

THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.
FRIDAY, APRIL 23, 1863.

New Advertising—Dr. Goddin Compound Gentian Bitters.
Newspaper and Advertising Agency by W. A. Hume & Co.
Advertisement of Darby & Co., Baltimore, M. D.
Advertisement by James M. Trower.
List, by Henry Pennington.
For Rent by W. C. Strachan & Co.
Paragon, Patapou, Peabody and other Choice brands of Flour, by W. C. Strachan & Co.

Blair, Again. We are under special favor to our friend Blair, the Proprietor of the Taberthorpe. He has again favored us with the choice of ice cream and cake.
Many thanks.

Gordon's "Gentian Bitters" are recommended highly by those who have tried it.

The Prevailing Fashion.—What is it?
To appoint the most obscure, incapable, and corrupt man to office. Since this government was founded, no such list of appointments has ever been given to the country. If the country had been "raked and scrapped" a more complete set of leather-heads could not have been found. Grant was expected by all, both by Conservatives and Radicals, to appoint "moderate" men; but he has given birth to the matter that was not anticipated—they are too "moderate"; they are so "moderate" in ability and experience that even the roughest and most influent supporters of the Administration are surprised. Only bear the New York Herald of the 21st inst., one of Grant's warmest supporters:

"There was a time when the government, unhoused in the purity of its original organization, sent such men abroad as did the people credit. Gradually, as the power has centered in the Senate, ministers and consuls have grown of lighter culture in everything that makes a man. To day the list of foreign appointments, with but few exceptions, may be characterized as the worst we have known."

PERSONAL.

Bismarck's wife acts as his private "secetary."

Train delivered his "seventy fifth" lecture of the course of six hundred in succession."

Menzel the colored man who failed to secure a seat in Congress, has established a semi-weekly paper—the Radical Standard —in New Orleans.

It is rumored in Paris that the Emperor has written a new work—a treatise on the political and social condition of France, and that it is now in press.

William Hurlbert, of Cornwall, Vermont, recently died of starvation. He was seventy years of age, a bachelor, and worth some $3,000; but having lost $130 through robbery, he became despondent, afraid of coming to p-v-t, and having refused to eat, he starved himself to death.

The Cassagno, the editor of the Parti-Pay, wants to fight sixteen duels with as many brother editors who refused to meet with him at the prison of St. Polagie.

It is reported in some of the English papers that Dr. Pusey, the High Church priest, has been found to be a real Jesuit priest.
The revelation purports to have been made by a Jesuit priest on the Continent.

Duchess has been threatened with a libel suit by the proprietors of the Alabamas.

The last prisoner of the revolutionary war has died again. This time he was David Bakewell, of this State, aged 111.

Booth's Sheffield friends have given him a "testimonial" in the shape of £3,000 in trust for his daughter.

M. Desfolges, the French critic, says, in late number of the Opiques Nationales, that he never laughed more heartily than upon reading a few chapters of Abbott's Life of Napoleon the III. He says that all Frenchmen who have got the biggs should learn English, and then read Abbott's "merry" biography.

Maximilian's library sold for $4,000 more than it cost.

Daniel Frederick Beakman, the last surviving soldier of the Revolutionary War, died at Freedom, Carteret county, New York, on the morning of April 5, at the advanced age of 103 years, 6 months.

Mr. Hulford, the Comptroller of the Currency, has issued a circular requiring every national bank to furnish the Treasury Department with a statement of its condition on the 17th of April.

The conversion of the Marquis de Bute to Catholicism has been effect by the withdrawal of the Duke of Norfolk, the head of the Catholic nobility in England, from the church of his forefathers. He has joined the Irvingites, a Protestant sect.

Mr. Edwin Booth has engaged Mr.
Joseph Jefferson to play seven weeks in his theater, beginning early in August. The terms are said to be five dollars a night, and half the gross receipts at the matinees, after deduction of a nominal and fifty dollars.

Speaking of Grant's candidates for foreign ministers, the Chicago Republican (Radical) compliments them after this wise:

"It is understood that some of the persons indicated are not famous for personal integrity and dignity of character; that others are not complete masters of the spelling book and of the art of English composition; that others besides are not over distinguished for devotion to the cause; and that at least in one case, there are strong probabilities that the nominee is not even a naturalized citizen."

Work COMMENCED. It is with pleasure we learn from Genl. Lewis, that work has recently begun on the Williamson & Tarboro-rough Railroad.

Mr. H. D. Roberson has taken under contract a section of the road near Roberson-ville, and is now engaged with a large number of hands in grading.

It is expected that the whole line will be under contract in a short time, and the road pushed rapidly to completion.

Preparations for the construction of the bridge over the Tar has already begun, and is to be completed in time to receive the European emigre, badgers long time been engaged in grubbing stones, &c. He was directed yesterday evening a box of cigars to a grocery store.

His mother is ill, and said he could not resist the temptation to go to her, and paid $200, the estimated value of the goods taken from the store. Shortly afterwards he resigned from the League, and it is suspected he will never go back to it again.

He obtained his appointment on the recent promotion of prominent politicians here.

STATE NEWS.

BRIEF NEWS NOTES.

SUPERIOR COURT YESTERDAY.—Owing to the absence of Judge Thomas, who is dangerously ill, Judge Russell presided over the Court yesterday, and his charge to the Grand Jury was favorably received by those who heard it.

The Judge decided that no one could make a substitute either on a six or grand jury, unless special permission from the Court was given. He dwelt on the harmony prevailing between the two colors, and spoke of the impartial manner in which such should be administered to all.—Wilmington Star.

WISHING TO PURCHASE.—A gentleman
from Pennsylvania is at present, in this place,
with the view of purchasing a small farm
farm for the purpose of carrying on the rock-ing business, which with the existing arrangements on the Wilmington and Weldon and Seaboard and Roanoke railroads, can be made highly profitable to the participants in it, and in the purchase, when the price of their lands to such persons, and we do not see why it is that the persons
will not throw them upon the market,
as at present they are lying idle.—Wilmington Star.

WISHING TO PURCHASE.—A gentleman
from Pennsylvania is at present, in this place,
with the view of purchasing a small farm
farm for the purpose of carrying on the rock-
ing business, which with the existing ar-
rangements on the Wilmington and Weldon
and Seaboard and Roanoke railroads, can
be made highly profitable to the partic-
ipants in it, and in the purchase, when the
price of their lands to such persons, and
we do not see why it is that the persons
will not throw them upon the market,
as at present they are lying idle.—*Wil-
mington Star.*

WISHING TO PURCHASE.—A gentleman
from Pennsylvania is at present, in this place,
with the view of purchasing a small farm
farm for the purpose of carrying on the rock-
ing business, which with the existing ar-
rangements on the Wilmington and Weldon
and Seaboard and Roanoke railroads, can
be made highly profitable to the partic-
ipants in it, and in the purchase, when the
price of their lands to such persons, and
we do not see why it is that the persons
will not throw them upon the market,
as at present they are lying idle.—*Wil-
mington Star.*

WISHING TO PURCHASE.—A gentleman
from Pennsylvania is at present, in this place,
with the view of purchasing a small farm
farm for the purpose of carrying on the rock-
ing business, which with the existing ar-
rangements on the Wilmington and Weldon
and Seaboard and Roanoke railroads, can
be made highly profitable to the partic-
ipants in it, and in the purchase, when the
price of their lands to such persons, and
we do not see why it is that the persons
will not throw them upon the market,
as at present they are lying idle.—*Wil-
mington Star.*

WISHING TO PURCHASE.—A gentleman
from Pennsylvania is at present, in this place,
with the view of purchasing a small farm
farm for the purpose of carrying on the rock-
ing business, which with the existing ar-
rangements on the Wilmington and Weldon
and Seaboard and Roanoke railroads, can
be made highly profitable to the partic-
ipants in it, and in the purchase, when the
price of their lands to such persons, and
we do not see why it is that the persons
will not throw them upon the market,
as at present they are lying idle.—*Wil-
mington Star.*

WISHING TO PURCHASE.—A gentleman
from Pennsylvania is at present, in this place,
with the view of purchasing a small farm
farm for the purpose of carrying on the rock-
ing business, which with the existing ar-
rangements on the Wilmington and Weldon
and Seaboard and Roanoke railroads, can
be made highly profitable to the partic-
ipants in it, and in the purchase, when the
price of their lands to such persons, and
we do not see why it is that the persons
will not throw them upon the market,
as at present they are lying idle.—*Wil-
mington Star.*

WISHING TO PURCHASE.—A gentleman
from Pennsylvania is at present, in this place,
with the view of purchasing a small farm
farm for the purpose of carrying on the rock-
ing business, which with the existing ar-
rangements on the Wilmington and Weldon
and Seaboard and Roanoke railroads, can
be made highly profitable to the partic-
ipants in it, and in the purchase, when the
price of their lands to such persons, and
we do not see why it is that the persons
will not throw them upon the market,
as at present they are lying idle.—*Wil-
mington Star.*

WISHING TO PURCHASE.—A gentleman
from Pennsylvania is at present, in this place,
with the view of purchasing a small farm
farm for the purpose of carrying on the rock-
ing business, which with the existing ar-
rangements on the Wilmington and Weldon
and Seaboard and Roanoke railroads, can
be made highly profitable to the partic-
ipants in it, and in the purchase, when the
price of their lands to such persons, and
we do not see why it is that the persons
will not throw them upon the market,
as at present they are lying idle.—*Wil-
mington Star.*

WISHING TO PURCHASE.—A gentleman
from Pennsylvania is at present, in this place,
with the view of purchasing a small farm
farm for the purpose of carrying on the rock-
ing business, which with the existing ar-
rangements on the Wilmington and Weldon
and Seaboard and Roanoke railroads, can
be made highly profitable to the partic-
ipants in it, and in the purchase, when the
price of their lands to such persons, and
we do not see why it is that the persons
will not throw them upon the market,
as at present they are lying idle.—*Wil-
mington Star.*

WISHING TO PURCHASE.—A gentleman
from Pennsylvania is at present, in this place,
with the view of purchasing a small farm
farm for the purpose of carrying on the rock-
ing business, which with the existing ar-
rangements on the Wilmington and Weldon
and Seaboard and Roanoke railroads, can
be made highly profitable to the partic-
ipants in it, and in the purchase, when the
price of their lands to such persons, and
we do not see why it is that the persons
will not throw them upon the market,
as at present they are lying idle.—*Wil-
mington Star.*

WISHING TO PURCHASE.—A gentleman
from Pennsylvania is at present, in this place,
with the view of purchasing a small farm
farm for the purpose of carrying on the rock-
ing business, which with the existing ar-
rangements on the Wilmington and Weldon
and Seaboard and Roanoke railroads, can
be made highly profitable to the partic-
ipants in it, and in the purchase, when the
price of their lands to such persons, and
we do not see why it is that the persons
will not throw them upon the market,
as at present they are lying idle.—*Wil-
mington Star.*

WISHING TO PURCHASE.—A gentleman
from Pennsylvania is at present, in this place,
with the view of purchasing a small farm
farm for the purpose of carrying on the rock-
ing business, which with the existing ar-
rangements on the Wilmington and Weldon
and Seaboard and Roanoke railroads, can
be made highly profitable to the partic-
ipants in it, and in the purchase, when the
price of their lands to such persons, and
we do not see why it is that the persons
will not throw them upon the market,
as at present they are lying idle.—*Wil-
mington Star.*

WISHING TO PURCHASE.—A gentleman
from Pennsylvania is at present, in this place,
with the view of purchasing a small farm
farm for the purpose of carrying on the rock-
ing business, which with the existing ar-
rangements on the Wilmington and Weldon
and Seaboard and Roanoke railroads, can
be made highly profitable to the partic-
ipants in it, and in the purchase, when the
price of their lands to such persons, and
we do not see why it is that the persons
will not throw them upon the market,
as at present they are lying idle.—*Wil-
mington Star.*

WISHING TO PURCHASE.—A gentleman
from Pennsylvania is at present, in this place,
with the view of purchasing a small farm
farm for the purpose of carrying on the rock-
ing business, which with the existing ar-
rangements on the Wilmington and Weldon
and Seaboard and Roanoke railroads, can
be made highly profitable to the partic-
ipants in it, and in the purchase, when the
price of their lands to such persons, and
we do not see why it is that the persons
will not throw them upon the market,
as at present they are lying idle.—*Wil-
mington Star.*

WISHING TO PURCHASE.—A gentleman
from Pennsylvania is at present, in this place,
with the view of purchasing a small farm
farm for the purpose of carrying on the rock-
ing business, which with the existing ar-
rangements on the Wilmington and Weldon
and Seaboard and Roanoke railroads, can
be made highly profitable to the partic-
ipants in it, and in the purchase, when the
price of their lands to such persons, and
we do not see why it is that the persons
will not throw them upon the market,
as at present they are lying idle.—*Wil-
mington Star.*

WISHING TO PURCHASE.—A gentleman
from Pennsylvania is at present, in this place,
with the view of purchasing a small farm
farm for the purpose of carrying on the rock-
ing business, which with the existing ar-
rangements on the Wilmington and Weldon
and Seaboard and Roanoke railroads, can
be made highly profitable to the partic-
ipants in it, and in the purchase, when the
price of their lands to such persons, and
we do not see why it is that the persons
will not throw them upon the market,
as at present they are lying idle.—*Wil-
mington Star.*

WISHING TO PURCHASE.—A gentleman
from Pennsylvania is at present, in this place,
with the view of purchasing a small farm
farm for the purpose of carrying on the rock-
ing business, which with the existing ar-
rangements on the Wilmington and Weldon
and Seaboard and Roanoke railroads, can
be made highly profitable to the partic-
ipants in it, and in the purchase, when the
price of their lands to such persons, and
we do not see why it is that the persons
will not throw them upon the market,
as at present they are lying idle.—*Wil-
mington Star.*

WISHING TO PURCHASE.—A gentleman
from Pennsylvania is at present, in this place,
with the view of purchasing a small farm
farm for the purpose of carrying on the rock-
ing business, which with the existing ar-
rangements on the Wilmington and Weldon
and Seaboard and Roanoke railroads, can
be made highly profitable to the partic-
ipants in it, and in the purchase, when the
price of their lands to such persons, and
we do not see why it is that the persons
will not throw them upon the market,
as at present they are lying idle.—*Wil-
mington Star.*

WISHING TO PURCHASE.—A gentleman
from Pennsylvania is at present, in this place,
with the view of purchasing a small farm
farm for the purpose of carrying on the rock-
ing business, which with the existing ar-
rangements on the Wilmington and Weldon
and Seaboard and Roanoke railroads, can
be made highly profitable to the partic-
ipants in it, and in the purchase, when the
price of their lands to such persons, and
we do not see why it is that the persons
will not throw them upon the market,
as at present they are lying idle.—*Wil-
mington Star.*

WISHING TO PURCHASE.—A gentleman
from Pennsylvania is at present, in this place,
with the view of purchasing a small farm
farm for the purpose of carrying on the rock-
ing business, which with the existing ar-
rangements on the Wilmington and Weldon
and Seaboard and Roanoke railroads, can
be made highly profitable to the partic-
ipants in it, and in the purchase, when the
price of their lands to such persons, and
we do not see why it is that the persons
will not throw them upon the market,
as at present they are lying idle.—*Wil-
mington Star.*

WISHING TO PURCHASE.—A gentleman
from Pennsylvania is at present, in this place,
with the view of purchasing a small farm
farm for the purpose of carrying on the rock-
ing business, which with the existing ar-
rangements on the Wilmington and Weldon
and Seaboard and Roanoke railroads, can
be made highly profitable to the partic-
ipants in it, and in the purchase, when the
price of their lands to such persons, and
we do not see why it is that the persons
will not throw them upon the market,
as at present they are lying idle.—*Wil-
mington Star.*

WISHING TO PURCHASE.—A gentleman
from Pennsylvania is at present, in this place,
with the view of purchasing a small farm
farm for the purpose of carrying on the rock-
ing business, which with the existing ar-
rangements on the Wilmington and Weldon
and Seaboard and Roanoke railroads, can
be made highly profitable to the partic-
ipants in it, and in the purchase, when the
price of their lands to such persons, and
we do not see why it is that the persons
will not throw them upon the market,
as at present they are lying idle.—*Wil-
mington Star.*

WISHING TO PURCHASE.—A gentleman
from Pennsylvania is at present, in this place,
with the view of purchasing a small farm
farm for the purpose of carrying on the rock-
ing business, which with the existing ar-
rangements on the Wilmington and Weldon
and Seaboard and Roanoke railroads, can
be made highly profitable to the partic-
ipants in it, and in the purchase, when the
price of their lands to such persons, and
we do not see why it is that the persons
will not throw them upon the market,
as at present they are lying idle.—*Wil-
mington Star.*

WISHING TO PURCHASE.—A gentleman
from Pennsylvania is at present, in this place,
with the view of purchasing a small farm
farm for the purpose of carrying on the rock-ing