From the New York Herald

THE ADMINISTRATION AND THE COUNTRY.--THE DO NOTHING POLICY AND ITS DANGERS.

The President, Vice President and half the Cabinet are absent from Washington. The government, like a railway train in the absence of the conductor and engineer, is standing still. Yes, standing still, and losing time which may never be regained under General Grant. The country is perplexed and disappointed, the outside world is incredulous, but still, while at home the impression is daily gaining strength that we have nothing to expect, the idea is beginning to prevail abroad that we have nothing to fear from General Grant's administration. Dry rot has seized upon the Cabinet, and the republican party is falling to pieces. The Secretary of the Treasury is doing something to stop the leaks and keep the ship afloat, and we see occasionally some spasmodic signs of life in the Navy Department and the War Office; but otherwise, like an abandoned hulk, the government appears to be drifting along at the mercy of wind and wave.

Strange questions are beginning to be asked, such as these, concerning General Grant: Is he a man of genius or a man of luck? Has he any of the qualities of a statesman, or is he simply a soldier? Has he any desire to make his administration famous in history, or is he satisfied with the honors he has achieved? Or is he afraid to move on the right hand or the left, or to push forward, for fear of making a mistake? Is it Grant or McClellan that is President? Can it be that the hero of Donelson, Shiloh, Vicksburg, Chattanooga, the Wilderness, Petersburg and the vigorous chase up to the Appomattox ample treble has become the head of an establishment of Quakers, from the State Department down to the Indian Bureau? Can it be that, too much impressed with the misfortunes of Andy Johnson in his efforts to maintain his own policy, General Grant has resolved to do nothing without express authority from Congress? Or is it possible that he does nothing because he knows not what to do? Are his designs so broad, deep and comprehensive that we cannot grasp them? or has he any clear perceptions of the duties, advantages, opportunities and responsibilities of his position.

We cannot answer these questions. So far the do-nothing policy of the administration answers them to the prejudice of Gen Grant. We had supposed that in rushing through the repulsive drudgery of the division of the public plunder he was anxious to get at the more important matters of business before him, touching our foreign and domestic affairs. It would appear, however, that he was desirous of getting this distasteful job of the spoils off his hands in order to have a longer enjoyment in the summer recreations of a Congressional recess; and that, come what may in the interval to December, he has made up his mind to let our domestic and foreign relations take care of themselves, so as to be free, at any inviting call, to go anywhere, and take his afternoon drive and evening cigar in peace. We cannot imagine that General Grant is still casting about for his policy. His inaugural leads us to a different conclusion. We believe that he has a policy matured—a broad, progressive and comprehensive American policy; but that he thinks the Treasury needs repose, and that he and the country, and England, Spain, Cuba and Mexico can wait till the re assembling of Congress in December.

In this view the executive branch of our government becomes a cipher. It was a department of recognized power in the worst days of Buchanan, and its strength even against a two-thirds vote in both houses of Congress, was still made manifest under Johnson. With a do-nothing President in 1861 the administration would have gone to destruction without a battle, and Jeff Davis would have taken the place of Lincoln; and so, with a do-nothing President in 1869, in the absence of Congress, the administration signifies nothing. Hence it is all the same whether the President and his Cabinet are in Washington, at West Point, Long Branch, or the Great Salt Lake. The chief clerks of the departments all the same can dispose of the routine business of posting the books. General Frank Blair has expressed the opinion several times that General Grant, if installed in the White House, would become a despot, and take good care to hold his place to the end of his life. One would suppose, however, that he is satisfied with one term of four short years, and means to enjoy it; that he intends to leave all responsibilities with Congress, and does not care a snap of his finger for his policy, his party, or for Cuba, the Alabama claims, Mexico, or the succession, or anything else. One would think that, in avoiding the troubles of Andy Johnson, he has resolved, in having a good time, to follow the example of Captain Tyler.

A DRUNKARD'S STOMACH ON FIRE.

About midnight on Sunday last, the people of the village of Rainbow, near New Haven, Ct., were awakened by the cry of fire, which proved to be caused by the burning of a two story frame house owned by John Darwin, and occupied by him as a liquor saloon, which was completely destroyed. Those neighbors first on the spot, found Darwin lying on the ground so badly burned as to be nearly insensible. He was conveyed to a neighboring house, but died in great agony before morning. It appears that the unfortunate man, as soon as he had discovered the fire, ran out of the house, but subsequently returned to save his five sleeping children. He was badly intoxicated at the time, and entering the burning building, the flames struck him in the face, and immediately, owing to the amount of liquor he had drank, set fire to the inside of his throat and stomach, turning up his tongue, so that when he was found, that organ was a mere crisp. The children were saved by the neighbors, one of them badly scorched. The eldest boy says a general carousal had been going on in the saloon, and while some one intoxicated was drawing liquor, he probably set fire to an old bed near the barrel. Everything in the house was burned, and the children are thus left orphans and unprovided for.—Exchange.

The Masons of this town are now making preparations for their Grand excursion to Beaufort, on the 24th inst. An extra train will leave here on the morning of the 24th, and return the following day. Price of tickets $3 for male, and $1 for ladies or children.—Goldsboro Messenger.

Largest amount of Losses to Widows and Orphans!

The Largest Revenue to the States. And has by far the largest number when compared with 58 Companies reported officially by the Commissioners of New York and Massachusetts it will be seen that the Ætna ranks as one of the first Companies of the Continent. But two of the fifty-eight Companies permitted to do business in New York and Massachusetts had so large an income for the year 1868; but two had so large a number of Policies in force, but one among all those incorporated under the laws of the State of New York had so small a per centage of Expense to Income during the year 1868.

Its expenses are lower than most Companies', and consequently its ability to make and pay liberal dividends to the insured is greater than that of most other Companies. It is one of the great Companies of the land in Income, in Assets, in Number of Policies, in Amount Insured, in solidity and strength, in Soundness, Cheapness, Promptness, and Success. Persons contemplating this mode of investment in the future as in the past would do well to examine the claims of all and take a policy accordingly.

SPARKLING CATAWBA SPRINGS,

CATAWBA COUNTY, N. C.

THIS CELEBRATED WATERING PLACE, formerly called the North Carolina White Sulphur Springs, will be open for visitors on Tuesday, the first day of June next.

Being situated in the northwestern part of the State in a country remarkable for its beauty and healthfulness—these, together with the virtue of the waters, make it one of the most desirable watering places to be found.

The MINERAL WATERS of these Springs are the White and Blue Sulphur and Chalybeate or Iron, and they possess all the finest qualities of these waters, and are sovereign remedies for all diseases of the liver, bowels, stomach and kidneys, eruptions of the skin, scrofula, weakness, debility, dyspepsia, rheumatism, &c.

The proprietor having spent a large amount in additional buildings and improvements generally, these Springs are now in a fine condition, rooms large and pleasant, and good cottages containing from two to six rooms each, well arranged for either large or small families.

Good TEN PIN ALLEYS, BILLIARD TABLES and other amusements.

FINE BATH HOUSES, for Pool, Plunge or Shower Bath, Sulphur Bath, Hot or Cold.

A GOOD BAND OF MUSIC

Will be at the Springs the entire season, and a good Physician permanently located for the benefit of invalids, who will have every attention.

Having secured the services of Mr. J. N. Caples, of Virginia, who has had much experience and stands high as a Hotel keeper, visitors may rest assured that my table will be supplied with the best the market can afford, and everything done that will add to their pleasure and comfort.

The cars on the Western North Carolina Rail Road will leave Salisbury for Hickory Station, the Springs' depot, every morning, (Sundays excepted,) in connection with the North Carolina Railroad, avoiding stoppage or delay at Salisbury, and arrive at Hickory Station in time for breakfast, where good hacks will be in readiness to take passengers over a beautiful, well-shaded road to the Springs—a distance of six miles.

As an inducement for families and parties to spend two months or more, I have concluded to put board down as the following low rates:

For one single month,	$50 00
For two or more months, $40 per month, or at that rate.

ROBERT SOUTTER

OF GRANVILLE COUNTY, realizing the importance of spreading the growth of Wheat in this County; and the farmers, knowing so well the absolute necessity of supplying themselves at an early period with "Seed Wheat" of the finest quality, ready to plant in the Fall, the undersigned takes this early method of inviting applications from farmers, for what they may require to plant next Fall, of the very "finest Seed Wheat" which he expects to deliver at moderate prices, from the crop growing now at his "Oakland Farm" near Townsville, in this County.

This Wheat was planted last Fall, with Guano, of seed selected in Baltimore with great care by my predecessor, Mr. Chas. H. R. Taylor, who paid $3,25 for it there. It has had the advantage of a heavy top-dressing in Spring of Chicago bone Fertiliser, and is now very promising.

Like the good Sorghum Seed which I have offered to the farmers of Granville, I hope the orders for my "Seed Wheat" may be equally attractive, to absorb all that I can expect to spare of it.

Address me at Kittrell's Springs, or Mr. Thos. W. Taylor, at Oakland Farm.
