barbecue, here, last fall, and to have subscribed liberally to the negro celebration in July last, when Judge Brade and Governor Holden, as sponsors, put the negro on the grid, from a party platform, erected by the Republican Club, in the Capitol Square, and paid for by the Public Treasury, on the Governor's own warrant.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

THE UNIVERSITY—FROM A NORTH CAROLINIAN IN NEW ENGLAND.

HARVARD LAW SCHOOL, Cambridge University, Jan. 11, '99.

Mr. Editor—Being a subscriber to your weekly edition of the Sentinel, I will not speak for adding your name to the list, for I wish to let you know how much pleasure I derive from reading the Sentinel. I am not, I suppose, much of a judge in such matters, but it seems to me you have been very happy in filling your columns with matter most interesting to our southward from the State and about every topic of interest you have touched upon.

There were not many of them left and they had served the State long and faithfully. Governor Holden and the Trustees of the University might, with singular propriety and without detriment to their party, have retained them in office as appropriate recognition on the part of the State of their long and wise services.

Since I have been at this institution, I have instituted, on all occasions, comparisons between it and Chapel Hill, and, as the result of my observations, I can say, in all sincerity, that were it possible for me to do so, I should select the latter institution. Harvard University or the University of N. C. I should select the latter institution.

When Dr. Phillips filled the chair of Mixed Mathematics, and his son, Dr. Chas. Phillips, that of Pure Mathematics, Prof. Foster, that of Greek Language and Literature, and Dr. Hubbard the Latin department, Prof. Smith, the Department of Modern Language, with Prof. Kimberlin, in the Department of Agricultural Chemistry, Hebrew in that of Metaphysics, Logic and Rhetoric, and Martin, Professor of Chemistry, Mineralogy and Geology, I venture to say there was not a better equipped literary institution in the United States; and yet I remember well the feeling manifested in many colleges of the State that it would be well and desirable to have some of those gentlemen replaced by others, whose loyalty to the last cause had been more conspicuously displayed during the war.

Writing those familiar names carries me irresistibly back in memory to those days, when the University of N. C. was in the zenith of her glory and a just source of pride to every North Carolinian.

But other important business, the five or six years were consumed, and, after a long struggle, the whole matter, with various propositions and amendments, was committed without discussion to the Senate, who, by a large majority, decided that the Constitution should be adopted, by a large majority.

The transportation via New Orleans is made up of about one cent per bushel, for transferring it to New Orleans, by means of High's Elevators, besides the slight freight which would be three or four months of the year, whereas the Mississippi was constantly navigable. The bill was finally referred to a Committee of the Whole which in its report recommended that the whole bill should be rejected.

FROM WASHINGTON. WASHINGTON, Feb. 15, P. M. After many conferences between the Virginia Committee and its individual members, with the Judiciary Committee of the Senate, and members of the House, it seems pretty well understood that the following definite arrangement has been substantially agreed to: Following the precedents in the Missouri compromise and the proceedings upon the admission of Oregon, Kansas and Nebraska, a bill will be prepared, authorizing the admission of Virginia upon the adoption of the proposed Constitution, with certain exceptions, with regard to disfranchisement, the test-oath and, probably, other objectionable features, strikes out.

CONGRESS. WASHINGTON, Jan. 15, P. M. Senate—The Judiciary Committee reported adversely on the joint resolution making the President and Vice President ineligible for a second term.
