VOL. IV. RALEIGH, N. C., THURSDAY EVENING, APRIL 8, 1869. NO. 203.

The Daily Sentinel.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

For the Sentinel.

PRINCETON, N. J., March 31st, 1869.

Hon. Josiah Turner, Jr.:

DEAR SIR:—With much mortification I read in your issue of March 24th, the statement of an assault made upon yourself in Raleigh, by your political adversaries. As I have been especially interrogated by men of standing in this place, I have determined to give you the substance of their remarks, and also some facts which naturally flow from the nature of the case. The men to whom I allude, are men of both parties, hence their opinions are not those excited by hatred or prejudice. Now, Mr. Editor, what could possibly have been the cause of the attack? It could not have been the article on carpet-baggers, for they have clearly proven to every observing mind by their sanction of the article called "Work," that nothing can be too severe or revolting to them. If they really are such a virtuous party, and were wounded by the pretended article, why did they not give us some indication of their disapprobation of the article "Work?" Why, if anything published is too severe to be perused, did they not pounce upon the author of "Work" and drive him from their ranks, "one unworthy of their associations and confidence. Does not inconsistency and deception lie concealed beneath this apparently gaudy exterior? Even granting that the article on carpet-baggers was improper, which is difficult to do, was that a proper manner for public men to conduct themselves? No, sir; they were not enraged at the above named article. The cause of their anger is this: You have stood as a strong pillar of protection against the overwhelming load of destruction held in the hands of the Radicals, and threatening overthrow to the truest interests of the State. And you have succeeded admirably in exposing all their corruptions and frauds; hence their animosity. Now, it was their intention to rid themselves of this dragoon of the people's liberties and interests, and then have free reign for all their future illegal proceedings. They knew that you had branded them with disgrace; that their constituents were losing confidence in them, and here is the source of all their furor. With shame be it said that the Governor of the State so far forgot the dignity and responsibility of his station, as to mingle in a public riot. Is this setting a good example to the people of the State? Not only does it degrade our officials in the estimation of the citizens, but, in addition, it portrays the Republican spirit in its true colors—Tells at every man that the Republican party intend to rule by the terrors of assassination, if they are opposed; and that every one must succumb to their authority or encounter death. Does it not remind one of the dark ages of Rome, when men were half enlightened, and public men condescended to brawls and riots? Surely it argues ill for the progress of enlightenment, when the officials of a community engage in committing an unlawful act, and a horrible outrage. Is this the freedom the party have vaunted so much? Is this General Grant's peace?

I candidly ask the man who battled in the Northern army if this is the security for which he perilled his life, I ask the widows and orphans if this condition of affairs in any way consoles them for their losses. No; the ghastly, bleaching bones of many a brave soldier cry out too sadly and truly that if this continues, all their blood has been shed in vain, and union and harmony are gross deceptions. The party are not content with ruining the credit of the State, but must needs personally assault all who dare obstruct them in their destructive course. Combine these facts with the action of the Governor in the Alamance disturbance, and what a sad future do they foretell. They say that negroes may insult our sisters and friends, and be protected by the authorities who, instead, should order their apprehension and punishment. Oh! it is terrible to behold, and sickening to contemplate! To think that the good old State has sunk so low as to have men at her head who encourage and even take part in riotous proceedings. What action then is demanded from the people? Let them treasure this up in their minds and the time is yet coming when they can recompense these men. Let them say to the Radicals, we trusted you when our interests were in jeopardy and you neglected your duty to engage in intrigues and even open riots.

Such, Mr. Editor, is the general tenor of opinion here in regard to the matter, unadorned as I unornamented, yet bearing on its face the impress of truth and sincerity. I have taken especial pains to find the opinion of all, and each of them, irrespective of party, agree that it is an alarming condition for us, and one which should awaken even the most obtuse observer. If this is the serious turn it has given here, how should it arouse the people of the State, the honest and upright, whom these transactions most deeply interest.

Very respectfully yours,

GAMMA.

Professor Robley Dunglison, the distinguished medical author, died in Philadelphia, on Thursday evening, of heart disease and dropsy. Dr. Dunglison was a native of England. He removed to the United States forty years ago. He held at different times Professorships in the Universities of Virginia and Maryland, and in the Jefferson Medical College of Pennsylvania. He is most widely known as the author of several valuable medical works, the chief among which are the "Dictionary of Medical Science," published in 1833, "Elements of Hygiene and Human Health," "General Therapeutic and Materia Medica," published in 1836, "New Remedies," in 1839 and "Human Physiology." Over one hundred thousand copies of his works have been printed. He was a member of numerous literary and scientific societies in both Europe and the United States.

Henry B. Dawson is making the Historical Magazine, of which he is the editor, the repository of many very valuable papers.—The number for February contains what never before has been printed, Gen. Robt. E. Lee's final report of the Pennsylvania Campaign and Battle of Gettysburg; also a curious article on "Slave Marriages in Massachusetts." The March number will contain Gen. Meade's report of the battle of Gettysburg.

CAUSE AND EFFECT.—There is this difference between a horse race and a boat race: The best horse very often in one heat loses a race by being hard pulled, whereas the best boat wins through the same means.

CASH POLICIES!
CASH DIVIDENDS!

DIVIDENDS PAID ANNUALLY, COMMENCING AT THE END OF THE YEAR.

Dividends may be used to reduce the annual Premium, or increase the Cash value of the Policy.

NON-FORFEITING CASH PLAN.

The Ætna issues Policies on the various forms of whole life and endowment insurance, with dividends on the contribution plan, which may be applied to the reduction of each annual premium after the first, or the full premium, may be paid each year and the dividens applied to reduce the number of annual premiums, together with the period fixed for the maturity of the insurance, so that endowments can be paid to the insured before the time originally specified, and life policies before death.

By this plan of applying the dividends to lessen the cost of the insurance on the original policy, instead of increasing the amount of insurance, and of course its total cost, and the policies will become self-sustaining much sooner than in other companies; and in case of inability to continue payments, give a larger paid-up-policy.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

THE New York Insurance Monitor says of the ÆTNA:

"No Life Insurance Company ever achieved so complete a success as this popular institution.—Its popularity is altogether unprecedented in the annals of commercial enterprise in this country."

LIFE INSURANCE.

The Most Vigorous and the Most Liberal Insurance Company in the Country.

BROOKLYN LIFE

INSURANCE COMPANY,

141 Broadway, N. Y.

ASSETS OVER

$1,000,000!

CHRISTIAN W. BOUCK, ... President.
ABRAM D. POLHEMUS, ... Vice President.
WILLIAM M. COLE, ... Secretary.
D. F. PACKLER, ... Consulting Actuary.
DANIEL AYRES, M. D. LL.D., Med. Examiner.

POLICIES ISSUED AS GOOD AS UNITED STATES BONDS.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE AS AT DEATH!

The BROOKLYN LIFE is the only Company in the country which guaranties a definite surrender-value to every Policy on which two or more annual premiums have been paid; this amount, in dollars and cents, is endorsed on every Policy issued. Should any Policy-holder become unable to pay his premiums, he can thus know the cash worth of the Policy at any time after two annual premiums have been paid.

This certainly is the greatest inducement and most tangible advantage ever accorded to parties insuring their lives.

Among the advantages offered by the BROOKLYN, which thoroughly evince the determination of the officers to make it the most liberal Life Insurance Company in the United States, are:

1st TOTAL REMOVAL OF ALL RESTRICTIONS OF TRAVEL AND RESIDENCE. The Assured may travel or reside anywhere they choose, the world over, without extra premium or special permit.

2d A Loan of one-third of the Premium to the Policy-Holder Annually.

3d All Policies are non-forfeitable after two full annual premiums have been paid.

4th. Rates below as are consistent with financial soundness, and less than those of almost all Companies which accommodate their assured with loans.

5th. Dividends annually (after second year) in cash. Dividends are divided on the CONTAINED YEAR PLAN—the only equitable manner of dividing the earnings of a Life Insurance Company. The Contribution Plan was first conceived by Mr. D. P. Packler, now Actuary of this Company and has been adopted by most of the best managed Life Companies in this country.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid and now pays to its Policy-holders LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

6th. Promptitude in paying losses.

7th. No charge for policy or stamp.

The manner which the "BROOKLYN" has achieved, fully exemplified in its rapid and healthful growth, is a convincing proof of the confidence reposed by the public in its soundness, integrity and liberality.
