WHAT THE RADICALS SAY OF GRANT.

I write, for the purpose of this letter, from the standing point of the Republicans themselves. They do not affect to condemn or criticise the selections which have been made in any other or higher light than the effect which will be produced upon their own political organization and its prospects. General Grant is to them the President of the Republican party. His course is to inure to the success or to the damage of the Republican party in the present and in the future. The object they laid upon him was to accomplish the continued ascendancy of that party. The verdict alike on Grant and on the party would be largely founded upon the character of the appointments to office. The office holders are sure to be at once the exponents of the party, and the custodians of its strength.—Thus the proper placing of proper men was to be the pivot on which the future was to turn. It was premised, too, that General Grant had a knowledge of men rare in depth and unerring in instinct. His civil selections were to be identical with what was thought to be the wisdom (it now appears to have been chance) which chose Sherman, Sheridan, Thomas, Slocum, Meade, Schofield, and McPherson for military responsibilities. In view of these expectations, the comments made upon the performance become greater by contrast than even their intrinsic significance. For instance, Washburn says, and all the men who swear with and by him, say, "That Grant's selection of Mr. Fish has ruined the party, and that in every State except Vermont, Iowa, and Massachusetts, all coming elections will go against the Republicans." On the contrary, the Fish men say of Mr. Washburne: "He put up General Grant to the selection of all their mutual friends and relatives, and the very scandal of such favoritism and nepotism has been even less than the outrageous incompetency, the gross corruption, and the notorious character of the appointments themselves."

The Iowa men say: "Our State gave as large a proportional majority as Massachusetts, and yet, after offering the State Department to James F. Wilson, and after he had accepted it, it became impossible for him to assume it because an Illinois fool and a ruggerer was put into it, to whom Wilson was to play second fiddle by a subsequent entrance on the charge. Then we asked the appointment of Mr. Wilson as Minister to England. It was given to a Massachusetts author, whose best claim was that he had a quarrel with Mr. Seward. Then we asked the appointment of our present foremost Congressman, Mr. Allison, to a first class mission, and all our State gets is the appointment of an unknown Mr. Hudson to Guatamala, and he is a blood cousin to the President himself, and has been living in the white House ever since Grant entered it, and another man, L. G. Glasgow, is made Consul to Havre, only and just because he has been a real estate and railroad operator for Washburne himself, who wants him at Havre, and who thought that, with Glasgow there and Montgomery Gibbs in Paris, he could do a flourishing business in exports."

The Indiana Republicans say: "Our great Senator, Mr. Morton, led the demand for the repeal of the Tenure-of-Office law. His colleague, Mr. Pratt, ably and persistently backed him. General Grant himself promises everything to Mr. Morton which he asks; yet, when our Senators go to the State Department, Secretary Fish almost freezes them with excessive courtesy, and coolly gives us just four consuls and one minister, crediting two more consuls to the State, one of whom comes from Illinois, and the other from Kentucky; while Ohio, which defeated negro suffrage, which sent a most Democratic Senator to Washington, which defeated three or four Republican Congressmen in strong districts, has three fat missions, two Territorial governors, and twice as many consulates as Indiana."

Cameron openly says: "No friend of mine has been appointed to office by this administration. Without taking my advice the President and Secretary of State succeeded in giving a Constitutional drunkard a good mission and constitutional thief a consulate, besides crediting Pennsylvania with a Secretary of the Navy who has succeeded within six weeks in riding the party of every workingman's vote. The only minister we have (except a negro who cannot be a voter in our State) is a man set down for Russia who ought to be sent to the Lobos Islands vice guano removed."—Schurz says to and of the President: "Your selections are unknown men who do not represent the party or condece to its strength in the State of Missouri." And to the Senate: "I hope that men who have dared to impeach one President will not flinch before the face of another."

Ross, Fowler and Brownlow have openly broken with the President, and Sprague says: "He is utterly tied up by the politicians; I have no hope of him; I have departed from him."

The Vermont Senators gravely and publicly complain that their State has not a single appointment, just because they, on principle, opposed and defeated the repeal of the Tenure-of-Office law. Mr. Edmunds take pains to snub the President on every occasion. He declared, when the President sent in a message requesting action in the case of Virginia and Mississippi, "That the President had all the power under the existing laws, if he was only acquainted with them," Howard, of Michigan, said the same thing, and always act as that it may be understood that "he takes no stock in toadying to Grant."

Senator Trumbull, failing to be recognized and appreciated because of his action in the Tenure of-Office matter, openly denounces all Senators who seek offices of the President or his Secretaries, and declares his intention of offering a bill to make it a penal offence for Congressmen even so much as to put their names to papers asking appointments.

All the carpet-baggers declare that they have been lied to rotunto, forsooth, the South before 1860 had a majority of the offices, and because they have been informed that enough men of intelligence and character cannot be found in any or all of the six States, "the white vote having been so small down there." Mr Sawyer, of Massachusetts, announces from his place as Senator of South Carolina, that the administration has pursued exactly such a policy as will demoralize and disheartien the Republican party in the South, and that General Grant and Mr. Fish have verified the taunt of the Southern whites to the Southern Senators," that they represent nobody."

General Grant tells Mr. Sumner: "I especially desire a favorable report on and full confirmation of Messrs. Sanford, J. Russel Jones, and John S. Carlile," and forthwith all were killed with indecent haste in a single executive session. Likewise, William A. Pile, on whom, not satisfied with the Venezuelian mission, thrust the greatness of the Brazilian mission, is rejected, and even contumeliously so, on the published ground of "incompetency."

Ben Butler said when Grant caved on the Tenure-of Office question: "The President doesn't know anything more about law than an old hen, and any one can wind him around his fingers."—Correspondent of the N. Y. World.

ALL POLICIES STRICTLY NON-FORFEITING.

CASH RATES!
CASH POLICIES!
CASH DIVIDENDS!

DIVIDENDS PAID ANNUALLY, COMMENCING AT THE END OF THE YEAR.

Dividends may be used to reduce the annual Premium, or increase the Cash value of the Policy.

NON-FORFEITING CASH PLAN.

The Ætna issues Policies on the various forms of whole life and endowment insurance, with dividends on the contribution plan, which may be applied to the reduction of each annual premium after the first, or the full premium, may be paid each year and the dividens applied to reduce the number of annual premiums, together with the period fixed for the maturity of the insurance, so that endowments can be paid to the insured before the time originally specified, and life policies before death.

By this plan of applying the dividends to lessen the cost of the insurance on the original policy, instead of increasing the amount of insurance, and of course its total cost, and the policies will become self-sustaining much sooner than in other companies; and in case of inability to continue payments, give a larger paid-up-policy.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

The New York Insurance Monitor says of the ÆTNA:

"No Life Insurance Company ever achieved so complete a success as this popular institution.—Its popularity is altogether unprecedented in the annals of commercial enterprise in this country."

SAY OF THE BROOKLYN LIFE!

"A Company that makes such endorsements on its policies, gives the strongest pledge that it will fulfil its trust faithfully and keep its reserves sufficient."—Hon. ELISHA WRIGHT.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has placed itself in the vanguard of insurance reform, and is the first Company that has done full and complete justice to the Insured."—INSURANCE TIMES, Jan. 1869.

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, ALONE OF ALL OTHER LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES, GUARANTEES A DEFINITE SURRENDER-VALUE IN CASH, AND EVERY POLICY ISSUED BY THAT COMPANY, BEARS A CERTIFICATE STATING WHAT THIS EXACT WORTH WILL BE IN DOLLARS AND CENTS, AT ANY TIME, AFTER THE PAYMENT OF TWO OR MORE PREMIUMS.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has made no half-way work of the adoption of this inestimable feature. It is noteworthy, in this connection, as a merited tribute to the excellent Company (Brooklyn Life,) which has so gallantly raised the standard of reform in Life Insurance, that we find in the whole list of existing Companies, few competitors which deserve so much credit in respect of economy of management, or care, skill and judgment in the selection of risks."—INS. SPEC. Jan. 1869.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid, and now pays to its policy-holders, LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

Dividends are paid IN CASH, or applied to the permanent increase of the policy, or left with the Company to accumulate at interest, in other way, at the option of the policy-holder.
