From the National Intelligencer.

THE DESPERATE STRAITS OF THE RADICAL PARTY—ITS ANXIETY FOR SELF-PRESERVATION.

No party in any free country under heaven ever committed so many crimes against liberty, law and civilization as the dominant party have committed for the last eight years, even while they presumed to be the very apostles of liberty, and the truest and most spotless champions of human freedom. Enslaving where they claimed to emancipate, destroying where they claimed to build up, undermining where they claimed to be strengthening and making broader the foundations of civil liberty, rebellious where they claimed to be patriotic, fiendish almost where they claimed to be saints, they have been, beyond all that could have been prophesied, beyond all that could have been believed, a curse to this country, and an ensample of peculiar and warning lawlessness, treachery, hypocrisy and crime to every other. True to nothing good; considerate to nothing established; heedful to nothing wise; faithful to nothing promised; false to the peace of the country; false to the unity of the country; false to the institutions of the country; false to the black race and to the white race; false to the great body of the people, with all their manifold and mighty interests, and false to the form of Government under which we live; corrupt through and through, even by their own confessions, to very rottenness; debauched beyond all precedent or example; revolutionary from first to last in all their important aims and acts, instead of deserving party salvation, for which they are striving, as is manifest in their reaching out for new issues which will keep them together, they have richly merited common execration and the gibbet.

No one can with candor and the best use of his reason survey the course of the party from the beginning to the present time, whose memory has run along pari passu with the acts of the party, can fail to arrive at this conclusion. They would seem to have started out with the idea that the American Union was one grand battle ground for them alone; one grand plain on which they, like bandits, could build up their fortunes; one boundless fertile field, from which they were created to gather spoils, and which should be to them a rendezvous and a stamping ground. On this they have shouted, reveled, reeled, drank blood, and waylaid at will. On this, as do savages in their roaring wilds, have they planned, muffled in hypocrisy, campaign after campaign against the American people, their lives and liberties, and insidiously put forth edict after edict against their institutions and the integrity of their Union. On this tyrants of every sort, little and great, formidable and contemptible, have been created, and tyrannies of every sort, of little and of great measure, perpetrated. From this have been sent forth the poisonous distillments that have from time to time worked the public mind well-nigh to madness, and by the inoculated distemper fitted the people of one-half the country for cutting the throats of the people of the other half. From this, forgetting or despising the high teachings of inspiration whose Divine authority no Christian creature question, have they sought to raise the head of every man against his brother; to create or perpetuate enmity among fellow-countrymen; to imbue them with the hot and merciless spirit of the roaming outlaw, rather than with the spirit of men born and nurtured in the lap of peace, to whom the atmosphere of peace is their native air, who have been taught to curb, not to cultivate, their stormy passions, and to whom sobriety of thought and temperate mindedness is an inheritance. From this have they planned, and step by step, and year by year, calling all passions, prejudices, revenges, criminations, and bitter memories to their aid, been carrying out the overthrow of the American Republic, in order to the establishment of an empire in its ashes, as seen in the existence of public journals, founded under their auspices and supported by their means, openly advocating such a change in the form of government.—All this and much more have they done, and taught and inflicted; and in this course they have come at last to see, or at least to fear, that the veil which they have worn is being penetrated and the mask torn away by the American people, and they feel the necessity for new devices, new tactics, a new cloak behind which they may, unsuspected, pursue, to their accomplishment the plans which they have laid out, trusting now as heretofore to the favoring credulity of the country. * * * * *

FAST LIFE IN FRANCE.

PARIS, May 18, 1869.

I once used to smile as I passed Baron de Rothschild's door and observed the gaslamps were nullified on bright nights when the moon was full. I then thought economy unworthy the master of so great an estate. I know now there is no way by which noble fortunes are kept unimpaired except by economy. I know how many's engagements keep pace with the accumulation of wealth; how embarrassed for money very rich men frequently are; and how severe is the struggle to maintain an equilibrium between revenue and expense. The walls of Paris are at this moment covered with bills announcing the sale of the picture gallery belonging to Count Koucheleff Besboroko.—It is said to be the last remnant left—and it belongs to creditors—of the magnificent estate of which he entered into possession just nine years ago. It then was valued at $11,250,000 in gold. He traveled through the East, Southern and Western Europe in great state. There was no whim he refused to gratify. He chartered a steamship to convey him from one port to another. He had special railway trains for his party. He gave princely entertainments. He was lavish of presents. He had a numerous retinue. It was his sister who married Mr. Douglas Home, the medium. It was he who carried M. Alex. Dumas to Russia. Nine years ago he was master of $600,000 annual income. It was not enough for him. He could not live on less than $1,-200,000 year—his expenses several years are said to have exceeded this amount of money—and now nothing remains of all that wealth but debt.

Another wasteful creature, whose wealth has for years dazzled Paris, came to grief this week. It proved, however, a rehearsal of the final catastrophe which surely awaits her. Acquaintances clubbed and discharged the debt of $4,000 for which execution had been served, and so Cora Pearl was put on her feet again. It seems her diamonds, pearls, horses, carriages have all melted away in the great crucible—debt. Age is rapidly advancing on her, and fever-ed life ante dates years.

One of our last young men disappeared like a flock of cotton fired by a taper.—Woman may stand—men cannot stand the fierce fever of life in Paris. The master of Cafe Anglais, the fashionable dining and supper room of fast people, has said he rarely sees the same men around his supper tables for more than two years. Ten majority of them die, some commit suicide, the rest are ruined. He sees the same women for twenty years. Ten generations of men to one generation of women. Which do you call the weaker sex?

Largest amount of Losses to Widows and Orphans!

The Largest Revenue to the States. And has by far the largest number when compared with 58 Companies reported officially by the Commissioners of New York and Massachusetts it will be seen that the Ætna ranks as one of the first Companies of the Continent. But two of the fifty-eight Companies permitted to do business in New York and Massachusetts had so large an income for the year 1868; but two had so large a number of Policies in force, but one among all those incorporated under the laws of the State of New York had so small a per centage of Expense to Income during the year 1868.

Its expenses are lower than most Companies', and consequently its ability to make and pay liberal dividends to the insured is greater than that of most other Companies. It is one of the great Companies of the land in Income, in Assets, in Number of Policies, in Amount Insured, in Solidity and Strength, in Soundness, Cheapness, Promptness, and Success. Persons contemplating this mode of investment in the future as in the past would do well to examine the claims of all and take a policy accordingly.

SPARKLING CATAWBA SPRINGS,

CATAWBA COUNTY, N. C.

THIS CELEBRATED WATERING PLACE, formerly called the North Carolina White Sulphur Springs, will be open for visitors on Tuesday, the first day of June next.

Being situated in the north-western part of the State, in a country remarkable for its beauty and healthfulness—these, together with the virtue of the waters, make it one of the most desirable watering places to be found.

The MINERAL WATERS of these Springs are the White and Blue Sulphur and Chalybeate or Iron, and they possess all the finest qualities of these waters, and are sovereign remedies for all diseases of the liver, bowels, stomach and kidneys, eruptions of the skin, scrofula, weakness, debility dyspepsia, rheumatism, &c.

The proprietor having spent a large amount in additional buildings and improvements generally, these Springs are now in a fine condition, rooms large and pleasant, and good cottages containing from two to six rooms each, well arranged for either large or small families.

Good TEN PIN ALLEYs, BILLIARD TABLES and other entertainments.

FINE BATH HOUSES, for Pool, Plunge or Shower Bath, Sulphur Bath, Hot or Cold.

A GOOD BAND OF MUSIC

Will be at the Springs the entire season, and a good Physician permanently located for the benefit of invalids, who will have every attention.

Having secured the services of Mr. J. N. Caress, of Virginia, who has had much experience and stands high as a Hotel keeper, visitors may rest assured that my table will be supplied with the best the market can afford, and everything done that will add to their pleasure and comfort.

The cars on the Western North Carolina Rail Road will leave Salisbury for Hickory Station, the Springs' depot, every morning, (Sundays excepted,) in connection with the North Carolina Railroad, avoiding stoppage or delay at Salisbury, and arrive at Hickory Station in time for breakfast, where good hacks will be in readiness to take passengers over a beautiful, well-shaded road to the Springs—a distance of six miles.

As an inducement for families and parties to spend two months or more, I have concluded to put board down at the following low rates:

For two or more months, $40 per month, or at that rate.

JAS. H. ENNIS, Agent.
June 7th, 2w.

ROBERT SOUTTER OF GRANVILLE COUNTY, realizing the importance of spreading the growth of Wheat in this County; and the farmers knowing as well the absolute necessity of supplying themselves at an early period with Seed Wheat of the finest quality, ready to plant in the Fall, the undersigned takes this early method of inviting applications from farmers, for what they may require to plant next Fall, of the very "Select Seed Wheat" which he expects to deliver at moderate prices, from the crop growing now at his "Oakland" farm, near Townsville, in this County.

This Wheat was planted last Fall, with Guano, of seed selected in Baltimore with great care by my predecessor, Mr. Chas. M. Taylor, who paid $2,25 for it there. I have had the advantage of a heavy top-dressing in Spring of Chicago bone Fertilizer, and is now very promising.

Like the good Scripture Seed which I have offered to the farmers of Granville, I hope the orders for my "Seed Wheat," may be equally attractive, to absorb all that I can expect to spare of it.

Address me at Kittrell's springs, or Mr. Thos. W. Taylor, at Oakland Farm.

ÆTNA

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

JANUARY 1ST., 1869.

Assets $10,462,531,75.

Amount of Income 6,227,071.

SURPLUS OVER LIABILITIES 2,675,999,18.

THE Ætna is the LEADING LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY in North Carolina.

Largest amount of Losses to Widows and Orphans!

The Largest Revenue to the States. And has by far the largest number when compared with 58 Companies reported officially by the Commissioners of New York and Massachusetts it will be seen that the Ætna ranks as one of the first Companies of the Continent. But two of the fifty-eight Companies permitted to do business in New York and Massachusetts had so large an income for the year 1868; but two had so large a number of Policies in force, but one among all those incorporated under the laws of the State of New York had so small a per centage of Expense to Income during the year 1868.

Its expenses are lower than most Companies', and consequently its ability to make and pay liberal dividends to the insured is greater than that of most other Companies. It is one of the great Companies of the land in Income, in Assets, in Number of Policies, in Amount Insured, in Solidity and Strength, in Soundness, Cheapness, Promptness, and Success. Persons contemplating this mode of investment in the future as in the past would do well to examine the claims of all and take a policy accordingly.
