The Daily Sentinel.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

THE NEW YORK HERALD ON THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.

Now, what is the tendency of all these things? What will be the result of these revolutionary proceedings on the part of the radical republicans? We will say that we cannot conceal our apprehensions that they portend the most serious consequences to the country unless, by a speedy effort, General Grant rises to the exigencies of the occasion and realizes the magnitude of the issues involved. It is not the consideration of the distribution of a few paltry offices that impels these revolutionists in and out of the Senate to attempt to break down General Grant's administration.—They know that the President is not all to blame for the disturbances that has been created among republican politicians and their greedy followers by the appointments he has made or recommended. The republicans passed the Tenure of Office bill, which shackled his power in selecting the right men for the right places. They refused to repeal that offensive measure, and therefore they are justly held responsible for whatever injudicious appointments may have been made. We have seen where his nominations have been ignored and others substituted; and no doubt the curtain is yet to be raised upon instances of corruption that will shock the moral sense of our people from one end of the country to the other.

The fact has become patent that the republican party is the most corrupt that ever cursed our land. During the war its leaders fell upon the national treasury and the public credit like so many ravenous wolves. Their jobs and robberies in the way of army contracts, in the sale of rotten old hulks for transports, in the building of new war vessels that proved sheils or abortions, and in everything connected with supplies, including provisions, clothing, forage, hospital stores, and so on to the end of the catalogue, for the use of the army and navy, were enough to appal any other people than the American. These depraved and hungry leaders, with appetites for the spoils of office still lingering in their insatiable maws, have now fastened upon the Senate of the United States, and, with an avariciousness that spurns all compromise, reason and control, demand that no appointment shall be made without their having a finger in the selection. In the homely phrase of a Western Senator, they are persistently "dingdonging" every member of that body; and, it is mortifying to us knowledge, they have in that body friends and confreres as corrupt as themselves, who are ready and are employed to do their bidding in making Indian treaties, allowing enormous grants of land for private purposes and engaging in other scandalous practices, besides encouraging fraudulent appointments to office. These Senators seem to think that they have a life tenure to their seats. The eighteen year old settlers are as fresh and blooming when the subject of spoils comes up as when they made their maiden speeches. They want to control everything, and with their outside millionnaire backers they manage to do so. They treat Grant as if he were a renegade, and they would let the government go to ruin rather than have their schemes of personal aggrandizement or their objects of a purely political character thwarted. They would let our diplomatic system go to wreck rather than not have foreign ministers of their own choosing.—They would let our finances go to the dogs rather than have them controlled by any others than those of their own set. They are always grasping for more, and when there is no more to grasp they would create public offices and public plunder jobs for the benefit of those interested in their gigantic Senatorial jobbing rings. Their pleas of retrenchment and reform are all to-de rol. What they save to the government in a year by the removal of hundreds of office-holders would not cover the public robberies they sanction in the way of land grants and subsidies to private corporations in a single session, or by a single job in a single session. General Grant, unfortunately, seems to let them have their own way. This should not be.

From the Boston Advertiser.

THE RADICAL PRESS ON THE ARTICLE IN THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE.

The Chicago Tribune, in a recent issue, calls attention to a change which nearly two months' experience of the new Administration has wrought in public opinion.—No other Administration since the first had come into power with a firmer hold upon the confidence of the county. * * * The Tribune speaks strongly, but no one will suspect it of speaking carelessly, or with any other than a loyal purpose. The change to which it calls attention, and the manifest causes which made the change inevitable, have been more widely known and more earnestly talked about than the President and his personal advisers will ever be likely to understand. There are always enough to tell the king the good things the people say about him; but the friends who are willing to tell him where he has been mistaken, and what acts of his are calculated to impair his influence, and need to be amended, are unfortunately not so common.

[From the N. Y. Evening Post.]

What the people of the United States require most in the Federal administration are honesty, simplicity, and economy. We do not covet our neighbors' lands; we have no balance of power to maintain; we have no need of standing armies; we do not want to overrun or rob any one. If the Federal administration will rigorously collect the taxes, pay the interest on the debt, maintain peace and order where the Constitution and laws give it authority to do so, and avoid all interference whatever with the markets, industry, and foreign relations, it will pursue a most admirable policy, and achieve a great success; and to do all that requires no "statesmanship" at all. It is in minor matters that the President has made mistakes; and here he is amenable to censure. His good nature to Mr. Washburne, for instance, has caused a grievous public scandal. What the Tribune says on that head is just; and Grant would do well and retrieve an error if he would at once recall Mr. Washburne and send to Paris some capable man. Then again he has allowed himself to be worried by Congressmen into making too many removals. The pressure for office has been unprecedented, and it is not surprising that the President has not been able to resist it; but it was nevertheless a mistake to remove good and faithful public servants to make room for new men, as has been done in too many cases. Then, again, he has allowed "pressure" to persuade him to make some positively bad appointments. Such was that of Mr. Ashley to be Governor of Montana—a nomination which amazed the public and distressed the best friends of the President. Such was that of Mr. Sanford to Spain, and of General Sickles to the same place.

[From the Springfield (Mass.) Republican.]

The Chicago Tribune has taken the bull by the horns, and spoken out the suppressed feeling of many Republicans, in regard to Gen. Grant's administration.

BROOKLYN LIFE!

"A Company that makes such endorsements on its policies, gives the strongest pledge that it will fulfil its trust faithfully, and keep its reserves sufficient."—HON. ELIHU WASHBURNE.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has placed itself in the vanguard of insurance reform, and is the first Company that has done full and complete justice to the insured."—INSURANCE TIMES, Jan. 1869.

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, ALONE OF ALL OTHER LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES, GUARANTEES A DEFINITE SURRENDER-VALUE IN CASH, AND EVERY POLICY ISSUED BY THAT COMPANY, BEARS A CERTIFICATE STATING WHAT THIS EXACT WORTH WILL BE IN DOLLARS AND CENTS, AT ANY TIME, AFTER THE PAYMENT OF TWO OR MORE PREMIUMS.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has made no half-way work of the adoption of this inestimable feature. It is noteworthy, in this connection, as a merited tribute to the excellent Company (Brooklyn Life,) which has so gallantly raised the standard of reform in Life Insurance, that we find in the whole list of existing Companies, few competitors which deserve so much credit in respect of economy of management, or care, skill and judgment in the selection of risks."—INS.
